VIATOR WINS HOMECOMING GAME 6 TO 0

Touchdown In Closing Seconds
Adds Thrilling Climax To Tough Game

Nearly sixty graduating classes were represented in the throng of 2500 which saw Coach Sam McAllister's, "Green Wave" ride in on the tide of victory for the fourth consecutive time. In one of the most colorful Homecomings ever celebrated at Viator the men of "Varsity" 1927, who bore the colors of Alma Mater on their sleeve, and the love of Alma Mater in their hearts added a fitting touch to the day by defeating the strong eleven from Columbia College of Dubuque 6 to 0, in a game which had as its feature a 45 second climax that will long hold place in the football lore of the institution. Throughout the major portion of the classic grid struggle Viator carried the fight into the enemies' territory only to have her chances to score frustrated by some unbecoming and otherwise uncalled for circumstance. With 45 seconds to go McAllister changed the entire backfield with the exception of Delaney, and sent Peter "Joyous" Harrington into an end position. This slight bit of strategy proved to be the signal for an eruption that completely awed the worthy exponents of gridiron from Columbia. Without further delay, Michael Delaney proceeded to entwine his fingers about the pork epidermis, and cast several very accurate and profitable passes, one landing in the arms of "Joyous" Harrington for a net gain of 23 yards, and the other nesting in the arms of Edward "Catch-as-Catch-can" Campbell, and this ball was lodged for the first and only time during the contest, behind the Columbia goal line. Great was the joy pursuant to these doings, for this did old Viator win and keep her conference slate clean, and thus did 2500 spectators find reason for their solicitous encouragement voiced from the nearby stands. Bonfires, pep-meetings, lusty cheering and strong hearts all contributed to that last moment of dash, which thrilled every kinsman of Viator. With the score enough static bounced off into space to put a cramp in radio reception for a month. Hilarious husbands and bombastic bachelors, as well as howling classmen all received the event in a pleasurable manner. The day was a success, the Homecoming of 1927 was a winner, and the old Viator escutcheon was again raised on high. Along with these "Minute-Men" who put the finishing touches on the game, we must give praise to others. Every man fought and fought hard. Captain May, Meis, Herbert, O'Malley, Kelly, Furlong and Matthews all went well in the line, while Delaney, LaFleur, Laenhardt, Walsko and Evard functioned in the backfield. At times Viator seemed to lack the punch and drive, and these times generally came when a very good chance to score presented itself. A tough schedule of hard Saturday tilts seemed to tell on them, or perhaps they were looking too far ahead seeing only the shadow of Bradley darkening the horizon. Whatever, the reason for the tight game, the victory was had, and after all that is what Homecomers want. The game was clean and hard throughout and not marred by many penalties. Viator displayed power in making 14 first downs to 10 for Columbia. The afternoon was not without thrills, the running of LaFleur in the backfield from formations and the brilliant returns of Evard were the features of the game.

The score by quarters.
First Quarter.
The game by quarters was as follows:
Columbia kicked off to St. Viator. Viator made eight yards on three line plays. Laenhardt got off a 55 yard punt. Columbia made two yards on an off tackle play. Short punt by Columbia. Evard made eight yard return. Viator ball on the 50

PONTIFICAL HIGH MASS CELEBRATED ON HOMECOMING

Father Rowan Delivers Panegyric On St. Viator

The Solemn Pontifical Mass on St. Viator's day was sung by Rt. Rev. Monsignor G. M. Legris in the Church of the Maternity adjoining the college grounds. He was assisted by Rev. R. French, c. s. v., as Archpriest. The deacon and sub-deacon were respectively Rev. W. J. Stephenson, c. s. v., and Rev. A. L. Landroche, c. s. v. Rev. Brother Cracknell, c. s. v., was Master of Ceremonies. The College choir, directed by Rev. C. Raymond rendered Weigand's Mass. At the offertory Brother J. Drolet, c. s. v., sang Luzzi's Ave Maria.

After the Mass a very eloquent panegyric on St. Viator was preached by Rev. T. A. Rowan, Ph. D., '10, assistant editor of the New World. He gave a short summary of the Saint's life and then drew many practical lessons therefrom. The sermon was addressed especially to the student-body. It told them that to avoid the evils of modern days they should imitate the goodness, holiness and purity of their patron. Above all they must always remain as children in the eyes of the Lord by their innocence and ready response to duty, even as did their saintly model.

Student Choir Sings Well At Homecoming Mass

If only the masters can put into music the thoughts which no words can utter and the description which no tongue can tell then we must give the members of our choir the titles of masters. Gounod's Mass in E flat was beautifully and intelligently interpreted; it was rendered in a fashion which deserves the highest of praise. This superb work has shown us what a regenerative force of incalculable powers Mass singing has in a social body for we were all profoundly struck with the majesty of this soulful music.

The Director of Music, Father Raymond, led the choir. Father Bradac played the organ accompaniment. The various solos were sung by Father LaFleur, Lawrence O'Shea, Paul Mills, Brother Drolet, and George Hynds.

CONVENTION OF N. C. W. C. HELD IN ELGIN, ILL.

Father Maguire Presides At Conference; J. Allen Nolan Delivers Address

Rev. J. W. R. Maguire and Mr. J. Allen Nolan, '29, attended the annual Rockford Diocesan convention of the N. C. W. C. at Elgin last Monday. The convention opened Sunday, October 23rd, with Pontifical High Mass celebrated by Archbishop Dowling, and extended over two days. The afternoon of the first day was given over to reports from the various committees interested in the activities of the organization. On the second day the conference was opened at 9:00 A. M. with Father Maguire presiding. A discussion of the subject "Industrial Problems" occupied most of the time allowed to the conference. Mr. J. Allen Nolan read a paper entitled "The Right of a Working Man to a Living Wage," in which he clothed himself with honor and distinction by his brilliant delivery and praiseworthy discussion.

RECEPTION FOR ALUMNI VERY SUCCESSFUL

Gymnasium Beautifully Decorated For Annual Event

The Alumni Reception held in the College gymnasium far surpassed any similar event that has been staged at the college in recent years. From every standpoint the reception was a decided success; a success to a degree that exceeded the most sanguine hopes of the committees in charge and of the large number that attended. The success was surely merited by those whose work was so painstaking and tireless and undoubtedly the faithful workers realized their reward in seeing the splendid outcome of their labors and in receiving the congratulations of their friends.

