

Social Calendar Is Announced By Francis Sanhuber

Francis Sanhuber, '38, President of the College Club announced the Social Calendar for the coming year at a meeting of the organization held in the Seminar Room of the College Library on Monday evening, October 15. The date of the Sophomore Cotillion has been set for December 4. According to James Zigerell, President of the Sophomore class, most of the arrangements, such as the appointment of committees and the securing of an orchestra, have already been completed. The Junior class, headed by its president William Cahill, will hold its annual "Prom" on January 15. The Freshman "Shin-dig" will be held on February 12. The exact date of the Monogram Dance, one of the biggest events of the year, has not been definitely set as yet, but in accordance with the custom of previous years, it will probably be held sometime in April.

Along with the announcement of the Social Calendar, our energetic College Club President has also arranged the schedule of the Intra-Mural Basketball league. He states that the College Club will continue its policy of awarding gold basketballs to the members of the Championship team.

In explanation of his enthusiasm for Intra-Mural athletics, Sanhuber tells us, "The purpose of the College Club is to promote the intellectual, moral, and physical well being of the students. In continuing to support Intra-Mural athletics to the extent that we have in the past, we are able to realize one of the principle aims of the club, namely the physical well being of most of its members."

Powers In Lecture On "Mystical Body"

Richard Powers, '39, presented a very clear and thorough explanation of the Doctrine of the Mystical Body of Christ to the members of the College Chapter of Cisca on Wednesday evening, November 17. Beginning with an explanation of exactly who was included in the Mystical Body, Dick proceeded to point out to his audience that the Doctrine was really very radical and revolutionary. He stated also that "To many people, the doctrine has been a failure; but it has failed only in so far as it has never been tried. If the men guiding the destinies of nations, and the captains of our industries lived up to its demands, peace and prosperity would not be the problem that it is today."

Father Cracknell wishes to announce that the encyclical of Pope Leo XIII, Rerum Novarum, (On the Condition of the Working Classes) will be the object of study at the next meeting of Cisca to be held in the Seminar Room of the Library, Wednesday evening, December 3. All students are cordially invited to attend.

James T. Burns Noted Alumnus Dies on Nov. 15

One of our most prominent alumni, James T. Burns, former county judge, state representative, and a colonel in the reserve officers corps of the United States, died at 9:20 o'clock Monday morning, November 15, at the Hines Memorial hospital.

Mr. Burns came to Kankakee as a small boy, received his early education in the parochial schools of Kankakee, and received both his high school and college education here. While here, he was recognized as one of the foremost debaters on the campus, and also received much fame as an athlete.

His close friends describe him as having a remarkable memory, sound judgement, a great love for his children, and a sense of honor and integrity which was never called into question. He was a man of simple tastes, loving nature and the out-of-doors. He was impatient of the artificial, and intolerant of pretense. Just before his death, he requested prayers for the repose of his soul, rather than flowers.

"Constitution" Is Discussed At St. Xavier

On Sunday afternoon, November 20, St. Xavier College was the scene of the first of five College Student Forums under the auspices of Cisca. The topic, which was discussed with great avidity was "The Constitution of the United States, Then and Now". Five students of St. Xavier's presented the different aspects of the question, and then the student delegates were allowed to present their own problems, and also to ask questions.

In the past, certain college students have bewailed the unwieldiness of the General Meetings of Cisca. The meetings of this type, which are restricted to college students, give all an ample opportunity of participating in the discussions.

Cisca, in promoting College Student Forums is rendering a distinct service to higher education in the Chicago area.

As Father Cracknell, the Moderator of Cisca has so aptly put it, "The time is ripe for an enlightened and properly motivated college student opinion on the problems of the day. In the presence of such turmoil and loose thinking concerning the principles of morality which

Zarzamen Trounce Columbia

Coach Lou Zarza's famed "Razzle Dazzle" attack clicked with perfect precision Saturday night as our intrepid Green clad warriors conquered Columbia's gallant squad by a score of 20-0. The victory, before 5,000 frenzied fans at the 124th Field Artillery Armory was a fitting climax to one of the most successful seasons in the glorious history of football at St. Viator college. Captain Bill Walsh and Danny Blazeovich, the only two seniors on the squad, both played the most brilliant game of their long and successful careers. Time after time Walsh cracked the Columbia line wide open, and skirted the ends with his usual "reckless abandon."

