Dramatic Club Considers Plans Of New Director

Doctor Van Deventer Succeeds Professor Maloney; Leaders Work To Reorganize Club On High Standard.

Adopting a plan of complete reorganization, the Dramatic Club met last Tuesday and enthusiastically welcomed Dr. William C. Van Deventer as its new director and moderator. Doctor Van Deventer succeeds Prof. Michael Maloney, whose academic duties forced him to resign this year.

The new moderator outlined to the dramatists his conception of a progressive Dramatic club, and suggested that the members adopt his proposals. He sketched a program which would make the organization active during the entire season, and which, at the same time, would build it up to a high standard. He dismissed the idea of presenting a large play at any near date.

Prospects Good

The meeting was marked by a keen interest and enthusiasm, and the suggestions of Doctor Van Deventer were acceded to in large part. After the meeting, the club leaders expressed themselves as being encouraged by the dramatic prospects, and stated their belief that a highly acceptable plan could be worked out before the next meeting.

Director Experienced

The new moderator assumes his duties with several years of experience and study behind him. While attending Central College, Fiette, Mo., he was active in dramatics and on numerous occasions directed the productions of that school's club. He has devoted much time to the study of histrionics, and has always been intensely interested in stage activities.

Note of Thanks

Through the columns of the VIATORIAN, the Dramatic Club extends to Professor Maloney and to Brother Williams, who assisted him, a vote of appreciation. The members are cognizant of the time and effort which the organization of the club and the production of the "Varieties of 1935" required, and are highly thankful to these two men who directed them.

Shirley Lane Elected President Of I. R. C.

From the group of seven Seniors eligible for the presidency, Shirley Lane, '36, was chosen by the International Relations Club at its first meeting. Miss Mary Anthony, '37, was named to succeed herself as secretary.

Lane, who succeeds Stephen Gould, '36, is a day student from Kankakee. In a brief talk after his election, he promised to make the organization one of the most popular clubs on the campus, and stated his own keen interest in international affairs.

Miss Anthony has held the secretaryship in numerous student groups during the past two years, and as secretary of the I. R. C. last year, she labored earnestly to place the high standards of the club before the thinking public. Her home is in Beaverville, Illinois.

Six Professors Named Advisors To Specialists

Dean Explains Advantages Of Faculty Counselors

The inauguration of a system of freshmen counselors by the College Administration was announced last week by the acting Dean of Studies, the Rev. Bernard Mulvaney, C. S. V. Six faculty members were named to offer advice in the preparation courses, and to suggest correct lines of study to students in each particular field.

Dr. William C. Van Deventer was placed over the pre-medical, pre-dental and pre pharmaceutical students. Prof. Eugene Donnelly heads the pre-law group. The Rev. John W. Stafford, C. S. V., will direct men interested in clerical life. Prof. Michael Maloney has charge of the pre-journalism students. The Rev. Dr. Richard French, C. S. V., was appointed advisor for prospective teachers. Dr. William J. O'Donnell will direct the pre-engineering men.

Purpose Explained

The objective of the plan is threefold: Advisers are to keep in close communication with each freshman by means of personal interviews; they are to check over student class records; and they will enable the student to choose those classes which will best suit his future studies.

In making the announcement, Father Mulvaney said that "the system will be invaluable to the student. He will not choose his line of study blindly, but will be directed to classes best suited to his needs".

Miss Margaret Clancy Heads Sorority Unit

Miss Lucille Putz and Miss Ruth Arrington, '34, of Kankakee were hostesses to the members of the College Sorority at an informal tea held Sunday afternoon, October 20, in the coed room. The tea table was appropriately arranged and beautifully decorated with fall flowers. Both hostesses presided over the tea table.

After tea, a business meeting was held and the following officers were elected for the ensuing year:

President, Miss Margaret Clancy, '36.

Vice-President, Miss Claire Legris, '37.

Secretary, Miss Mary Anthony, '37.

Treasurer, Miss Hazel Dionne, '37. Miss Lucille Putz was appointed to represent the Alumnae members. Plans to sponsor card parties once a month in the coed room were discussed, as well as other future social activities.

Business meetings are to be held on the third Sunday of every month in the coed room.

Anniversary Mass For Msgr. Legris

A Solemn Requiem High Mass will be celebrated in the College Chapel on Monday for the repose of the soul of Monsignor Gerasime M. Legris. November 4 marks the first anniversary of the death of Monsignor Legris, who had been active as professor of moral theology and European history here for 53 years.

The Rev. P. C. Conway, of Chicago, a Viator alumnus and a close friend of the deceased Monsignor, will preach the memorial sermon. The Very Rev. Dr. E. V. Cardinal, C. S. V., will be celebrant of the Mass.

Seasonal Air Prevails At School Frolic

Coeds Hold First Of Saturday Night Party Series

The Sorority opened its social season with a gay Hallowe'en party, held in the Refectory Saturday evening, October 26.

The evening's festivities were inaugurated with bridge. Appropriate Hallowe'en refreshments were served, and the high spot of the evening was an all-student floor show.

The floor-show, which has come to be a recognized part of coed parties, made a decided 'hit' with the guests. Though informal, it was presented with the deftness of a professional show. Radio dancing followed the student show and concluded the party.

Clever and colorful decorations gave the occasion a festive air which prevailed throughout the evening.

The coeds probably established a precedent which will supplant the old Viator custom of "turning the village wrong-side out" in celebration of All Saints' Eve. The Sorority, with Miss Mary Anthony, '37, as chairlady, succeeded in presenting its party with an informality that assured an enjoyable evening. Popular approval on the part of the student body perhaps will induce the coeds to hold parties of a similar nature in celebration of future holidays.

