

VIATOR OPENS SIXTY-FOURTH SCHOLASTIC YEAR

DANIEL J. CONWAY
RITES ARE HELD

Veteran Lawyer, Official and Devout Churchman
Graduate with Class of '85.

Impressive religious ceremonies were held in St. Joseph's Cathedral, Sioux Falls, S. D., as a tribute to the memory of Daniel J. Conway, Veteran Lawyer, United States Commissioner and faithful Catholic, whose death from a stomach ailment took place at his home, Monday night, August 31. Prelates, legal colleagues and admiring friends crowded the church to pay homage to the highly respected, long time resident of Sioux Falls.

Praised By Bishop.

Prominent clergy of the Catholic faith from various points in the middle west participated at the services, with the Rt. Rev. Bernard J. Mahoney, Bishop of Sioux Falls Diocese, delivering a verbal tribute to Mr. Conway as one of the outstanding Catholic laymen of Sioux Falls over the past several years.

The chief portion of the Bishop's discourse was in the form of religious remarks. He diverted from this trend, however, to pay a tribute to Mr. Conway's personal piety, recalling to mind the fact that the veteran attorney was one of the thirty men in the United States who were honored by the Holy See with the Knighthood of St. Gregory. He asserted that Mr. Conway though ardent in his own convictions of faith was liberal toward his fellowmen in their views.

Besides his outstanding religious zeal, the Bishop said, Mr. Conway was a loyal South Dakotan, with ex-state. He was staunch in maintaining confidence in the future of the ing that the reverses of the present were merely transitory and that the conditions of the state would soon right themselves and assume the progress which has hitherto been enjoyed.

College Extends Sympathy.

St. Viator College takes this opportunity to extend its sympathies to the surviving relatives, of one of the outstanding laymen of the Catholic Church in America.

The Officers of the Mass were Rev. Patrick C. Conway of Nativity Church, Chicago, celebrant; Rev. Clarence P. Conway, Hawarden, Iowa, Deacon; the Very Rev. J. P. O'Mahoney, C. S. V., Provincial of the Viatorian, Sub-Deacon. The Rev. Patrick G. Conway, Chicago, was the elderly attorney's twin brother. Msgr. G. M. Legris, of St. Viator College was present in the sanctuary.

Puff Romary, veteran halfback, spent his summer showing up the famous Illinois redhead with the ice-tongs. Puff reported fifteen new hairs on the right side of the pat, and donated the formula to Eddie O'Neil and Herb Shea free.

Where was Ed. O'Neil when the lights went out? At times the Bradley street car is very attractive, is it not, Ed?

Business Men Back Paper
Render Loyal Support

We would like to say a thing or two about the men and the companies who are greatly assisting us this year, as they have been accustomed to do in the past.

Most of them are located in the immediate vicinity, but all of them are interested in the welfare of the College and its students. Even in this day of red ink bookkeeping they have not failed us, nor will they do so in the future.

We hope that you will take these things into consideration the next time that you wish to make a purchase or to recommend a store to your friends.

Social Sorority Registers Increase

The addition of seven new co-eds seems to have caused considerable excitement on the campus. So many bright and noble young ladies have never graced our campus before. And no wonder! From the midst of St. Patrick's graduates are three most prominent young ladies: Miss Genevieve Adams—A. B.; Miss Margaret Clancy—A. B.; Miss Mary Cruise—A. B.

Father Maguire's graduation address proved quite successful in bringing coeds to the college from St. Patrick's High School last June.

Our other new co-eds include Miss Loretta Flanagan, graduate of Notre Dame Convent, Bourbonnais who intends to take a Liberal Arts course. Miss Suzanne Cote, graduate of St. Joseph's Seminary, Kankakee, is another new student. Miss Rosann Gorman who has for the past two years attended St. Mary's College, Notre Dame is a Junior this year. Miss Evangeline Legris who attended St. Francis College, Joliet, is also one of our Junior co-eds.

The officers and members of the sorority extend their welcome to the new co-eds and hope to have them enrolled at our first formal meeting.

The election of officers had taken place in June for the coming year as:

Mis Rachael Roach, President.
Miss Rita Murphy, Vice-President.
Miss Greta Cardosi, Secretary.
Miss Helen O'Connor, Treasurer.

Information has been received from our new President that no plans have been arranged until after the meeting. The sorority intends to prove more active than last year.

It is with regret that we learned the resignation of Mrs. C. Kennedy who has been for the past fifteen years a faithful nurse at St. Viator College, and who was always very interested and active in the Sorority affairs and in the affairs of the campus.

The Co-Eds who have returned for another year's work are:

Miss Frances M. Clancy—Senior, A. B.
Miss Rachael Roach—Senior, A. B.
Miss Reine La Fontaine—Sophomore, B. S.
Miss Marie A. Smole—Sophomore, A. B.
Miss Ruth Arrington—Sophomore, A. B.
Miss Agnes Stelter—Sophomore, A. B.
Thirteen Co-eds! What a number!

Rev. H. A. Darche Honored By Legion

Former Viator Student,
Athlete and Theologist
Receives New Laurels

The Reverend H. A. Darche, '09, noted at St. Viator for his football prowess as well as for his success in scholastics and theology, and known to war veterans the world over as the "fighting padre," now pastor of St. Joseph's Church, Bourbonnais, Illinois, was elected national chaplain of the American Legion last Thursday evening, September 24.