Father Cardinal In Address Over Station W. G. N.

The Very Rev. Dr. E. V. Cardinal, C. S. V., President of the College, gave two very interesting and varied discussions during the past week. On Saturday afternoon, November 20, Fr. Cardinal was the guest speaker of the W.G.N. Midday Service. His rendition of the topic, "How to Build Religion Into Life", was praised by all for its remarkable clearness and distinctness. The President, representing the Catholic viewpoint on this fundamental issue, was instrumental in upholding the fine reputation that he and the other members of the College Faculty have earned as conscientious and vigorous servants of God.

As the guest speaker of the Y. W. C. A., Fr. Cardinal presented a graphic survey of the tense situation in Europe, basing his remarks on his personal contacts with the peoples of Europe, as well as his vast amount of research in that field.

C. Y. O. Champ Quits Boxing

J. Emmett Back, former C. Y. O. champion in the welterweight division has withdrawn from competition in the squared circle. When questioned about his unexpected retirement, Emmett replied, "This is not a hasty decision, not a mere whim or caprice on my part; it is the result of much thought and due deliberation. I refuse to sacrifice my birth right for a mess of pottage. The time and effort that I put into boxing will now be devoted to studies, the development of my aesthetic sense, and appreciation of things intellectual; I will allow my pugilistic endeavors to lapse into innocuous desuetude."

James Zigerell Completes Plans For Soph. Dance

C. M. Granger Addresses Holy Name Sodality

Mr. Claude Granger, prominent Kankakee attorney, addressed an assemblage of over 200 students on Saturday evening, November 13. "Modern Social Trends" was the topic of his discussion, which dealt with two of the most insidious and treacherous movements of the day, namely, Communism and Fascism.

After giving a very complete and thorough picture of Democracy as it exists today, Mr. Granger spoke of Communism. He introduced it by stating that it is a "Movement based on the very formidable doctrines of Karl Marx, as interpreted by his followers". He pointed out that Communism, in the strict sense of the term is not existing anywhere in the world today. But since the Russian form of government (although really a form of State Socialism), and Communism present

Fr. Maguire Lectures In Des Moines, Ia.

Rev. J. W. R. Maguire, C. S. V., conducted a forum on "Adult Education" during the week of November 14, under the auspices of the Very Rev. Gerald T. Bergan, D. D. Bishop of the Des Moines Diocese. Not only did Father Maguire preside at the "Adult Education Program" meetings in the afternoon, but he also delivered talks at the various schools in the evenings.

Bishop Bergan is an alumnus of St. Viator College. He was graduated in 1912 with a B. A. degree, and two years later received his Master's degree from this same institution. He was consecrated Bishop of Des Moines in 1934.

Accomplishments of Fr. Maguire

It is only appropriate at this time that we mention a few of the highlights of Father Maguire's career. He was educated at Oxford University in England, St. Viator College, and The Catholic University of America. For a great many years he has appeared frequently before legislatures of Illinois, Indiana, and other states on behalf of social and labor legislation and has helped to write and pass the Limitations of Injunctions Act of Illinois. He is a member of the American Economic Association, and in 1935 was appointed by President Roosevelt as Chairman of the Chicago Regional

Saturday night, December 4, will mark the formal terpsichorean debut of the sophomore class when a capacity crowd is expected to attend the class dance to be held in the college gymnasium. According to James Zigerell, sophomore class president, plans have been carefully made to make this venture as distinct a success as the Homecoming dance of a few weeks ago.

The various committees have already been appointed and are making every effort to insure the social and financial success of the dance. The members of the committees are:

Dance Committee — J. Malloy, chairman; D. Ward, E. O'Connor and A. Sacco.

Publicity Committee — F. Mullarkey, chairman; F. Tomaso, J. Yacullo and T. Costello.

Decorations Committee — L. Gleason, G. Gould and W. Mayo.

