HOMECOMING IS COMPLETE SUCCESS; ALUMNI RETURN FOR GAME AND DANCE

Rain Fails To Dampen Spirit Of Students; Large Crowd Attends Annual Dance In Gym

And now, another hugely successful Homecoming celebration has been staged. Delirious with joy over the crushing defeat administered Elmhurst College football team, hilarious Viatorians joined arms with beaming Alumni and attended the reception for Father Peter Brown, C. S. V., and the Dance that followed.

The dance took place on the perfectly waxed floor of the gymnasium which was bedecked with hundreds of purple and gold streamers rising like some great tent in an Arabian Night's tale, above the swaying couples.

Robert A. Nolan and his partner, the winsome Miss Edna Finnegan were, by virtue of Mr. Nolan's official capacity as President of the College Club, host and hostess. Mr. and Mrs. Crawford and Mr. and Mrs. Clancy were the chaperones.

Welcome By Fr. Maguire

Before the dance, Rev. J. W. R. Maguire, C. S. V., President of the College, spoke words of welcome to those present, and officially welcomed the Rev. P. Brown who was formally received at the time.

Music-Decorations Please

An ingenious arrangement of rich grapes behind the orchestra stand helped Ray Wulfe and his Ambassadors subdue the acoustical bugaboo which is to be contended with at every dance in the gym. The favorable comments upon the music were many. Certainly, the orchestra is to be congratulated as is the music committee headed by Mr. Spreitzer, for their choice of orchestra.

It would appear that the spirits of none were dampened by the downpour that continued for all the earlier part of the evening, since the Treasurer reports the dance a financial success despite the reduction in price. The margin of profit, admits this official, wasn't very great, but that there was such a margin at all seem to have satisfied everyone in charge of the affair.

Many Alumni Attend

Among the notable alumni present were Mr. Francis Carroll, '31, former president of the College Club; Mr. Don T. Anderson, '32; Mr. William Hamilton, also of the class of '32; and also that doughty little star of the Viator diamond, Mr. Thomas Ahern, who was forced to leave school shortly before graduation exercises for his class in '32. Mr. Herbert Shea and Puff Romary, both of the class of '32, were there, Puff for the moment forgetting his worries as football coach at St. Patrick's High in Kankakee, and enjoying himself tremendously. Mr. Robert Delaney, now enrolled at the U. of Illinois and a former member of the class of '34, was back to recall the old days as were many other former students now attending other schools, among them, Earl O'Mara, Pat O'Connor, Joe Farrell, Ralph Karr, and Ed. Hunt. Bill Riley, former President of the College Club was also present.

FATHER MAGUIRE SPEAKS BEFORE VARIOUS GROUPS

The past two weeks have been very busy ones for the Rev. J. W. R. Maguire, who is ever in demand as a speaker at Clubs, Schools, Luncheons, etc. On Sunday evening, October 22, he began his series of Labor talks over radio station W. C. F. L. in Chicago, which marked the beginning of his third year of broadcasting.

On Wednesday evening, October 18, Father Maguire spoke before a large crowd at the Knights of Columbus Hall in Kankakee, under the auspices of the Kankakee Federation of Labor. The subject chosen for that evening was "The Aspects of Labor Under the NRA". The general public and especially the various local labor groups were invited, and attended in large numbers.

The following Wednesday, October 25, the Rev. Maguire was guest speaker at an informal dinner in the Florentine Room of the Congress Hotel, in Chicago, closing the annual convention of the National Council of Catholic Men. His subject of discourse for that evening was "Catholic Principles and the NRA". The Most Rev. Bernard J. Sheil, D. D., V. G., Auxiliary Bishop of Chicago, and a former student and graduate of St. Viator College was also an honorary guest and speaker at the dinner. The Rev. Fulton Sheen, also a graduate of Viator, at present instructor of Philosophy at Catholic University, Washington, D. C., was also one of the principal speakers at the N. C. C. M. Convention. Father Sheen, speaker on the Catholic Hour last year, will again be heard on that program beginning in December this year.

Fr. O'Brien To Address I. R. C. November 15

The Rev. E. V. Cardinal, moderator of the International Relations Club, has informed us that he has secured the services of Rev. J. O'Brien, Ph. D. noted instructor at Newman Hall on the campus at the University of Illinois, and that he will address the organization on November 15. The topic to be discussed is "Preparing The World For Peace", and we feel sure that it will be both interesting and profitable for all those who choose to attend the meeting.