Father Darche is known as the most decorated chaplain of the American Expeditionary Forces. He was awarded the Croix de Guerre with two palms and the medal of the Legion of Honor by the French government. The United States government awarded him the Distinguished Service Cross and he was four times cited for gallantry in action.

Second Viatorian Honored.

Father Darche is the second St. Viator graduate to be honored as chaplain of the Illinois and the national departments of the Legion. The other Viatorian so honored was Reverend Joseph Lonergan of Woodstock, Illinois. Father Lonergan was stationed at Rockford when he received this honor.

Wounded In France.

Father Darche served with the sixth regiment of Marines in France. He saw action at Chateau Thierry and was with the Marines when they made one of the most heroic stands of the war, as well as of history, at Belleau Woods, later named by the French in honor of the fight there staged "Les Bois de Brigade Des Marines." Father Darche was in the Soissons action and at that time he was wounded.

Native of Bourbonnais.

Father Darche was born and raised in Bourbonnais. His parents are now deceased. His sister, formerly Mrs. Ida Bird was married last week to Fred W. Holmes, former city police magistrate of Kankakee. The couple are honeymooning in Washington, D. C.

State Chaplain.

Father Darche was state chaplain of the Legion in 1926 and once before was mentioned as a candidate for the national office. Father Darche has always taken an active interest in the local Legion activities.

Add to the losses from Roy Hall Ed Gorman of Manteno, President of the Junior Class. Ed is herding a Hudson sedan down route 49 these days, accompanied by brother Tom, sister Rosann, and Francis Smith. Francis, by the way, is the younger brother of John Smith, athletic manager of a few years back.

Solemn Rites Inaugurate School Year.

The sixty-fourth scholastic year at St. Viator was officially opened with the celebration of a Solemn High Mass of the Holy Ghost by the Very Rev. J. W. R. Maguire, C. S. V., President of the College, on Wednesday morning, September 23rd. The student body was present, as a whole, in the chapel for the ceremony, as were the members of the faculty. The Seniors, in cap and gown, led the procession, followed by the members of the faculty, and officiating clergymen.

Rev. Francis Munsch, C. S. V. was deacon, Rev. E. V. Cardinad, C. S. V. was sub-deacon, and Rev. William Cracknell, C. S. V., was master of ceremonies. The music and singing were furnished by the choir from St. Bernard Hall.

Although no sermon was given Wednesday, Father Maguire read and explained the various rules and regulations of the College on the previous evening. At this time, he made several personal observations on student life, and the aims of education.

HIGH SCHOOL IS DISCONTINUED

Assume Administration of St. Patrick's Parish, Kankakee, Ills.

This year, 1931-1932, marks the first time that St. Viator's is entirely devoted to college work. Within the last two years a decision was made to the effect that for the betterment of the college the High school would be discontinued. Accordingly last year's class marked the last to be graduated from the Academy. Now every building on the campus is devoted to the college students. A higher standard is thereby to be gained and greater efficiency secured. Every instructor is devoted to college work with the result that additional courses are offered.

Every year brings its changes. So, too, has this one. There is one face for which we look in vain among the faculty—a face that we have learned to love and honor, that of Rev. Fr. W. J. Bergin, C.S.V. But although St. Viator's College has lost him as an instructor, St. Patrick's Parish, in Kankakee, has gained him as a pastor. Another Viator graduate is with Father Bergin as assistant, Fr. E. Fitzpatrick, C. S. V., who formerly was located in Chicago. The student body of St. Viator College take this opportunity to wish them every success and joy in their work. We hope that we will often see them about the campus.

The return of Red Wenthe is reported as most popular with the Village. The prolonged absence of the redhead is said to have caused many anxious moments in the homes of the city, but now all is serene and the curfew has been thrown away.

Charlie Coppens reports a most enjoyable summer—whenever he could escape the photographers. Glad to see the Ghandi haircut grown out, anyhow, Charlie.

WELCOME.

By Rev. J. W. R. Maguire, C. S. V.

St. Viator College again welcomes a new class of freshmen. She receives back with joy old students who have spent one, two, or three years on her campus. To all she extends sincere and hearty greeting.

The opportunity to obtain a college education is a great privilege, extended only to a small proportion of the population of the world. It is, consequently a weighty responsibility. The college student has leisure denied to others, to study, to become acquainted with the learning and thought of the ages, to converse with the greatest minds of all the world. He is admitted into the company of the real elite and aristocrats of all times. He enters upon the greatest possible adventure, the exploration of the field of knowledge. The discovery of a new book may be wilder and more far-reaching adventure than the discovery of a new land. The college student has time to give himself entirely to the dear delight of the pursuit of truth, and truth and virtue are the only things worth obtaining. Hence, every college student should have a sense of the exalted nature of his business and a realization of the responsibilities that rest upon him. "Nobless oblige." He has leisure to study but not to idle. He has time to enter into communication with the great minds of the world but not to waste. He must relentlessly give himself to the pursuit of truth as other men give themselves to the pursuit of money or of pleasure. If he does not it will be a loss and a detriment. It is the hope of the Faculty that every Viator student exert himself to the utmost to obtain intellectual excellence and to learn the greatest lesson in the world, how to live. The happiness of every being consists in perfection. May the happiness of every student be full and complete.