For more than a week before the reception a decoration committee headed by Mr. Jarlath Watson, assisted by Mr. Irwin Mathews and Mr. Gerard Legris along with a goodly number of upperclassmen and freshmen, was hard at work on the gymnasium. The problem of suitably decorating such a spacious building was a difficult one, but the difficulties were all met and overcome in a most creditable manner. A general Halloween motif was carried out in the decorations. The most difficult task in the work was that of constructing a ceiling over the floor that would lend the appearance and atmosphere of autumn with its myriad colors. This was done by weaving a sort of network of wire and strong cord across the gymnasium from the railing about the running track. After the network was finished the tedious task of making almost endless trips to the woods and bringing in small boughs and twigs resplendent with richly colored leaves presented a task that had exceeded previous expectations. The work was completed, however, despite the difficulties it presented. With the improvised ceiling completed the toilers set to work with crepe paper, scissors and paste, and before long they had each light fixture decked in a gay Halloween lantern. Many a witch and skeleton could be found in dark corners, lurking behind corn shocks, and catching with leering eye the glance of the inquisitor. The final effect produced defies our power of description. Dim, shaded lights threw weird shadows on the dancers, and peeped through the leafy ceiling like the big harvest moon; the twang of the woodlands was in the air; the whole spirit of Halloween was felt. There is little that we can add to the compliments that have already been heaped on the ingenious decorators. There is nothing that we can say that will fully express the appreciation that everyone has for their work.

While the crowd which attended the dance was by no means record-breaking it was nevertheless ample, pleasant, and high-spirited. Dancing to the rollicking rhythm of an alluring fox-trot or an entrancing waltz, the dancers were the embodiment of good will and enjoyment together with orderliness and enthusiasm. The "Arcadians," an orchestra from the Arcade Hotel of Chicago, provided the music for the occasion and we may safely say that better music has never been heard at any any of our college affairs.

PEP MEETING TONIGHT

In order to give the team the proper send-off for the Viator-Bradley game of tomorrow there will be a pep meeting on the campus tonight immediately after chapel. Let's all get out tonight and yell and cheer till we're hoarse. We know what our team can do and what they will do if we can show them that we have the proper spirit.

SOCIETY FOR THE PROPAGATION OF THE FAITH MEETS

Third Annual Session Attended
By Viator Representatives

The third annual conference of the Diocesan directors of the Society for the Propagation of the Faith in the United States was held in Chicago, starting October 11th and ending on the 13th. Cardinal Mundelein was host to over eighty diocesan directors as well as to Archbishop Francis Marchetti-Selvaggiani, papal representative and president of the international council. The three day conference was opened at the Stevens Hotel and consisted chiefly of discourses, round table discussions, and reviews of activities, along with suggestions and plans which would tend toward the advancement of the aims of the work of the Society. Among the speakers were two priests who are known quite well by the students of St. Viator College, Father Horschburgh and Father Vanderschueren, both of whom were entertained at the College last May, were principal speakers at the conference.

The conference proper was brought to a close at the seminary at Mundelein where Solemn High Mass was celebrated in the presence of His Eminence. However, the solicitude of the Cardinal for the youth of the archdiocese was not lacking even in this conference of the Hierarchy of the Church in America. On Saturday, October 14th, Solemn High Mass was celebrated in Holy Name Cathedral and representatives of most of the high schools and colleges in the archdiocese were present.

St. Viator College was represented at the general conference on Saturday by Messrs. Patrick Conway, Thomas Doyle, Edward O'Neil, Lawrence O'Shea and Thomas Sullivan. Approximately twenty-three hundred boys and girls of the high schools and colleges of the archdiocese were present. The Mass was celebrated by the Right Rev. Monsignor F. A. Purcell, D. D., in the presence of Cardinal Mundelein and Archbishop Marchetti-Selvaggiani. Under the direction of Rev. Philip Mahoney, D. D., and Rev. Edwin Hoover, the choir of the Quigley Preparatory Seminary sang the Mass.

Right Rev. Monsignor Quinn, National director of the Society, delivered the sermon on the occasion. He welcomed the congregation of representatives of the schools, lauded their faith, cited the success that the organization has enjoyed, and reviewed the good that it has accomplished. The Solemn Mass for the students was the last official function of the conference.

CHAIR FOUNDED IN HONOR OF FATHER BERGIN

Old Students Establish Philosophy Chair In Honor Of Former Professor

St. Viator Day, October 21st, 1927 a commemoration of the Sacerdotal Silver Jubilee of Rev. W. J. Bergin, c. s. v., was made by the Alumni present at the homecoming. Efforts had been made previous to homecoming to secure the consent of Father Bergin to the plan of making the homecoming a celebration in his honor. Despite the modesty of Father Bergin, who would not hear of any public celebration, the Alumni and friends of the institution insisted on their right to mark this year as an epoch in the development of St. Viator College by the establishment of the Father Bergin Philosophy Chair Endowment. This is to be the $100,000.00 endowment for which $74,000.00 in 20 year policies have already been assigned to the Extension Club by Father Bergin's former pupils and admirers.

EXTENSION CLUB HOLDS ANNUAL CONFERENCE

Treasurer's Report Reveals Splendid Progress In Work
Of Endowment

In accordance with the constitution of the St. Viator Extension Club, the annual meeting and conference was held in connection with Homecoming in the north refectory on October 21, 1927. The meeting was well attended and included in the assembly were many of our most notable Alumni and friends. The conference was preceded by an informal luncheon. Three past presidents of St. Viator College were in attendance: Father Marsile, the first president of the College; Father O'Mahoney, later president, and present director of the endowment work; and Father Rice, whose term of presidency ended during the past summer.

Rev. J. V. LaMarre, President of the Alumni Association, presided at the business session. This part of the meeting consisted in reports from the President, Secretary, and Treasurer of the Extension Club. Mr. Joseph A. Bolger, Secretary, gave in his report a summary of the activities of the Club, particularly at the monthly meetings held at the Illinois Athletic Club in Chicago. The incorporation of the organization and the adoption of their plans for an endowment for St. Viator College were the two most important points of Mr. Bolger's very instructive report. In accordance with the resolution passed in the annual meeting of one year ago the Board of Directors of the St. Viator College Extension Club applied for a charter from the Illinois Legislature and the charter was secured last August. The St. Viator College Extension Club, Inc., was chartered under the following Board of Directors:

Lowell A. Lawson, President
Rev. P. C. Conway, Vice-President
Rev. J. V. La Marre, Vice-President
Joseph A. Bolger, Secretary
Rev. J. P. O'Mahoney, c. s. v., Treasurer
John R. O'Connor, Chairman of Executive Committee
Vincent Marzano, M. D.
Rev. E. M. Kelly, c. s. v.
Thomas LeRoy Warner

The Treasurer's report gave in detail the receipts of the Club through cash donations for the benefit of St. Viator College, and the disposition made of these funds. To date the organization has collected $89,865.37 in cash, eighty acres of land in Buckingham, Illinois, donated by the late Miss Anna Duffy of Kankakee, and $119,000 in endowment insurance policies, $100,000 of which is in twenty year endowment policies and $19,000 in life policies. These policies with the accrued dividends have been assigned absolutely to St. Viator College. The Extension Club has received an offer from a donor, whose name for the present is to be suppressed, of $40,000.00 on the condition that the Club raise $80,000.00; the total of $120,000.00 is to be applied on the new buildings.