Father O'Brien is an authority on International questions, and it is certainly a privilege and an honor to have him lecture before our Club. Therefore we hope that all the members will be present for this meeting, and we invite all friends and the public in general to come and spend a pleasant evening with an outstanding authority and speaker on the subject to be discussed.

Nolan Lectures Before K.H.S. Debating Squad

On Wednesday afternoon, October 25, Robert A. Nolan, debate manager here at St. Viator, spoke to a group of debate aspirants at Kankakee High School. Father Maguire was originally the speaker to appear there but unable to do so, he placed the assignment in the hands of the very capable Mr. Nolan.

Mr. Nolan gave a very interesting talk on the fundamentals of the forensic art, and the technique of the qualified debater. Bob is an experienced debater of no little merit, having appeared on the rostrum for Viator in the past three seasons. At present he is manager of the Debate team, and around himself is built the hopes for a Conference Championship this year.

Possessing such a vast knowledge of the subject, Mr. Nolan impressed his audience very much, and we feel sure that the squad at the High School profited a great deal from the lecture.

REV. P. E. BROWN CELEBRATES HIS SILVER JUBILEE

Reception Held In College Gym Preceding Alumni Dance

Our Homecoming over the week-end held a two-fold appeal for all friends and students of St. Viator College, for on Friday, October 20, Father Peter Brown, C. S. V., traveled from St. Bridget's parish at Rochester, Minn., to have the occasion of celebrating his Silver Jubilee here at St. Viator where he was formerly an instructor.

On Friday evening, the reception was held for Father Brown, attended by all of the students and clergy of St. Viator, and also many other clergy and friends who had traveled great distances to be present for the "welcome-back" ceremonies that were tendered this fine son of Viator. Having been introduced by the Rev. J. W. R. Maguire, President of the College, Father Brown proceeded to thank his friends for the fine ovation and welcome, and assured everyone that he was extremely happy to be back for the visit and to celebrate

OBITUARY

The College learned with deepest regrets of the death of their Vicar General, the Rev. Elias Trezieres, on October 9, in Belgium.

Father Trezieres, fifty-eight years old, held the position of Vicar for the past ten years, and spent forty-three years in the religious life. The Clerics of St. Viator grieve the loss of this devoted religious, and a man of such great executive ability.

NORBERT ELLIS NAMED PRESIDENT OF CLUB; JOHN BURNS, SECRETARY

Rev. E. V. Cardinal Addresses Group On Topic: "Will There Be Another World War?"

BOOSTERS STAGE HALLOWE'EN CARD PARTY AND DANCE

The St. Viator College Gymnasium was the scene of a very festive and joyous Halloween Party on Monday evening, October 30. It was given under the combined efforts of the Booster Club, of which Mr. Richard DesLauriers is President, and of the Social Sorority headed by Miss Ruth Arrington. The success of the affair was also due greatly to the generous cooperation of Professor Clarence J. Kennedy, chairman for the Booster Club and Miss Lucille Putz for the Sorority.

Decorations

The hall was decorated in seasonal colors and possessed all seasonal charm. The orange and black decorations presented a charming autumnal scene, with pumpkins and jack-o-lanterns adding color to the beauty of the setting. The fortune teller added the spirit of real Halloween gaiety. Even the ghost lent "spookiness" to the occasion. Besides these attractions, there were other concessions consisting of the tea room and the taffy apple and candy booths.

The card room and dance floor attracted many throughout the evening. Those fortunate at cards were Mrs. W. P. Crowley, Mr. and Mrs. Brill, and Mr. W. C. Schneider. Music for the dance was furnished by Ray Wulfe's Ambassadors.

Committees

The various committee heads for the affair were: Mr. Robert Nolan, decorations; Mr. Robert Spreitzer, orchestra; Mr. Thomas Ryan, tickets; Miss Katherine Adams, fortune teller; Miss Margaret Clancy, refreshments, and Miss Claire Legris, taffy apple and candy booths.

To all who cooperated in the success of the affair, the College wishes to extend its sincere appreciation. The Booster Club and the Sorority wish to thank Mr. Kennedy and Miss Putz for their combined efforts in making the affair a success.

The patrons and patronesses who were so kind to sponsor the party were:

Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Arrington, Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Boudreau, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Chabot, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Clancy, Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Crowley, Prof. and Mrs. Harold Crawford, Mr. and Mrs. Richard DesLauriers, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Farmer, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Huot, Mr. and Mrs. Elzie Huot, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Matthews, Mr. and Mrs. H. J. MacKin, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Morgan, Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Netzel, Mr. and Mrs. Caspar Perschell, Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Richwine, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Sawyer, Mr. and Mrs. Walter C. Schneider, and Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Schosser.

