Obituary

The College of St. Viator wishes to tender its deepest sympathies to the family of Miss Edna Stelter. Miss Stelter was in attendance here in 1931, and during that time gained the love and respect of the student alumnus, has been appointed Athletic Director and Head Coach at Bonfield, south of Kankakee.
"Stew" Baker and E. Headman, former students, have been spending a few days at the College. They are returning to their homes, after having finished a tour "a la collegiate" through the eastern states.
Gendron Legris, '34, has been appointed laboratory professor at St. Viator College, and can still be found spending his evenings in Roy Hall.

dents and faculty. Her death is a personal loss to her many friends still among the College students.

We learned with deepest regret of the death of the father of Herman Snow, '36. Mr. Snow, who was well known on the campus and often aided the classes in their social functions, held the esteem and regard of all who knew him and his absence will be greatly felt.

The faculty of St. Viator College and the many friends of the Rev. F. A. Sheridan of Fort Wayne, Ind., were grieved to learn of his death which occurred at Mercy Hospital, Chicago, July 23, 1924, after two months illness. For the past ten years, Father Sheridan has been stationed in Fort Wayne. Previously he taught English literature and dramatics at St. Viator College, and was assistant at St. Via-

CHANGES MADE IN ADMINISTRATION

New Members Are Added To Council

The Very Reverend Edward V. Cardinal, C. S. V., Ph. D., President of St. Viator College, has chosen as Vice-President the Reverend Richard J. French, C. S. V., Ph. D., who has been promoted from the office of Dean, an office he has held for the last two years. Dr. French, who made his studies at the University of Chicago, at the Catholic University of America in Washington, and at Loyola University in Chicago, will continue to head the Department of Education.

The Reverend Leo T. Phillips, C. S. V., has been appointed Dean of Studies to succeed Dr. French. Dr. Phillips, who for the past three years has been head of the Viatorian Seminary in Washington, D. C., is well known because of his years of teaching at St. Viators, and because of his position as head of the High School Department for several years prior to its discontinuance.

Succeeding the Reverend E. M. Kelly, C. S. V., who resigned as Director of Athletics, will be the Rev. Francis J. Harbauer, C. S. V. Father Harbauer is not new to the college administration, having served for the past two years as Dean of Men. Father Harbauer, who studied at the University of Illinois, and at the Catholic University, and who holds the degree of Master of Arts, will continue to teach German.

Succeeding Father Harbauer as Dean of Men will be the Reverend Joseph J. Ryan, C. S. V. Although Father Ryan has been away from the college for several years, finishing his studies for the priesthood, and earning his Master's degree at the University of Illinois and the Catholic University of America, he is known to many residents of Kankakee and to many students of recent years.

The above men, together with the Reverend Christopher Marzano, C. S. V., Ph. D., who has been appointed to remain as Treasurer of the College, a position he has held for several years, will comprise the College Council of Administration. This Council will assist the President, Dr. Cardinal, in directing all activities at the College during the coming year, a year that promises to be noteworthy because of an elaborate program of improvement and expansion that is now being launched.

How to Judge Morality Of The Motion Pictures

The problem of morality in a film is exactly the same problem that one finds in literature or on the stage. The one added element in the film is that the enactment is vivified by actual enactment and a presentation which is seen by audiences hypnotized through the darkness of a theatre and the slightly numbing effect of intense light on the screen.

But fundamentally the rules are the same:

1. One must not confuse through a novel, a play, or a film, the question of what is right and what is wrong. When immorality is presented as a justified course of conduct, when virtue is presented as ridiculous, when crime is approved (whether that be murder, burglary, racketeering, or suicide), or when the just law is attacked and made absurd, the presentations are immoral and wrong.

2. One must not present vice

Critique—

TO THE EDITOR—

Every student who attended the meeting of the College Club on the 22nd must have derived a certain amount of satisfaction from the attitude adopted by Mr. Kelly in his role of President, and, for that matter, by the Club members as a whole.

We are told that at one time, though we must admit that period transcends our memory, the College Club was the most powerful organization on the campus, ironing out many student difficulties and taking a positive stand on all collegiate questions. At the same time, it fostered a better student social life and sponsored numerous collegiate activities throughout the season.

A few years ago, however, the club again began to decay, until last year it had almost passed out of existence. It was merely an organization, holding jealously to its old respectability, and yet, unwilling to take any proportionate action in the College life.