Viator Economist To Have Radio Hour

In a few weeks the Reverend J. W. R. Maguire, C. S. V., nationally known figure in labor circles, will resume his radio broadcasts over Station WCFL. Father Maguire has been delivering these addresses for many years and the public has evinced great interest in them. The broadcast will be heard every Sunday night at 8:00 o'clock.

Besides his many duties Father Maguire has organized a Study Club at St. Patrick's in Kankakee which meets every Wednesday evening.

On November 5, he will speak in Hammond, Ind., and during the same month he will talk to the St. Mary Monday Evening Club of Chicago on the "Theology of Pain and Suffering".

New Washington Home Dedicated By Viatorians

Many Notables At Ceremonies; Fr. O'Mahoney Presides

The beautiful new home of the Viatorians at 1326 Quincy Street, N. E., Washington, D. C., was officially dedicated on St. Viator's Day. The dedication ceremonies were presided over by the Very Rev. J. P. O'Mahoney, C. S. V., provincial of the American Province of the Order. Father O'Mahoney sang a Solemn High Mass.

The house, which is under the supervision of the Rev. Thomas Sullivan, C. S. V., was placed under the patronage of Saint Michael. It is built according to Italian Renaissance architecture, and has been comfortably furnished.

Many Present

Many of the religious superiors in Washington and professors of the Catholic University of America were guests at a banquet on the evening of the dedication. Among whom were Msgr. Fulton, Sheen, '17, and Msgr. P. J. McCormick, Director of Catholic Sisters College. During the evening of October 20, the alumni of St. Viator College attended a smoker in the new home.

The domestic affairs of the house are in charge of the Sisters of Notre Dame. Sisters of the same order also direct the infirmary, refectory, and dormitory here.

The largest number of seminarians ever to study for the Order is now in Washington.

Cisca Outlines Work At First Convention

Miss Mary Anthony, '37, was elected President of the St. Viator Chapter of Cisca at the society's first meeting last week. The other officers chosen were: Weeger Krauser, '38, vice-president; Raymond Cavanagh, '38, secretary; and Donald Morgan, '39, treasurer.

An outline of the plans agreed upon for the coming year includes: the organization of Study Clubs in Kankakee for the benefit of high school students, the spreading of Catholic literature, and the study of the Liturgical movement.

After a few words of greeting, Miss Anthony asked the Rev. William C. Cracknell, C. S. V., to explain the Ciscan Organization.

Father Cracknell explained that the "purpose of the movement is to provide for the Catholic youth a laboratory of Catholic Action".

"Cisca", he said, "was introduced into the college last May, and the Berchman Society was the first group to enter".

The regular meetings of the society will be held every Wednesday at 12:30, in the College Club Room.

As we go to press, the College Club is beginning plans for a supper-dance to be held in honor of the students of St. Francis College, Joliet, on November 10. The affair is intended to repay the guests for the tea-dance at which St. Francis entertained Viator men in Joliet last spring.

The girls will attend the St. Norbert-Viator football game on Sunday afternoon at Bergin Athletic Field. A six-o'clock buffet supper will be served in the Gold Room of Hotel Kankakee, and dancing will be held during the evening.

Plan Gala Day

William Phelan, '36, President of the College Club, says that he has started arrangements at the urgent request of the students who attended the St. Francis-Viator tea-dance, and that he has been encouraged by the satisfactory results of the Homecoming dance to spare no efforts in making this second affair a brilliant one.

One of the best of the local orchestras will be secured for the evening, but as yet the entertainers have not been decided upon. The buffet-supper will include the finest fare that Hotel Kankakee has to offer.

Find Nothing Lacking In Homecoming Revels

The Viator Homecoming, held October 18-19 was the most successful seen here in recent years. The pajama parade and spirited pep-meeting held in Bird Park in the light of a huge bonfire began the festivities. Pep speeches by the faculty, alumni and team, interspersed with cheers for the Green Wave, were alive with Viator loyalty.

A colorful four block parade through the main streets of Kankakee and Bradley on Saturday afternoon also exceeded anything of its kind held here for several years. Buggies, floats and clowns proved an effective means of awakening Kankakeans to the realization that a Viator Homecoming was at hand.

The Homecoming celebrations were climaxed at Alumni Field Saturday evening when the Green Wave gave a strong Carbondale team a thorough trouncing to a 20 to 7 score. It was the first time a Viator team had ever downed the Teachers from Southern Illinois. The Victory Dance was held in the College gym after the game. A large number of alumni were among the 200 couples present.

The committees for the Homecoming dance were: General Chairman, William Phelan, '36; Decorations: S. Gould, '36, S. Hamilton, '37, G. Rogers, '37, T. Marik, '37, R. Lyons, '39; Music: Miss H. Dionne, '37, A. Black, '38, R. Mullen, '39, K. Wiser, '37; Reception: W. Fleming, '36, Miss C. Legris, '37.

The dance was chaperoned by: Dr. and Mrs. W. J. Van Deventer, Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Mors, Mr. and Mrs. G. Legris, and Mrs. S. L. Hamilton.

'Cats Claw Saints Into Conference Defeat: 22-6

Irish Line Play Only Redeeming
Feature in Second Loss

McKendree College of Lebanon rolled over the Green Wae at Alumni Athletic Field on the evening of October 25, and ran up a score of 22 to 6. The Bearcats, coached by Paul Waldorf, brother of the Northwestern University eleven's coach, presented a fast, heavy charging line and a powerful, speedy backfield that left little doubts in the minds of the spectators as to McKendree's superiority. McKendree now has a perfect record in conference play while the Irish have one win and two losses.

Score Early

The Bearcats opened the scoring early in the first period, when, after only six plays, Jim Larsch blocked Palladino's punt on the Viator 6 yard line. Blackburne recovered for McKendree on the Irish four yard line and on the second play Ken Wilson sped around end for a touchdown. Rauth place-kicked for the extra-point.

