

INAUGURATES TENTH PRESIDENT

HOMECOMING DANCE WILL CLIMAX ALL FESTIVITIES

Frosh To Take Charge Of Decoration of Gymnasium For Return Of Alumni

The annual Homecoming Dance will be held in the College Gymnasium, Saturday night, October 20. Dale Miller and his ten piece orchestra of Bloomington will entertain the alumni and students with his individual brand of pleasing music. Thomas Kelly, President of the College Club, predicts that this will be one of the greatest dances in the history of the school. Every effort is being made to make this occasion a fitting climax for the two great days which are to precede it.

The campus is stirring with plans. The Freshmen, who have the honor of decorating the gym, are busily engaged in arranging what they believe will be something original and unique in decorations. Just what these plans are we are not at liberty to divulge, but we assure you that they will give a pleasing effect as a background for this outstanding event of the early social season.

The price for dance programs has been set at $1.25, and tickets are being sold by students and friends of the college. This is a price that will enable everyone to take part in the affair. The advance sale of tickets leads us to believe that this is the one dance which you cannot afford to miss.

The alumni have already assured us of their co-operation towards making this Homecoming an unusual one, and we feel that it behoves us to ask likewise for the sincere co-operation of our student body. The alumni are critical persons who believe that the school has never been quite the same since they left her walls. Let us work together and prove to them that it is today a bigger and better St. Viator than ever before.

FROSH FLAG RUSH IS PROHIBITED

It was with deep feeling of regret that the students heard the announcement of the Rev. Joseph Ryan, Dean of Men, that the ancient and venerable custom of the Freshman Flag Rush could, under no conditions, be held this year. One Senior was heard to lament, after the fact had been made public, that "St. Viator with no Flag Rush would be like a movie with no Mickey Mouse".

There has been nothing which added more to the friendly spirit of class rivalry and good fellowship on the campus than this annual event. The Freshmen, rising on some cold, grey dawn, have annually gone out into the nipping, frosty air and placed their Banner of Honor upon the flag pole. In chastisement for their sins and negligences the Upper Classmen have always let the early morning chill penetrate the scanty clothing of the shivering students. At their own leisure, the aggressors have vacated

FROSH TO PARADE IN PAJAMAS

The freshman class, under the very adequate supervision of the SOPHOMORES, have completed plans for a big pep rally to be held this Thursday evening. The frosh, while somewhat green and inexperienced and decidedly in dire need of their more mature monitors, have entered into their work with an energy worthy of commendation. They have arranged for the biggest pep demonstration to have been held at Viator for many years.

During the early part of the evening they will storm the streets of the nearby metropolis, clad in the most gaudy creations of the latest styles in pajamas. They are expected to entertain the good people of Kankakee with song, dance and cheers, talent for which, we learn, they are more than well supplied.

After assuring the city of their sincere enthusiasm for the school

FOOTBALL CLINIC

The Rotary and Kiwanis Clubs of Kankakee have secured the services of Coach Murphy to conduct a football clinic.

Murphy will hold classes once a week and begin his series of instructions October 16. Rotarians, and Kiwanians and the general public are invited to attend these weekly clinics.

Coach Murphy has indicated that the first guest speaker for the initial program will probably be Marchmen Schwartz or Bert Metzger, both close friends of the Coach and star athletes of Notre Dame University.

CO-EDS HOLD SEASON'S FIRST SOCIAL EVENT

The Misses Mary Cruise and Claire Legris, Hostesses

The St. Viator co-eds entertained at the first of this year's Saturday Night Parties last Saturday in the College dining hall. The affair marked the opening of the season's social functions, and served the double purpose of acquainting the students with each other, as well as with many of the charming young ladies of Kankakee, who were the guests of the Sorority.

Informality was the vogue of the evening, and the hostesses, Misses Mary Cruise, President of the Sorority, and Claire Legris, Chairman of the Social Committee, were delightful.

Tables of bridge were formed at 8:00. After many a raised eyebrow from one partner to the other, innumerable exchanging of kicks under the table, and secret loathings of partners for bidding over or under the maximum, the prizes were awarded, and dainty refreshments served.

