DEBATERS COMPLETE SCHEDULE IN CLASH WITH ST. THOMAS

Dual Event with Marquette Held on Preceding Evening

The Intercollegiate Debating Schedule of the St. Viator Debaters of 1928 was completed Wednesday, April 18th, in a contest between the team of St. Thomas College, St. Paul, Minn., and the local orators. The debate was held before a noon luncheon meeting of the Cosmopolitan Club of St. Paul, and the decision, given in favor of St. Thomas College, was rendered by ballot of the Club.

St. Thomas College is at present, the only Catholic College represented in the National Pi Kappa Delta Honorary Debating Fraternity. At a national debating tournament held recently by the Fraternity, the St. Thomas College debaters won the national championship, an unusual distinction surely, for more than four hundred debating teams were entered in the tournament, and St. Thomas won from most of the highly reputed colleges of the country. Needless to say, the distinction was well merited as our debaters will testify after the recent debate.

Dual Debate with Marquette

On Tuesday, April 17th, a dual contest with Marquette was held. The St. Viator Affirmative team, Messrs. J. Allen Nolan, Maurice LeClaire, and Robert O. Barnett, met the Negative team from Marquette at the University Science Hall in Milwaukee. At the same time, an affirmative team from Marquette journeyed to Bourbonnais and debated with St. Viator's negative team, Messrs. John W. Stafford, Raymond Boysen, and Armand J. Lottinville. Honors were evenly divided, for the St. Viator team won the debate in Kankakee, and the Marquette team won the decision in Milwaukee. The debate in Kankakee was held at the Knights of Columbus Auditorium.

Guests in Milwaukee

While in Milwaukee, Father Maguire and his debaters were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Mulvaney. Mr. Mulvaney is the brother of Father George P. Mulvaney, c. s. v., who is now teaching at Incarnate Word College, San Antonio, Texas. Mr. and Mrs. Mulvaney entertained the debaters and their coach royally, and the debaters have been quite at a loss to fittingly express their appreciation of the kindness of their host and hostess.

The debaters also paid a visit to the Viator alumni at St. Paul Seminary after the debate with St. Thomas College. They report a most agreeable afternoon and evening visit at the Seminary and find themselves deeply indebted also to the Viator seminarians for their fine reception.

Valparaiso Wins from Negative

Friday, April 13th, was an unlucky day for the Viatorians in more regards than one. A debate scheduled with Valparaiso University for that day ended in a contrary decision, rendered by Mr. Rush Johnson, Chicago attorney, who acted as critic judge. Mr. Nolan and Mr. Barnett shifted to the negative side of the Pi Kappa Delta question for this debate, and bolstered their case by adding Mr. Armand J. Lottinville to the team.

Tuesday, June Fifth Set Aside as Date For "Sheil's Day"

Alumni Meet in Chicago to Formulate Plans

Tuesday, June the fifth has been designated by the alumni and faculty of St. Viator College as the date of a "Bishop Sheil's Day," and has, therefore, been definitely set aside for a celebration in honor of our distinguished Alumnus, Bishop-Elect Sheil. Plans for the day were formulated at a meeting of the officers of the Alumni Association held in Chicago on Friday, April 13th. The meeting was attended by Father LaMarre, President of the Alumni Association, Father Conway, Father Maguire, Father Rice, Father O'Mahoney, Mr. Lowell Lawson, Mr. John Cox, Mr. T. L. Warner, Mr. Joseph Bolger, and Mr. Frank Rainey.

Bishop-Elect Sheil has already consented to participate in the day, and to officiate at the commencement exercises on the evening of June fifth and on the following day. Invitations to the speakers selected for the occasion have been issued, but we hesitate to publish their names until they have definitely accepted the invitations.

No effort is being spared to make the "Sheil's Day" the greatest that the College has ever seen. Further details and announcements will be published in the forthcoming issues of the Viatorian when the arrangements have reached a more definite form.

John Stafford Wins Debating Medal at Intramural Contest

Negative Team Wins From Affirmative in Prize Debate

The medal for the best debater of the year was won last Wednesday by Mr. John W. Stafford, '30, at a prize debate held in the College Club Room to determine the winning team and the outstanding debater. The Negative Team, composed of Messrs. Stafford, Raymond Boysen, and Armand Lottinville, won the unanimous decision of the judges, who were Mr. Claude Granger, Judge Burns, and Father Maguire.

The intramural contest to determine the best debater is an innovation this year, having been introduced by Father Maguire to take the place of the annual Oratorical Contest. Mr. Stafford will receive the medal that was formerly awarded at the completion of the Oratorical Contest.

This debate concluded the season for the Viator teams. The record of the year shows an even balance of victories and defeats. The debating squad loses but one member by graduation. Mr. Maurice L. LeClaire, a member of the debating team for the past two years, competed in his last debate for St. Viator College last Wednesday evening.