In the third quarter, after a series of line bucks had failed to gain, Wilson passed to Jim Larsch from the Viator 12 yard line over into the end zone for the second touchdown of the game. The try for the extra point was blocked by Marik. Near the end of the third quarter, Wilson added three more points when he drop-kicked a field goal from the Irish 17 yard marker.

Viator Counts

Viator threatened early in the final canto but the spark died and the ball passed over to McKendree on downs. A few moments later Wilson scored the third touchdown for the Bearcats, slicing off tackle for 6 yards. The try for the extra point was again blocked.

The Green Wave's only score of the game came in the closing minutes when a belated rally brought the ball from the Viator 38 on three consecutive plays to the McKendree 20. Barney O'Connell on the next play snared Rohinsky's pass in the end zone. Betourne's attempted conversion was blocked and the game ended, with Viator on the short end of a 22 to 6 count.

At its last session the Michigan state legislature passed a law providing that, if a man were financially able, he must pay the state the cost of keeping him under lock and key. We wonder if that will include the athletes.

Lost for Season

FRANK STRAUB

Sophomore, who showed unusual promise in the early games this fall, has been counted out for the remainder of the football season as the result of a knee injury suffered in practice just before the Carbondale fray. Straub has been instructed to quit football for this year in the hope that he may be ready for basketball in December.

"Minnie's Midgets"	6
Dilger's "Sluggers"	0
Kaiser's Nazis	12
Stockbar's Slewfoots	6

Barzantny scored the winning touchdown in the last minute of play. His game with the Slewfoots was one of the best this season.

Cavanaugh's Crooners have rolled up the greatest number of points in one game—24. The Nazis have scored 40 points in two games. The Fighting Monks are the best defensive team, being unscored upon to date.

Brother Shipman, C. S. V., says he will get a team from his hall that will beat any other hall team. Fathers Ryan and Hutton take notice, please.

Fleming's Flops are a different team with the addition of Eddie Dilger and Danny Murphy. . . The Intra-mural teams were so evenly matched that Brother Tom Ryan decided to hold a round robin tournament to decide the championship.

Irish Down Profs In Homecoming Game: 20-7

Walsh and Gibbons Star In Green
Wave Attack

Exhibiting a raw power that has been lacking in previous games a smashing, crashing St. Viator eleven hammered its way through Carbondale's big forwards to earn a 20 to 7 victory in a state conference football game played under the floodlights of Alumni Field as 2,500 Irish homecomers yelled their intense approval. The Irish playing their first game at home under the direction of Coach John McNamara literally overpowered the burly Southern Illinois team in a battle in which the crunching, running attack of the Green Wave was the feature.

"Rookies" Star

Viator got away to a flying start when Walsh, a reserve back, broke loose for a 40-yard run and Tom Gibbons plunged for a touchdown. Bill Walsh and Abe Rohinsky paced a powerful second quarter attack which netted the Green Wave two additional touchdowns, Palladino and Masterson being the ones to score on line plunges.

After a sorry first half Southern made it a real battle the rest of the way with Keyes, 200 pound back from Eldorado, setting the pace. Viator, employing a defensive strategy, depended on Palladino to keep the invaders deep in their own territory with his marvelous punting.

Friends Fete McNamara

Friends and admirers of Coach McNamara entertained him in the McBroom Cafe after his team had won its homecoming encounter with Carbondale Teachers' on October 19. Among those present were Coach Bill McAndrew of Carbondale, Coach Harry Bell of Illinois Wesleyan, Fred Young of the Bloomington Daily Pantagraph, Howard Millard of the Decatur Herald-Review, and Harlow Sutherland, the last three named being officials of the game. Coach Chick Evans of DeKalb, Chuck Raymond and Eddie Raymond of the DeKalb Daily Chronicle, Curley VonOhlen, Gene Donnelly and a few others also gathered up chairs around the banquet tables of the McBroom Cafe.

We are indebted to the World Herald for this bit of truth, "Senator Soaper suggests that the master counterfeiter who was recently arrested was the greatest producer of queer bills outside of Congress".

Irish Fullback

JIM MASTERTSON

Sophomore, who in his freshman days earned the berth of starting fullback for the Green Wave, is a plunger of no mean ability. This, Jim's second season as varsity fullback, finds him building a reputation for defensive work as well as offensive. Masterson, a native of Chicago, is rated by Coach McNamara as one of the hardest tacklers on the squad.

St. Viator College entered intercollegiate football on Thanksgiving Day, 1895, losing to St. Ignatius college of Chicago, 24-0.

Walter Eckersall, All-American quarterback in 1907, was the first football coach at the Bourbonnais institution.

The worst defeat ever given the Irish was administered by Notre Dame College in 1912. The final score being 116 to 7.

Father Kelly was appointed Director of Athletics in 1916, a position which he held until his retirement in 1934.

Monogram awards were first recorded in 1910. Those receiving these awards were Jimmy Fitzgerald, captain, Gerald Bergan, Tom Harrison, A. G. Quille, Eddy Quille, Tom O'Brien, Levi Sherman, Harris Darche, Dan Monahan, Frank Monihan, Julius Brenza, Emmitt Kisanne, Joe Gordon, and Gus Storr.

Freshmen Loose to Upperclassmen by 12-0 Count

Phelan Injured; Lannan and Barzantny Score

Favored by luck and one decision of the officials, the Upperclassmen downed the Freshmen by a 12 to 0 count in the annual battle on October 27 at Bergin Athletic Field.

The fray was marred by an accident which occurred in the first minutes of play. Bill Phelan, president of the College Club and left halfback for the Upperclassmen, while fading back to pass was tackled by one of the Freshmen linemen and suffered a compound fracture of the right leg. Phelan was taken to St. Mary's hospital in Kankakee for treatment.