The remainder of the evening was spent in dancing to the inimitable music of Wayne King, Jan Garber and the other maestros of the air lanes.

Mr. Tom Kelly, President of the College Club, had previously suggested that those gentlemen who were unacquainted with the fair sex in this vicinity might find among the guests of the evening companions to accompany them to the Homecoming Dance. While many of the students are somewhat reticent to speak on so delicate a subject to your reporter, yet evidence seems to point to the fact that Mr. Kelly's advice was followed in more than one instance.

These Saturday Night Parties are warmly welcomed by the students of Roy Hall. The tedium of Saturday nights has long been a problem to them, and it is believed that the co-eds have found a solution.

Miss Cruise Heads Viator Social Unit

At the October meeting of the Social Sorority, held at the home of Miss Claire Legris, Miss Mary Cruise was elected President to replace Miss Margaret Clancy who was obliged to discontinue at St. Viator because of illness. Miss Claire Legris was elected to the office of Secretary, which was vacated by the election of Miss Cruise.

The Sorority presented a set of table linen to Miss Yvonne Lambert whose wedding to Mr. Joseph McGovern, '30 took place October 13.

Viator Loyalty Song

Ye Fighting Men of Viator,
With banners of gold and purple hue;
Strive, strive with might and main,
Loyal hearts beat for you.
Rah! Rah! Rah!
Bold defiant conquerors,
Fight, fight, fight for victory;
The cheers ring out one mighty shout,
For Viator Varsity.

GOVERNOR HENRY HORNER TO RECEIVE DEGREE DOCTOR OF LAWS

Bishop Sheil Presides At Ceremony; Kankakee High School Band Furnishes Music

RECEIVES DEGREE

GOVERNOR HENRY HORNER

With elaborate ceremonies, the Very Reverend E. V. Cardinal, C. S. V., Ph. D., will be inaugurated as the tenth President of St. Viator College on Friday, October 19, at 3:30 o'clock.

The Honorable Henry Horner, Governor of Illinois, will receive the honorary degree of Doctor of Laws, and will give the principal address of the occasion. The Most Reverend Bernard J. Sheil, D. D., Senior Auxiliary Bishop of Chicago, and an alumnus of St. Viator, will preside.

Delegates from all the principal universities and colleges in the Middle West are expected to be present at the Inauguration Banquet and to participate in the academic procession, which will form at Marsile Hall and march to the gymnasium. After the invocation, the Rev. J. W. R. Maguire, C. S. V., who is in charge of arrangements, will introduce Governor Horner. When the Governor has received the degree of Doctor of Laws, honoris causa, and has delivered the speech of the afternoon, the newly inaugurated President will make an address, outlining his program for the year. The ceremonies will close with benediction given by the Most Reverend Bernard J. Sheil.

The musical portions of the program will be furnished by the band of the Kankakee High School, under the direction of Mr. G. E. Piersol.

I. R. C. TO MEET ON OCTOBER 24

When the International Relations Club meets on Wednesday, October 24, it will begin its fourth year at St. Viator College. The Club was founded by Dr. John T. Ellis, Ph. D., now at the Suepician Seminary, Washington, D. C. In the past it has been an organization which created much interest on the campus, and the elaborate program now being drawn up indicates that this year's sessions will be more interesting than ever before.

The I. R. Clubs are groups of students organized under the auspices of the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace, in universities, colleges and normal schools for the study and discussion of International Relations.

The purpose of the Endowment in undertaking this work is to educate and enlighten public opinion. It is not to support any single view as to how to best treat the conditions which now prevail throughout the world, but to fix the attention of students on those principles of international conduct, of international law, and of international organization which must be agreed upon and applied if peaceful civilization is to continue.

It has been announced that at the initial meeting this year, Professor Jerome J. Jacobson, S. J., Ph. D., of Loyola University will address the I. R. C. in the College Club room. His subject will be, "Mexico".