Zigerell has announced the selection of "Johnny Davis and his Rhythm Aires", to furnish the music for the occasion. This is one of the most popular orchestras in the vicinity, and should provide satisfactory entertainment for the evening.

Ask Cooperation

While last year's freshmen dance was quite successful in many respects, the president and committee members are bending every effort to make this year's more of a success from the standpoint of class cooperation. The cooperation of the other classes is requested that this dance may be a fitting climax for the year's social calendar.

Debaters Announce Oratorical Contest

The Rev. J. W. R. Maguire, C. S. V., Head of the Department of Commerce and coach of the Bergin Debating Society, has announced a school Oratorical Contest to be held on December 10. The winner of the contest here will be sent to Northwestern University, Evanston, Illinois, to compete as the representative of the college in the State Oratorical contest to be held there on December 13.

Winner Eligible for Prizes

Father Maguire is anxious to have as many students as possible enter the contest. The only requisite is that you register your name either with Fr. Maguire or with Dan Ward, manager of the Debate Society. All orations are to deal with some phase of world peace. Besides winning state wide recognition, the college representative at Northwestern is also eligible for a prize of $50—for the best oration; $40—for second place, and a $30 prize for the third best oration.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hoag of Fort Wayne, announce the birth of a baby boy. Both Mrs. Hoag, formerly Miss Frances Mary Clancy of Kankakee and Chicago, and Mr. Hoag are former students.

EXAMS

The first quarter of the school year is now written in the pages of history. To most of you, the grades in the Registrars office tell a story of success or failure. To the successful we extend congratulations, and hope that you will continue your splendid work. To the failures we say, "Don't be discouraged and disappointed."

The theory that you are successful or unsuccessful in direct proportion to the number of "A's" or "D's" you have received, is, at best, a very debatable proposition.

To those of you that were judged according to that criterion and failed, be consoled with the thought that much is still in store for you. Without being too cynical and satirical when speaking of examinations, permit me to say that we came here primarily to educate ourselves for the battle of life; whether we are "wise or otherwise" on the day of examination is a matter of secondary importance. Hence, the true criterion, the test that really counts is the acid test of life.

If you succeed in living a good, Christian life, then you can say honestly and sincerely, "I passed my religion course". If you, as a captain of industry treat your employees as though you really believe that they are members of the Mystical Body of Christ, then you passed your course in "Labor Problems" with flying colors, even though you only managed to eke out a "D" in it here at the college.

On the other hand, if you climb to the very pinnacles of fame on the rungs of a ladder covered with the bloody sweat of the worker that you exploited, then you failed, and failed ignominiously, even though you received an "A" in every course.

Understand clearly, however, that this is not an attempt to justify slothful or slovenly work, or to belittle the quest after truth. We say that if you educate yourself to know and appreciate those things that are worthwhile, those things that really count in life, then you have passed the real test, all "D's" and "F's" to the contrary notwithstanding. —L. R.

"LET US GIVE THANKS"

When, over three hundred years ago, after the gathering of the first harvest in a new world the Pilgrim Fathers set aside a day to give thanks to the Almighty, little did they realize the significance that a great nation would later attach to their thanksgiving.

Appropriate it is that such a day comes at a season when nature has just yielded the fruits of her fields in a kind of mute evidence of the goodness of God. But surrounded by every sign of material wealth and greatness, by every indication of physical well-being it is unfortunate that we should be so poor. Poor, yes, very poor in the true spirit of Thanksgiving Day. A nation formerly observed this day with religious services in its churches.

Band Notes

We are in need of instruments for our college band. There are a number of the boys who have no instruments but who are able to play. We again ask our readers to send in some contribution if they have no instruments to send in.

Considerable talent among our football team has been discovered. We are happy to announce that one of our star ends will be with us after the final game — Eddie O'Connor, who will play first trombone. Eddie has been instructing one of our star half backs, Rex Flack in the art of trombone "sliding" — Welcome to our band. John Cleary of Clarks Mills, N. Y., also a football player and Ed Durkin, a St. Ignatius boy are on the bass and snare drums respectively.