Tight Game

Outside of the two touchdowns the fray was an even battle between the two elevens with neither team having a decided advantage over the other. Statistics show that Coach Tony Marik's Freshmen gained 77-yards while Coach Noonan's Upperclassmen gained but 72 yards. Each squad made two first downs and the Upperclassmen were penalized 35 yards while the Freshmen received none.

Outstanding for the Freshmen were Jim Hamilton, W. Kilbride, Finnegan and Meyer, while Ken Wiser, Normile, Lannan and Hilker starred for the Upperclassmen.

Breaks Aid

With but two minutes of the first half remaining Jack Wissing's punt was blocked on the Freshmen's 5-yard line by Hilker and Jack Lannan, center for the Upperclassmen carried it into the end zone. The officials, Ray Roche and Joe Saia, declared the ball was dead on the Freshmen's three yard line. The Upperclassmen failed to take it over in four plays. Claeys' punt was partially blocked and taken by Frank Ticulka who returned it from the 20 to the Freshmen's 8-yard line as the half ended.

During the half-time intermission Referee Joe Saia and Umpire Ray Roche, reversed their decision of the blocked punt and when play was resumed they permitted the Upperclassmen to attempt a field goal for the extra point, declaring that a touchdown had been scored by Lannan. The try failed and the score stood 6 to 0 as the official second half began.

Kaiser Scores

In the second half the Frosh seriously threatened the Upperclassmen's goal when Wiser's punt was partially blocked and went out of bounds on his own 25 stripe. An attempted pass, Lyons to Finnegan, went into the arms of Normile on the Upperclassmen's 10-yard line and was returned 69 yards to the Frosh 29-yard marker. After Normile and Wiser had gained 15 yards on two plays, Wiser passed to Barzantny in the end zone for a touchdown. The play was nearly smeared but the ball bounded from the defensive back's fingers into Kaiser's waiting arms. Wiser's attempted placekick was wide.

A last minute rally of the Frosh took the ball from their own 1-yard line to the Upperclassmen's 30-yard stripe before the Freshmen march was halted. Passes featured this

GREEN WAVE TACKLES

FRANK KRAUKLIS

Co-captain, was forced to sit on the sidelines and watch his team go down to defeat before the onslaughts of McKendree. Krauklis has assumed the role of spectator because of an infection that will keep him off the gridiron for two weeks. Frank is regarded by the experts of the state and by Little 19 coaches as being the best tackle in Illinois. Last season he was chosen as tackle on the All-Little 19 Conference eleven.

RAY O'CONNOR

The only Freshman to gain a regular starting berth upon this year's eleven, plays tackle and weighs 220 pounds. O'Connor besides being an excellent linesman has already gained scholastic honors, having placed first in both of the entrance examinations that were given to the Freshmen class. "Irish" prepped at Emmerson High of Gary, Ind., and was named All-Star tackle during his last year of high school competition.

Human Seal Displays Maneuvers Before Viator Students

Green Wave Tankmen Show Marked Ability

Celeo Mohauk, champion of underwater swimmers, held the interest and admiration of over one hundred spectators at the college swimming pool Thursday evening, October 24. Mohauk, The Human Seal, demonstrated to the enthusiastic crowd a number of difficult strokes and maneuvers. The St. Viator tankmen also performed for the entertainment of the audience.

Thrillers

Mr. Mohauk swam the length of the pool using the "seal stroke" with which he set the world record for underwater swimming. "The Seal" demonstrated several difficult underwater turns and dives, of which the most fascinating was the "Bullet" turn, a dangerous and speedy maneuver. Another special novelty of the Human Seal was the "Egyptian Float", in which he floated in several positions.

Tankmen Perform

The Irish swimming team, winners of third place in the conference meet last year, staged exhibition races in the 150-yard medley relay, a 50-yard breast stroke and a 50-yard free style, as well as a 200-yard free style race. At the request of Mr. Mohauk, the tankmen tried to imitate some of the "Human Seal's" maneuvers. The performances of the Green Wave Water-dogs indicates that Viator will be a dangerous foe at this year's Conference Water Carnival.

Wake - Up Service Is Good Business

New York, (ACP)—Harold Jesurun, '37, Columbia University student who attracted wide attention last year when he instituted a "waking-up" service for his fellow students, is back this year full of determination to expand his novel business.

"I'm all set for a big season", he confided to our reporter. "I've already got a lot of customers, and my new method of getting them up never fails".

The new method proved to be a phial of ammonium chloride, previously treated with sodium hydroxide to obtain the gas. A few whiffs of this and the patient is wide awake. It never fails, and besides,

Red Wine and Brown Bread

Boo! This is Hallowe'en issue, children, and are we scared!

On Thanksgiving the wealthy are filled to satisfaction with turkey, on Christmas the good are filled to overflowing with Christmas spirit, and on New Years the gay are filled to the gills with punch. But, Kiddies, this is Hallowe'en, so, like the shade of good St. Viator, if he should return and see this column, we are filled with horror.

Seriously, though, there is something picturesque about Hallowe'en. Yea and verily. Perhaps it is the colorful costumes and decorations, or possibly it is because the idea is wierd and fantastic, and it may even be just the harvest moon riding across the October sky. Anyway we like it.

The other day, a lad comes up to us, gives us a slap on the back, and sez, "You sure picked an appropriate name for your column".

"Thanks", sez we, "but what makes you think so?"

"Well", sez he, "It's cheap like red wine, and staid and crumbly like brown bread". —Ah, this vale of tears.

A few years ago there was a study after the nature of archaeology at Viator. The student would sit in a different chair each day and scrutinize the scratchings on the writing arm. In this way he could unearth a profundity of information about the loves, the interest and the life of former students. But, alas, renewals and repairing have played havoc with this science. But stay with the task, fellow scholars, we still have used text books to work with.