The drive to Valparaiso was made possible through the courtesy and kindness of Mr. Thomas Legris who kindly loaned his automobile for the trip.

ST. VIATOR PARISH HONORED BY GIFTS FROM POPE PIUS XI

Rev. J. F. Ryan, c. s. v., Given Valuable Chalice

It is a well known fact that the propagation of the Holy Faith is a cause that is particularly dear to the heart of our Holy Father Pope Pius XI, and any outstanding work towards its accomplishment is certain of being amply rewarded by him.

The Holy Father has gratefully acknowledged the unusual activities, in this regard, of three Chicago parishes, and it is with great pride that we find St. Viator church, Addison street and Kedvale avenue, heading the list and winning first honors. To the Rev. J. F. Ryan, c. s. v., pastor of St. Viator's, and the people of the parish, His Eminence George Cardinal Mundelein presented a beautiful chalice from Pope Pius XI with the papal crest in relief and engraved on the paten. The Pope himself was the last one to use the chalice on the occasion of the feast of St. Joseph on March 19. The chalice will not be used again until the dedication of the new St. Viator church, a date yet to be announced. According to the present plans, Cardinal Mundelein will celebrate on that occasion.

One may be inclined to think that it is a small task for any Chicago parish to raise funds, but when one considers the real sacrifices that the St. Viator people had to undergo, nothing but the warmest congratulations should go to them and their pastor. The New World speaks truthfully when it says of St. Viator parish: "For years the parish has been straining every effort in extensive building campaign. Even now a fine new church is in the process of erection. Naturally the resources of church supporters are extended to unusual proportions. To yield again to their generous impulses, and to such an extent, is then most creditable to St. Viator's people."

PLAN NOW TO ATTEND THE Freshman-Sophomore Spring Ball

Freshman-Sophomore Dance to be Held on May Eighteenth

At a meeting of the Freshman and Sophomore classes last Monday evening in the College Club Room, plans for the coming Undergrad dance were discussed. The meeting was presided over by Mr. Jay Watson, chairman of Social Activities, assisted by Messrs. Edward Campbell and Edward O'Neil, presidents of the Sophomore and Freshman classes, respectively.

Very little opposition met the proposal that the dance be held on May 18, the night before the Notre Dame-St. Viator baseball game. A unanimous decision regarding the location of the affair was reached. All agreed that the College gym was the only place that possessed the attractions and conveniences that go to make a college function of this kind at St. Viator a genuine success. The ample room afforded, the collegiate atmosphere, and the prevalent "at home" spirit that the gymnasium holds for St. Viator students, and other factors decided the issue.

A call for a discussion on the prospective entertainers for the evening met with numerous and varied suggestions. However, according to the class of orchestras named, we may be sure that superior music will be provided for the evening.

The financial success of the event was assured when the two classes unanimously voted an ante of three dollars a man, with the understanding that a portion of that sum is to be refunded as soon as all debts relative to the dance are cancelled.

The acting chairman appointed three committees who are to divide the supervision of the various activities connected with the execution of the plans: the Ticket and Invitation Committee: Robert Barnett, Kenneth Clothier, Fred Salsberger and Byron Evard; the Orchestra Committee: Bob Ryan, Edward Campbell, Edward O'Neil and Al Furlong; the Decoration Committee: Jay Watson, Irvin Mathews and Girard Legris.

If we may judge from the amount of enthusiasm displayed at the meeting, and the hearty good will with which each worth-while proposal was approved, we can feel assured that the last dance of the year (remember the date, May 18!) will be our best.

Senior Academy Men Fete Coach Barrett To Birthday Dinner

Fifty Attend Banquet in Honor of Coach

Coach William Barrett, Academy mentor of athletics, was feted to a birthday banquet last Monday at the Kankakee Hotel by the members of the Senior Academy class. Mr. and Mrs. Barrett were the guests of honor, together with Father Phillips, Father Landroche, Father Stephenson and the members of the Academy football and basketball teams. Approximately fifty persons attended the banquet, all of whom are most enthusiastic in their praise of the event.

After a sumptuous dinner, toastmaster Stephenson took charge of affairs and introduced the various speakers. Mr. Thomas Sullivan,

MISS CLAUDIA MUZIO GIVES CASH AWARDS TO ITALIAN CLASSES

Dante Italian Club Highly Favored by Prima Donna

The Italian Classes of the college and high school departments of St. Viator College have again received very favorable recognition from a signally renowned and far-famed personage. Miss Claudia Muzio, Prima Donna of the Chicago, London, Paris, Rome, and Buenos Aires Grand Opera Companies, has endowed the Italian classes of this institution with a number of cash awards for students displaying the highest quality of proficiency and excellence in the Italian language after the completion of the ensuing scholastic year, 1928-1929. Although Miss Muzio sings only in the principal cities of the world, in which her performances are eagerly anticipated and long remembered, nevertheless Professor Mascariño Chaneaux gives us well founded hopes of having the extraordinary opportunity of hearing Miss Muzio here at the college sometime during the coming year. In the event of such an occasion, the Dante Italian Club will entertain the distinguished benefactor and guest with a special literary program.