John Dymek a graduate of Lindbloom high plays the solo-baritone. The trumpet section is very well handled by John Mulvaney of Marion, Wis., John Clarke of St. Phillips Chicago, Louis Moore of Dixon and John (Jack) Brown of Kankakee. Maurice Hoffman of Vincennes, Ind., plays the solo Alto horn—Maurice is quite adept on the trumpet, and is also handling our publicity department.

The clarinet section while still in its embryonic stage is developing under the admirable leadership of Brother Joseph Kohorst, C. S. V., of Cathedral Boys High of Springfield, Ill. Owen Douville of East Chicago, Ind., and Tom Trenkle of Manhattan, are working hard under Bro. Kohorst's guidance and will soon have regular chairs in the clarinet section. We would like to have several more clarinets and request any who may be interested to see either Bro. Kohorst or Bro. Carson.

The alto sax is handled in a masterly style by Brother J. Durkee, C. S. V., of Detroit, Mich., while our good friend Bob Burmeister of Cathedral Boys High of Springfield holds down the tenor sax in a true artistic style. Bob is also a football player and also one of the managers of the basketball team.

Last but not least the big sousaphone is handled by Brother Demmer C. S. V., of Chicago. Next time you hear the boys playing don't fail to listen to the um-pahs that Brother Demmer contributes to the cause.

PLEASE HELP US TO BUILD UP THIS ORGANIZATION BY SENDING IN YOUR CONTRIBUTION.

We ask your prayers for the mother of one of our former students, Father Rhebeadeu.

Today, there are churches but so few therein to give thanks. We have advanced much since the days of our founding fathers, yet we have receded so far in true wealth of sentiment.

Let us this Thanksgiving Day be truly grateful for the blessings of God, and let us ask that our nation and our people be rich once more in things spiritual. May the theme of this day be a prayer to preserve us from the arrogance of plenty, to dispose us to merit the blessings of the Almighty, and to impart to all men the blessings we possess. D. W.

Key Hole Reporter

Many of us have seen Gene Larkin about the campus. He is not extraordinarily massive, nor is he an exceedingly fast track man. Therefore we are still amazed by the fact that he, with all the Pontifical eloquence and authority it was possible for him to muster, told the Rev. J. W. R. Maguire, C. S. V., arbitrator extraordinary of strikes and labor disputes, that he (Fr. Maguire) is still living in the good old horse and buggy days. Whatever may be said of Larkin's courage, his diplomacy is without question the worst in the entire school. Even Brother Peckham, who was foolhardy enough to defeat the president of the institution at his own game, is hardly less diplomatic.

At any rate, it is the first time in history that anybody so completely stumped Fr. Maguire. To our utter amazement, he was surprised to such an extent, that he could not even remember the usual Latin phrases to hurl at his opponent, and thereby cause him to lapse into innocuous desuetude. However, his twenty years of experience on the public platform soon came to the rescue, and he informed the now trembling Mr. Larkin that it was the best compliment he had received in many a year. (Believe it or not.)

Just as a matter of precaution, our parental advice to Mr. Larkin is that he had better bring a nice shiny apple to class with him every morning if he has any intention at all of receiving a credit in "Labor Problems". Just in case he has never heard of this old adage, "It is far, far better to be a live coward than a dead hero; translated into Anglo Saxon this means that it is better to keep your opinions to yourself than flunk out in "Labor Problems."

Fr. Maguire: What are the five standards of living?

Ward: Excuse me Father, but I fell asleep when we were on poverty and relief, and when I woke up we were living in the luxury standard. (By the way Dan, were you or was Mr. Granger the principle speaker at the last Holy Name meeting?)

Maybe Pat Bimmerle doesn't know about this yet, but he is going to take Mary Anthony to the Sophomore dance. (Is my face red, Pat?)

Did our illustrious president of the College Club ever enjoy himself at the Valpo game. He went with Miss Hanson. Upon his return to the campus, he was unable to tell us the score, who made the touchdowns, and other information that should be known by anybody that attends a football game, and is interested in the GAME.