Do you wonder then, that we were both surprised and sincerely enthusiastic over the spirit of resolution manifested at the Club's first meeting? Mr. Kelly clearly stated his objectives for the year and lead every student to believe that he intended to carry out those objectives. He let it be known that the club existed for the good of the school and that he intended to execute his work in a concise, mannerly order.

And not alone in Mr. Kelly did we observe the keynote of the school's spirit of co-operation and purpose, but from those who had business to place before the meeting as well.

In short, it appears that the College Club is once again to take its rightful place in campus affairs. It is our sincere hope that we will not be disillusioned, that Mr. Kelly will continue throughout his administration to lead the students to a keener school spirit, a more unified social life and a better understanding of campus problems.

TO THE EDITOR

There is usually some column in every paper which belongs in the waste paper basket. The campus briefs belongs in this category. It has no purpose except that of causing trouble and making personal affairs public.

It should likewise be remembered by the writers and editors that erroneous conceptions of college life at St. Viator will be formed by the many readers who are unfamiliar with the true facts. Perhaps if the writer would confine himself to generalities, it would be more to the achievement of a common enjoyment and good.

or crime in such a fashion as to stimulate the passions, or teach how to commit similar crimes.

Even if in the end the immoral person is punished and the gangster goes to his doom, the picture (as well as the novel or play) may still be evil. For when the vice is presented in a stimulating and attractive fashion, or the gangster is shown as a hero (unselfish, charming, generous), the climax or punishment will not be sufficient to eradicate the stimulation and the appeal of the early sections.

Hence, scenes that stimulate passion, arouse evil thoughts, or teach crime, will vitiate and make immoral an otherwise satisfactory picture.

Plans For Debating Society Are Formed

The opening of the current intercollegiate debate season will find the ranks of the Bergin Debating Society seriously depleted through the graduation and transfer of several veterans. The present enrollment indicates that of last year's fine squad there are only four members returning to St. Viator this fall. Despite this fact, the Reverend John W. Stafford, who succeeds the Rev. J. W. R. Maguire as debate coach, has high hopes that he can find enough good material in the Freshman class to form a strong aggregation. Father Stafford is regarded as the finest debater ever to have been enrolled at St. Viator College, an institution which has always been regarded in collegiate circles as one of the strongest in this field.

Of the returning members of last season's teams, Mr. Norbert Ellis is the oldest and most experienced. With two full years of intercollegiate contests to his credit he has been appointed to the position of student manager of the Bergin Society. The other students who reported this year are Miss Mary Cruise, Mr. Edward Buttgen, and Mr. William Schumacher. No doubt the large freshman class will furnish many recruits, although as yet no tryouts have taken place.

On Friday night, September 29, Father Stafford attended the meeting of the debate coaches of the Little Nineteen Conference, held in Chicago. Here he represented Viator in scheduling the debates for the coming season. This schedule will be augmented, of course, by other contests with teams outside the Little Nineteen.

The following is a tentative schedule of debates:

Aff.—De Paul, away.
Neg.—Bradley, away.
Neg.—Ill. State Normal, here.
Neg.—Shurtleff, here.
Aff.—De Kalb, here.
Aff.—Olivet, away.

Station WCFL has extended an invitation to the League for a series of radio debates. Eleven of these are indicated.

Viator's first debate will take place some time in October.

Sisters Improve Service of Infirmary, Cuisine

When the students arrived on the campus this year, they were pleasantly surprised to learn that sisters had already taken charge of the cuisine and infirmary. The nine sisters of Notre Dame of Covington, Kentucky, came to the College in July and since that time they have been busy getting everything in good order for the opening of school.

Everything in and about the refectory has an air of cleanliness and efficiency. The meals have a good, old-fashioned, Kentucky flavor about them that is hard to beat, and the pancakes are better than the ones mother has forgotten how to bake. The sisters, busy and smiling, who see to it that every strap speck of dirt that gets into Roy Hall is promptly ejected, have added a note of cheerfulness that makes the housing building more like a home. Bottles of evil-tasting medicines, thermometers, bandages and adhesive tape have lost much of their disagreeableness because of the gentleness and care one receives in the infirmary.

All in all, things have improved 100 per cent since the sisters have been put in charge; and the students, through the columns of the school paper, wish to let the sisters know that they are mighty welcome and that they are for them 100 per cent.

