

St. Viator College's Edition Of The Green Wave

The Green Wave this year may not have as many victories to its credit as the student body would like but it is quite consoling to remember that not once was the team swamped by its opponents. The Viator squad, under the direction of Ray Murphy proved a formidable foe and spoiled St. Mary's seven game winning streak as well as being the first team to defeat Valparaiso University in two years.

Largest Squad In History Of The College Contains But Five Letter Men

The prospects of the St. Viator basketball team are very dim and the students will have to be satisfied with approximately four or five victories according to Coach John McNamara who is far from elated over the fact that he has the largest squad of candidates ever to report to a Viator basketball coach.

Squad Divided Into Two Groups

In order to handle the large squad Coach McNamara has found it necessary to divide the candidates into an afternoon and an evening group. Each squad is made up of twenty-five players. The A squad contains the five veterans who have returned and a number of freshmen stars, while the B squad is made up of the remainder.

Look Ahead to Next Season

"My main objective", remarked the Coach, "is to start and develop a system of basketball for next year. Those freshmen who were kept on the first squad are the ones who look most promising at the present and will remain on it until they fail or are replaced by better men from the B squad."

"I would say that of these freshmen McCullen, Straub, Blasevich, Wuchner, Chicatelli and J. Burke are among the most promising."

Vets in First Group

In this group also are the five veterans who have reported for the squad. Dexter, Rogers, Streaky Burke, Betourne and Kelly, according to Coach McNamara, will have to do some hustling to gain berths on this year's team as they will be hard pushed by the newcomers. The

Monograms Awarded To Twenty-Six St. Viator Football Men

The St. Viator Athletic Association announced that twenty-six members of the college football team this year had met the requirements for the major monograms. To win a letter the player had to play at least five quarters and be named by the Board of Athletic Control.

The men receiving monograms were Ray Roche and Alex Krauklis, co-captains-elect, Tom Kelly, Jerry O'Leary Jim Masterson, Picus Quina, O. Lux, T. Fahy and Clarence Noonan all of Chicago; Abe Palladino, Abe Rohinsky, and Al Thrall all of West Haven, Conn.; Captain Dexter and Bob Schumacher both of Champaign-Urbana; Tony Marik and Ken Corcoran of St. Louis, Mo.; John Stevens, Dolph Guy and M. Aeillo of Springfield; Don Betourne, Kankakee; Basil Nicholson, London, England; Ray Tures, Des Plaines; Joe Saia, Greenville, Miss.; Tom Gibbons, Panola; Chet Newburg, Pocatonia and Wm. Walsh, Rantoul.

Captain Dexter, Tom Kelly, Picus Quinn, Chet Newburg and Ken Corcoran are all seniors who have played their last game of football for the Green Wave. Dexter this year failed to make the Little 19 All-Star Select of the Associated Press by the slightest of margins. For the past two years he has been selected as the outstanding center in the conference.

Krauklis and Roche Elected Co-Captains

Both From Chicago

Alex Krauklis and Ray Roche, both of Chicago, were elected co-captains of the 1935 St. Viator's Green Wave at the meeting of the Monogram Club held December 6th.

Both are outstanding linemen, being a guard and tackle respectively.

For the past three years Ray and 'Krauk' have been roomies and so it was no surprise to the student body when the announcement was made. Each made the varsity in his freshman year and has been a regular ever since. Roche is a graduate of St. Rita High School, while Krauklis graduated from DeLaSalle High School of The Same City.

During their high school days they were bitter football enemies but since coming to Viator they have formed a freindship that is known all over the surrounding country.

Six seniors who played their last in the Green and White uniforms of the Viator football team were called upon by the squad for farewell speeches. Dexter, Corcoran, Quinn, Noonan and Newburg the graduating players all spoke highly of the team and Coach Murphy's efforts and counseled the squad to follow Fido's instructions closely next year.

"Play Murphy's way and you won't go wrong", was Captain Dexter's final speech as the leader of the squad.

The new Co-captains, Roche and Krauklis, made the usual speeches amid cheers and laughing.

The St. Viator Green Wave closed its football season November 25 in a blaze of glory with a 7 to 0 triumph over St. Mary of Winona, Minn., before 4,000 persons in the 124th field artillery armory, Chicago. St. Mary, coached by Ed. Krause, former All-American and Notre Dame star, was no match for the alert Viator team who not only out-scored them but also outgained the Minnesotians.

Masterson Scores

Starting on its own 48-yard line, the Green Wave rolled to the goal midway in the second quarter. Abe Rohinsky passed to Tures who made a beautiful catch while running at full speed. He was downed on the 32 yard line.