DEBATERS ELECT NEW OFFICERS

Mr. Edward Buttgen, '37, was elected President and Miss Mary Cruise, '35, Secretary at the first meeting of the Bergrin Debating Society last Tuesday afternoon. The official announcement of the appointment of Mr. Norbert Ellis, '36, as debate manager was made at the same time, and the probable Illinois Inter-Collegiate Debate League question was read. It is: Resolved: "That all collective bargaining be negotiated through non-company union, safeguarded by law."

In accordance with the precedent set by the Reverend J. W. R. Maguire, the Reverend John W. Stafford, debate coach, denied that there were to be any definite "first string" teams. He believes in allowing every member of the Society to have an opportunity of debating during the season. As a result the organiza-

ALUMNUS ON RADIO

The silver toned voice of John Ryan, Bloomington boy and a graduate of St. Viator in the Class of 1925, may now be heard regularly each Saturday afternoon over KYW, commencing at 1:45 p. m. He will broadcast next Saturday the Chicago-Indiana game. The other contests this alumnus is scheduled to handle this fall are the Ohio-Northwestern, the Wisconsin-Northwestern, the Illinois-Northwestern, the Notre Dame-Northwestern, and the Illinois-Chicago games.

Editorial Comments

THE PURPOSE OF THE VIATORIAN IS TO PRINT NEWS OF THE COLLEGE, an impartial coverage of all the activities of the campus. We naturally wish to succeed in this endeavor. Therefore, we are asking that if you have any criticisms, to co-operate with us in making our paper better by delivering the said criticisms in person or through the medium of the critique column. Viator is your school, the VIATORIAN is your paper, and should be the voice of the entire student body, not just the work of the staff. If you have an urge to write a feature story, an editorial or even short news items, why should you hesitate? The paper is open to all articles, subject of course to the approval of the moderator, and you, as truly representative students, should make use of this privilege.

AND, WE ARE ASKED, WHAT HAPPENED TO YOUR ROCK GARDEN, that was to be the pride of the campus, the beauty spot of Bourbonnais, the haven of tired students and the delight of the professors? Take heart, all who have asked this question, do not give up. Plans are even now being formulated to carry through the project according to the original blueprints, with variations added by interested parties. Flowers of every description may yet raise their multi-colored heads to aid in turning one of the eye-sores of the campus into a pride and joy. Why not, why not and why not?

YOU HAVE ALL HEARD at various times the expression, "A small college is a true representative of education," and now comes another fact to add to the long list of proof. The Lafayette College faculty, after careful deliberation and due consideration, has come to the conclusion that the graduate of the smaller college has a better chance of making "Who's Who" than he who comes from a university. I do not know whether it is important to make the "Who's Who," but it is certain that if your report card from life shows "A plus" in service, you have succeeded. Your college offers you an opportunity for development toward a well-rounded life of effective service, enriched by a proper appreciation of the delights of life's leisure hours. That, after all, is the main end of education.

WE ARE WELL PLEASED WITH THE SPIRIT OF THE FROSH CLASS which has been exhibited in the activities of the school thus far. We sincerely hope that this spirit will not suffer a relapse, but will grow throughout the school year. The Frosh who complained of their Rhetoric proficiency being long and complicated should read the item in the American Campus which state: "The comprehensive examination required of sophomores at Haverford University contains 2,725 questions and takes on an average of 12 hours to complete."

WE SEE BY THE DE PAULIA that DePaul will be hosts to the members of the National College Press Association at the eighth annual convention, October 11, 12 and 13. These yearly meeting have proved to be successful inasmuch as they act as adequate mediums through which many helpful hints are given to the student editors by prominent authorities on college newspaper work. This is a great organization and certainly should have the co-operation of every school.

Critique—

TO THE EDITORS:

In refutation of Mr. Stockbar's letter in the last issue, let me say that I am in union with a majority of the men in the College when I write that I am strongly in favor of the Campus Briefs. I believe that they fill a definite place in the college paper, and as an almost-vital part of the VIATORIAN should be increased in size. By carrying news that is too unimportant to be published in the regular columns they fill the true purpose of a newspaper.