Campus Briefs—

I wonder what's become of Salby, Technocracy, "They Cut Down the Old Pine Tree", last year's straws, and the guy that said you could never clean up smutty movies. How things do change . . . Ken Wiser must be thinking of the old Frontier days, he's doing considerable pioneering on Prairie avenue in the Bradley wilds . . . Perhaps there is one of our great host of readers who has not heard this one. That alone would be sufficient justification for its being printed. It seems that a certain budding freshman was filling out his registration card. He was making great progress until he came to the space marked "Place of Birth, (Post Office)". After a slight pause for deliberation, the young man grasped his pen and wrote, "No, St. Anne's Hospital". . . . The Frosh have a theme song which they sing to some of the more popular upper-classmen. It is entitled "Brother, Can You Spare a Dame?" . . . Professor, after being interrupted by Madigan, "Sir, do you not know that the only one who likes to be interrupted in the middle of a sentence is a convict?" . . . The usual place on the fourth corridor has been often disturbed lately by the shouts of two prominent young Frosh. The cause, believe it or not, is the habit one gentleman has of plucking his eyebrows.

Dearie me ! ! . . . We take nothing upon ourselves, but merely report that a little bird told us that Steve Gould bloomed out in Bloomington last summer . . . Report, rumor, we admit it, but it seems that the Moonglow on a not far distant mid-summer night caused a poplar, bespectacled Sophomore to ask The Question, and we wonder if it was the Star-Dust that caused the young lady to answer yes. May we be the first to offer our congrats . . . Attention, ye of Kankakee, Bill Phalen has returned to the fold, and teamed up with George Fleming—a dangerous combination . . . It must have been a rare treat to any one who was privileged to gaze upon the countenance of Joe Barzantry this summer. His chin was the proud possessor of a van-dyke, yellow and faint, we admit, but nevertheless, it WAS a van-dyke . . . Then too, there is the popular young co-ed who was lately informed by paternal authority that there are to be no nights-out during class days. Tough, both for her and certain gentlemen of distinction . . . Among things to be thankful for, list the fact that, while God may give us our relatives, He leaves us free to choose our own friends . . . So long!

PLANS FOR INTRA-MURAL ACTIVITIES ON COLLEGE CAMPUS FORMULATED

John Hargrove Appointed Student Manager; New Point System Is Adopted At St. Viator

With the renewal of the scholastic year the attention of the students turns naturally to sports. Therefore, to provide a means for all to participate, a system of Intra-mural activities is being inaugurated by the Rev. F. J. Harbauer, C. S. V., Director of Athletics. John Hargrove has been appointed Student Manager, and will handle as his first activity a Bowling Tournament which will be followed in turn by a Pool Tournament and a Ping-Pong Tournament.

In years gone by, Father Thomas Hariss, a devoted alumnus of the College, was a pioneer in the developing of Intra-mural activities. However, with the abandonment of the High School department and the consequent drop in boarding students, the Intra-mural program was allowed to lapse, while more emphasis was placed upon varsity competition. Last year saw a revival, and with the new record enrollment of this year, Intra-mural activities bid well to encourage even more the high spirit that, in previous years, was so prevalent on the Viator campus.

The University of Illinois has defined the program of Intra-mural athletics as a modified system of Physical Education, and if plans materialize, it will not be long before the College authorities shall inaugurate a course in Physical Education. The Intra-mural activities are a means towards an end. They tend towards, not only the development of the mind and body, but also towards fostering a spirit of fellowship among the student body.

Only a few changes will be made in the point system that governs the awarding of the Intra-mural Championship Trophy. The student who receives the highest number of points during the scholastic year, will be given a trophy and shall have earned through his athletic prowess the title of "Champion of Intra-mural Sports". Don Betourne of Kankakee, Ill., is last year's title holder.

Following is the point system which has been arranged by Thomas Kelly, President of the College Club, John Bimmerle, President of the Senior Class; John Hargrove, Student Manager of Intra-mural Sports; George Fleming, Student Manager of Athletics; and William Schumacher, Sports Editor of the VIATORIAN:

1. Winners of the bowling, handball, pool, ping-pong and tennis tournaments—10 points.
2. Runner-up of the afore-mentioned tournaments—5 points.
3. Members of winning Intra-mural league teams—10 points.
4. Members of runner-up teams—5 points.
5. High point man in the swimming or track meets—10 points.
6. Runner-up in the afore-mentioned meets—5 points.
7. Owing to the fact that "Intra-mural means 'within the walls'", the committee has decided that members of varsity teams, since they engage in inter-collegiate competition and also since they receive monograms, shall not be awarded points in the Intra-mural contests. It has also been decided that captains of Intra-mural teams shall receive no extra points, since the captaincy in itself is honorary and does not necessarily indicate outstanding athletic ability.