A short end run by Rohinsky, a five yard penalty, and a five yard plunge by Masterson gave the Irish a first down on the St. Mary 20 yard line. Gibbons slashed off his own left tackle, cut back to the right and dodged his way to the 3 yard line.

Masterson made three successive plunges, going over on the last. Tony Marik, stellar guard, kicked the extra point and Viator was out in front 7 to 0.

Viator Misses Chances

In both of the last two quarters the Green Wave rolled toward the St. Mary goal only to be repulsed both times. In the final minutes of play Capt. Dexter intercepted a pass and returned it 20 yards to the 12-yard line. After three line plays gained only six yards, Marik at-

The nation is interested in its youth and offers conclusive proof as to that interest. The Federal Government is sending approximately 70,000 students through colleges and universities in the United States. The cost of this project is said to be about $1,000,000. Obviously, the government is preparing for the future, establishing a foundation for its leaders of tomorrow. Today, the college student,—tomorrow, who knows? At least the national administration is taking this opportunity of improving the public taste and social standards.

Today you have golden opportunities to do greater and better work than ever before; to advance yourself through earnest effort to worthy success. You have within you the power of real achievement. Where you are now is the place to do your best work and to translate your good intentions into actual deeds. The eyes of the world are watching your progress wondering just where you will fit in, just what your place will be in the activities of the world. We should all stop and take inventory of ourselves once in a while.

One hundred new college presidents assumed office with the opening of this fall's term. Last year there were one hundred and twenty-five new administrative heads of colleges and universities in the United States. The turnover this year has been about seven percent and is greater among the liberal arts institutions than among other types of higher educational schools. It can be noted, also, that the majority of the new college heads are young men, men free from the trammels of old academic tradition and advocates of new ideas and organizations.

Somewhere or other we came across this quotation from Gertrude Stien's "Portraits and Prayers". The author has been acclaimed by some modern critics as one of the greatest of contemporary writers.

"The Irish lady can say, that today is every day. Caesar can say that every day is today and they say that every day is as they say . . . In way we have a place to stay and he was not met because he was settled to stay. When I said settled to stay I meant settled to stay Saturday . . ." and so on. (A Freshman reading this was heard to remark, "That reminds me I must do my Algebra.")

In every man's life pilgrimage, however unblest, there are holy places where he is made to feel kinship with the Divine; where the heavens bend low over his head and angels come and minister unto him. These are the places of sacrifice, the meeting-ground of mortal and immortal, the tents of trial wherein are waged the great spiritual combats of man's life. Here are the tears and agonies and the bloody sweat of Gethsemane. Happy the man who, looking back, can say of himself: "Here, too, was the victory!"

Floor Show To Be Featured At Party

Elaborate plans were completed last week for a College Christmas Party to be held Monday night, (December 10) at 8 o'clock in the Refectory. This social event will be sponsored by the St. Viator Sorority, under the Presidency of Miss Mary Cruise, '35.

Miss Mary Anthony, '37, announced an interesting program for the evening. Instead of spending the earlier part of the social in card playing, as is the usual procedure, a unique and delightful floor show has been prepared. All of the outstanding talent on the campus is to be displayed during the performance. The Merry Widow Waltz and the Tango are to be featured, solos and duets will be offered, and a one act playlet has been arranged.

The proceeds of the party are to be used in adding needed furniture to the chapel and living rooms of the Sisters of Notre Dame of the College.

The students are expected to support the event with all the school loyalty heretofore found, in Viator Men.

In The Sports World!

Pete Laffey, who is coaching at Bonfield, has announced that his basketball team has several games scheduled with Puff Romary's St. Pat's team. It will be interesting to see these former team-mates match their coaching abilities.

We want to pay a few words of tribute to Don Anderson, former Viator star and assistant coach here two years ago. Don accomplished wonders with his green football squad at Cathedral High at Springfield. With but little with which to work Don whipped his squad into shape and made a very creditable showing. Nice going Don, and we hope that you have the same success in basketball.

Stewart Baker and John Hedman, former Viator students, are playing professional basketball in St. Paul, according to a report received here the other day.

HONORS IN SPEECH WON BY BUTTGEN

Edward Buttgen, '27, who, with Miss Mary Cruise, '35, represented St. Viator College at the After-Dinner Speaking Contest held at the University of Illinois on Friday, November 23, had the honor of being picked as one of the six best after-dinner speakers in the colleges of Illinois.

A large number of contestants took part, representing more than twenty of the outstanding educational institutions of the state. The topic for the after-dinner speech was "The Depression and Youth". The six best speakers chosen in the contest spoke in the evening at a banquet for the delegates to the Convention of Illinois State Teachers of Speech.