Spend Summer In Enjoyable Tour

Doctor Gabriel Besseney, Head of the Department of Political Science, has returned to St. Viator from a three month's vacation spent in California. Doctor Besseney spent the greater part of his summer in Los Angeles and Santa Monica, where he is widely acquainted.

THANK YOU

Thomas Ryan, Circulation Manager, wishes to express his appreciation of their assistance to the following members of the Freshman class who assisted him in the execution of his departmental duties: Earl O'Mara, I. Walters, W. Maguire, Howard Rosensteel.

Campus Briefs

School opened, and they began pouring in on Sunday . . . first comer was our distinguished roommate, Mr. Bushman, who took just three hours to abolish the accumulated dirt of three months . . . then the Bloomington contingent headed by Marty Toohill, who spent the summer promoting the ice-cream business, and who promises great things for the College Club this year . . . and Bill Gibbons, who, since his registration at St. Viator has abandoned his wild life in Panola and has moved to Bloomington and civilization . . . Coot (Suppressed Desire) Larkin—a full inch shorter . . . and Gill Middleton, erasing the Thomas from his bags and vehemently denying stories about a baby-talking blonde . . . Tommy Ahern from Kinsman, here to administer affairs in the varsity dressing-room . . . Webb Callahan and Jimmy Dugan with new ideas for the Viatorian . . . Bill Riley, Soph Class President, casting a reflective eye on the Freshman ranks . . . Joe Degnan and Bob Spreitzer still rooming together . . . may Heaven help Brother Corcoran . . . Pat Farrell discovering Joe Farrell of the Freshman class . . . Jim Crowley, George Fleming, Norbert Egges, Tom Ryan, Charlie Flynn, and Louis Hebert from the final Viator Academy class . . . Hallie Rosensteel and brother Howard up from Bloomington . . . and FOUR Gormans . . . Frances Mary Clancy starting brother and sister off right . . . Handsome John McGrath having a special telephone installed . . . Leo Ruteki's brother Harry down from Chi . . . another edition of the Viator Winterhalters . . . and Bob Nolan of the equally well-known Rockford family down for his Sophomore year . . . and Red Wenthe pulling in sans Packard . . . Francis Devine, formerly of Roy Hall, now commuting to Chebanse . . . Emmerson Dexter up from Champaign with Kit Carson . . . Bob Delaney taking a corner room . . . Joe Murphy back for his sixth season . . . four in the old H. S. . . . and a pair of Almeroths . . . openers in any man's game . . . and a couple of hundred others from everywhere under the sun gradually settling down to light . . . very light . . . housekeeping in Roy Hall.

A Viator near-tradition went smash this year when Werner (Rabbit) Salg moved into room 202 with Ed Weber, and Coot Larkin and Ray (Suicide) Wenthe took up quarters in 230. After rooming together in boarding school for six years, something drastic must have happened to break up the Wenthe-Salg combination. Wenthe refuses to discuss the matter, but Salg points to the fact that he weighs one fifty and Larkin tips the beam at a mere one ten.

Occupants of rooms on the second corridor, Roy Hall were entertained last Wednesday evening by a very touching rendition of "The Face on the Barroom Floor," delivered by Bill (21 Day) Gibbons.

Ed Hunt, remaining member of the Barflies Quartet is out for material. Oc O'Donnell passed his vocal test with flying colors and will henceforth do the baritone work. That means that it is up to Oc to be the villain. Did you ever hear of a baritone hero?

We see that Delinquent Lists will again feature the disciplinary year. And that makes Burke Monahan the "most influential man on the campus" for the second year. Quoting the Chatsworth Independent.

Herb Shea of the Fort Wayne, Indiana and Tampa, Florida Sheas has brought brother Dick back to the Freshman class to atone in part to Viator for the loss of brother Ed at graduation last year. Fort Wayne likewise furnishes the bridge-playing James Foohey and the oratorical James Fullam.

ORGANIZATION OF VIATORIAN STAFF

Major Portion Of Members Selected

This year the staff of the "VIATORIAN" is composed almost entirely of experienced writers. The Editor has found it to be as competent as, in his opinion, any similar organization.

Jas. Dugan, a very capable gentleman, will assist the Editor. Gill Middleton, whose ability is widely recognized, will occupy the difficult position of Managing Editor. Kenneth Bushman, Frances M. Clancy, Francis Larkin, Wilbur Callahan and John Burns, each of whom did very creditable work last year have been assigned to the task of writing Feature articles. Marie Smole, a newcomer, will give us the news concerning the activities of the Sorority. Frank Wirken, whose knowledge of athletics equips him to handle a very popular section of the "VIATORIAN," will report the triumphant progress of St. Viator's numerous sports. Harold Rosensteel, who comes to St. Viator after a year's absence, has the position of Alumni Editor, a task he is quite capable to fill. Ralph Hoover, who needs no introduction, has the column termed "Campus Briefs," which he will care for with all of the Hoover audacity. William J. Clancy, a Sophomore with an Irish wit, will concentrate his talents on the "VIATORIANA the best-known, and most widely-read section of "the best little college paper of its size in America." Thomas Ryan, a very popular Freshman, has charge of the Circulation Department.