Our current hero is Herbie "Elysium" Fields, deminutive Freshman day student. He asked Father Maguire what he thought of having the tavern across the way named "The College Inn". The Green Wave needs men like that to carry the ball when the going is tough.

Not that it makes a great deal of difference, but the rubber mat at the students entrance to Roy Hall is made from old automobile tires. If this were not the better type of column, we would say that the gentleman who thought up that idea was using the old tread.

Some of these frosh are pretty smooth customers. One of the horde who was sitting with an upper classman on the porch of Roy Hall watching football practice talked of letter men with much assurance.

The upper-classman resented this spark of youthful wisdom, and in order to nip it in the bud, he asked: "Just what is the difference between a letterman and man of letters?"

The freshman casually flipped his cigarette over the rail and replied, without batting an eye, "The same difference as there is between Venetian blinds and a blind Venetian".

The upper-classman retired to his room to think it over.

That's all for this time, scholars. But don't cry, we will be back. So long — J. R. calling signals, getting the team into position, etc. In this brief period of actual play however, there are approximately 160 plays.

There are those who say football is commercial and that the dollar sign is altogether too much in evidence but take the case of Maryland, which has a game scheduled with Western Maryland in Baltimore on December 7.

That game is a state title affair and will draw big,—BUT Maryland is going to waive its half of the receipts in favor of its rival—to help Western Maryland build a new gymnasium.

Coach McNamara has something to remember this homecoming by—it was his team's first win in conference competition and also the first homecoming of his regime as head coach at Viator

In the game between St. Norbert (Green Wave opponent of November 10) and Carrol College of Kaweska, Wis., Bob Toonen, Norbert fullback, ran 90-yards to return the opening kickoff for a touchdown that proved to be the only score of the game.

The fact that Valparaiso University is claiming that they have a 22 consecutive home game winning streak still doesn't alter the fact that on October 5 the Green Wave of St. Viator College broke that streak, tying Valpo 7 to 7. Valpo should state that they have never lost a home game in 22 starts and then they would be correct.

Bill Walsh, who was converted from a quarterback to a left half at the beginning of the season by Coach McNamara, is rapidly proving that he can perform equally as well at the latter position.

Ferris Institute, Irish opponent of November 2 at Big Rapids, Mich., lost by a wide margin to Findlay last week. The final score was Findlay—33 and Ferris Institute 6.

A Detroit 'Pro' Talks Football

Detroit, Mich., (ACP)—Earl C. "Dutch" Clark, quarterback of the Detroit Lions, and considered by many critics as one of the greatest players now in the game, offers an explanation of one of football's most baffling mysteries.

Sports writers and fans have wondered why many "big name" stars have failed to make the grade in the pro game while players' rosters of major professional leagues are filled with names of men whose collegiate experience was with obscure teams representing smaller institutions.

"Pro football is much tougher than the college game," Clark says, "is very much tougher. A lot of people have the idea that the pros lack the physical condition of the collegiates. That's out. We start practice more than a month before our first game.

"We work five hours a day with both morning and afternoon drills, and in the heat of summer, too. No

College Administrators Meet To Organize for Current Year

Att. Lowell Lawson To Head Directors

Att. Lowell A. Lawson, '14, president of the Extension Club, presided at the meeting of the officers of the various college organizations. The meeting was held soon after school began.

The 37 members present represented: the Alumni Association, the Extension Club, the Trustees of the College, and the Provincial Counselors.

The men attending the meeting discussed the finances of the College, and elected the Board of Directors and the Associate Board of Lay Trustees.

Attorney Lawson was chosen to head the Board of Directors for the ensuing year.

Financial Reports Highly Satisfactory

During the meeting, the President and the Treasurer of the College presented their annual financial reports.

Both officers received the praise of the committee members for their able handling of the difficult problems which were multiplied in the last five years.

These reports showed that in the past four years the College was operated on a cash basis, and the institution was maintained on purely college revenues.

After the report, the members presented their views as to the best solution of the economic problems which confront St. Viator College.

Father Toolan Works In Extension Club

The Very Rev. Dr. E. V. Cardinal, C. S. V., at the request of the Directors, appointed the Rev. James A. Toolan, C. S. V., Resident Secretary of the Alumni, and Business Manager of the Extension Club.

This work, which has been in abeyance for the past three years, has been revived to bring about closer relations between the College and its friends.

Considering the increase in attendance in the past two years, it was agreed that "whatever aid St. Viator College may receive will be used in a constructive way for the development of the school".

IN MEMORIAM

Next Monday marks the first anniversary of the death of Monsignor G. M. Legris, a man whom Viator students had loved for over half a century. He was one of those rare men whose virtues are appreciated and whose beautiful simplicity is revered even while they are still living.

Certainly Monsignor Legris achieved during his life the divine success of having filled his niche and of having accomplished his task. By moulding the hearts and minds of Viator men, by exemplifying the dignity of profound scholarship, by giving to his associates an example of the nobility and gradure of a life well lived, he left the world better than he found it.

As teacher, as man, as priest, The Monsignor gave to all the best he had, and in return always looked for the best that could be found in others. Today, a year after his death, in the hearts of hundreds whose lives are richer for having known him, he lives on — his life an inspiration, his memory a benediction.

LEAGUE ACTS LATE AGAIN

Civilization fades far into the distant future when one considers the utterly disconcerting procedures that have characterized the Italo-Ethiopian situation. Nothing could be more illustrative of the need for improvement in world government and international diplomatic methods than the slow action taken by the league powers at Geneva.

The entire affair, plainly a war of conquest as far as Italy is concerned, was nevertheless the topic of lengthy league investigations, first to determine whether Italy should take over Ethiopia, second, which nation has been at fault in the present crisis, and third, in what manner sanctions, if any, should be applied against Il Duce.