Because the VIATORIAN has a circulation almost entirely among collegians, alumni and those people who know something of college life, the Campus Briefs do not lead to the formation of incorrect conceptions, but rather to an increased understanding of today's college conditions. The Briefs likewise show the real collegiate spirit and provide a great deal of innocent entertainment.

I hope you will think twice before confining the one real campus-news column in the paper to the "waste paper basket", which Mr. Stockbar so strongly recommends.

—Pat Hayes, '38.

TO THE EDITORS:

Upon completing a fairly indicative survey of the more intelligent members of the upper classmen it occurred to me that someone should set before the eyes of unknowing Fresh, and new readers of the VIATORIAN, the true spirit in which the Campus Briefs are written and received. To merely contradict Mr. Stockbar's vitriolic attack of last issue would be similar to telling Voliva that the world is round—a waste of words. So it is to these others that I address myself.

A spirit of humor predominates the temperament of any normal collegian. This humor often finds expression in practical jokes but more often in what is popularly termed "the razz". It is to this that the Briefs give voice—not to the slandering of any student nor the persecution of a particular person. In such a spirit of fun are the Briefs written and in such a spirit, taken. Despite the fact that we attempt to make much of so-called "Scandal" yet the "panning" is laughed over and quickly forgotten.

Not that I would defend the Briefs in the form in which they appeared last issue. On the contrary, copyrighted jokes and stock puns belong in some humor column not in one of supposedly original work. The Campus Briefs upon a change in editorial policy may once more possess the life and wit once given them by the foremost of campus writers. So, gentlemen, let us pray—for better Briefs and for the genuine expression of college feeling toward them.

Month Of The Rosary

We are given many reminders during October that this is the month of the Holy Rosary. The Church asks us to renew our devotion to the Mother of God by means of the rosary, and at the same time to meditate upon the Life of her Divine Son.

The rosary prayers are uniquely adapted to this fruitful meditation. They serve to withdraw the mind from worldly pursuits and direct it steadfastly toward the contemplation of the true meaning of life.

The rosary responds to a human need, and because the devotion is simple its appeal is universal. The faithful in all lands, both learned and

FATHER STAFFORD GIVES LECTURES

Explains The Liturgy Of Holy Mass

The Rev. John W. Stafford delivered, on Sunday, September 23, the first of an interesting series of lectures, the purpose of which is to explain the liturgy of the Mass. Each Sunday in place of the regular sermon, a ten minute talk will be given, explaining some phase of the ceremonies of the church.

The first lecture dealt with the vestments worn by the priest in the celebration of the Holy Mass. Father Stafford gave the name of each article, and its former Roman name. He also explained its history, its former use, and its present purpose. Many of his listeners were surprised to learn that all but one of the seemingly superfluous vestments formerly served a very real and practical purpose. For instance, the maniple, which the priest wears over his fore-arm, was to the Romans a handkerchief, and was kept in the sleeve.

The necessity of a sermon on the Blessed Virgin Mary interrupted the series on September 30, but another lecture was given on October 7, when Father Stafford explained the signification of the various parts of the Mass. As the Mass proceeded, Father Stafford pointed out the important parts, explained their origin and significance, and translated some of the more important prayers.

It is planned that eight of these talks are to be given, each of which will clarify some phase of the practice of the religion. Those given so far have met with the hearty approval of all students who realize the importance of knowing the reason for certain of the religious practices which are inexplicable to the uninitiated.

REV. W. J. BERGIN BEGINS SERIES IN THE NEW WORLD

In last Friday's New World appears the first installment of a series by the Rev. William J. Bergin, C. S. V., former president of St. Viator College and at present an associate at the Newman Foundation of the University of Illinois.

Father Bergin is a forceful speaker and a powerful writer. His series will deal with Modern Philosophy as seen by a Catholic professor. Father Bergin has a reputation for writing and speaking in an interesting and engaging manner on philosophy and has done much to popularize scholastic philosophy and kindred subjects. Father Bergin has the faculty of dressing his thoughts in clear and simple language so that all may understand and enjoy them and his joining. The New World staff of feature writers will be hailed with delight by thousands.