The President of the Club explained the object of the organization and its determination to solve the financial problems of the College by the establishment of an adequate endowment. This endowment, he explained, would be divided in accordance with the needs of the College and the intentions of the donors, into four trust funds: 1st, An Endowment Fund; 2nd, A Student Aid Fund; 3rd, An Athletic Fund; and 4th, A Building Fund. He assigned as the reason for the establishment and chartering of the Extension Club the importance of these funds and the need that they be handled in a business-like way. He presented at the meeting most convincing proofs that the organization has at its disposal the keenest business ability and the most devoted integrity when he introduced Mr. John R. O'Connor whose name is well established as one of the most successful real estate men in Chicago. In a very modest and unassuming manner Mr. O'Connor

THE SOCIETY FOR THE PROPAGATION OF THE FAITH

The recent conference of the National Diocesan Directors of the Society for the Propagation of the Faith justly excites our interest and arouses some curiosity regarding the origin, history, and purpose of this, the most Catholic of all Catholic institutions. Far too many of us are either totally or partially lacking in knowledge concerning the Society and would probably find ourselves at a loss if we were questioned by someone seeking information.

About the year 1820 a Frenchwoman, Pauline Jaricot, after having heard of the impoverished condition of the foreign missions, organized a society, the members of which gave a small weekly donation to the aid of the missionaries. The society grew quite rapidly and in 1882 we find its membership totalling over a thousand. In the same year Bishop Dubourg, prelate of the Diocese of New Orleans, sent a delegate, Father Inglesi, to France to interest the Church of that country in his missions. On seeing the success attained by Miss Jaricot, Father Inglesi decided to form a similar organization. Later, however, he consolidated his plan with that of the zealous Frenchwoman, and on May 3rd, 1882, the Society for the Propagation of the Faith was formally established. One year later Pope Pius VII granted his approval to the organization. Later popes made efforts to promote the spread of the society by enriching it with indulgences and spiritual privileges. Up until the time of the World War by far the greater amount of the revenue of the society came from the Catholic countries of Europe. However, the devastation, despair and poverty that followed the awful struggle among nations left the Europeans in such an impoverished condition that they could no longer lend substantial aid to the work. Since that time the American Catholics have borne the brunt of the burden financially.

The sole purpose of the organization is that of securing funds for the aid of missionary works. It takes no cognizance whatever of the work of training and appointing missionaries nor of the work of administration in the missions, but concerns itself entirely with assisting the missionaries sent out by the regular authorities of the Church. It solicits the aid of all Catholics and assists all missions regardless of situation or nationality. Catholic countries such as France, Italy, and Spain are in no wise assisted by the Society, but only those countries in which missionary work is still being carried on are benefitted by it.

This short summary of the history and purpose of the Society for the Propagation of the Faith shows quite conclusively that the organization is eminently worthy of the assistance of every loyal Catholic. We as Catholic students situated in the Archdiocese of Chicago should be animated by the zeal which the Diocesan Director and our own more intimate spiritual directors have for the welfare of the society. It is our opportunity to fulfill the command of the Redeemer when he said: "Going therefore teach ye all nations." By our prayers and financial assistance we can render inestimable assistance to the missionaries who are giving their very life in order that "the ends of the earth should be brought together and all nations united under the banner of the Redeemer." Since we cannot in person join the vast army of missionaries laboring in the harvest fields of the Lord, we can and should assist in every way that we can from this distant point. To quote Cardinal Mundelein: "If we may not go with them in person, we can accompany them with our daily prayers; if we are chained to duties at home, we can send a substitute in our place, by giving the material aid the missions and missionaries so badly need.

ALUMNI NOTES

On October 9, 10, and 11, St. Denis parish of Lockport, Illinois celebrated its golden anniversary. At the request of the pastor, the Rev. Charles Murphy, the Rev. T. J. Rice, c. s. v., was the principal speaker at the banquet on Sunday night, October the ninth.

From an indirect source we have news concerning Mr. Robert Russel, '21. Bob is now located in Chicago and is employed at the Chicago Title Trust Company.

Mr. Francis Bell, one of last year's graduates, has secured a position close to his Alma Mater. He is employed as an Accountant for the Standard Oil Company, Joliet, Illinois. We expect to see you frequently, Frank.

The church of St. Bridget, newly built and dedicated in Victor, Iowa, is proud to have for its pastor an alumnus of St. Viator's. We congratulate the Rev. Martin A. O'Connell upon the fine work that he has accomplished.

It surely was a pleasure to welcome Mr. John Klein back to his Alma Mater. Mr. Klein attended school here "away back when." He finds the old place very much changed since 1898, in fact he says that the only thing that he recognizes is the board fence adjoining the Graveline property along which he was occasionally ordered to do picket duty. Don't let twenty-nine years pass before your next visit, Mr. Klein.

We were pleased to entertain the Rev. Fathers Stephen Moore and Patrick Farrell, who came up from Bloomington with their high school team. On their way here they picked up the Rev. Francis Casey, '22, who is now assistant at the Immaculate Conception church, Streator, Ill.

Acknowledgements

The "Viatorian" staff wishes to acknowledge with deepest appreciation the kindness of the Dominican Sisters of St. Thomas High School, Rockford, in loaning an engraving of Bishop Muldoon of blessed memory for use in the October 13th issue of the Viatorian.

The College Club expresses its thanks to the Sisters of Notre Dame Convent, Bourbonnais, for the use of the Convent motor truck which they so graciously permitted us to use to facilitate the work of preparing for Homecoming.

The committee in charge of the hobo parade, as well as the whole student body, is grateful to the American Legion Fife and Drum Corps for their assistance in the parade; to the merchants of Kankakee for their fine cooperation in making the event so successful; and to the people of Kankakee for their enthusiastic reception of the paraders.

OBITUARIES

It is with deep regret that we record the sudden demise of Mr. Michael D. Kissane, Father of Rev. Allen Kissane, John, Emmet, Richard and Francis, all of whom attended St. Viator College. To the members of the sorrowing family we extend our heartfelt and prayerful sympathy.