The Fascist invaders of Emperor Selassie's domain have gone much too far. They cannot turn back until the colors of Italy fly over Ethiopia. That will be accomplished only over the dead bodies of every warrior in Ethiopia.

Just what the effect of the League's action will have, and how far the League will go in carrying out its decisions, no one knows. The fact is that Mussolini, after having sent thousands of black-shirted troops and cannons up to the Ethiopian borders, suddenly took advantage of Selassie's necessary mobilization orders and immediately declared Ethiopia's call for soldiers an act of war, whereupon Il Duce's planes and soldiers advanced into Ethiopian territory and the war was on. It would seem on the face of these facts that the machinery of the League is far too slow for our fast moving world.

There are two kinds of discontent in this world: the discontent that works, and the discontent that wrings its hands. The first gets what it wants, and the second loses what it has. There's no cure for the first but success; and there's no cure at all for the second. — Gordon Graham.

ALUMNI NOTES

The Homecoming game seemed to be a general reunion of the Alumni. It would be impossible to enumerate all those present, but we will say here that a great many were represented at the game and at the dance.

Students and faculty extend to Orville P. Berns, a member of last year's graduating class, their hearty best wishes and congratulations. Berns was married this month.

Mr. Ignatius Cleary, '28, visited Father Walsh, '28, to talk over old times. Mr. Cleary is now Principal of the Coolidge School, Harvey, Ill. Leslie A. Roche, '27, who taught here in the High School several years, paid us a visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Werner Slag and son dropped in to say "Hello". Werner Slag graduated from Viator in '31.

Many of us met Brother Rupert, C. S. V., who is now Superior of a school for delinquents in Terra Haute, Indiana.

Andy Bracken came to renew acquaintances the other day.

J. H. Newman, '21, who was a professor of Latin and English here, dropped in for a short visit last week.

The Rev. T. J. Lynch, who is now teaching in Philadelphia, writes that he has returned from a month's vacation in Ireland.

Alumnus Ordained

Thomas A. Fox, who attended St. Viator College in 1929 and 1930, was ordained to the priesthood on October 26 at St. Joseph's church, West DePere, Wis.

Fox is now Frater Giles T. Fox, O. Praem., having found by the Praemonstratensian order in August, 1930. He received his B. A. degree from St. Norbert College in 1932, and taught in the high school the following year. The next year he taught at Archmere academy, Claymont, Delaware, and last year at Southeast Philadelphia Catholic High School.

The Forum

Dear Editor:

Since you take it upon yourself to speak for the boarding students as a body, we the Day Students address this letter to you with our profound apologies and deepest regrets. Far be it from any Day Student to deliberately slap anyone's face, especially one, whose bond of fraternal friendship is so close as a fellow student.

Therefore we take this opportunity to explain our action in electing officers and to assure you that we DO NOT feel our interests are neglected by the school's student heads.

You will agree with me when I say that it is utterly impossible for all of us to attend each meeting of the College Club. Therefore, to assure our wholehearted support to all its activities, we united and elected officers whose duty it is, to attend these meetings and represent us as a body. Then at an appointed time which is convenient to us we will meet and the officers will make a report of the actions taken by the College club at the last meeting; assuring all a complete knowledge of the social activities of their school. Thus we hope to stimulate more interest among the day students in college activities.

We are sorry that our organizing has led a few of the Boarders to think that we organized merely for the purpose of being arbitrary. WE DID NOT! We say a few, because we do not sincerely believe that this is the sentiment of the greater

Campus Personalities

MISS LUCILLE PUTZ

Known to most of you as "the librarian", Lucille is, nevertheless, one of the REAL characters on this campus, and that statement does not arise from any Irish blood in my veins. It is true. You have only to note her quiet, determined, business-like air to become quite sure of the fact that she does have real strength of character. Lucille has been with Viator for the past few years, and is, at present, working for her Bachelor of Arts degree. She is, truly, very efficient and brisk. Her tasks are performed quickly and with a smile. That smile, incidentally, is one of her chief assets. It catches you unaware sometimes, and the pure humanism and friendliness of it rather floors you.

To do justice to her, it must be said that she exemplifies the best type of coed. Her industrious, whole-hearted manner toward her work, and her lady-like appearance at all times make her about "tops".

Pardon Us

The VIATORIAN wishes to correct a mistake which appeared in the last issue. Miss Margaret Clancy, '36, and not Robert Mackin, '37, is vice-president of the Day Student organization.

Dr. Donald Laird, Colgate U. psychologist, has found by a series of tests that light lunches are best for college students. They certainly believe that here.

part of the students of Roy Hall.

Again pledging our loyalty to our College and to the College Club, we remain,

Very sincerely yours,
The Day Students.

Dear Editor:

I read with interest your editorial last issue concerning the day student elections. I think, however, that you failed sadly to interpret the Day Student's position.

First, you blithely assumed that the Day Students organized to fight rather than to cooperate with the College Club. This is not the position of the Day Students.

The majority of the Day Students are unable to attend College Club meetings. We organized so that we might have representatives at these meetings who can cooperate with the College Club in the name of the Day Students. If our interests were purely selfish, as you imply, we would have formulated a list of demands. But we did not. Instead, when plans were being laid for the Homecoming, our representatives secured decorated cars for the pep parade.

Secondly, you don't seem to appreciate that the needs of the Day Students are different from those of resident students. You call us the "off-campus" group instead of fellow students, then, in the same breath, tell us we are no different from resident students. Need we point out to you that day students are not even considered for offices such as President of the College Club and Editor of the Viatorian? We don't resent this for we realize that it is impractical that we hold these offices. But please don't tell us that our position is the same as that of resident students.

Sincerely,
"A member of the Off-Campus group".