The New World will be pleased to hear from its readers of the Father Bergin series which begins in Friday's New World on page 6.

unlearned, saint and sinner, have found in this devotion a potent aid in the achievement of a more abundant life and in the pursuit of salvation.

The rosary gives relief from the cares and distractions with which life on this earth is filled. It gives solace to the mind often anxious and fearful concerning the everyday affairs of life. And for that reason it is to be especially recommended at this time of extraordinary stress and trial.

At Dartmouth, we were told, last spring at the town of Hanover, where Dartmouth is located, the town required all eligible Dartmouth students to vote in order that it might collect a poll tax from them. In retaliation the students attended a town meeting, where they introduced and passed two bills, proposing the building of a wall around the town, eight miles high, and the construction of a city hall one foot wide and a mile high. Hanoverians had to take the affair to Washington to get out of building the two structures.

Students at Missouri University may now take out insurance against flunking. If a student flunks, the company gives him enough to pay his way through the summer session. At Ohio State it is reported that between $75,000 and $100,000 has been spent for similar insurance.

The latest report about the absent-minded professor is that he shaved his pet cat and kicked himself in the face.

This story likewise comes from Missouri. It seems as though a co-ed there was taking Latin. One class hour the professor asked her What XXX stood for. She promptly replied, "Love and Kisses".

SUICIDE, SUICIDE, SUICIDE

Midnight oil, bath-tub gin, flied cigarettes, weeping, gnashing of teeth, circled eyes, mastigated finger nails, paregoic despair, profanity, mix well and indiscreetly, print, and you have a column which the editor accepts because one of the advertising contracts has been nullified.

A romantic Princeton freshman met a girl at a prom last spring, became so inspired by her beauty that he decided to write a poem for her . . . Upon completion of his love lyric, he awoke to the horrible fact that he had failed to get his beloved's name . . . In a rash moment he addressed his poem to "The Most Wonderful Girl in South Orange N. J." A few days latter the letter was returned unopened. The envelope was marked "To the Dumbest Boy at Princeton % Lost and Found Department."

Debating is like apple pie; a lot of apple sauce covered up with crust.

The body lies stark and cold on the white porcelain. Its color was a mottled grey with splurges and spots of green. A disgusting sight, it reposed awkwardly on the table. The corpse exuded a damp and discouraging odor. It was a hamburger, and we paid for it.

In an English class at Cornell, the professor revealed that an essay had been submitted which was copied directly from a text. He added that if the students guilty of the playgraphism would meet him after class, no name would be mentioned. When the period had ended he found five exceedingly nervous chaps waiting to see him.

Helpful hints . . . No one can say that the students at the University of California are not full of brotherly love and cooperation. For the benefit of those who like to expend the minimum of effort a Daily Trojan columnist kindly listed the "Pipe" courses. The best bet, it seems, is a course in tea room management in the College of Commerce and Business Administration.

A group of men students at the University of Washington who just returned from a course of study at the University of Edinburgh state that "the girls not only have to pay their own carfare when you take them home from a dance, but they always pay for their own tickets when you take them to a theatre". Gentle hint?

A hint for success. William Langer, abdicated governor of North Dakota, was voted by his classmates as the "biggest politician and noisiest student" when he was graduated from Columbia university in 1910. However he was also valedictorian of his class, named most popular man and the most likely to succeed.—The Portfolio.

CAMPUS BRIEFS

Time was when all looked forward to reading the Briefs . . . Yea . . . and enjoying them . . . Those were the days when our glorious and illustrious predecessors — "Herbie" Hoover, "Jim" Dugan, and "Jack" Cronin wrote this column. Readers realized that the Campus Briefs were only a form of college humor and they were therefore not given to forming erroneous conceptions of collegiate life here at Viator . . . All that has changed, however, and it is with sad and dejected thoughts that your present Briefer sits here typing his copy . . . For 'tis rumored that unless our readers express a desire that this column continue to be a feature of the VIATORIAN, John Stockbar may realize his dreams and find it in the waste paper basket . . . Ah, I dread that day—for then the VIATORIAN shall really be nothing more than a glorified sheet of advertising.