Mr. Buttgen's speech, though not humorous, as were most of the others, was very favorably commented upon as being a splendid expression of the spirit of modern youth in the face of the depression.

The schools along with St. Viator that were represented among the winners were: Northwestern University, Rosary College, Northern Illinois State Teachers' College, Wheaton College and North Central College.

The Reverend John Stafford, C. S. V., instructor of Speech, accompanied the representatives of the College to Champaign, and took part in the deliberations of the convention.

We were gratified at the display of loyalty the alumni exhibited by their presence at the St. Mary's game in Chicago. Among those present were Earl O'Mara, James and Edward Hunt, John Burns, James O'Connell, "Fat" Carrol, Peter Laffey, "Puff" Romary, John Cronin, John Meany, Leon Winterhalter, Jerry Sullivan, James McNally, "Pat" O'Connor, Joseph Farrel, John Pelgen, Joseph Degnan, and Mike Delaney. There were hundreds of others likewise present to see their team close its season with a 7-0 win, but space does not permit us to enumerate them all.

Campus Briefs—

You will all be relieved to learn that Lorenz Duginer isn't writing the Briefs this issue. Most of us know that his last two attempts were lousy, and so it was with a great deal of pleasure that we read of his announced resignation. If he returns, here's hoping that his rest will have given him an avid desire to duplicate his first issue.

Not having the services of a crew of snoopers, the scandal printed here may not come up to your expectations, but then, try to find some that will pass the board of censors, and you will understand just why the majority of Briefers resign!

During the Thanksgiving recess, Red Madigan reports that he saw "Lothario" Schumacher at the St. Rita Homecoming dance with a charming young lady... Ray Roche was seen escorting Claire Legris around the "bright lights" of Chicago... John Stockbar set a new record while at Lockport. He slept only two nights in his own domicile and had only one meal there. What price popularity?... Rumor has it that Kaiser Barzantny didn't receive that cut hand while in an accident, but far be it from me to print what rumor does say caused it... Chester Newburg returned to college exactly four days late, which was neither unusual nor unexpected. What was the excuse this time, Chester dear? Those side trips to Mt. Morris are sure going to prove expensive.

Roaming through Roy Hall, one is privileged (?) to enjoy sights that exceed the World Fair shows. Schumacher has a death mask of himself adorning a tapestry, along with a Boy Scout handicraft exhibit... Kendrigan's room reminds one of Havana, Cuba. Such naughty things that he has on display... Enders has converted his room into a unique two-room apartment... Hargrove and Radous have gone into the paint business... Further, many of the rooms resemble handball courts... Room 202 has become the regular "bull-session" court, with many prominent day students attending the noon hour sessions. Marty McLaughlin and Alex Alessandri are in evidence every day. Which reminds us, ask Marty for little Johnnie's reply to the teacher when asked a question about "feet". It is good and not too degrading. (In fact, most of the "bull sessions" are on a high plane.) (Are you listenin', our worthy college council?) Well, the inseparables, Ray Roche and Alex Krauklis are evidently going to be roomies again next year. Only the other evening the "Twins of Roy Hall" were elected co-captains for next year's football team. The first time in the history of the College that such a thing has happened. One could understand it if Roche or Krauklis were backfield men, but they're both linemen, and so we of the campus are wondering all the more how it could be possible that over thirty electors could be so unanimous in their decision that the two must accept the captaincy. Could it be attributed to the Roche-Ellis political party that ruled the campus during the International Relations' Club election? Your guess is as good as our.

Lorenz, come and get your job of Briefer back. Perhaps the rest has done you good. At least you couldn't do any worse than I have. I never knew this job was such a pesty thing, or I wouldn't have let Buttgen talk me into writing the column.

Day Hopping

Hello, friend reader; throw another log on the fire and pull up a chair. — You and I have some things to talk over... A certain gentleman from Kankakee boasts that he jabs at the keyhole long after all others are snug in their beds. Maybe you're right, George, but I know a few young cavaliers who carry in the milk. Their names will be furnished on request.

Hugh Malaney, the Daniel Boone of Bourbonnais, knocked over no less than nine rabbits the other day. Just think what that will do to Easter... Bud Mackin is interested in Florence, and we don't mean a city in Italy.

Y'know, reader, our opinion of a college education is falling lower and lower. The other day we asked a young hopeful how he knew Prof. Maloney was French. He replied, 'I'm not certain he is French, but I'm pretty certain his motto is "They shall not pass".'