The International Relations Club convened in its first meeting of the present year on October 18. The meeting was called to order for the last time by Robert A. Nolan, president during the past year. Mr. Nolan explained the club and its purposes to the new members, and immediately started the balloting which was to name Norbert Ellis of Seneca, Illinois his successor in the chair. John H. Burns of Chicago was named to succeed Mr. Gill Middleton '33, as secretary of the organization. Mr. Ellis is a member of the Sophomore class and Mr. Burns a Senior class member.

Voting Is Close

The balloting was spirited, neither of the officers having won by what might be called a decisive vote. Mr. Ellis scored his triumph over two other nominees, Mr. Donald LaRocque and Mr. Herman Snow, both of whom are Day Students. Mr. Burns' victory was still further demonstration that the resident students form the strongest political body of the campus, he won out over three others, all Day Students: Miss Reynolds, Mr. Smith and Mr. Daily. The closeness of the count in each case however, indicates that when spring rolls around again the annual clash for College Club offices shall be quite a struggle.

Dr. Cardinal Speaks

With the two officers duly installed the meeting got under way. Mr. Ellis introduced Reverend Dr. Cardinal, head of the history department in the College, who spoke on the subject, "Will There Be Another World War?" The text of that speech is to be found elsewhere in this issue. Briefly, Dr. Cardinal insisted that the possibility for war lay in the hands of Germany and that since her position is, to say the least, precarious, she would not dare attempt another war. He pointed out that aside from being financially unable to prosecute a war anywhere in the near future, Germany stands the hated nation in Europe today.

After the talk by Dr. Cardinal, an open forum was held, during which the members were at liberty to put to the speaker questions they might have had in mind concerning the subject for the evening's discussion. It is well to mention here that in his opening address, Mr. Nolan laid heavy stress upon the fact that the questions to be asked during the forum should always be as clearly put and as pertinent to the topic as possible, in order to save time, since the meetings have been designed to last an hour and as little over the hour as possible.

Large Attendance

The attendance at the first meeting was certainly encouraging. It ran well over the attendance at any of the meetings of last year. The Organization has for its immediate purpose the establishment and further-

BE CONTROVERSIAL

In the past it has been customary for the students to give voice to their ideas on various campus activities via a small column known as "Critique". The plan has been highly successful, having aroused a deal of spirited controversy, and having resulted in a number of beneficial innovations. This year we have been asked to reintroduce this feature to the VIATORIAN, and we are leaving the question to the decision of the readers. Therefore, if you have any constructive suggestions pertaining to any of the College activities, whether academic, social or athletic, we urge you strongly to send them in. Don't waste your inspirations on a handful of listeners who are powerless to put your ideas into execution, but give them power and beauty in the stately columns of this newspaper. You may affix your name to your article, or if you wish, it can be published anonymously. You may leave your written opinion with anyone connected with the VIATORIAN, preferably the editor. Nor is this invitation withheld from the faculty. There ought to be some interesting ideas among that body which could profitably be materialized.

We believe that this plan can do much to stimulate College spirit, which lately, it seems, has not been properly manifest. There is no good reason why in a small college such as ours the student body should not act as a living, moving organism, and helpful suggestions on any and all matters of College policy will assist towards a realization of this end. Vox populi, vox Dei.

THE COLLEGE DANCES

May we take this opportunity to express our appreciation, on behalf of the student body, to those who labored to make the gymnasium the thing of beauty it was on the occasion of the Homecoming Dance. This work involved the unselfish expenditure of valuable time and effort, and we regret that our thanks must take the shape of a mere acknowledgement in the editorial columns of this newspaper. It is gratifying to reflect that there are students who stand ready to make valuable sacrifices in order to make College projects successful.

The next few weeks will be quite busy socially for College students. The dance given by the St. Viator Boosters Club comes first, followed shortly by the Glee Club Dance. The purpose of this latter affair is to raise funds to defray the expenses of operation of the Glee Club for the current year. The date has not been definitely fixed, but we are assured that this dance will be held in November. Many interesting features are being considered by the members of the club and by the director, Miss Margaret Granger, to whose care plans for the affair have been intrusted. Both the Boosters and the Glee Club dances merit the support of the student body.

CAMPUS BRIEFS

As usual we're writing the column at the very last minute. We even had to interrupt Degnan when he was in the midst of a most important telephone conversation, in order to borrow his typewriter. Joe is so interested in getting an education that he calls up the school teachers—or rather One teacher—every night. And what an education he's getting! And how he likes his homework!