Flash! Frank Straub may take over the position of Chairman of the Apostolic Committee down at Cisca. Frank was very, very enthusiastic about the one meeting he did attend. (He is competing with Ashe for the title, "Baldy.")

After a rather lengthy and erudite discourse upon the philosophical implications of love, Fr. Suprenant shattered the ideas that have been entertained by a great many of our Sophomore friends. According to Fr. Suprenant, "Love is the tendency of the will toward an object understood to be good for the subject." One of the gallant Sophs remarked, "And all this time I thought love had something to do with those icy chills that went up and down my spine when I went out with my girl friend."

FRESH ROASTED DAILY AT CHICAGO AND BROOKLYN
JOHN SEXTON & CO.
 Coffee Merchants for Over 50 Years

10 Years Ago

By F. Sanhuber

Viator held the strong and highly rated John Carrol eleven to a scoreless tie before a crowd of approximately 6,000 in the Luna Stadium field in Cleveland.

Coach Sam McAllister made a call for basketball candidates and was rewarded with a likely number of prospects.

The Reverend Dr. E. V. Cardinal, C. S. V., succeeded the deceased Reverend J. R. Plante, C. S. V., as Dean of Studies.

Captain Frank May played his final football game for Viator in the 28 to 0 triumph over Valparaiso. May was a member of the 1927 Little Nineteen Conference All-Star team. It was also the last game of Walsko, Harrington and Kelly.

James Allan Nolan was unanimously elected to the presidency of the College Club.

The beginning and extent of the Thanksgiving vacation was announced by the Very Reverend J. V. Rheams, C. S. V., president of the College.

Brother Harbauer's "Academics" ran wild to score a 25 to 0 girdiron victory over St. Joseph's Institute of LaGrange. It was their fifth successive football triumph of the year.

FIVE YEARS AGO

Robert L. Sprietzer editor in chief of the VIATORIAN.

Norbert Ellis of Seneca was named or elected president of the International Relations Club.

Viator swamped Elmhurst 53 to 0. Saia, Westray and Marik led the attack.

The bowling league, under the supervision of the Reverend Francis Harbauer, C. S. V., was formally opened, the teams announced, and the schedules determined.

Mr. Michael F. Maloney was named Dean of the Department of English at the College.

The Right Rev. Msgr. G. M. Legris was made an officer of the French Academy in accordance with express orders from the French Government through its Minister of Education and Languages.

John Caroll tripped the Irish 12 to 0 as rain halted the Saint's passing attack. A week later the Green Wave tripped Charleston Teachers 42 to 0—Five passes, Westray to Harding clicked for touchdowns. Incidentally, the victory over Charleston entitled Viator to a share of the Conference Championship with McKendree.

Among the Viator cheering section at the Valpo game on Armistice Day (don't forget 26-0) we saw two former students: Tom Gannon and Ray O'Connor.

Valpo Yields Fifth Victory

St. Viator gridders accounted for their fifth victory of the year in a smashing 26-0 victory over Valparaiso University last Saturday. Luke Gleason, flashy halfback of the Green Wave, led the parade with two touchdowns. Danny Blazeovich and Bob Lenahan each crossed the goal once. Babe Claeys kicked one extra point, and a pass from Gleason to Blazeovich was good for the other extra point. Gleason's runs and passes were the highlights of the game. Babe Claeys did some good punting. The ends played great football, with "Blaz" pulling down passes in All American style and Bob Brinkoetter turning in the best game of his career. Bob was a sensation on defense. He "smeared" every play that started around right end.

Luke Gleason Stars

Luke Gleason carried the ball sixteen times for an average of 12 1-2 yards per try. He made runs of 27, 20, 80, and 25 yards and almost at will picked up gains of 5 and 8 yards. Luke tossed nine forward passes, five of which were completed for 114 yards. One pass to Blazeovich was good for a touchdown and another to Danny for an extra point.

The starting lineup was composed largely of reserves. The shock troops played most of the first quarter, and although they were not able to score they held things well under control. Early opportunities to score were upset by fumbling, but after Lou Zarza sent in his regulars and Luke Gleason limbered up, the ball game was all Viator.