The policy of the paper, now as in past years, shall be to continue the development of knowledge and co-operation and achievement which compose the Viator tradition.

Concerning Freshmen

With the reception last Saturday night the Freshman received their first formal recognition as a class. There will be more recognition later on and it will be formal,—very. The upperclassmen will see to that. Green caps will soon be very evident about the campus but they will be merely a prelude to the things to come.

It seems to be traditional in most colleges that the Freshmen serve an apprenticeship to fit themselves for the dignified (?) offices of upperclassmen. Generally this is made as unpleasant as possible, but the yearlings at St. Viator can consider themselves fortunate that they do not have to undergo the torments inflicted upon their fellows at many larger institutions. We do not advocate paddling and we feel that there is little justice in the slogan of the upperclassmen "We got it, so we'll give it," but we realize that editorial disapproval will not put an end to long-established custom. Past experience teaches us the folly of such efforts. Therefore we can only hope that the Frosh will face the inevitable with the same fortitude that we did.

Faculty Changes Few This Year

Few changes have been made in the faculty of the College this year. Professor J. H. Cook, A. M., succeeds Murray Hickey Ley as assistant to Reverend T. J. Lynch of the English Department. Mr. Ley has given up teaching to enter business. Professor Cook also will conduct the classes in public speaking, left vacant by J. Allen Nolan who has entered The Catholic University of Washington where he will work towards his Master's degree.

Father Phillips, who for many years has been Professor of Latin, has also entered the Catholic University for graduate study.

The Rev. J. W. R. Maguire, C. S. V., President of St. Viator's succeeds Father Bergin as instructor of Religion. Father Maguire will also teach Economics, a subject in which he has achieved international renown.

Rev. R. J. French, C. S. V., Ph. D., succeeds the Reverend E. J. Kelly, A. M., C. S. V., as Dean of Men. Fr. French also teaches Philosophy of Education. Father Kelly will devote his entire time to the direction of Athletics and Physical Education.

Brother Gedwell, who taught typewriting and short-hand last year, is now located in Chicago.

Father Suprenant, ordained to the priesthood last June, will instruct the students of Psychology.

Twenty-Four Comprise Viatorian Novitiate Class

Twenty-four high school graduates are in attendance at Lamont, Illinois, home of the Viatorian Novitiate. Many states of the Union are represented by this number of young men who will, next September, enter St. Viator College as scholastics.

Improvements that have helped to beautify the grounds, were made during the summer. New sidewalks and roadways were constructed around the grounds, as were new handball courts and a rock garden.

Father Munsch boasts ten new members at St. Bernard's Hall this year, four of whom will be remembered by the older students of the College;—they are Bro. Eugene Hoffman, '30; Bro. Donald Bay, Academy, '30; Bro. John O'Brien, Academy, '30; and Bro. Timothy Kelly Academy, '30.

St. Bernard's Hall has also undergone minor repairs during the summer, both on the interior and exterior, and some new volumes have been added to the library.

VIATORIANA

Well, well, and well! In spite of ye much-talked-of depression ye Olde Viatorian still insists on running ye Olde Wise Crack Columnne, and hence ye columnist feels in duty bound to haul out ye greatly antiquated typewriter and to settle down to his bi-monthly toils.

Yeah, it looks like things are picking up. Freshmen hordes are pouring in like the descent of the barbarians, and as barbarous.

Nice ripe pickings for Kangaroo Court, time-honored institution of "learning."

By the way, Pat Larkin has learned things this summer. He must have thought he was Big Bill Thompson, or Al Capone, the other day; when the Prof asked him for his blue card Pat grabbed the extended hand with a royal "Mitt me!"

The sorority has grown too—the campus is overrun with sprightly co-eds from the local villages.

Now is the time for all good bone-crushers to come to the aid of the Varsity.

PLEASE OMIT FLOWERS.

Ladies and Gentlemen, we're out here at Notta Durn, Southeastern football game in the Memorial Stadium at Indian Oaks, Illinois, and an icy wind is sweeping down from the North and there goes the whistle and the game is on and he's off for five, ten, thirteen yards and they nail him. This is station WHAM—Simpson's must be a good place to eat—the cuisine is perfect—the atmosphere delightful—try our boiled lobsters and baked frog-legs for what ails your pocket-book—there is no cover-charge. Now they come out of the huddle and are back to the line of scrimmage and there is the play; and it's a long pass, and he's away, off down the field; and he slips, and he's up again, and the crowds have gone mad, and he makes the touchdown, and the game is over, and Notta Durn wins 6-0. Please stand by.

Why does Ralph Hoover write so many letters? Is it possible that he, too, is planning a moratorium?

FAMOUS LAST WORDS.

"I didn't know you assigned anything for today, Prof."

We wonder if Red Hayes has a Yo-Yo top?

BLANK VERSE—MOSTLY BLANK.

He became a bootlegger,
He bought a gun;
It was all in good, clean fun.

He got a gang,
He started a racket;
The cops got wise,
And gave him a striped jacket.

He got out o' "stir,"
And back in the game;
He was put on the spot,
Now he's in the hall of fame.

Moral: That's what you get for making whoopee!

Our reputation as a poet and creator of fine verse having been properly vindicated, and the English language having been seized, grilled, given the third degree, and held for trial by the Supreme Court, we must needs bid our fond Adieu with this parting gem of glowing wisdom, "No matter how thin you slice it, it's still boloney."