In the name of the entire faculty and student body of St. Viator College, and, in particular, of the Dante Italian Club, the Viatorian extends to Miss Muzio sincerest thanks for her generous recognition of our Italian courses. The awards donated by Miss Muzio will, no doubt, lend a powerful incentive to the students of the Italian classes, and will urge them on to great proficiency in their studies.

Conduct Intercollegiate Correspondence

In order to acquire greater proficiency in the language, and to insure the practical knowledge consonant with a two year course, the students of the college and high school Italian courses are carrying on a correspondence, in Italian, with the students of the following universities: Yale, Harvard, Columbia, Illinois, Chicago, Toronto, Washington, Brown, Pennsylvania, Rochester, Wisconsin, Michigan, Missouri, Colorado, Vassar College, The University of Torino, Italy, and the High Schools of New York and San Francisco.

Sometime next month the Italian students will hold their second literary meeting of this year, with a program especially replete in conversation and expression.

president of the class, extended a cordial welcome to his guests, and expressed the felicitations of the class on the occasion. Rev. L. T. Phillips, principal of the Academy Department delivered a discussion on the value of athletics in an educational system. Rev. A. J. Landroche, Disciplinary, voiced his appreciation of Coach Barrett's work in the Academy, and Rev. W. J. Stephenson extended his greetings and congratulations to the coach. Mr. John Faris spoke on friendship, and Mr. John Farrell, editor of "The Voyager" gave a few remarks about the new and greater Academy Annual. "Bill" Barrett, responded to the greetings and occasion with an expression of

Reciprocation

Reciprocation, in the meaning in which we shall employ it, may be defined by the old adage that "turn about is fair play." We are well aware of the fact that the term may have various significations and that perhaps some other term might be more exact, but this particular term connotes, in our opinion, just what we have in mind at present, and will, we hope, convey our purpose to the reader. Webster defines reciprocation as "giving and returning mutually," and that definition exactly suits our purpose.

The staff of this journal is not at all disposed to deny the fact that without the assistance and support of its advertisers, "The Viatorian" would be an impossibility. The expense in both money and time required to publish this organ would, we believe, exceed the most sanguine estimates of many of its subscribers. Its income, if confined only to subscriptions, would be a quite insignificant sum, insufficient to maintain even a much smaller publication than this. Advertisements are the principal source of income for almost all publications, and "The Viatorian" is no exception. We must depend upon our advertisers for maintenance, and it is to reciprocation with these advertisers that we dedicate this effort.

A glance over the pages of this issue will reveal advertisements, manifest expressions of good will and cooperation, from business houses of almost every nature. Bankers, clothiers, barbers, grocers, garage owners, druggists, jewelers, restaurants; dealers in construction materials, investments, confections, and other business men have extended their assistance to us in the form of advertisements. Without assurance of returns, they have tendered their aid, and have helped us to maintain and advance one of the most important activities of the college. Loyalty, justice, goodwill, gratitude, all demand that the students of St. Viator College express their appreciation by reciprocating whenever it is possible to do so.

There is no doubt that the college trade each year is keenly sought by local dealers. Many enticements are offered to secure student patronage, varying from the employment of fair members of the fair sex as clerks, to a discount on the price to college students. However, there should be no inducement so potent to secure the college patronage as that of materially and generously assisting in the advancement of its activities. Our trade, therefore, should be confined to dealings with our advertisers. They represent the most reputable of local merchants, and we may purchase from them just as economically and just as satisfactorily as we can from other sources. Why should we not, therefore, limit ourselves to purchasing from those who have helped us? Let us show the Kankakee merchants that we do feel very grateful for their assistance by dealing with them, recommending them to our friends, and insisting, among ourselves, that all the college patronage go to the merchants who advertise in "The Viatorian."

Another desirable practice to inaugurate in this regard is

The April 21st issue of the "Catholic Standard and Times," published in Philadelphia contains a very interesting column and a half of news regarding the Rev. Fulton J. Sheen, '17, Ph. D., S. T. D., professor of the philosophy of religion at the Catholic University of America. Father Sheen addressed the members of the Alliance of Catholic Women at an annual luncheon held in the Bellevue-Stratford Hotel, Philadelphia, on Wednesday, April 18th.

The luncheon was attended by more than one thousand members and guests. The subject of Father Sheen's address was "The Loss of the Divine Sense of Humor." The Catholic Standard and Times proceeds: "Commercialized laughter in the place of spontaneous; inability to see through the material to the divine; learning that is of the earth, that of having each student mention the fact that he is a "Viator man." The college patronage is valuable enough to assure us of attentive service and attractive prices. By making our identity and our connections and our purposes known, we will do very much toward establishing a mutual relation between the merchants and the students.