The vast assembly that filled the spacious church of St. Mels bore testimony to the high esteem in which the deceased was held by his hundreds of friends and acquaintances. Mr. Kissane was an excellent man in the fullest sense of the word. In his home life he was a good and faithful husband and a loving and conscientious father. As a citizen he was man of sterling honesty, a man who was never afraid to openly profess the religious convictions which were the guiding principles of his life.

The funeral services were held at St. Mels Church. Father Allen Kissane celebrated the Solemn Requiem Mass at which Rev. Thos. Hayes was deacon and Rev. M. J. Hoare subdeacon. Rev. J. P. O'Mahoney, c. s.

CAMPUS BRIEFS

The bright green caps which the Freshmen are proudly (?) displaying add much to the varied colors of the campus.

Warm days have caused the resurrection of discarded and hidden baseballs and gloves.

The corn crop in Pat Hayes' west forty was considerably reduced when the gym decorators decided to use the corn to add to the autumnal effect in the decorations.

The school colors were effectively displayed on the fence surrounding the football field Homecoming day. The goal posts presented a fine appearance bedecked as they were with the colors of the opposing teams; green and white on the north goal post and purple and gold on the south.

The convent truck added its gentle hum to the bustle and noise of last week's Homecoming preparations.

The inauguration of the use of bombs at the game was successful and there were many favorable comments both on the idea and on the man in charge of the explosions, Mr. Denis Drolet.

Immediately following the dinner last Friday, many of the old grads, among them quite a number of priests, proceeded to their favorite haunts in the old days, the handball alleys, and revived their skill and ardor in that popular game.

"Fish" Sammon announced his intention of joining one of Father Lynch's English classes in order to give the latter a chance to square accounts.

Some of the dancers last Friday night would have been worried had they seen the piano, which was used by the orchestra, sailing around the grounds on the old reliable laundry truck at the late hour of 8:15 P. M.

Apparently the college and high school are ardently emulating each other in the science of winning football games.

Fight, Irish, Fight!

Red Grange in "A Minute to Go" is not to be compared with the thrilling last minute of the Viator-Columbia tussle.

So far every high school game has revealed the perfect function of a perfect and sympathetic unit.

Due to the number of casualties the De LaSalle game rightly deserves the immortal name "What Price Glory?"

Father Cardinal: (to Mathews, late as usual in history class): "A touchdown made after the whistle has blown is worthless."

Mathews: "This ball was in motion, Father."

v., delivered the sermon in which he paid a beautiful tribute to the sterling character of the deceased. Very Rev. J. V. Rheams, c. s. v., President of St. Viator's, represented the faculty on the occasion.

R. I. P.

The many friends of Andrew Huseman, Acad., '27, were deeply grieved to hear of the death of his beloved father. The deceased was a victim of a tragic accident that resulted in his death. To the members of the bereaved family the Viatorian extends sympathy and assurance that the soul of their dear departed one will be remembered in the prayers of the faculty and student body.

The obsequies were held at Cedar Lake, Indiana. Solemn Requiem Mass was celebrated by the pastor who also in his eulogy paid a high tribute

INQUIRIES

QUESTION: Would you be in favor of establishing a Dads' Day at St. Viator and of making our next home game the occasion of this celebration?

LINUS B. MEIS: "Yes, they have Dads' Day at many other schools so why not have it here. It would give the Dads an opportunity of becoming acquainted with one another as well as giving them a chance to see the school. Our next home game would afford an excellent opportunity for such an occasion."

ZENIS LEMNA: "Although there is no special day set aside as Dads' Day, a celebration of this kind would be very appropriate and would give each student the opportunity of paying the same respect to Dad as is accorded to Mother on one day of each year. The next home game would be as good as any for this celebration."

JARLATH M. WATSON: "Certainly a commendable and praiseworthy project! It is an institution which should long ago have received a place on the St. Viator calendar. The majority of the colleges and universities of our country have adopted the idea. Why not St. Viator? No more effective means of establishing a closer relationship between the sons and fathers could be found than an annual Dads' Day at St. Viator College."

WILLIAM SIEBERT: "I do not think the plan feasible. Visitors' days in the past have proven that such affairs evoke but little interest and I am afraid the response to the plan would not equal the amount of care and work extended to it. Furthermore, unless I am greatly mistaken, many of our Dads were here for Homecoming and would hardly be inclined to come again so soon."

MAURICE HICKEY: "I am in favor of establishing a Dads' Day at St. Viator College. It would be very appropriate to set aside one of the days on which the varsity plays at home to celebrate this occasion. 'Dads' Day' is celebrated at many universities. There are Alumni of St. Viator, as well as other men, who have sons attending this college who were unable to attend Homecoming. Dads' Day would give these Alumni an opportunity to return to their Alma Mater and the other fathers a day to visit their sons.

to the character of the deceased. Rev. J. B. Bradac, c. s. v., represented the college on the occasion.

R. I. P.

To Mr. Griffin Gallagher and the other bereaved members of his family we extend our heartfelt sympathy on the loss of their father and husband, Mr. Hugh J. Gallagher, who died suddenly while attending the funeral services of the late Bishop Muldoon.

Solemn Requiem Mass was celebrated at the funeral services of the deceased in St. Peter's Church, Rockford, with Father W. J. Keenan, celebrant, Father J. A. Driscoll, deacon, and Father E. T. Connolly, subdeacon. Father F. F. Connor, '11, delivered a beautiful and consoling sermon.

R. I. P.

The Viatorian extends the sympathy of the faculty and student body to Father S. N. Moore of Bloomington on the death of his aunt, Miss Katherine Moore, late resident of Streator, Ill.

Solemn High Mass was celebrated by Father Moore at the services for the deceased. Father Parker, local pastor, delivered the funeral sermon. Fathers J. P. O'Mahoney and T. C. Harrison attended the services as representatives of the College.

W. J. McClelland Resigns from Club Presidency

College Club Must Elect New President

At the third regular meeting of the College Club held in the Club Room, October 26th, Mr. Warren J. McClelland, President of the Club, presented his resignation from that position. His action came as a complete surprise to the organization in general and occasioned more than a little excitement. After a short discussion, consideration of the resignation was left to the Advisory Board in accordance with a motion made by Mr. J. Allen Nolan. A meeting of the Advisory Board was held on the following day and, after considering Mr. McClelland's reasons for withdrawing, decided to accept the resignation. As a result the College Club is temporarily without a leader.