COLLEGE MEN TO FORM ORCHESTRA

Plans were begun Saturday night by John Hargrove, Kenneth Wisner, Byron Burke and George McWeeney for the formation of a College Dance Orchestra. These four men, who hope to surround themselves with approximately eight other players, express as their purpose, the desire to stimulate their interest in popular music and to put to practical use their knowledge of instrumental entertainment.

The orchestra is to be known as "The Viatorians", and, after securing the current orchestrations, shall be open for engagements both on and off of the campus. All four of the originators of the organization have had previous experience in dance band playing, and are, therefore, well qualified for the undertaking. Mr. McWeeney is a musical composer of some note.

The College will certainly welcome the enterprise, as the lack of a school orchestra has been severely felt in the past. Many colleges already have similar organization, and have found the arrangement very convenient and satisfactory. "The Viatorians" will deserve all of the co-operation the classes and clubs of the campus can give them.

gan with such crowning success, and twice carried the pigskin over the Viator goal line, most of the playing was done between the Teachers' thirty and forty-yard lines. Both touchdowns were made before rain began to fall early in the second quarter.

The starting lineup was:

FATHER KELLY RESIGNS POST

This summer the Rev. E. M. Kelly, C. S. V., was compelled by ill health to resign his position as Director of Athletics at St. Viator, to the sincere regret of all who knew him.

Father Kelly has held his post in the field of sports so long and so effectively that his leaving must be felt most keenly by the students. He is loved and respected by all who have served under him, and it has become proverbial that when the odds seem against the Green Wave, Father Kelly never loses faith in his boys.

While there is no doubt that the Rev. F. J. Harbauer will fill the position capably, yet Father Kelly will certainly be missed, and it is to be hoped that he will not give up his interest in and support of Viator athletics.

George Fleming To Manage Athletics

George Fleming, one of St. Viator's outstanding campus leaders has been appointed Student Manager of Athletics by the Rev. Father Harbauer, C. S. V., Director of Athletics. Fleming, a senior, hails from Chicago, Ill., and is the last of the old St. Viator Academy graduates to be in attendance at the College.

During his academy days, "Gawg" was a member of the football and basketball squads. Since attending the college he has been active in all campus affairs. He was President of his class last year and a candidate for College club President, losing by a slight margin of three votes. For the past three years, Fleming has been Bowling Singles Champion, and last year he was captain of the winning Bowling Tournament team. He has, likewise, had many major parts in the Dramatic and Glee Club performances.

This is the fifty-second anniversary of the VIATORIAN. It was first printed in the form of a manual, and it was not until about fifteen years ago that the present newspaper style was adopted. The VIATORIAN is the oldest Catholic college paper in the middle west, and one of the oldest college papers of any denomination in this vicinity.

GREEN WAVE PROSPECTS BRIGHTEN AS MURPHYMEN ARE PUT TO DRILL

Twelve Lettermen Return To Gridiron; With Many New Recruits Promising

Sport Shorts—

The first I-M undertaking at St. Viator promises to be an overwhelming success if we can judge from the heavy vote cast in the election of bowling captains. Again "Flip" Fleming's ability as a bowler has placed him at the helm of a team. George has been single's champ at the College for the past three years. The men selected for the captaincies are: Ken Corcoran, E. Dexter, G. Fleming, J. Marik, J. Quinn, Tom Kelly, Ken Wisner, Tom Gibbons, Joe Saia, Ed O'Brien, J. Bimmerle, George Rogers, Ray Roche, Clarence Noonan, F. Shea, Jim O'Mera, "Slew" Stockbar, Francis Krauklis. In case additional men sign up and teams are added to the league, the captains will be selected from these men, J. Hargrove, R. Schumacher and C. Newberg.

John Hargrove wishes to announce that facilities for handball are available, and anyone who wishes to play can secure equipment by seeing him.

News from the swimming front—Basil Nicholson, a native of England, while attending school at Hopkins Academy (a Yale Prep) in Conn., was Intra-mural scholastic 100 yard backstroke champion. It looks as though the aquatic material will be sufficiently strong this year to warrant sending a team to the Little Nineteen meet.

More swimming news—The students will be glad to know that the pool will be opened shortly and will remain in use throughout the winter. The heating plant has been repaired, so comfortable swimming is assured.