S. V., A. B., is what he is called in the Bulletin of General Information, but that cold title does not designate the true man. Brother Ed. is a vital, living person, a man whose every move has a purpose. He is tremendously efficient, and is possessed of a marvelously practical mind. Athletics is Brother's special dish. Fall finds him on the gridiron while winter will locate him on the basketball court. In spring, he devotes himself to swimming and boxing, but his summer months are spent in acquiring more athletic knowledge at the University of Illinois. Of average height and weight, his wiry, agile body and natural athletic ability make him especially well fitted for his position as Director of Physical Education.

Supremely confident of himself, he inspires confidence in everyone who knows him. Of a kind, friendly disposition, he can be tough on occasion. Yes sir, fellows, he's kind but tough, small but mighty, and he comes under the specifications of—what's that we used to call them? — ah, yes,—a prince!

THE LIBRARY LOG

New books on Architecture have been recently added to the Library. They have been cataloged and are now available for circulation. All those interested in Architecture and Art will find a great deal of enjoyable reading in the following volumes.

Living Architecture by Arthur Woltersdorf. A collection of essays on present day problems in Architecture written and sponsored by the Chicago Chapter of the American Institute of Architects.

History of Architecture by A. D. Hamlin. This work sketches the various styles of architecture and the most important works of each period or style.

Colour by H. B. Carpenter. A manual of its theory and practice. Mural Paintings in English Churches during the Middle Ages by Frank Kendon.

Form and Reform by Paul T. Frank. A handbook of modern interiors.

Spanish Influence on American Architecture and Decoration by R. W. Sexton. The illustrations in this book record the progress made by the leading architects in this country in evolving a pseudo-Spanish style, the chief inspiration of which has been derived from houses of old Spain. The results are interesting and very enjoyable.

Prelude to Architecture by William Godfrey Newton. Critical essays on Architecture.

Beauty Looks After Herself by Eric Gill. A collection of essays on Art.

The Library acknowledges gifts of books from—

Brother James T. Sweeney, C. S. V.

Miss Serena Bailey, Lakeland, Florida.

Sisters of St. Patrick's, Kankakee, Illinois.

Father Munsch is now negotiating for the 14th edition of the Encyclopedia Britannica and also expects to order many of the volumes on the Shaw-Carnegie list of Books for College Libraries.

Il Duce Blamed For War Crisis At I. R. C. Meet

Speaker Fears World Conflict Will Result

In no uncertain terms, the Very Rev. Dr. E. V. Cardinal, C. S. V., denounced Mussolini in his invasion upon the peace of Ethiopia at the first meeting of the I. R. C. Father Cardinal based his condemnation upon three major points:

(1). "The consequences", he said, "of a war between Italy and Ethiopia would be worse than any good that possibly could be derived therefrom". He explained that should war be officially declared, it would be inevitable that Europe be drawn into the conflict. "Today", he asserted, "war is an international crime".

(2) The speaker stressed the conviction that "Italy is not defending a cause which is worthy or just". He discarded Il Duce's plea that Italy needs land for her crowded populace, because there are means which could be used to solve the problem other than war. The reverend doctor suggested as reasons for Italy's aggression the desire to regain her lost glory, the pressing demand for natural resources, or the need of an outlet for her population. But, he declared that none of these ends justify the means which the dictator is using to gain them.

(3) Father Cardinal gave as his third reason for condemning the Italian attitude the fact that Italy is sworn to the League of Nations, the World Court and the Kellogg Peace Pact. And yet, he pointed out, she has not attempted to make use of this machinery. On the contrary, she has deliberately broken her word with the nations of the world, refused to exhaust her means for keeping peace, and has begun to invade Ethiopia.

Americans Charged With Soviet Plot

Easton, Pa., (ACP)—Eugene Brinson, Lafayette, '31, is being held prisoner by Chinese authorities at Hankow on charges of "assisting Communists to imperil the Chinese government, bribing officers, and attempting to procure the escape of a convict" college authorities here have been informed.

Details of an alleged international plot, which it is thought included Brinson, are as yet very meager. The early information cabled to this country told how Brinson and a friend, Carl J. Lemcke, were detained when it became certain they were attempting to work the release of Joseph Waldon, also known as "Dr Rivosh of Berlin", believed to be a native of Latvia and an agent of the OGPU, the Soviet secret political police, from a Chinese prison. Waldon was sentenced to 15 years imprisonment for espionage.

According to a reliable Japanese source, the plot to set Waldon free was discovered when a Japanese gunboat on river patrol in the Yangtse intercepted a radio message from the Soviet steamship Sever, enroute from Shanghai to Vladivostok.

Brinson and Lemcke, it is charged, had planned to bribe the assistant warden of the pail in Wuchang, where Waldon is being held. Wuchang is directly opposite Hankow on the Yangtse. In this way the pair intended to gain admittance

History Of St. Viator College

BY LEO V. NOLAN, C. S. V.
II—THE POTTAWATOMI

On the basis of linguistic characteristics, the Indians of North America were divided into three chief groups, the Athabascans, the Iroquois and the Algonquians. First in importance among the Algonquians were the Pottawattomi whose hunting ground, for a long time, comprised the Kankakee country.

LaSalle did not encounter the Pottawattomi here during his explorations as they were at that time dwelling in the regions around Green Bay. The Jesuit Relations for the years 1639 and 1640 refer to them as being north of Lake Huron and later as being farther south along the shores of Lake Michigan. Charlevoix believed their villages on the Saint Joseph and at Detroit to have been settled around 1700. As the tribe multiplied they spread south and west until they occupied nearly all of Northwestern Indiana and Northern Illinois.

These Indians were faithful allies of the French until the close of Queen Anne's War in 1713. In the Revolutionary War they fought on the side of the British despite the fact of their previous campaigns with Pontiac against the English. In the Fort Dearborn Massacre, during the War of 1812, they played the leading role. In fact, certain of the friendly tribes warned the inhabitants of the small fort that the Pottawattomi could not be trusted.