Please remember that we owe it to our advertisers to reciprocate with them by doing every possible bit of purchasing with them. We recommend a like practice to our alumni and friends who are in the vicinity of our advertisers. Let it be the rule of the college to help those who help us. Let mutual reciprocation be the policy of the students of St. Viator College. Let's keep in mind the fact that "turn about is fair play."

intellectual snobbishness—these were summed up by the Rev. Dr. Sheen in his address as indices of the loss of the divine sense of humor. To sustain the balance he presented the example of Christ, teaching through parable and paradox, that this world in itself is not to be taken seriously, that the one essential thing is the salvation of the soul."

Needless to say, Dr. Sheen's discussion was enthusiastically received.

When the debaters were in St. Paul last Wednesday they paid a visit to the Viator grade at St. Paul Seminary. Exemplative of the fact that Viator spirit is unquenchable, the debaters found a royal welcome and memorable entertainment from the Seminary Alumni.

Three of the Viator representatives at St. Paul will be ordained in June. Tommy Jordan, "Red" McLain, and John Barrett are the fortunate three, all of whom will be ordained for the Peoria Diocese. Just watch Bishop Dunne's Diocese step to the front now!

The Viatorian Staff extends sincere sympathies to Father John Flanagan on the death of his cousin, Mary Flanagan Scheidt. Funeral Mass was held April 9, at Freeport, Ill.

Wedding bells have rung for Mr. Francis J. Steinbach, '24, who was married to Helen Ann Denvir on the 14th of April. Miss Denvir is the sister of Mr. Edward J. Denvir, Academy, '14. The wedding took place at St. Catherine of Sienna, Oak Park, Illinois.

The Rev. Ronald J. French has been visiting his brother and the College during the past few days. Father Ronald is the assistant pastor of St. James Church, Belvidere, Illinois.

Chemistry Department Adds New Display Case To Lab. Equipment

Through the courtesy of the J. T. Baker Chemical Company, Phillipsburgh, New Jersey, the Chemistry department of St. Viator College has added a new display case of analyzed samples to its laboratory equipment. The case contains thirty six samples, which, as the J. T. Baker Co. explains, "have been selected and arranged according to a plan which is believed to possess the highest possible utility and, therefore, render distinct service to the teaching professor. The selection of samples is based upon a compound representative of a class, and is arranged in the order usually treated in the standard textbooks of elementary inorganic chemistry."

BOXING CONTINUES TO BE POPULAR VIATOR SPORT

Tonight's Card to Conclude the Series

The boxing match held Saturday evening, April 14, in the gym was attended by nearly all the student body and several visitors. These bouts were held under Father Kelly's and Brother Harbauer's capable management. Mr. Donald McCarthy carefully planned the matches, introduced each boxer and rendered the decision of the judges. Mr. Harvey Brosseau of Kankakee refereed the bouts and Mr. Walsko acted as timekeeper.

The boxing match opened with a bout between "Eddie" O'Neil and "Kid" Cinquina. Although this introductory scrap ended in a draw, both contestants displayed good sportsmanship.

The second bout was carried out by "Kid" Kirchner and "Fighting" Quille. This bout was closely contested but Mr. Quille won the decision of the judges with the approval of all.

In the third scrap, "Jack" Dempsey, after flooring his opponent "Harry" McKeown twice was declared the winner by the judges.

The fourth bout was contested in by "Jiffy" Hodge and "Red" Phelan. They staged a hotly contested battle of two rounds of which the judges declared Mr. Hodge the winner.

The fifth bout was put on by Red Drew and "Chicago" Paris. The laurels of this bout were won by Mr. Drew although the bout was close and interesting.

"Knockout" Furlong and "Chuck" Hoog put on the heavyweight match of the evening. This finished in a draw, both contestants displaying clever boxing.

The last bout of the evening featured "Cicero Kid" Koukes and "Battling" Murphy. Another knockout was expected from "Cicero Kid" Koukes, but the bout ended in a draw. After the third bout, the Second Corridor Quartette composed of Bob Ryan, Eddie O'Neil, Al Furlong and Bud Price entertained by rendering a few choice selections among which were: "Moonlight and Roses," "Viator Loyalty Song" and "Tie Me to Your Apron Strings Again." The fifth bout was followed by Larry O'Shea, the famed warbler of the O'Connor K. of C. Council of Chicago singing a selection from "The Desert Song."

The final event of the evening was an exhibition wrestling match between Mr. Harvey Brosseau and Mr. Linus B. Meis, both of whom ably displayed the art of wrestling.

Mr. Delaney and Mr. Kelly acted as judges during the evening and their decisions met the approval of all.

The third boxing show of the season, under the efficient management of Father Kelly and Brother Harbauer, was run off last Saturday night in the College Gymnasium. The bouts proved to be the most interesting of the year. Don McCarthy, the only rival of C. C. Pyle, acted as announcer and generally supervised the battles. Mr. Harvey Brosseau of Kankakee filled the job of referee. No decisions were given.