VIATOR FRESHMAN SAVES BOY'S LIFE

Geo. Fleming's Prompt Action Prevents Tragedy.

Father French reports an interesting incident concerning a member of this year's Freshman class. Geo. Fleming, of Chicago, who is very popular about the campus, and a member of the Academy's senior class last year, while vacationing at Delevan Lake, Wis., saved the life of a boy who was seized with cramps while swimming. The near-victim was twelve years old; he had gone down twice before the rescuer arrived. George deservedly was the recipient of great commendation. To those already received we wish to add our congratulations, George.

Junior Breaks Into Tennis Circles.

Ralph Hoover, '33, the dashing student publicity director of the College, took time out from his strenuous work during the summer to go down to the district tennis tournament at Hoopston to show a few of his opponents the famous Bourbonnais drive.

"Herb" succeeded in reaching the semi-finals, only to be eliminated by the runner-up in one of the most thrilling matches of the whole meet.

Although "Hoov" has never been regarded as valuable timber for the varsity tennis team, his constant efforts to better his game had much to do with his success at Hoopston.

Former Instructor Returns To College

After a two years leave of absence during which he studied for and obtained his degree of Doctor in Education, the Rev. Father Richard J. French, C. S. V., has returned to St. Viator College to head the Department of Education. His research on problems and philosophy of education have admirably fitted him for his duties as an educational instructor. He conducted his research at the Loyola University, Chicago. His Doctoral dissertations was "A Study of Truancy in the Chicago Schools." His Master's Degree was obtained at the Catholic University of America.

Fr. French will also act as Dean of Men, replacing Fr. Kelly who will thus be enabled to devote his entire time to his position as Director of Athletics.

Ferris-Salg Syndicate Run College Store

The College store is under a new management. Tom Ferris and Werner Salg, mutually handicapped by being "southpaws," have taken over the management of the College store in the gym.

Mr. Salg promises a faithful service throughout the year. Some new features this year are the electric stove and toaster which Mr. Salg guarantees will cook and toast to perfection anything fancied by the college appetite.

"Malted milks are to be the specialty at all times," said Mr. Salg, "Tom and I are working hard to think up a slogan for them. You know, something like 'Be kind to your constitution, drink our malted milks!'" Sunday morning breakfasts will be served immediately after the College Mass. For a time, at least, these breakfasts will be in accord with the present trend of lunch-room activities in Chicago: "All you can eat for two-bits."

Freshmen are particularly welcome at the college store, and Mr. Salg

Sub-Deaconates And Deaconates

The Very Reverend Father Phillips sends word to THE VIATORIAN that six of the Brothers of St. Viator were recipients, first, of the order of sub-deacon and, subsequently, that of deacon. The religious so honored were: Brothers Sullivan, formerly of Kankakee, Harbauer, Tobin, Wenthe, Loughin, and Nolan.

The Right Honorable Bishop Haffe of Raleigh, North Carolina officiated at the ceremonies.

Mrs. H. H. Wenthe of Chicago and son, Raymond G. Wenthe, of St. Viator College were present at the services.

FRESHMEN ARE WELCOMED TO ST. VIATOR

Marty Toohill, College Club President, Extends Greetings.

Mr. Martin Toohill, president of the College club, presided over a meeting at which great good fellowship was evinced.

One year ago from last Saturday night, the first formal reception was extended to all, and especially the new students of the College. So fitting seemed to be that occasion that a repetition was observed on its first anniversary. Doubtless, as future students enter this College, more welcomes of this kind will be in order, in which the usual well meant and inspiring speeches and entertainment will constitute a basic part. Perhaps beer will even be served at the next one if our own presidential candidate be successful.

Human nature is so prone to dissemble itself in superficiality that all its efforts to make itself understood are most difficult. In fact we have composed many essays (attempts) of which this problem was the theme. Quite naturally no efficient solutions were manifested, but we feel that that is no great disgrace to us. The reception held last Saturday night was an interesting achievement, an arrival at mutual understanding and good fellowship.

All those present were wealthier for having been there. Surely the experienced words of advice and conviction coming from the speakers of honor were not wholly wasted. Nor did the pianistic proclivities, the elocutionary ability, the responses to requests for vocal solos forthcoming from spirited members of the student body remain unappreciated. These were excellent examples of unassuming artistry, of desire to create, to advance interest. These were most enjoyable, and being such, they defend the theory of that genius and mystic, Pater, who felt that each moment should be lived only for what power it held of giving happiness. These, then, were the excuses and justification of the occasion.

The trend of Augustana:

He: "I know a girl who's never been kissed.....so she swears."
She: "My Gosh, Who wouldn't?"

wants them to repair to the store to satisfy "that craving" with every assurance of that fact.

The store also harbors a cleaner's and a laundry agency; sells ash trays, rings, belts and buckles; in fact, "if you don't see what you want, ask for it."

GREEN WAVE VERY PROMISING

Team Appears Best One Of Many Years

With the first Viator game only a few days away Coach Dahman is starting to put the finishing touches on what promises to be one of the strongest teams the Green Wave has had in years. The squad had been practicing twice a day up to the opening of school and the men are in the best of condition. Because of the short time remaining and because of a large squad he has already made a cut which shows that he has a good line on his men.