It has been said that the life of a Briefer is a weary and perilous one . . . that every two weeks he must lead forth the nasty and scurriously specter of scandal for the delight of greedy hordes of readers . . . and yet if one is not mentioned in this column than ye Editor receives such complaints as Stockbar's . . . It would lead us to believe that he has been up to something naughty and is, either afraid that we shall discover it,—or he really wants to be mentioned in our column. If it is the latter, we have accommodated him—if the former, I'm sorry to say that he has covered his tracks too well.

To me you are still an UPSTANDING young man, "Slew", even though I am slandered and reviled by you (and by others) because I write this column . . . To me there comes the thought that these Briefs, which you would put in the waste basket, do no doubt bring to troubled hearts happiness . . . Can't you imagine the joy, Jean, receives when she learns that the ONE AND ONLY has remained true. It's a fact, not a date has he had since he returned to the campus from the wilds of the forest primeval! . . . Then too, many will be grateful to the Briefer, if I suggest to the occupants of Room 212, that they buy cigarettes once in a while. Of course, I'm not insinuating anything, but . . . they should follow the example of "Snipes" Fleming and reform.

Hear Ye! Hear Ye! Ye lowly Freshmen of the college! Many and various shall be thy punishments if thou dost not pay heed and read the rules and regulations that have been placed upon ye bulletin boards for thy guidance . . . Mend thy ways or once more Kangaroo Court and Judge Roche wilt visit ye sinners! . . . Barrett, Madigan, and Kerrins, ye above all the lowly and insignificant Freshmen have offended greatest . . . Repent and mend thy ways ere it is too late!

To the higher strata of society must Ye Briefer wend his weary way . . . Ah! . . . The Sorority has held a meeting . . . Such charming hostess . . . such going-ons were never done before as were done that night . . . the games we girls did play! . . . And to top the evening off, we went Cruise—ing through Kankakee in a Budweiser truck . . . How could you be so mean, Hazel? Onward to the grid-iron, Snoops, my boy! . . . "Can'teholdaguy? . . . Where? Oh, where? did you play football? . . . And to think that your type shall replace our old veterans . . . Break his leg "Sparks old boy" . . . Look out, Creampudd, or the Big Bad Mans will pop you one . . . There are lures and Leuhers by which one can ensnare a gullible VIATOR man . . . but a certain letterman of the grid-iron it seems has been caught in the Leuhers of Egg frying.

Homecoming is drawing nigh! . . . Hide everything? Here comes Spreitzer, Degnan, Meany and Dugan . . . Can't we of Roy Hall ever lose them . . . I'll bet Degnan will stay over night, too! . . . Of course he is going to take "Gen" Adams to the dance . . . Wonder if Spreitzer has beaten Fleming's time with Lou Turk? Tranh the heavens they'll have some money now . . . Wonder if Degnan is good for a touch . . . and if so for how much?

Summering in Havana, Cuba and even spending a night in jail as a vagrant, hasn't cost a certain Sophomore the fair one high regard for we learn from his room-mate that she still calls him her "itty bitty mousey wousey" . . . Margie Senesac and Evelyn Lanoue have teamed and woe betide the ones upon whom they cast their eyes. Beware, Bill McDonald, Margie always gets her man . . . Ask Buttgen, he knows . . . Numbered among the new co-eds are—Mary Mitchell, Betty Troup, Edna Keliher, and Temple Rocca . . . By the way girls, who is president of the Sorority, Mary Cruise or Thomas Kelly? . . . "She's way out there", sings Joe Bargantny, and he really means it. She lives at least three miles from the edge of town . . . Upper classmen of Roy Hall shall all attend the Homecoming Dance "well dressed" this year . . . No,—George Fleming nor "Best" Sellers aren't lending their wardrobes. Haven't you noticed that the Freshmen own all the spiffy clothing? Nicholson's are mine. I'm serving notice right now.

Is it a budding Campus romance? Eddie Gerrity and Betty Troup? . . . They've been seen together in many a public place . . . Even out at the Avon dancing to the soothing melodies of Earl Burnett . . . but then so were many others including Dick and Viv; Hank Wulfe, Bob Mackin, Don LaRocque, and certain of Roy Hall residents who were out of there cells after 11:30 . . . Thirty-five demerits in one evening sure were an awful lot to get, weren't they, Madigan and Kerrins?