The demonstration opened with a hot little battle between K. O. Quille and Mickey O'Brien that had the fans on their feet most of the time. Both boys laid them in hard and showed their ability to take 'em.

First blood of the evening was drawn in the second bout when "Cy" McMahon tapped the "Wild Cat of Denver," "Kid" Maroney on the beaker. The "Wildcat's" ferocious looks slowed "Cy" down but they were both

REV. HORSBURGH RECEIVES HIGH PAPAL HONOR

Rev. James J. Horsburgh

Our esteemed friend, The Very Rev. James J. Horsburgh, Director of the Society for the Propagation of the Faith in the Archdiocese of Chicago, is one of the six priests of the Archdiocese who have been made Private Chamberlains with the title of Monsignor. Monsignor Horsburgh has received this distinction in recognition of his tireless efforts to spread the cause of the Society throughout the Archdiocese. He has served as Diocesan Director since January, 1925, and, under his generalship, the cause of the missions, both home and abroad has been extended into every parish of the Archdiocese. We offer our sincerest congratulations to the new Monsignor on his recent, fully merited elevation. Monsignor Horsburgh has ever been a close friend of St. Viator College, and the faculty and student body rejoice in the fact that he has been so highly honored.

going strong when the bout ended.

In the third encounter Bill Beard a pleasant diversion. "Swede" Flynn wrestled with a Uke and Rodriguez sang. Their numbers were well received by the spectators and proved and "Jiffy" Hodge followed the melody twins with a hot bout in which they displayed plenty of action.

The fifth battle, between "Billy" Gallagher, "the bad man from St. Louis," and "Battling" Rascher, the Beecher flash, put on the best bout of the show. "Billy" showed Rascher a mean left that located Rascher's jaw a few times. Rascher retaliated with effective body punches that had Billy in a bad hole at times. Earl Jenkins, assisted by Bill Beard and his Uke, gave the boxers a few lessons in foot work when he demonstrated some of the latest dance steps. His dance was up to his usual standard of skill, and would have done credit to some professionals that we have seen.

"Chicago" Paris met Tommy O'Neil in the sixth bout. The bout was fast and furious with Tommy carrying an easy advantage at the close. "Jack" Dempsey and Harry McKeown demonstrated some fine technique in an art which we hope to employ on the night of May 18th.

"Miller and Mills, the Melody Boys" sang a couple of songs as their contribution to the program. "Ernie" officiated at the "Mighty Grand"—uke.

The show wound up with "Red" Drew and "Mexican Bill" Diaz trading punches. Drew didn't give Diaz a chance to do very much, for he carried the battle to his opponent throughout the entire contest.

Brother Harbauer promises us a real exhibition tonight at 8:00 o'clock in the form of a bout between two Kankakee boxers, who, it is rumored, "know their onions." That's great! We'll all be there.

St. John Berchman's Altar Society Holds Ninth Meeting of the Year; Picnic Next Month

At the ninth meeting of the Altar Society held last Sunday morning, Brother Cracknell continued his discourses on the conduct of acolytes in and around the Sacristy. The subject of his talk at this gathering was the proper manner of assisting at Benediction. He corrected some of the faulty customs which a few of the members had fallen into when serving at this ceremony.

The society has existed quietly for the past few months. The excitement caused by the formal reception of candidates last March, has long since died down. However, the announcement that the annual picnic will be held some time next month, if all goes well, has somewhat livened the spirit of the members. The history of the Altar boys' picnics goes back to the days of the old college. Early this year it was thought, that, because of the financial difficulties, this annual custom could not be observed. However, it has since been ascertained that the idea of abandoning the picnic would work to the detriment rather than for the benefit of the society.

Semi-Public Debate to Be Held by Fourth Year Academy Teams

At some time in the near future, a definite date has not yet been settled upon, two three-man teams, composed of members of the Academy graduating class, will debate one of the leading questions of the day. The teams have not yet been picked but the selection of the six men who are to make up the squads will be made within a few days. According to present plans, Father Stephenson is to coach one team, while Brother Sullivan will coach the other. The judges will be three members of the college faculty.

It is very likely that a prize, to be given at commencement, will be awarded to the speaker making the best individual showing. The college club rooms will probably be the scene of the affair, and, of course, the entire Academy student body will be invited to attend.

his appreciation, and a review of the past sports seasons. He further reviewed his plans for the ensuing year and voiced his assurance of championship teams in both football and basketball.

The banquet was held in the "Gold Room" of the Kankakee Hotel. Table decorations were in the class colors of green and gold, with floral embellishments. The tables were set in the form of a "V," and, to complete the effect, the event closed with the singing of the "Viator Loyalty Song."