The decision of the Advisory Board was presented to the College Club at a special meeting held last night. Vice-president J. Smith presided at this meeting. After having announced the ultimatum of the Advisory Board, Mr. Smith called on Father J. W. R. Maguire, Moderator of the Club, for a few words. Father Maguire's remarks were given in the nature of various suggestions for the future benefit of reorganization. He stressed the need of electing a new president rather than merely advancing the present officers. He also extended his congratulations to the organization on the fine character of the recent reception on homecoming day. Included in his suggestions was one in which he asked the Club to formulate a calendar of entertainments and to endeavor to devise new and novel means of occupying the many evenings during the year when Club activities do not interfere with regular study periods. With a plea for enthusiastic support of the debating teams for the ensuing season, and an assurance of his continued deep interest in Club activities, he closed his address.

Nominations for the new president were next in order. Mr. Ernest Walsko and Mr. John Harrington, both of whom are Seniors, are the nominees for president. Since the constitution of the Club requires that the election take place at a special meeting to be held within not less than three or more than six days after the nominations, the actual election did not follow, but will take place quite soon, probably on next Monday.

Club Loses Able Leader

In losing Mr. McClelland the College Club loses a competent and industrious president. The record of the past president's participation in College activities is an enviable one and within the past few weeks of this scholastic year he has proven

Voyageur Staff of 1928 Announced by Editor

Capable Men Chosen To Manage Departments

The personnel of the 1927 Voyageur staff as announced by the editor and Father Stephenson is as follows: Editor—John J. Farrell Business Manager—Martin J. Senica Ass't Business Manager—John S. Farris Advertising—Robert G. Singler Circulation—Thos. J. Casey; Joseph J. Sullivan Athletics—Thomas H. Sullivan; J. Rice Titles—Chas. W. Lewis; Chas. J. Anderhub Societies—Roger T. Stevens; William J. Farrell; Paul A. Chouinard Quips and Quirks—Bernard G. Murawski; Raymond G. Wenthe Photography—Robert E. O'Shea; William W. Marr.

The fact that these men have been selected does not mean that they will comprise the entire staff. The important offices of class chronicler, art editor, and other positions have been left open in order that the management might have more time for choosing the men best fitted for these positions. Moreover every class member will be asked to write something for the book.

ITALIAN CLUB HOLDS FIRST MEETING

Officers For Ensuing Year Elected

The "Circolo Italiano Dante Alighieri" is beginning the second year of its existence with an eager group of twenty two students belonging to the first and second year Italian. The officers of the Club were elected last week. By a unanimous vote Mr. J. his fine ability on more than one occasion. The splendid success of the homecoming reception was largely due to his hard work and good generalship. However, we who know Mr. McClelland know that he is not resigning because he is unwilling to exert his energy for the welfare of the student body, but for far more imperative reasons. Through his work as Athletic Manager and Director of Publicity for the College he has far more work than the average student would care to bargain for. Together with this work he is carrying an extensive schedule of studies, and, not being of exactly robust health, he feels that he cannot continue as president of the Club without neglecting either of his duties or his health.

ALTAR SOCIETY RE-ORGANIZED

Brother Cracknell New Director

The Altar Society, under the guidance of Brother Cracknell, has held two meetings for the purpose of preparing the members for their formal reception into the St. John Berchman's Sanctuary Society. Although the Altar Society has, for the past few years, been referred to as the St. John Berchman's Sanctuary Society, it's members were not actually members of that international body, because the college did not strictly adhere to the prescriptions of the latter. This year, however, the college society is being re-organized to conform to these rules. The formal reception of candidates for membership, which is required by the St. John Berchman's Society, will be held in a few months.

President Morrissey presided at all of these meetings. On each occasion, Brother Cracknell gave talks on the new rules and on the privileges enjoyed by all who were allowed to serve at Mass.

Allen Nolan was re-elected president. Mr. J. Smith was elected treasurer, Mr. V. Cinquina, vice-president, and Mr. W. Beard, secretary.

The College members of the Club are: L. Martoccio, A. J. Nolan, W. J. McClelland, J. Smith, W. Diaz, H. O'Grady, A. Muccilli and E. Mathews. The High School is represented by William Beard, A. Cardosi, V. Cinquina, J. Comina, D. Catramboni, J. Hodge, D. Lizzadro, J. Martoccio, M. Morici, F. Madero, H. McKewon, O. Monaco, F. Paris and Peter Verosky. The membership this year totals seven more than that of last year. It is hoped that the greater number will be an auspice of greater success.

Students Enthusiastically Received In Kankakee On Eve Of Homecoming

Thursday night, October 20th, will be known in the annals of Kankakee as the night of the northern invasion. During the two days that preceded the fateful day, rumors were circulated that the hoboes had captured Bourbonnais, sacked St. Viator and had done considerable damage in Bradley. Whether the disastrous events which followed are to be imputed to the apathy of the town militia, or to the treachery of some officials will remain one of history's unsolved riddles. At all events the hoboes, who lurked all day on the outskirts of the town, presumably at St. Viator's, commandeered trolley cars, and other swifter means of transportation and took the city completely by surprise. The good citizens of Kankakee rushed from their houses to the streets at the first explosion and threw up their arms in surrender. The fair damsels of the conquered city, charmed by the eery music of the hobo Pied Pipers, lined the avenues and cheered the mighty hosts of hobodom. The city fathers, eager to conciliate the good will of the invaders, received them amidst the strains of inspiring music, and the hoboes, proving themselves worthy of their country, had pity on the defenseless city. In response Chief Hobo "Lefty" Laenhardt called on his generals and his captains and all his soldiers to give one rousing cheer for Kankakee, for its enchanting musicians, and for the enthusiastic reception of the hoboes. Not to be outdone, the Kankakee band known as the Legion Fife and Drum Corps responded with a blast of music. Before leaving the town the hoboes gave the population a few intimations of their designs on their next victim, the Columbia football squad. Following this demonstration the invaders mingled with the crowd, thus giving the folks the opportunity to examine the Nomads more closely.

Far from presenting a uniform appearance, the hoboes exhibited all the colors of the rainbow and the most varied of uniforms. These represented the spoils of many a campaign; seal and bearskin coats from the frozen regions of the north, bright-hued gowns and capes from Venice and Naples, broad-striped uniforms from the sack of Joliet penitentiary, wide, flowing dresses of the days of Louis XIV, calico makeshifts a la gypsy swished and flouted at the side of the most daring apparel of the 1927 flapper, wide brimmed ten gallon hats from the hot plains of

F. C. F. HOLDS FIRST MEET OF THE YEAR

Clarence Dempsey Elected President. Father Landroche New Moderator

When Father Landroche announced that the Father Charles Fraternity would continue to exist despite the fact that both its founders had left St. Viator, he allayed the fears of a large number of old members. Then, suiting his action to the word, he called the first meeting of the year on Thursday, September 22nd. At this meeting, retiring president Campbell presided. Father opened the session with a short talk on the urgent necessity of co-operating with each other to the end that the society might be kept alive. When he had concluded his address, President Campbell called for the election of officers.