Did anyone notice a popular young lady of the Viator Campus chasing her hat down Court street not so long ago? One would have thought she were being initiated into the Sorority only there were no paddles being used to aid her along . . . "Wait, dear, Mother will accompany you . . . If I don't the co-eds might steal you".

Mine has been a difficult task trying to follow in the path of those inimitable witticists, satirists, punster, or what have you . . . in other words . . . Hoover, Dugan, and Cronin . . . But someone must carry on the column, and so I have done my best (did I hear you say "worst" Stockbar?). Seeing as Ye Briefer of the last issue used a pen name, I shall do likewise . . . Ladies and Gentlemen! May I present to you the offerings of the VIATORIAN'S latest Briefer—Lorenz Duginer? If you would like to have him write again, or otherwise—let Ye Editors know.

(Ye, who know my identity, beware not to divulge it for I shall return anon (I hope) and woe betide the Judas who betrays me . . . Lorenz).

Viatorian Celebrates His Golden Jubilee

On October 21, the feast of St. Viator, the Rev. Brother Edward J. McEachen, C. S. V., will celebrate the Golden Jubilee of his entrance into the Viatorian Order. His Excellency, Most Rev. William D. O'Brien, D. D., as a tribute to his old teacher, will pontificate at 11:15 A. M., Sunday, October 21, at St. Viator Church, Chicago. The Rev. P. C. Conway, LL. D., a life long friend, will preach the Jubilee sermon. Many priests, pupils of the venerable Brother, will assist in the Sanctuary.

On May 5, 1853, Brother McEachen was born in a log cabin in the midst of the "forest primeval" of what was then upper Canada. As a young man he went west and while seeking his fortune in Oregon, heard the call to follow the Master. For several years, as a lay catechist, he assisted the pastor of Baker City, Father Derow, as St. Viator assisted in the 4th century Bishop Just in the Cathedral of Lyons, by gathering the little ones of the scattered flock around him and initiating them into the Mysteries of the Kingdom of Heaven.

Upon the arrival of the Clerics of St. Viator to take charge of the first Catholic School in Oregon in 1883, he found the opportunity he craved and that year he entered the Novitiate of the Community. He was transferred to St. Viator College in 1885, and the next year he was assigned to teach at the old Holy Name School, Chicago. There for nearly a quarter of a century he endeared himself to hundreds of Chicago boys. In the near northwest side Brother "Mack", as he was familiarly known, was a great influence in the Catholic Youth movement of his day, the parochial school.

In 1904 Brother McEachen returned to St. Viator College, and after the fire of 1906, was given the task of beautifying the grounds. The charming campus of St. Viator today is to a great extent Brother McEachen's gift to future generations of collegians. The students

Day Hopping—

Oh me . . . Another day, another dollar, another issue (of the Viatorian, another holler. But we don't let a little thing like that bother us, we just keep right on pluggin'. However, one word of warning before we begin—Behave yourselves children, and remember, "A word to the wise is sufficient". But don't attempt to thank us for the compliment, you may be sorry later.

Well, under ordinary circumstances we would award orchids, but because of the prevailing economic conditions we find it necessary to present merely a vote of thanks to the person or persons responsible for the elimination of the starvation period, (11:40 to 12:30) . . . We would suggest that the Barking Mentor of the St. Viator Gridiron send an advance man ahead to an-loved this kind, genial, constant friend of youth. He was always so wholesome that no one noticed him growing old. The past ten years found him active, devoted and tireless in the services of the altar, as seccristan at St. Viator Church. His many spiritual children in Chicago and throughout the land rise up today, his Golden Jubilee day, and call his blessed, for he fulfills the scriptural promise: "They that instruct others unto justice, shall shine as stars in the firmament."

nounce his arrival. This would save some of the boys many an embarrassing moment. Pretty good idea, don't you think so, Jim? . . . Just received a letter from the Poet Laureate of St. Viator, C. B. He informs us that:

The melancholy days are here, It's too hot for whiskey, and Too cold for beer.