BISHOP ELECT SHEIL TO BE CONSECRATED TUESDAY, MAY FIRST

Rev. W. J. Bergin, c. s. v.,
Will Preach at Services

The Right Reverend Bishop-Elect Sheil will be consecrated at Holy Name Cathedral, Chicago, on Tuesday, May first, by Cardinal Archbishop Mundelein. The sermon on the occasion of the consecration will be delivered by Rev. W. J. Bergin, c. s. v., former president of St. Viator College. Immediately after the consecration, the new bishop will entertain his friends at a banquet to be held at the Drake Hotel.

Faculty and Students Will Be Represented

The faculty and student body of St. Viator College will be represented at the consecration and at the banquet. Bishop-Elect Sheil has kindly tendered invitations to representatives of the lay faculty and the college classes. Two members of each college class will attend both functions. The representatives of the student body, elected by ballot in each class are as follows:

Senior class representatives: Mr. William J. Siebert and Mr. Leo Fitzgerald.

Professor C. J. Kennedy and Mr. Edward Gallahue will represent the lay faculty.

Needless to say, the student body of the college is very grateful to Monsignor Sheil for his kindly consideration in inviting representatives of the college department. His action is exemplary of the characteristic thoughtfulness that he has always had for St. Viator College.

Provincial Chapter of Viatorians Holds Important Conference

Elects Delegates to Chapter Meeting in Belgium

On Wednesday, April 11th, the Provincial Chapter of the Viatorian Fathers met here. The delegates representing the territory outside of the State of Illinois were Rev. George P. Mulvaney, c. s. v., San Antonio, Texas; Rev. F. J. Moisant, Norman, Oklahoma; Rev. M. J. Breen, Enterprise, Oregon.

The forthcoming Quinquennial Chapter of the Congregation, which will be held in Brussels, Belgium, at the headquarters of the Community was the principal subject of discussion. Three delegates were elected at the meeting who, together with the Provincial Rev. W. J. Surprenant, will represent the American province. The delegates are Rev. John P. O'Mahoney, c. s. v., Rev. C. Marzano, c. s. v., and Rev. Richard J. French, and the alternates are Rev. J. W. R. Maguire, c. s. v., Rev. G. P. Mulvaney, c. s. v., and Rev. J. E. Belair, c. s. v. Matter of very vital importance to the Community will be decided at the chapter which is, incidentally, the supreme legislative body of the Order.

"If I should live to be, the last leaf on the tree,
in the spring,
You may laugh as I do now, and the old forsaken bow, where I cling."

Holmes

Surely he is a poor humorist who finds material for his humor in things that we hold sacred. Certainly, it would be far better if such men sought to increase the love and reverence which we hold for the beautiful in life; especially the beauties of old age. Today many students fail to look up for light and guidance to old age. They have no place in their hearts for that which is venerable. The young man who says, "The Old Lady" needs a lesson that College will never teach him. He must look into his own heart and learn how truly beautiful, yes almost divine Mother is, and if in the past he has been lax he should on that "Mother's Day" which is soon to come make amends and promise to bring happiness into the heart of his "Mother;" and to let other men know he loves her.

Perhaps a more common expression is, "The Old Man," one that every College man should avoid in speaking of his Father. I ran across a wonderfully appropriate paragraph which I believe is not out of place in this column. It is,

"He may wear a two-year hat, his finger nails may need manicuring; his vest may hang a little loose, and his pants may bag a little at the knees; his face may show signs of a second day's growth, and the tin dinner bucket he carries may be full of dents and doughnuts; but don't call him "the old man," he's your father.

For years he has been rushing around to get things together. Never once has he failed to do the right thing by you. He thinks you are the greatest boy on earth, barring none, even though you plaster your hair back, wear smart clothes, smoke cigarettes, and fail to bring home a cent. He is the man who won the love and life partnership of the greatest woman on earth, your MOTHER.

"He is 'SOME' man, and not 'the old man.'

If you win as good a wife as he did you will have to go some, boy."

We remember distinctly that the ground hog did not see his shadow, but when we consider the weather we wonder whether that counts in these more modern times.

This shall be one column that will not comment on the fact that a certain Irishman flew across the Atlantic, "East to West," and brought two Germans with him.

Mr. "Cross Country" Pyle is now writing a poem entitled, "The Charge of the Bunion Brigade," to immortalize his latest venture. He did not remember that "He who runs, must eat."

Hymn of Love

A guy I love,
Is Sinbad Fog,
Always yelling,
Lucky Dog.

The Texas toad evidently woke up and croaked.

Evidently Professor So-and-So who contemplated projecting himself to the planet Mars has abandoned the "Rocket-racket."

Calvin Coolidge is going south for his vacation in an effort to avoid the "Draft." Ho! Ho! Ha! Ha! we too!

Perhaps, Billy DeBeck, "Barney Google" et. al. would be surprised to know that horses do not have feathers. Can you imagine curry-combing a feathered equine.

(Note) R. H. L., conductor of "The Line," will go to England for his vacation. My, but we columnists lead a tough life.