We tried to find out what our vast and breathless public thought of this column, so the other day we asked Alassandri if he enjoyed reading the dirt. Whereupon the friend quoth, "I enjoy doing nothing more". And fo' that, suh, I will meet yo' on the field of hono', suh, at dawn, suh."

ADVICE TO THE LOVELORN—

Dear Miss Lovelace, A certain young lady of my acquaintance ordinarily does not condescend to speak to me, but shortly before Christmas and before her birthdays, she becomes very friendly. What can I do about this situation?

Sincerely,
Dave Burdick.

Dear Mr. Burdick, I would suggest that some moonlight night you take this young lady down to the river bank where the moon makes a path of silver across the cold and deep water. Slowly place your arm around her waist and toss her gently but firmly into the deepest spot.

Ann Lovelace.

Library Leaves

To our Alumni for their generous donations which have made it possible for us to add many new volumes to our library.

Gifts of books have been gratefully received from:

Reverend E. V. Cardinal, C. S. V.
Reverend Peter Dufault, Kankakee, Illinois.

Reverend Francis Harbauer, C. S. V.

Reverend Bernard Mulvaney, C. S. V.

Reverend F. E. Munsch, C. S. V.
Reverend F. J. O'Reilly, Danville, Illinois.

Reverend John Stafford, C. S. V.
Reverend Emmett Walsh, C. S. V.

The most outstanding acquisition to the collection of the library this month is the Oxford English Dictionary. It is the greatest work in dictionary-making ever undertaken. No similar work is comparable to it in magnitude, accuracy or completeness. It is the greatest linguistic work of our time. It has only one purpose, that is to serve you. It is hoped that you will familiarize yourselves with this great work.

We know that you will be glad to hear that the binding of our periodicals has been brought up to date. About two hundred volumes have been bound. As a result the difficulties of handling this material, and of keeping it reasonably accessible have been greatly decreased.

One hundred books were added to the German Department. These include Dramas, Short stories and Novels. They are cataloged and may be had by inquiring at the Loan Desk.

Students interested in the History of Oxford will find a number of books on the subject in the New Book case in the Reading Room. These were donated through the generosity of Father Munsch from his private collection. He has also given the library many interesting volumes of Edmund Gosse's works and some of Hilaire Belloc.

It is to be hoped that the students will make better use of their library. Every possible effort is being made to bring its resources up to date. We bespeak, therefore, a more generous use of this mine of scholarship, and the pleasure will always be ours to extend courteous and cheerful assistance!

ATHLETIC HEADS ATTEND MEETING

December 7th, the Rev. F. J. Harbauer, director of athletics, Ray Murphy, head football coach, and John McNamara, head basketball coach attended the annual Little Nineteen Conference meeting of coaches in Chicago.

It was the intention of the Athletic director and his assistants to arrange the football schedule and to complete the basketball schedule at this meeting.

Before leaving Coach Murphy informed the members of the Monogram Club that he hoped to have a schedule of eight or ten games for next year's Green Wave. It is his plan to play two games in Chicago; three or five home games all against Little Nineteen foes; one game in the East, probably against Fordham University of New York; one game in the South and the final game in the West. To date the only games that are arranged are: September 27—Carbondale at Kankakee and St. Mary of Winona, Minn., at Chicago on Thanksgiving Eve.

In Little 19 Camps

Saturday night St. Viator's first foe won another basketball game. This time they downed DeKalb College, 34 to 32. Coach McNamara who witnessed the game said that Joliet Junior College will certainly give the Viator team a hard tussle December 12th.

Prospects of a great basket ball team at James Millikin University that may rival its great football eleven are seen by Millikin rooters. Thirty-five candidates have reported for practice.

Millikin did not lose a member from the team that finished fifth in the Little 19 Conference race last season. The eight returning lettermen are Melvin Goldman, Jay Glynn and Dan Hallihan, forwards; Delmar Cox, and Bill Wright, centers; Joe Rollinatis, Archie Van-Ausdale and Walter Spilman, guards.

Elmhurst College is staging its third annual intercollegiate Invitational Track and Field Meet in the coming spring. In previous Elmhurst Invitational Meets only colleges in the Chicago area have been invited. This year any college in the Little 19 may attend.

December 8th the Little 19 Conference officials turned down an amendment to its by-laws which would have limited athletes to three years of competition.

The proposal offered by Gordon Fisher, athletic director of North Central college, advocated that an athlete should not be eligible until he had completed one year of residence and was carrying at least 12 hours of college work.

The conference voted to permit any student, entering colleges at the start of the second semester, to play four years of basketball, provided he carries enough credit hours during his final semester to graduate.