Clarence Dempsey, one of last year's Academy graduates, and erstwhile athletic reporter of the Wave, was chosen president. Vincent Morrissey, an active member of this year's fourth high, was named vice-president. Two former presidents, Edward Campbell and Eddie O'Neil, were voted secretary and treasurer, respectively. Messrs. Hodge and Tracey were given the honorable position of janitors.

Following the poll, the Moderator read Brother O'Loughlin's open letter to the members. Our co-founder stated, in his message, that he sincerely hoped for the continued well-being of the Fraternity, and he, also, urged all the members to pull together in the common cause of upholding it. The meeting adjourned immediately after the reading of the letter.

Mexico, firemen's helmets salvaged from the great Chicago fire, straw hats of old and new vintage, all vied with each other for superiority. No less motley were the races which composed the horde. Cowboys from the Western plains, Indians from Bloomington, Bedouins from St. George, ferocious looking gangsters from Chicago, cat-like apaches from the winding tunnels of Paris, seventeenth century rollickers from Rockford and Fort Wayne, formed a good portion of the picturesque throng. The rest were a cross-section of the "You and I" folks.

Such were the fleeting impressions left by the hoboes who departed as fast as they had come. Reports are coming in that they repaired to St. Viator's to celebrate their victory by burning the booty taken from the neighboring towns. The latest reports from Bourbonnais are that the hoboes were harangued by Father Maguire and others. Much uncertainty still hovers over what transpired at that time, but it seems that the hoboes, either persuaded by eloquence, or awed by the mighty power of the St. Viator football team, or yet seduced by the comfortable appearance of the institution, consented to attend the homecoming celebrations, and even to henceforth make St. Viator's College their home.

Kankakee News Pays Tribute to Voyageur

Terms Third Edition Of Academy Annual "A Work Of Art"

NOTE: The following article is taken from the August 3rd edition of the Kankakee Daily News. It is a review and criticism of the St. Viator Academy Annual. We re-print it here, hoping that it will prove an incentive to this year's staff so that they will equal and even surpass the standard set by the Voyageur staff of 1927.

"The Voyageur," St. Viator's annual published by the academy and now in its third year, appears before the public in a most attractive form. It is beautifully bound, well printed and profusely illustrated.

The kindly features of the Rev. Terrence J. Rice, president of the college and academy, appear first in the book and the photo is followed by views of the buildings and grounds. The members of the faculty have a place of honor and the student body is shown by classes. Scattered through the book are strikingly beautiful reproductions of photographs showing scenes in this vicinity. They are the work of Duane P. Hotchkiss, who has established a national reputation in photography.

Tells of Student Activities
With the name of each graduate from the 1927 senior class is a brief summary of the student's activities in school organizations. The various papers and addresses in the graduating exercises are given in full, showing the efforts of the pupils to be praiseworthy in a high degree. Club and fraternity matters are given plenty of space without being tedious. Athletics occupy a prominent place. There is a place for jokes, inevitable in a school annual. The advertisements are placed at the end of the book and are so well gotten up that there is no danger that they will be overlooked.

Shows Good Compilation
The entire book shows careful and intelligent editorship. There is no material between the covers that is a waste of paper. It is a book which will be prized by the students all their lives and is interesting reading even for any who have no interest in the school outside of that of general educational interest. The one hundred pages of reading and illustrations and the closing pages of advertising are high class material.

SENIOR HIGH HOLDS SPECIAL CLASS MEETING

A special meeting of the Senior Academy Class was called last night for the purpose of selecting a photographer for the 1928 annual, and of discussing plans for the year's activities. The work of taking the class and individual graduates pictures will be done earlier this year than is usual. If the present plans of the Annual Staff materialize, the great majority of the pictures will be taken before Christmas. It has not been decided, as yet, whether new cuts of the College buildings will be necessary for this year's annual. If the men working in the capacity of business managers find that the funds on hand warrant the making of new plates then new plates will be made; if not, the old ones will again be pressed into service.

However, this was not the sole business of the meeting. Mr. Casey, circulation manager of this year's annual, suggested that the class begin working on plans for its social functions of this year. The advisability of beginning so early was debated pro and con before Father Stephenson, the class Moderator, who suggested that a vote be taken on the matter of financing these functions. Mr. Singler's proposal that the class dues be half a dollar a month was accordingly voted on and passed by a large majority. Then the matter of holding regular meetings was taken up from where it had been dropped at the last meeting. The class voted in favor of holding their gatherings on the second and fourth Wednesday of each month.

made his hearers feel that St. Viator College could look with confidence towards the future. An institute such as St. Viator College with its splendid buildings, its magnificent grounds and wonderful spirit of enthusiasm among its alumni, together with the remarkable business ability displayed in the management of its affairs is something that would gladden the heart of any financier were it among his investments.

The meeting passed a resolution of gratitude to the Duffy family for their generous benefactions to the College through their parents who donated 120 acres some years ago, and their sister who made a recent donation. Thanks were also expressed to the LaRocque family of Manteno who established a bursar in memory of Miss Amelia LaRocque through the Extension Club. The secretary was also instructed to express the gratitude of the organization to the Rev. S. N. Moore of Bloomington, Illinois, and his brother, Professor Thomas Moore of the Ottawa High School, Ottawa, Illinois, for the bursar established in the memory of their father. The memory of one of the most devoted members of the Club was also recalled in the Treasurer's report when he announced in the name of the family of Mrs. Mary Lynch of Chicago, Illinois, that it was their intention to establish through the Extension Club a memorial to their mother.

Father P. C. Conway, Vice-president of the Extension Club, in an address paid a tribute to Father Rheams and incidentally to the past Presidents of the College, Fathers Marsile, O'Mahoney, Ryan, Bergin and Rice. In his closing he moved that the Club send a telegram to Father Bergin expressing the Club's congratulations on Father Bergin's Sacred Silver Jubilee. The motion was carried and, after a few appointments had been made, the conference adjourned.