One of the chief reasons that Dahman should have a good eleven is his ample supply of good backfield men. Westroy, triple threat man from Clinton showed enough ability last year to go places with a good line in front of him. In addition, Romary and Laffey, also let-terms are back again. Although these backs are good none have their jobs cinched because the freshman backs look better than ever. Frank Atkins a rugged fellow from Peoria has demonstrated that he can also run, pass, and kick. He is solidly built and can run much faster than most men his size. Other promising halfbacks are Tony Corria and John Law who hail from Niles, Ohio. Law is a southpaw and very adept at shooting passes.

Who will be assigned to the full-back position is still uncertain. "Oo" O'Donnell, a letter winner last year, is alternating at the pile driving job with "Abhoo" Weber who played tackle and center last year and may be transformed to a battering back. Two new fellows, Stinglellow, a transfer from St. Louis U. and Golden, a lad who hails from St. Paul are also in the race but neither has shown enough stuff to assure them the job.

Ralph "Snake" Karr will do the quarterbacking and Viator fans know what kind of a man he is. An injury last season kept him out of the lineup most of the time but when he did play his motto was "just give me a hole." Hedman, a freshman from St. Paul, will probably be reserve quarterback although he is being pressed by Mostari, a Chicago lad.

The line offers a more complex problem because of the equal ability of most of the men. "Doc" Meany, regular center last year has plenty of competition in Emmerson Dexter, a Champaign High product, and a peppery back. At guards there are Anderson and Hunt both letter winners. Baldi who saw service at end last year before he was injured is also fighting for a guard berth. Besides these men there are Pexa and Thompson both freshmen from St. Paul, "Red" Harding from Peoria, as tough as his name and a scrapper. Bereolos a member of the squad last year is also being tried at guard. The tackles are being held down by new men at present. Bomba, a transfer from Notre Dame looks like a powerhouse. Maylon and Turner both from St. Paul are good men. "Red" Hayes is also being tried at the position.

"Bill" Gibbons is back on the job at end and McNaughton a rangy fellow who entered school last January is sure of handling the other end. He mows down the backs that come his way with neat precision and should be a marked man. Baker, a new man from St. Paul, Berrowitz from Spring Valley, O'Connell from Kankakee and Winterhalter of Chicago are also end candidates.

Critique.

Ye Ed:

Although Homecoming isn't exactly in the immediate future, it would not be out of place to begin planning for the proper keeping and celebration of the event.

No doubt many of the older students have some original ideas about decorations and entertainment, but opinions from the Freshmen would be a great help to various committees, as yet unformed.

If, as a cheer-leader might say this thing is thought about at the present time, there will be less haste around the time of Homecoming.

Yours truly,

AN UPPERCLASSMAN.

Dear Editor:

As a newcomer to the college, I wish to comment upon the campus itself. With its formal walks of white gravel leading to the several buildings I find my feet being guided upon a hard but beautiful path to knowledge. It is not unlike a park. Yes, I walk among the flowers and trees of great thoughts. Those trees that form long shady canopies for meditative walks are each and every one trying to speak to me words of wisdom, if I do but listen. The least little wind that blows, sways the limbs and leaves, and seems to whisper a welcome at my entrance to their hallowed abode.

A FRESHMAN.

Dear Editor:

Rumors are abroad that a student choir of some importance is to be organized. These rumors are, in themselves, of great interest because it has been several years since the College has had a choir composed of laymen. The choirs of old were, as they are now, the expression of that particular poetic inspiration within the soul of a man that demanded vocal delivery. A singer looks upon his work in the same spirit that an artist worthy of the name looks upon his particular art. A painter gives to canvas the feeling that landscape inspires in him as well as the representation of that landscape. His whole being must be absorbed by his work if it is to be good. So too, does the singer who is an artist, give to a song his own interpretation. In doing this he is made happy or sorrowful as he is able to express his feelings, or unable to do so, and at the same time to give the song its technical perfection of rendition.

Few songs of a religious character equal the Gregorian chant, in its various interpretations. Its majestic rhythm and deep intonations are perfect as expressions of the devotion of its chanters. It absorbs the soul in adoration, and gives it to an exaltation and serenity that only such a medium could. It has been said that this might be the material with which the choir, if it is formed, would work. Those of the student body who are interested in the development of a choir within our midst will await with keen delight the confirmation of these rumors.

Yours truly,

AN UPPERCLASSMAN.

Irish Schedule Eight Games

Oct. 3—Illinois Wesleyan at Bloomington.

Oct. 9—McKendree College at Lebanon.

Oct. 17—Open.

Oct. 24—Bradley Tech at Peoria.

Oct. 31—Northern Normal at DeKalb.

Nov. 7—Eastern Normal at Charleston.

Nov. 13—Illinois College at Bourbonnais.

Nov. 20—Elmhurst College at Bourbonnais.

The Irish open their schedule with Illinois Wesleyan at Bloomington on October 3. This is a tough assignment for the first game because the Pitans always have a powerful team, and this year will be no exception. Should the Saints beat them the former will be regarded as a worthy foe for any Little Nineteen team. St. Viator is considered the dark horse of the circuit and her shadow will probably fall athwart many of her opponents.

EXCHANGES

From the rhapsodic Augustana:

A Plymouth Tale.