Lenahan Scores

In the second quarter Gleason dropped back and threw a 39 yard pass to Danny Blazeovich, who made a sensational catch to put the ball on Valpo's 6 yard stripe. On the next play Bob Lenahan plunged over guard for the score. Babe Claeys kicked off for Viator and Valpo returned to the fifty yard line where Brinkoetter brought down the ball carrier with a driving tackle. On the next play Valparaiso fumbled and Bob Schumacher recovered on the Uhlman 42. Gleason around right end for 12 yards. A pass, Luke to Rex Flack, who took it on the 20 and brought it up to the 11 yard marker. Gleason then skirted his own right end for a touchdown. Claeys put it between the uprights. Score, Viator, 13; Valpo, 0.

80 Yards to a Touchdown

Luke Gleason gave the cash customers all they wanted in the second quarter. Finneran of Valparaiso kicked from his own 45 yard line; Luke took the ball on the 20 in full stride, headed for the right side of the field; aided by some beautiful blocking by the Green Wave, Luke sidestepped and cut until there were only two men in front of him. He outran one and straightened the other for an 80 yard jaunt and six points.

Viator finished up their scoring after a series of runs by Gleason which put the ball on the Uhlman 35. Danny Blazeovich broke down the

By Jack Lannon

Ten years ago, a green clad team representing St. Viator gained a hard fought victory against DeKalb Teachers at DeKalb. It was a game of thrills, and on that day names which have gone down in the Viator hall of fame, rose to their heights. In the stands was a small lad, so favorably impressed that it became his immediate and unceasing ambition to follow the Viator warriors, and maybe some day even attend the school of the Green Wave and follow in the footsteps of his idols. Six years later Danny Blazeovich enrolled at St. Viator college and the realization of a boyhood dream had come true.

Danny preped at DeKalk High School, where he won four letters in football, four in basketball and two in track. He captained a championship team in basketball in his fourth year, and received a berth on the DeKalb Teachers Invitation Tournament team.

In his freshman year at St. Viator Danny won his letter in football and basketball, and since then has capably developed into one of the greats in both sports.

In Blazeovich followers of the Green Wave found a brand of football seldom seen outside the larger Stadia. In 1936 Dan led the team in scoring and from his end position was Viator's chief means of aggression. Defensively he had few peers if any. When the season was over and St. Viator had hung up a Little Nineteen championship, Danny was honored with a position on the little All-American team.

With the close of the 1937 season at hand, we have seen turned in, one of the most brilliant performances ever beheld by followers of the Green Wave. Danny Blazeovich, once more has dominated the Viator play, and coupled with Gleason, the passing halfback, St. Viator possesses a scoring combination worthy of All American position.

Dan's punting this year has not been equalled by any foe the team has met, and along with his pass receiving he has been the biggest factor in every Viator victory. When the All American selections are being made this year, it will not be a matter of great surprise if the name of Blazeovich is found among those at the top.

field and into the end zone where he took the pass over his shoulder for the last touchdown of the day. "Blaz" took another pass for the extra point.

Great Improvement

All in all, we saw a much improved team in comparison to last week. Our pass combination of Gleason to Blazeovich really clicked. Bob Brinkoetter deserves a lot of compliments; John Morenc played his usual stellar game. The whole line was in there fighting all the way. The defensive strength is evident by the way they held a much heavier team in first downs, Valpo collecting only 8 to Viator's 17.

Zarzamen—

victory of Viator's great football machine. His passes were thrown with that customary bullet-like speed and precision, and he constantly had the fans gasping in amazement at his uncanny ability to hit his target, Danny Blazeovich. Even though Columbia had several men trying to stop him, Danny always managed to break away and make those "impossible catches" for which he is so famous. Two of these "Gleason-Blazeovich thrillers" were good for touchdowns.

One of the most perfectly executed plays seen in a long, long time was the forward lateral which resulted in a touchdown. Gleason tossed a short forward pass to Blazeovich, who in turn lateraled to Don Faber who was racing around his own left end. Don grabbed it on the run and continued his jaunt to cross the goal line unmolested.