FIVE STUDENTS CONFIRMED BY BISHOP HOBAN

Receive Sacrament With Large Class At St. Rose Church

Five students of St. Viator College and Academy were confirmed by Bishop Hoban, Auxiliary Bishop of the Chicago diocese, at St. Rose Church, Kankakee, yesterday. The candidates were prepared for the reception of the Sacrament of Confirmation by Brother Cracknell, c. s. v., registrar of the College and Moderator of the St. John Berchmann's Sanctuary Society. The students who received the Sacrament were: Raymond V. Beatty, Thomas V. Bowen, George J. Robinson, Akos A. Yerga, and Eddie D. Muccilli. The sponsors were Gerald Pauli, Simon McMahon, Ernest Miller, Eugene Hoffman, John Tenkelly and William Barrett.

FATHER LAFLEUR ASSEMBLES ORCHESTRA

Regular Practices Now Being Held In Studio

After having carefully selected a number of orchestra selections from the leading Chicago music houses, Father LaFleur, Director of the Piano Department, issued a call for musicians to form a College Symphony Orchestra. His summons was readily answered by a goodly number of candidates and from all prospects we will soon have a truly representative orchestra. Regular practice periods have been arranged and will be held in the new studio adjoining the campus. Students who have had any training on orchestral instruments are requested to report to Father LaFleur at the earliest opportunity.

MILLIKIN AND COLUMBIA DEFEATED

MILLIKIN FALLS BEFORE ONRUSH OF GREEN WAVE

Varsity Mars Millikin's Homecoming By Winning 13-8

The green wave of Viator tied the can onto old Millikin, and turned back 2500 Homecomers with sorrow in their hearts. The statue of James Millikin wept bitterly as the cheerleaders called for sirens that only sighed, and sky rockets that lost their racket. The Blue machine coached by Johnson functioned smoothly, but the Viator outfit performed superbly; the Blue hit hard, but Viator hit harder; the Blue ran fast, but Viator ran faster. Thus the story goes. In a perfect setting of sunshine and shadows the two elevens representing Millikin and Viator, conference rivals, met, cast their respective lots in brawn and brains, and Viator proved to have the superior and more determined team. As a result Viator annexed the first win in many years from the Blue and White by the margin of 13 to 8. Let it not be said that Millikin did not fight, fired by the spirit of Homecoming they plunged into the tilt with all the determination they could muster; while on the other hand Viator, carrying the sting of a string of defeats on the gridiron and secretly harboring championship aspirations, became an unbeatable and invincible thing of energy, power and fight. Every man on the team fought and fought hard, there was not a weak spot in the Green line-up.

Viator Line Functioned Well
The seven men who open up the holes and prepare the path for the charging and sweeping end runs and off tackle plays of the backs were at their best Saturday. Herbert, Meis, O'Malley, May and Kelley all lived up to their reputation as fighters and tore through the Millikin line time after time. Mathews, Furlong and Leary also gave a good account of themselves. Furlong was fast down under punts and Leary and Mathews proved to be deadly tacklers in close scrimmage plays.

The backfield seemed unable to perform up to the mark until the second quarter, but when they did, everything seemed to work to perfection. They scored their first touchdown by straight football and made good gains every time they were in possession of the ball after that. In the last quarter they were on a march from the 18 yard line which ended as the whistle blew with the ball on Millikin's five yard line with three downs to put it over.

George LaFleur, product of Bradley High, turned in a creditable exhibition. His brilliant interception and return of a Millikin pass, fifty-five yards for a touchdown was the outstanding feature of the game. Along with his carrying exhibitions, LaFleur did well backing up the line.

Laenhardt's punts were going for 50 or 60 yards almost every boot and it was his excellent work with the toe that turned back the Blue time after time. Delaney was toting the

Academy Team Wins From De LaSalle and St. Mary's

ACADEMY TRIMS DE LA SALLE IN CLOSE GAME

Whole Team Stars; Game Featured By Many Serious Injuries

Last Saturday the Academy continued their drive to wipe out all of last year's defeats by humbling De La Salle Institute of Joliet, 6 to 0. Our lone score came late in the third quarter on a line plunge by Stillwell. Singler had placed the ball in a scoring position, when he ran a Joliet punt back 20 yards. Sullivan and Stillwell alternated in carrying the ball to the one yard line, from which place Stillwell scored. Sully kicked the try for goal wide of the posts.

The victory was a costly one for the Viatorians. Alex Cardosi, who has been performing at guard and tackle for the Academy, broke his shoulder in the third quarter. Anderhub, also, was injured in this quarter. Stillwell, the mainstay of the backfield, had to be carried off the field in the same stanza, but did not suffer any broken bones. The first two quarters of the game exhibited straight, hard-fought football producing an unusual number of injuries. If there were any superiority during these periods De LaSalle would take the honors. Singler's splendid punts were sometimes the only features that kept the Joliet team from crossing our goal. The Viator line would tighten when Joliet threatened and on getting the ball, the flashy little Viator quarterback drove back the invaders fifty and sometimes sixty yards with his well placed kicks. In the final quarters the game presented a different aspect with both teams fighting to put over the one score that would win the game. The following is a detailed account of the thrilling last half.

Third Quarter: Joliet kicked off. Hinton returned to our 40 yard mark. Stillwell made two. Sully lost two on a bad pass from center. Sullivan's attempted pass was knocked down. Monaco downed Singler's kick on the 17 yard line. Joliet lost 5. On the next play they failed to gain. Then the visitors punted to the 34 yard mark. Anderhub was hurt in this play. Morici substituted for him. Stillwell crashed through center for five. Sullivan failed to gain, but Joliet was penalized 5 yards for offside. Singler carried the ball for a first down on the 21 yard line. Sullivan was stopped on the line of scrimmage. Stillwell made three. Singler's punt was downed on the 3 yard line. Joliet kicked immediately, and Singler ran the kick back 20 yards. Ball now on the twenty-three yard line. Stillwell gained 2 through guard. Sullivan made it first down on the 11 yard line. Sully gained 2. Stillwell added one. On the next