With the enrollment of another C. Y. O. boxing product, interest has once more been instilled in the pugilistic fans at St. Viator. Joe Sprafka, a welterweight who starred at Carl Schurz High in Chicago and who reached the semi-finals in the C. Y. O. Tournament, is one of the most promising candidates on the squad. He and Joe Kalkowski, also of C. Y. O. fame, will form the nucleus of the team. Of the students who have signified their intention of indulging in the "sport of the gloves" are—John Stevens, 185 pounds, Clarence Noonan, 150, Dolph, 190; Joe Stanford, 145; Thomas Kerns, 245, and Ted Cush, 195.

Stuart Baker, former All-Conference end and star center on the basketball team for a number of years, dropped in for a visit a few days ago . . . Ken Westray, one of the greatest of all Viator athletes, has signed his 1934 contract with the Chicago Bears, champion of the National Professional Football circuit . . . Bill Gibbons, ev-Viator grid star, has signed with the Central Illinois All-Stars . . . It has also been reported that the reason John Chinn, promising half-back, failed to return to school was that he has signed to play pro-football with the Central Illinois All-Stars.

Call upon a business man in business hours. State your business in business way; when done with business matters, go about your business and leave the business man to attend to his business.

Ray "Fido" Murphy, a well known Eastern football mentor has charge of the "Fighting Irish" this year. Despite the fact that Viator lost many excellent players such as Ken Westray and Red Harding, the supply of fresh material has led Coach Murphy to forecast a brilliant and successful season.

Twelve lettermen from last season are back for action. Emmerson Dexter, who has distinguished himself and his school by securing the berth of center on the All-Conference Team, will lead the "Green Wave" this year. The other veterans who have returned are: Corcoran, Roche, Saia, Marik, Kelly, Noonan, Newberg, Krauklis, Wisner, Betourne and O'Leary.

Competition for positions has been very keen. Robert Schumacher of Urbana has already won for himself a guards position. Roche and Marik are now battling for the other guard position.

At ends this year Coach Murphy will have a pair of new men whom he has converted from tackles. Ray Tures, captain of the Champion Academy eleven last year, is considered the best. Dolph Guy from Cathedral High School, Springfield, has secured the other end position. Ken Corcoran, chosen by many experts for All-Conference honors as a quarterback last year, has been converted into an end by Coach Murphy, and is coming along in "leaps and bounds", according to the new coach.

Tackle positions are very dubious. Krauklis and Kelly, veterans of last year are possibly the only ones that Coach Murphy can depend upon.

The center of the line will be handled by Captain Dexter, who is highly rated, not only by Coach Murphy, but also by all the coaches of the Little Nineteen Conference. Dexter has that temperament and spirit which all real football men possess. Under his capable leadership there is no doubt but that the "Green Wave" will enjoy a successful season.

Understudy for Captain Dexter is Basil Nicholson, who hails from Merry England—London to be specific. He is closely followed by John Hargrove, a native son from Leland, Mississippi.

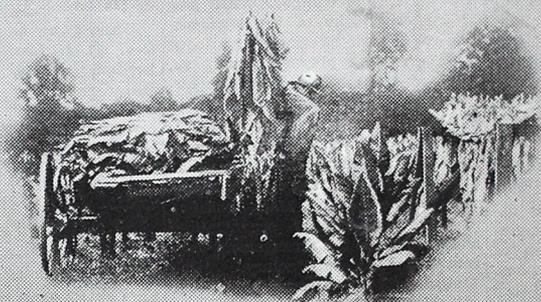

With an outstanding, weighty line in front of them, the "Green Wave" backfield will have plenty of opportunity to swamp its opponents. This year's edition will contain only one veteran among the starting backs. Joe Saia, another Mississippi "Mud-cap, who was regular fullback, has been converted into a halfback by Coach Murphy and will attempt to fill Ken Westray's cleats. James Masterson, a hard plunger and good blocker, hailing from Champion Academy, will replace Saia at fullback. Left halfback position will be occupied by Abie Rohinsky, a fine broken-field runner and accurate passer from West Haven, Conn., Al Palladino of New Haven, Conn., will call the signals from quarterback, and is rated (by Murphy) to be Albie Booth's successor. And so, to complete this survey of the 1934 edition of the "Green Wave", Coach Murphy asserts that his reserves are nearly as equal in ability as the probable varsity, particularly his backfield material. Murphy proclaims that none of his men are certain of their positions, for all are being pushed hard by the reserves.