Now, Mr. Brown. I can see your wise

I can see you know your stuff; That's why you ought to buy this car;

It has FREE WHEELING; That alone is enough.

"Yes, Mr. Brown, you are a thrifty man;

You realize dollars aren't picked from a tree;

Therefore if you want something for nothing,

Buy a Plymouth! Its FREE WHEELING is free.

"If, Mr. Brown, you should be driving along

Under the gleam of a moonlit sky And at your side is a pretty—very pretty girl!

Well, Mr. Brown, just release both hands from the wheel.

FREE WHEELING wheels free in high.

Wheaton's GAY GARGOYLE goes poetic:

A laugh is just like sunshine,

It freshens all the day,

It tips the peak of life with light,

And drives the clouds away;

The soul grows glad that hears it,

And feels its courage strong;

A laugh is just like sunshine

For cheering folks along.

Student Opinion:—The Wheaton Record

It has been the opinion of a number of readers and a number of members of the staff of the RECORD that those who contribute to the "Opinions of Readers" column do not represent student opinion but are chronic cranks who see the dark side of everything and seldom have helpful suggestions to offer.

It is not always easy to gauge student opinion; often the sentiment on a matter is divided evenly. The average student does not contribute his ideas to a column until he has been brought to a fighting pitch by antagonists. But the chronic crank is ever ready with ideas and criticisms which could be well overlooked.

Editors in the past have often been tempted to discontinue student opinion columns because of their turbulent nature. But it does not always seem fair to close the only door of student expression.

There are hundreds of things that could stand comment by the students. Wheaton is not perfect and faculty and students welcome suggestions. It is often necessary to put the suggestion in black and white before they take effect.

The policy instituted last year by the RECORD that "all letters must be signed but names will not be printed unless requested" will be continued.

Editor's Comment: This is a concise statement of the purpose of THE VIATORIAN Critique column. The entire student body is urged to use it.

REFECTORY WILL CARE FOR DAY STUDENTS

Chef Paul Russo has announced that he will serve attractive plate lunches in the refectory each noon as an accommodation for the unusually large number of day students attending the College this year.

It is planned to charge only a quarter of a dollar for these meals, plus an additional five cents for milk, coffee, or tea.

Although this innovation has not attracted many of the non-resident students as yet, it is hoped that the patronage will increase as soon as the balance of them realize the value of the bargain offered them.

"Team Looks Good," Says Dahman.

"St. Viator's prospects are good considering the small squad with which the Coach is working," replied Coach Bucky Dahman in answer to the editor's query. For the most part the material is, as yet, untried, but it looks very promising and our Coach is looking forward to a very successful season.

For the past weeks he has been preparing the men for the first game of the season which is with Viator's traditional enemy, Illinois Wesleyan. Bucky expects the game to be a hard-fought, closely contested battle, but the man from Notre Dame is looking for a win.

While St. Viator has strong opponents on its schedule, the Irish are better prepared to deal with them than has been the case for many years. This year finds the Saints with a heavy line to protect a light but fast backfield.

Dahman is fortunate in having what he considers to be very good men to fill the various positions while, on the other hand, his supply of reserves is very limited. With Anderson and Weber out on account of injuries, and Karr nursing a sprained ankle in the hope of bringing it back to normal for the Wesleyan game, the Saints have their troubles. However, the Coach can still assure us that the prospects are good. Evidently the appearance of the team at the practice sessions has been satisfactory, for Bucky appears to think that the Irish are going to do a great amount of winning this season.

The Green Wave is expectantly waiting for November 13, and the game with Illinois College. This game promises to be a close contest with the Irish fighting to celebrate the occasion with a nice win.

Summarization of Coach Dahman's remarks brings to us once more the fact that he has faith and confidence in his team and expects big things from every man.

Alumni Notes

Full details of the investiture of the Rt. Reverend Gerald T. Bergan, C. S. V., and the Rt. Reverend Patrick H. Durkin, C. S. V., will be given in the ensuing publication of THE VIATORIAN.

It is with great rejoicing that we learn of the birth of a daughter to Mr. and Mrs. William Neville. Mr. Neville is a former student and athlete at St. Viator.

Bernard Senninger, who for the past four years has distinguished himself here as a student of remarkable ability in Latin and as a historian has entered Kenrick Seminary in the archdiocese of St. Louis.

We again see the familiar face of Bros. Gene Hoffman, '30 and Edward O'Neill who have returned to take up a post-graduate course.

Fred Roy, former student, is now attending the University of Texas.

STUDIES ON EUROPEAN CONTINENT

Charles Clifford In Rome

Mr. Charles Clifford, '31, of Farm City, Illinois, left early in September to continue his studies at the American College in Rome. Mr. Clifford, received his degree of Bachelor of Arts from the College last June, and spent the greater part of the summer here at the College in preparation for the new field of studies which he will enter this year. He went in the company of Mr. Bourke Motsett, of Peoria, who is to take up the same work as Mr. Clifford. Those of us who have been his companions and instructors during his period of study at St. Viator wish him success, and, knowing him, as we do, feel sure that he will achieve it.

Alumnus Enters Catholic University

James Allen Nolan, A. B., '29, has departed for Washington, D. C., to enter the Catholic University of America. Mr. Nolan, holder of the Knights of Columbus scholarship, plans to major in Economic Sociology. During the two years since his graduation from Viator, Mr. Nolan has instructed in Public Speaking at the College, having distinguished himself both as an orator and a debater while in attendance here as a student.