They have just unveiled a statue of Andrew Jackson at the Capitol. Thanks to Andy, they found nothing to unveil but his statue.

If you are not pleased with this column we spurn you will all our collegiate dignity and use a classic phrase in our murmuring, "De gustibus non disputandum."

Notice!

All mention of spring's arrival will be excluded from this column until we can be certain that the long-looked for season is here.

Messrs. Jerry Brady, Bud Price and Earl Hughes have signed up with "Hearst's Magazines" for their summer occupation. All students desirous of subscribing for "Good Housekeeping," "Cosmopolitan," etc., apply to the above mentioned young gentlemen.

Tennis partisans hailed with delight the advent of "Slim" Muccelli on the tennis courts last Sunday. All agreed that, with a little training down, the sylph-like racquet swinging demon of the courts would make the numerous clay area fans sit up and take notice.

Coach Barrett has his warriors in action again. Each day of Spring football practice is revealing future High School gridiron heroes.

In speaking of athletics, of recent date pugilism is getting a big hand every Saturday night, while many a would-be-pugilist is receiving a big hand closed. This is another example of the truth of the axiom that "Tis better to give than to receive."

We acknowledge, with thanks, Brother Harbauer's patient and arduous endeavors to make each of the boxing performances a worthwhile drawing card.

Some action in organizing a base ball league is much to be desired. The fact that a tombstone was placed, by some mystic hand, on the pitcher's box is no reason why we should hang a crepe on our throwing arm. Do we hear a second?

Now that five-o'clock study has been relegated to the past, the campus again resounds each evening with "Aves" as the students recite the rosary at 5:45.

On recent examination, we find that "Baldy" Miller's hair shows some signs of returning. We expect that by next Christmas, Mr. Miller will once more begin visiting barbers.

VIATOR BASEBALL TEAM LOSES TWICE ON TRAINING TRIP

Lack of Practice, Because of Rainy Weather, Blamed

The training trip of the Viator nine resulted in a complete washout for one J. Pluvius and the opponents of the Green. Lest our fans be down-hearted let it be remembered that the games played were completed under a great handicap, that of lack of the necessary practice. The weather so far has not proved conducive to practice of the right kind and as a result the play of the Viatorians was ragged in all departments of the game.

At Jacksonville the old hitting power was strangely lacking and the fielding and all around team play conspicuous by its absence. Harrington started in the box but his regime was sad because he suffered from lack of control and some very classical errors by his mates. As the game progressed "Pete" showed flashes of his real form and when he rounds into real shape it will bode ill for the opposition.

At St. Louis Jupiter Pluvius tossed the athletes for a loss by opening the heavens and flooding the Concordia Field. Another day passed with neither game nor practice.

Sunday, Viator squared off to face the Bloomington Club of the Three-I League. "Honest John" Herbert was the Viator slab choice and John kept the trust given to him by holding the leaguers to six hits during his seven-inning stay on the hill. But his mates were not so fortunate and they kicked the pellet here and there with great gusto. Only during the first inning did the "Pros" bunch their hits when three solid clouts and several equally substantial errors helped the Bloomers to three tallies. To enter into a detailed account of the pastime is beyond the powers of your correspondent so he will dismiss the trip with a promise that if hard work and real effort will win for Viator we will finish the remainder of the season undefeated.

High School Base Ball Team Books Two Tough Games

Although Coach Barrett has tried his best to secure a goodly number of extra-mural encounters for his Academy baseball team, yet, up to the time of the present writing, the only ones he has succeeded in landing are two, one with Wilmington Public High, and one with Loyola Academy of Chicago.

Nothing daunted, Bill will soon begin the task of getting his crew in shape for these two games, both of which will be played around the middle of next month. He has a goodly number of regulars left from last year's squad, and indications point to a successful season. The men who appear certain to win regular berths on the nine, and the berths which appear certain to be filled by them are: pitchers, Sullivan and Rascher; second base, Anderhub; third base, Kells; center field, Lareau; and first base "Long John" Cornyn. However, there will be a great battle for all the other positions and, it is just barely possible, that some of the above mentioned men may be forced to yield their posts to others more proficient.

WEST. NORMAL BOWS TO VIATOR IN THE FIRST HOME GAME

Varsity Plays Remarkable Ball; Score 12-7

The St. Viator nine opened its home season Wednesday by smashing out a 12-7 victory over the Western State Normal team from Kalamazoo, Michigan. Mike Delaney started on the hill for Viator and lasted for eight innings but was forced to hand over the assignment in the eighth when he weakened and several base knocks coupled with two errors gave the Kazoo entry four tallies. Delaney showed remarkable form during his stay in the box. He had a fast ball that hopped and zipped across the plate and he mixed it with a slow curve that struck out six of the opposition in the first four cantos. Bill Todd and Lou Phillips by several bits of sterling fielding aided Mike over the rough spots.