Zelinick Stars

George Cusack, one of the famous "watch charm guards" played a brilliant defensive game, and was instrumental in stopping Columbia's famed "powerhouse attack." Red Zelinick continued his fine work at tackle, stopping everything that came his way, and also opening holes in the line so that our thundering backs could charge through. Morenc's passing from center was without flaw. Bob Schumacher came through in great style. Babe Claeys played a "bang up game" at tackle. Bob Bates played one of the best games of his career at end, shining both on the offensive and defensive plays. Tony Sacco called the right plays at the right time, and gave a marvelous exhibition of effective blocking. Bob Lenahan was one of the "stars that sparkled most brilliantly."

Congratulations to the members of the team, the Athletic Director Father Harbauer, and the Coaches, Lou Zarza, Joe Saia and Tommy Gibbons and friends of the College who worked with untiring zeal and perseverance to make this season the success that it was.

Ward Says:

Although it is an extremely repugnant task to reprobate the sometimes happy illusions of mice and men, a feeling of obligation to truth requires that I correct an erroneous impression given by last edition's FOO. Because of circumstances which prevented the insertion of the original FOO, Mr. Roemer took advantage of this column space to express remarks concerning two highly esteemed campus organizations. His comments were either influenced by a profound ignorance of the organizations in question or else by an unholy desire to disparage their lofty ideals. For example, Mr. Roemer said that one of the aims of the Woof-Woof organization was to insure proper living conditions for the canines which infest the campus. To dispel any false impressions may I emphatically state that our organization is not acting in the capacity of a humane society nor are its members aspiring to dog pound attendants. And to render his comments even more malignant Mr. Roemer placed FOO next to an article by one Mr. Nolan which told of the dog life about the campus.

The Red Wings organization was also subjected to unfavorable comment from the general public due to the article which told of the club's aims. The writer stated that Messrs. Sandquist and McElligot are scrounging the campus for members. "Be it understood", said the gentlemen in response to my query, "that the "Red Wings" is an exclusive organization, open only to those who can comply with our rigid requirements for admission." In the near future Mr. McElligot expects to fly to Chicago to complete arrangements for a clubroom which will unquestionably lead the campus to beat a path to Rooms 214 and 216. Mr. Sandquist, who is sitting at my side, has authorized me to quote him as saying, "By the end of the year our club hopes to embrace all the eligible members of the campus. The return of the birds from the south next spring will undoubtedly add to the attractiveness of our organization." Mr. Sandquist has just departed for lower regions on the good ship "Red Wings."

the same connotation in the minds of most people, the speaker stated that he would be content to discuss "Russian Communism". He then proceeded to point out evils, such as the loss of freedom, and also Atheism, which is inextricably interwoven in the Communist system. "These two points alone are enough to condemn it in the eyes of any rational and logical thinker."

Fascism Worse than Communism

In speaking of Fascism, Mr. Granger stated that its primary purpose is to achieve economic security for the masses of people. In Fascism the rights of the individual must be subordinated to the rights of the state. Because it is a corporate state, and the Fascist is the only party, it will not allow a conflict between Capital and Labor. Mr. Granger also stated that "Although Fascism is anti-Communist, it is to be feared far more than Communism, since it is a great deal more treacherous and insidious." The ovation he received at the end of the discussion signified the tremendous success of the speaker in presenting the high spots of Democracy, Fascism, and Communism to his audience.

The students, in the Name of Al Monahan, President of the Holy Name Society, thanked Mr. Granger for his splendid symposium, and expressed the desire of hearing him again in the near future.

Education isn't all it's cracked up to be, especially in Biology 27.

Before I heard the doctors tell
The danger of a kiss,
I had considered kissing you
The nearest thing to bliss.
But now I know biology,

In the haze of conflicting doctrines our Catholic students are particularly fortunate in having the voice of the Church to guide them. Notice the pure white cigarette paper... notice how every Chesterfield is like every other Chesterfield—the same size and every one round, firm and well-filled.

Notice when you smoke one how Chesterfields are milder and how different they taste. That's due to the careful way Chesterfield tobaccos are aged and blended.