The Little 19 Outdoor Track and Field Meet shall be held May 24-25 at Western State Teachers College . . . The Indoor will be held at North Central college again this year. The date is March 23. Swimming meet to be held at Monmouth college March 16 . . . Sectional Tennis Tournaments will be held at North Central, Bradley, Illinois Wesleyan and Illinois College, with the finals at Bradley. The conference officials as yet have not announced the dates . . . Student and faculty golf tournaments are scheduled for Millikin, May 18.

Leo Johnson coach of Millikin awarded 18 gold footballs and sweaters to his undefeated eleven . . . While St. Viator awarded 26 mono-

A new use of goal posts has been found at Illinois State Normal where the looted Wesleyan standards, taken from the titans' field after the 7-6 victory of the Redbirds, have been converted into more than 2,000 pieces to be distributed as mementos of the football game in which Normal ended a 26 string loss to Wesleyan. Letter openers, small paddles, and other articles are being made by the industrial arts department.

Flunk, whose main purpose is to offer sympathy to its members, for misery loves . . . etc. It is a singular organization in that only those with scholastic deficiencies are eligible. It is expected to be one of the most popular on the campus.

Over Somebody Else's Shoulder

According to a Syracuse professor, a great amount of what appears to be cribbing is merely the result of an uncontrollable curiosity to see if the other fellow's answer is the same as your.

"Oh, how could you, professor! I was just curious!"

And wouldn't that go over big?

In Short—

An instructor of philosophy at C. C. N. Y. claims that the student who sleeps during lectures retains the greatest amount of information being disseminated.

What a break for the boys at Princeton! That good bell that has been waking the students for the past 188 years in the wee hours of the morning has finally been silenced by a yawning protest.

The University of Chicago has recently announced that students may bring with them to final examination any tests, notes or reference material they choose. How would you like that, fellows?

SENIORS TO HAVE JEWELRY EXHIBIT

The 1934 Class rings will be on the fingers of the Seniors by the twelfth of the month, according to John Bimmerle, Class President.

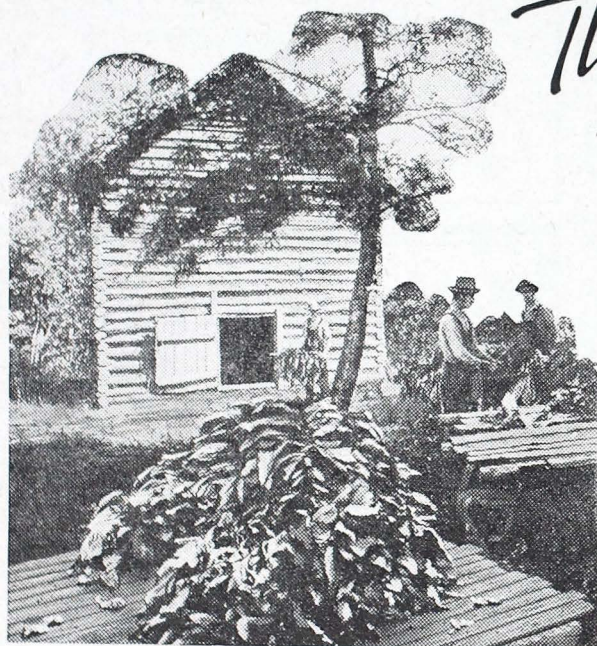

The rings are to be yellow gold, with either black or white onyx stones. On the face of the stone a modernistic emblem will be engraved with the year and degree printed in Roman lettering on the sides.

And so, if a Senior stops you next week, be prepared to admire his new ring. We wonder how many of them will be missing after the Christmas holidays? That does happen you know, and, although our Seniors deny the charge, we, on behalf of the student body, will check up around January 5.

DEXTER SPONSORS PING-PONG TEST

Seven Viator men have been selected by E. Dexter, '35, to oppose a group of Kankakee A. C. ping-pong players in a tournament Tuesday night.

The games will be held in the College Club Candy Shop at 8:00 o'clock. Mr. Dexter announces that he is securing a new ping-pong table, and that it will be installed in time for the contest.

Harvesting tobacco and packing it in the barn for curing—and (below) a scene at a Southern tobacco auction.

They ought to know—

MANY men of the South have been "in tobacco" for years—growing tobacco and curing it—buying it and selling it—until they know tobacco from A to Izzard.

Now folks who have been in tobacco all their lives, folks who grow it, know there is no substitute for mild ripe tobacco.

And down in the South where they grow tobacco and where they ought to know something about it—in most places Chesterfield is the largest-selling cigarette.