Brother Boisvert, Aged Viatorian Killed Accidentally During Summer.

The merry celebration of the fourth of July was somewhat saddened by the accidental death of Brother Boisvert that occurred around 5:30 o'clock in the evening of that day. Brother Boisvert was struck by an automobile as he was walking along the hard road north of the College. He was immediately rushed to the hospital where the last sacraments were administered. He succumbed about ten o'clock the night of July 4, 1931.

The aged Brother was an architect and astronomer. He was active in the designing of Roy Hall, Marsile Field and the old gymnasium that was destroyed by fire in 1926.

Student Summer Activities

John McGrath worked with a construction gang in Peoria.

"Marty" Toohill drove an ice cream truck for dear old "Meadow Gold" down in Bloomington, Illinois.

Ken Westray and Ralph Karr hung up some enviable hitting and fielding records in the Clinton, Illinois, Church League.

Don Anderson and Herb Shea stayed at the College and put everything in tip-top shape for this year, while at the same time keeping the "home fires burning" for us. "Abhoo" Weber acquired several coats of tan while vacationing at the South Park beaches in Chicago.

Paul Custer garnered a few more pounds of muscles while employed in a foundry at Bloomington.

"Chuck" Carney remained loyal to the White Sox in their desperate attempt to keep the cellar position in the American League. Although many of his suggestions were rejected, his moral support kept the club from completely disintegrating.

"Jimmy" Lee drove an oil truck during part of his vacation for the Texaco Co. at Danville.

Ed Gorman and Ken Bushman were behind the plow on their parents' farms at Manteno and Princeville, respectively.

Ray Wenthe divided his time between a sojourn at Crystal Lake, a few days in Washington, D. C., and a trip to Colorado.

"Holly" Rosensteel, who returned this year, has spent the last twelve months as an adjuster with an insurance company in Bloomington.

"Coot" Larkin plowed corn and communed with nature on his parental estate at Larkinville, near Towanda, Illinois.

Gill Middleton served the public as a bank clerk in Bloomington.

"Bill" Gibbons tried the magazine racket during part of the summer.

"Herb" Hoover has, we suspect, during the past summer been gathering data, much as the great Richardson did, for his first novel. This as an adjunct to his work on and off the campus.

Mr. Lampe, our chief, has also been in pursuit of experience like that of Mr. Hoover. We do not believe that he intends to write a novel, but perhaps inspiration shall be forthcoming in the near future.

Mr. Salg furthered his economic study of the American continent by his trip to the east. Returning to Illinois, Mr. Salg has told the reporter he noticed that the native of the south is still prone to acute indolence. After his return he motored to Toronto, Canada, to visit the World's Largest National Exhibition. (We have heard that Mr. Salg is planning a journey to New Zealand, during the Christmas vacation if business permits.)

OBITUARY

The faculty and student body through the Viatorian extends its sympathy to Fr. Lowney on the death of his brother, Lieutenant Denis Lowney of the 4th Division, 38th Infantry, U. S. Army. Lt. Lowney's death occurred in Montana where he was stationed.

It is with deep regret that we learn of the death of Fr. Hackett of Ottawa who, during his life, was a very loyal friend of St. Viator College. Fr. Maguire attended the funeral services which were held in Ottawa, Sept. 24, 1931.

Charlie Flynn back with an added inch in height, a brave smile, and rumors of something left under the moon . . . of six different states. Never mind, Charlie, we'll always look up to you.

Information and Suggestions.

CIRCULATION OF BOOKS:

All members of the student body wishing to draw books from the library must at the beginning of each school year sign an application card to be obtained at the loan desk.

Two books of fiction and any reasonable number of non-fiction may be withdrawn for a period of two weeks and renewed for the same length of time unless on reserve or otherwise stated.

The date on which the book is due will be found stamped on the slip facing the pocket.

All persons wishing to borrow or return books must present them at the charging desk.

DAMAGES:

All losses or injuries beyond reasonable wear, however caused, must be promptly adjusted.

FINES:

A fine of two cents a day is charged for books kept over the time limit of two weeks, and no other book may be drawn until the fine is paid.

MAGAZINES AND NEWSPAPERS:

The current magazines and newspapers are not circulated. They must be read in the Reading Room. Application may be made for back numbers of magazines and newspapers at the charging desk. These also must be read in the Reading Room. Bound numbers of magazines are subject to the same rule.

RESERVE BOOKS:

These are books put on reference by teachers. They must be read in the library. A reserve book may be taken from the library for use in room only at 9 P. M. when the library closes. It must be returned the next morning sharply at 9 A. M. Failure to return it means the forfeiture of a fifty cent fine. Repetition of this offense means a loss of library privileges.

Library Receives Donation

St. Viator College Library has recently been the recipient of a valuable collection of books and periodicals, the gift of Mrs. H. Baldwin of 4838 Warner Ave., Chicago, Illinois. These books included many that will be of decided aid to the student. Among them are eight bound volumes of the Knickerbocker magazine, a very good reference work. This is Mrs. Baldwin's second donation. St. Viator College takes this opportunity to express its appreciation to Mrs. Baldwin.