The Kankakee country can boast not only of Caucasian heroes nurtured on this soil, but also, of picturesque Mongoloid braves who made this land their home. Among them were three who deserve special mention: Shabbona, Pontiac, and Shawanasee.

Chief Shabbona was born within the boundaries of Kankakee County around 1775. Although he fought with Tecumseh against the Americans, in the War of 1812, he is said to have done much to cement the friendly relations between his tribe and the white intruders. "In the Winnebago War of 1827", according to the History of Kankakee County, "it was to his efforts that pioneers were indebted that his tribe did not take part in that conflict". He resisted Black Hawks' blandishments and thus kept his tribe from an alliance with the Sacs and Foxes in the Black Hawk War. Given a tract of land in DeKalb county by the government, he abandoned it to go with his tribe when they moved westward. When he returned, years later, the land had long since been forfeited. However, the citizens of Ottawa, Illinois, bought land and built him a home where he died in 1859.

The History of Kankakee County is authority for the statement that Pontiac with the shattered remnants of his once mighty band, to the jail, let Walden leave and have Lemcke remain behind in his place. Once Walden was safely out of the Chinese territory, Lemcke was to have effected his own release by a mere declaration of his true identity.

joined the Pottawattomi in the valley of the Kankakee at the close of the War of 1812. An Illinois Indian assassinated him during an Indian Council not long afterwards.

Chief Sha-wa-na-see died in his village at Rock Creek in 1832. This village is reputed to have been one of the largest and oldest in the country. The last great Indian Council is said to have been held here in 1830. The Treaty of Camp Tippecanoe bears his name as well as Shabbona's.

Mid-West Schools Show Growth

New York, (ACP)—Definite and substantial enrollment gains in colleges and universities throughout the country are the order of the day this fall, with almost every school able to report at least a slight increase in registration over last year.

The gain is most marked in the Mid-West, where student ranks are apparently increasing three times as fast as they are on the Atlantic sea board. Colleges polled beyond the Alleghenies show an average student gain of 10.6 per cent over last year, as against 3 per cent in Eastern schools.

More money at home, plus the feeling that new jobs are opening up, is believed mainly responsible for the 1935 jump. The N. Y. A. is playing an important part, many registrars believe.

College Club President Injured On Gridiron

The day after he had told the VIATORIAN of his plans for the November 10 supper-dance William Phelan, '36, College Club President, suffered a compound fracture of the leg while playing in an inter-class football game. Since Sunday, the day of the accident, he has been a patient in St. Mary's hospital, Kankakee. He is expected to return to the campus in a few days.

During the absence of Phelan, Stephen Gould, '36, vice-president, is acting as head of the College Club.

According to an announcement from the University of Illinois, plant molecules have been brought within man's microscopic vision.

College Students Opposed To War

Madison, Wis., (ACP)—The college youth of America definitely does not want war, and can be expected to oppose vigorously and actively any effort to drag the United States into the general European war many experts predict will arise out of the Italo-Ethiopian conflict.

This is the belief of Associated Collegiate Press correspondents who have just completed a survey of student opinion on the subject.

Outstanding among the conclusions reached as a result of the survey are these:

(1) While most American students are in decided sympathy with Ethiopia in the present undeclared war in Africa, opinion is divided as to the wisdom of the United States joining the League of Nations in the application of aggressor penalties against Italy with only a minority in support.

(2) Today, more students than ever before are prepared to view with cynical skepticism the flag-waving jingoism and propaganda so successfully used to drive America into participation in the World War.

(3) The flood of books, pamphlets and magazine articles exposing the origins of the past wars and particularly the World War, has found a wider circulation among college students and instructors than among any other group of the American public as a whole.

(4) The number of "conscientious objectors," and pacifists in the colleges and universities, both those who would refuse to enlist for a foreign war and those who are pledged not to fight for any reason, has vastly increased during the past few years.

The Science Society of China was founded 21 years ago by Chinese undergraduates at Cornell University.

Cash Prizes Offered To Psychologists

The Department of Psychology will announce this week an essay contest which will be open to all college students. An award of $25.00 is being offered by the editors of "The Modern Psychologist" for the best paper on the topic, "The Meaning of Gestalt Psychology".

The essays should not be less than 1500 nor more than 3500 words in length, and should be in the hands of the judges by December 31.

Fr. Cracknell Attends Ill. Registrars' Meet

The Rev. William C. Cracknell, C. S. V., St. Viator College Registrar, attended the annual meeting of the Illinois Association of Collegiate Registrars in Rockford, Ill., last Thursday and Friday. The convention, who discussed many problems which they had in common and listened to suggested improvements for their work, were the guests of Rockford College.

In comparison with other countries the United States ranks tenth in the educational scale, according to a statement made at the last national convention of the Parent-Teachers' convention.

Liquid
Emulsified
Asphalt

A perfect protective coating for brushing, spraying or trowelling, being a high grade Mexican asphalt dispersed as minute particles in water for convenient handling. It is applied cold. As the moisture evaporates, a black, flexible rubberlike film remains which is waterproof, acid, alkaline and fire resistant, and shuts out infiltrations of air.

Mortex 5 does not crack or peel in coldest weather, nor blister, sag nor run on hottest days and always remains elastic. It is odorless, tasteless and nonflammable and can be safely used in confined places. It readily bonds to all clean surfaces, and also to damp surfaces, but should never be applied over dusty, dirty, greasy or oily surfaces or an imperfect bond will result. Use only on clean surfaces to obtain perfect satisfaction.

Used for DAMPPROOFING WALLS and FLOORS, PAINTING GALVANIZED IRON, PROTECTING CLEAN IRON AND STEEL, ROOF REPAIRING and as an ADHESIVE. It can be mixed with Portland Cement and dries out a soft gray color for patching deteriorating concrete.