O'Malley led off in the scoring by beating out a hit down the third base line. He stole second and scored on Walsko's Texas Leaguer to right. Viator scored again in the second when Campbell singled and counted when the Normalist infield tossed Furlong's bunt around the premises. Two more tallies slid around in the third on fast raps by Walsko, Phillips and Campbell. It was the sixth inning before the Kazoo boys took an active interest in the game. In this frame and the two following, aided by several hits, scratchy and otherwise, and several boots by the Viator infield, they managed to make the score eight to seven in Viator's favor. In the eighth Harrington replaced Delaney and by the proper use of his strikeout ball rendered the visitors' bats useless.

Harrington led off the Viator eighth with a walk and Kimball also presented Delaney, now in right field, with a free pass and after getting two strikes on Evard, Kimball, the Kazoo hurler, lost control and jammed the sacks. O'Malley then pumped a line single to right and the game was on ice. Ferris followed with another hit that scored two more and the game was over. Harrington subdued the State hitters in the ninth and the Viator opener was a complete success.

Every man in the Viator lineup hit safely. The attack showed much power and the defense was also fair except for several spots when it cracked under the pressure. Todd looked especially good and made two stops that brought the fans to their feet. Captain Walsko played his usual steady game and hammered out two timely bingles that drove in runs. Phillips, although a bit shaky in the field gave promise of coming greatness when he caught a liner that he turned into a double play. Once again we can repeat that the followers of the Viator diamond fortunes can look forward to another banner season and watch 'em go! The lid is off!

SENIORS WIN COLD CONTEST FROM THE FRESHMAN SACKERS

Intramural Baseball Begun
Last Sunday

Viator's major sport, baseball, saw its revival for this season last Sunday when Sheedy's Senior Sackers met and defeated O'Neil's Freshmen Fighters. At about 10:30 A. M., as a chilling wind swept the diamond, the two teams played a remarkable game, evidently to determine which team could commit the most errors. The Freshmen won, in that department of the game, and consequently the Seniors were able to pile up a winning number of scored runs.

Perhaps it would be well now to remark that both names of the teams are misnomers, for the Seniors were not all Seniors; neither were the Freshmen all Freshmen. Tom Hanahan, who hails from that corridor which the Freshmen choose to avoid, pitched for the yearlings, and 'Hosen' Pfeffer performed at the firing line for the Seniors.

The Frosh opened the game with a run in the first inning. The Seniors retaliated with two scores, and succeeded in maintaining a lead throughout the entire game, which, by the way, ended with the score showing 10 to 7.

There were many highlights in the game, principal among which were Walkowiak's home run, Sheedy's batting average, and Conway's double. It might be remarked that all the participants had a fine time, but the poor spectators almost perished from the cold.

Senior Academy Men Busy on Lincoln Essays

Now that the third quarter exams are gone, and, perhaps, passed, quite a few of the prospective high school graduates are making a distinct effort to produce a prize-winning essay on Abraham Lincoln. The medal offered for the winning essay in this contest is donated annually by the Lincoln Watch Company of Springfield, Illinois. It is a very large, oval, bronze piece, with a bust of the Great Emancipator embossed upon its face.

The Lincoln Essay contest is a strictly intra-mural affair, limited to students of the Academy graduating class. It was inaugurated in 1923, in which year Joseph McGovern handed in the best paper. Since that year John McAndrews, Armand Lottinville, and Edward Drolet have won the prized first place medals. The judges are usually three of the college faculty members or of the St. Viator alumni. The winning of the contest carries with it the additional honor of having the essay published in the Voyageur.

Father Stephenson shocked his Fourth High English class something terrible last Saturday morning when he announced that every class member would be expected to make an effort at writing poetry for the Voyageur. However, the boys gamely rallied from the blow and are now, with characteristic energy, attempting to put their innermost thoughts into verse. Jack Casey is said to have written some so called "free" verse which nearly caused him to lose his beloved roommate, Roger Stevens, who complained to Brother Harbauer that he couldn't stand such unpoetic nonsense. Bill Marr appears thoughtful at the breakfast table of late, Ray Wenthe has been reported to have gazed upon the rising moon for fifteen minutes in one posture and Bugs Stillwell is often heard mumbling rhythmic sounds to himself.

Fair-Sized Squad Turns Out for Spring Football Practice

Although the last Academy football season was quite satisfactory from a standpoint of losses and wins, yet Bill Barrett seems determined to produce a team that will do even better next year. His latest move toward fulfilling this ambition is the inauguration of spring football practice for his academy proteges. This early revival of a late fall game has been received favorably by the Academy students.

This spring practice has now been going on for the better part of three weeks, and a squad of twenty odd candidates has reported daily. Coach Barret has not seen fit to "cut" any of the members from his spring squad, which fact has been a source of secret satisfaction to many of the less proficient candidates. It is not improbable that quite a number of these happy individuals are nightly dreaming of scoring the winning touchdown against St. Bede's, or of running wild around the St. Mary's ends in next year's encounters with those squads.