Academy Victors Over St. Mary's, Bloomington

Sullivan's Toe Saves Day For St. Viator. Score 6-7

Those antiquated gentlemen who amused the English country folks, sometime in the Dark Ages, by gambling with skulls across the village green would have been laughed and booed to shame, by the same rustic assemblage, had they been pitted against either one of the elevens that matched brawn and brains on Bergin field Friday, October 14th. In fact they would have discarded their skulls and lent themselves to the more pleasurable and less sanguinary pastime of tiddley-winks. Twelve long months ago the same schools met on a gridiron, and history records that Viator took the short end of a 6 to 0 score, after Jackson had galloped 85 yards to the visitors one yard line only to have his team mates fail to put the ball over. Part of that same team went out on the field for the second struggle with St. Mary's, with a handful of new men, who received the story of last year's defeat from their elder team mates; mad at themselves, mad at St. Mary's and aching to get even. This they did, but the story of their victory was written in a scroll that faltered for two quarters, while St. Mary's annexed a six point lead, and then with a dash St. Viator Academy proceeded to write victory all over the campus for the remaining thirty minutes of the after-piece. With Stillwell, Singler, Sullivan and Anderhub running wild, Viator marched the full length of the field to score the tying touchdown and Sullivan booted the goal that spelled victory. Along with these gentlemen the entire line, Seneca and Biggs especially fought like wolves with their backs to the wall and turned defeat into something more sweet. St. Mary's was also fighting. Middleton, Callans, Gunn and Bonny gave their best. Already victorious on three occasions they hated to see the talisman of success slip. Bonny was without doubt the most brilliant man on the field. He showed his ability as an illusive open field runner and also as a slippery line smasher. His work with that of Middleton was noteworthy. Although Viator won, the margin of victory was small, and even in defeat St. Mary's can well share the olive branch with the victors. The game was a thriller from every standpoint. The story runs thus:

St. Mary's kicked off to Viator and Bosquette in his eagerness fumbled the ball. St. Mary's recovered on Viator's 23 yard line. Bonny went off tackle for 3 yards. Callans drove through for 4 more and after Rosensteel had failed to gain, Callans made it first down around right end. Rosensteel snagged 6 in the same direction and on the following play a pass, Middleton to Bonny, was good for a touchdown. The goal was missed by inches. Score, St. Mary's 6; Viator 0.

St. Mary's kicked again, Hinton of Viator returning the ball 5 yards. Sullivan knocked off 6 yards on an end run. Bosquette made first down. Singler stepped off 25 around right end on a cut back and on the next play Stillwell fumbled. St. Mary's ball. Bonny made 8 yards. Rosensteel made first down through guard. He was injured on the play and Gunn replaced him. Callans yard line. Laenhardt lost three around right end. A pass, Delaney to LaFleur, was grounded. Laenhardt punted over goal line. Columbia ball on their own 20 yard line. Columbia failed to gain on first down. Columbia punted to Viator 48 yard line. Viator recovered outside. Evard lost one yard. A pass, Delaney to Meis, was no good and called back. Laenhardt punted. Columbia fumbled and recovered on 35 yard line. Luckens carried ball outside. Kelley tackled Russell for a two yard loss. Laenhardt took a Columbia punt and returned 5 yards to Viator's 42 yard line. LaFleur tore through guard for three yards. Delaney made two around end. A pass, Delaney to Laenhardt was good for 20 yards and a first down. LaFleur failed to gain around right end. LaFleur made it first down on Columbia's 25 yard line. Delaney made one around left end. A pass by Delaney was grounded. LaFleur carried it around left end to the five yard line. Laenhardt went off tackle for two and then LaFleur added two but the wall went to Columbia on a fourth down. Columbia punted out to her own 30 yard line where Laenhardt received as the quarter ended.

The Second Quarter

Delaney went through for 4 yards. LaFleur went off tackle for four more. Delaney dove over line for first down. A pass, Delaney to LaFleur was grounded. A five yard penalty resulted from the second incomplete, Delaney to LaFleur. Laenhardt punted out of bounds on Columbia's 15 yard line. Columbia made 6 yards on two line plays. Offside, Viator penalized 5 yards. Luckens added two off tackle. Russell went around right end for two yards. Delaney made 3 yards off tackle. LaFleur skirted left end for 5 more, eluding the end. Delaney made it first down in midfield. A lateral pass; Delaney to Laenhardt did not gain. A flat zone pass, Laenhardt to Delaney was good for 7 yards. Delaney went through center for first down. LaFleur was tackled from behind for a 7 yard loss. A pass was grounded. Another pass went outside. Viator penalized 5 yards. Laenhardt punted to Columbia, the ball going out of bounds on the 25 yard line. Columbia made first down on three line plays. The next line play failed to gain. Luckens punted to Viator's 45 yard line. A bad pass from center lost 25 yards for Viator. Walsko went in for Evard. Laenhardt punted to mid-field. Russell receiving stopped in tracks. A Columbia pass went wide. Russell went around right end for 15 yards and first down. A double pass lost five yards, Meis making pretty tackle. Pass failed to work. A pass, Luckens to Knob was good for 20 yards as the half ended.

ball in old time form. Mike's legs were ailing him for some time, but the heat of yesterday's conflict seemed to loosen up the old peddler and he made several very brilliant runs through the Millikin line for goodly gains. McAllister seems to have found a real team boss in Byron E'vard. This cool and collected gentleman who never smiles on a basketball court carried his collected manner onto the gridiron and seems to have a keen judgment and a lot of gridiron sense.

The entire team performed so smoothly that it would be hard to pick the individual star of the game for Viator. Every man gave his best and fought hard to make the victory possible. For Millikin the work of Van Dyne and Purvis in the line was exceptional, while in the backfield Sockler and Wilmoth won the major portion of the honor. Millikin's entire team played a wonderful brand of ball.

The Game By Quarters

Millikin won the toss and chose to kick. St. Viator received and returned the kick-off to the 38 yard line. After an exchange of punts, Millikin took the ball to Viator's 25 yard line, but lost it on a fumble. Two plays later Millikin recovered on a Viator fumble on the 40 yard line. Two plays netted a first down and then Millikin passed, Viator intercepting. The quarter ended with Millikin in possession of the ball on Viator's 35 yard line. Millikin made five first downs during the quarter and Viator scored two. Score, Millikin 0; Viator 0.

Second Quarter

Viator took the ball on downs and Laenhardt punted to Millikin's 35 yard line. Millikin immediately returned the punt. Viator lost 8 yards on attempted line plays. Laenhardt attempted a punt from behind his goal, the punt was blocked and he recovered, giving Millikin a safety. Score, Millikin 2; Viator 0. Millikin kicked and Viator opened up a passing attack carrying the ball to mid-field. A penalty of fifteen yards pushed them back and Laenhardt kicked. Millikin tried a pass but Viator intercepted, and began an advance with straight football which netted a touchdown when Delaney plunged over from the two yard line. The kick was not allowed after touchdown. Score, Viator 6; Millikin 2.

St. Viator kicked off to Millikin. Sockler made 28 yards, but on the next play a fumble gave Viator the ball in mid-field. The half ended with an exchange of punts. Viator 6; Millikin 2.

The Second Half

Millikin kicked to Viator and the Viator backs advanced the ball for two first downs before Laenhardt kicked.