Perhaps, by some chance or other, a little more co-operation between the borders and day students might aid in the movement for a Greater St. Viator College . . . Noticed the bulletin sent out from the President's Office, and would like to offer a timely suggestion to the Freshmen. Read it. Yes, by all means read it, but don't swallow it; it should be taken in parts. Wholly it would cause mental intoxication. So just a few particles daily with your yeast cake . . . Just can't understand why the Day Students avoid Room 31 in Marsile Hall; it must have measles, small-pox or sompin. Take your seats, boys . . . Ran into a young gentleman the other night who informed me that he became hungry so he took the 'one and only' home early. No insinuations, Bob . . . But enough for today . . .

WHAT IS MORTEX?

Perfect Preservation Protection

Emulsified Asphalt Liquid

A perfect protective coating for brushing, spraying or trowelling, being a high grade Mexican asphalt dispersed as minute particles in water for convenient handling. It is applied cold. As the moisture evaporates, a black, flexible rubberlike film remains which is water-proof, acid, alkaline and fire resistant, and shuts out infiltrations of air.

Mortex 5 does not crack or peel in coldest weather, nor blister, sag nor run on hottest days and always remains elastic. It is odorless, tasteless and noninflammable and can be safely used in confined, places. It readily bonds to all clean surfaces, and also to damp surfaces, but should never be applied over rusty, dirty, greasy or oily surfaces or an imperfect bond will result. Use only on clean surfaces to obtain perfect satisfaction.

Used for DAMPPROOFING WALLS and FLOORS, PAINTING GALVANIZED IRON, PROTECTING CLEAN IRON AND STEEL, ROOF REPAIRING and as an ADHESIVE. It can be mixed with Portland Cement and dries out a soft gray color for patching deteriorating concrete.

Father Stafford vacated his chair for the afternoon in favor of Father Maguire, last year's debate coach. Father Maguire spoke briefly to the Society on the benefits of inter-collegiate debating, and admonished the students to take the work seriously.

ANTI - WAR DEMONSTRATION

Nation-wide student demonstration against war will take place over the week-end of November 9-11. A united front committee of student organizations, including the Student Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A. as well as the National Student League and the Student League for Industrial Democracy and many other groups, is supporting this action. November 10, torch light parades will enliven the campuses and awaken college communities with their protests against the "next world war". November 9, mass meetings will be held simultaneously with a meeting in Washington at which time a student group will present a statement to the President. A nation-wide radio hook-up is projected for this ceremony.

Reserves

The Green Wave reserves' strength, while not as strong as last year's, does boast of such good players as Krauklis, Newberg, Noonan, Master-son and Rohinsky. There are others whom Coach Murphy declares may be able to aid in defeating the Uhlans.

During the last two weeks Murphy has stressed defensive play and is apparently planning that the Homecoming game will be a defensive battle with the Irish playing safe and sane ball and waiting for the breaks as Carbondale did.

St. Viator Has Novena In Progress

On the evening of October 12, Father French, the Vice-President, announced the opening of a Novena to St. Viator, the patron of the College. Each evening short devotions are held consisting of a few prayers and the singing of the Ecce Viator. The novena will close on October 21, the Saint's feast day.

their beds and gone forth to secure the loathsome emblem.

The spirit of fair play and clean sportsmanship always manifested on these occasions has led us to believe that no fault could ever be found with the practice. But the authorities have deemed otherwise, and the passing of the Flag Rush marks the end of a custom near and dear to the heart of every student.

Rule Changes To Cause Revision In Defensive Tactics

According to Hary Kipke, Michigan coach, a team loses eighty yards on a blocked kick . . . Forty of them come on the yardage that the offensive team would gain on the punt, and the other forty are the yards that it would take for the receiving team to bring it back to where the kick was attempted . . . With the new rules in football which were designed to increase scoring, the defense will vary greatly . . . A six man line on defense will be very common . . . There is even a possibility that against a team which uses plenty of passes there may be a five man line with six men back to cover passes.