Tom Gibbons won't be so slow the next time. While out at the bonfire the other night, he engaged a certain coed in a conversation with the idea of a date for Homecoming in mind. He was gradually drawing up to the question, when Buttgen came along, and without any ado, asked for a date, and GOT IT! No, Gib, won't let it happen again.

And Hargrove, "that high-falutin' loving' man" from the South has fallen again; this time it's a certain young lady who comes out here two or three times a week, and is connected with the Glee Club. Can you put two and two together?

Chinn is thinking about transferring to Princeton. He has a complete polo outfit . . . all he needs is a horse . . . maybe Viator will sprout out with a team in the spring . . . we could have a few chuckers before supper each evening . . . and take turns practising on Paddy's horse . . . the next step will be a tea in the afternoon . . . charming, old dear, eh what?

Cronin is really living a Christian life. He now gives shelter to the homeless. . . when such a one gets caught in Bourbonnais at night and can't hitch-hike any further, as witness the boy friend he brought over to breakfast one morning not long ago . . . Oh, by the way, John, what did you do Homecoming night? . . . You should blush . . . And you too, Peyton.

'Tis rumored about the Campus that the boys in 312 return to Spring Valley every week-end to get their lab work in.

And who are the guys on the third who take walks in the direction of the convent frequently? . . . Aw, we know it isn't you Kalkowski . . . it might be Gib, though.

No, Miss R—, Burns didn't go to the Homecoming dance . . . But I'd sure hate to tell you what he did do . . . if you want to know . . . Why'n't you come up some time?

Bill Sweeney seemed to be in a bit of a daze at the Homecoming dance . . . I wonder if Madeline could have had anything to do with it?

And it's true that Bill Fleming asked McCarthy, "Are you going to do it, Mac?" . . . the time was Homecoming . . . when everything happens.

You might ask Newburg how he got that bump on his head . . . maybe a little too much affinity for toilet water, what?

Doyle didn't sleep, eat or study for two weeks before Homecoming . . . Neither did Doc Ellis . . . or the better half of 226 . . . Ain't love grand.

We'd like to know more about that party that Rogers threw in Chi on the night following Homecoming . . . what we have heard sounds too good to be true.

This Treasurer's job in the College Club ain't what it's cracked up to be. Some guy's been hounding us since the dance for the price of a hat which he says was lost in the check-room on that evening. John Bimmerle, who had charge of the check-room, comments, "Ain't that always the way. There's always a shortage somewhere at these Homecoming affairs". At least, we haven't seen Bimmerle sporting a new top of late, so there can be no doubt, the hat must really be lost.

There was plenty kicking done when all the lights were turned on at the dance, Homecoming evening, but the boys cooled off when it was explained that they were merely turned on while the reception was being held for Fr. Brown. It seems that the Frosh did not wish the extreme light to spoil the appearance of their decorations.

...Because the sandwich and candy sale was successful and all of the boys lived through it all, the Coeds plan to hold several more such sales during the year. Was it the sandwich or the candy which put Fr. Lowney in such good humor that day?

Doc Ellis had quite a time with that date for the dance, but she finally managed to get up here from Seneca, and the Doc was all smiles the rest of the evening.

The delegation from St. Francis in Joliet fell off slightly this dance. But Charley Byron (Old Faithful), showed up with Marie. And if you didn't meet her personally, it wasn't Charley's fault.

Danny O'Connor, who returned for the dance, slipped up a bit, we guess, 'cause Crowley was courting Danny's "ex" that evening.

Glancing through an old "Sham-rock", St. Pat's year book, t'other day and found it filled with pictures of Mary Cruise. She played everything from the heroine, in "Touchdown", to fiddle in the orchestra. An outstanding student at St. Pat's, she has also become quite popular since attending Viator.

If we believe all we hear, there were about fifty "Queens" at the dance. Oh Yeah! . . . Well, we haven't heard any of the co-eds bragging about their dates for that night. It appears Viator men just aren't THE type . . . oh, well, who cares. We don't.

Well, we can't print everything this week . . . have to save something for future issues . . . not that we're ever in danger of running out of it. . . . Nothing ever happens in Grand Hotel . . . something always does at Viator.

ARE WE GOING TO HAVE WAR?

The International Relations Club held a very interesting meeting on the evening of Wednesday, October 18th. Dr. E. V. Cardinal, C. S. V., favored the meeting with his views on the question, "Are we going to have a war?" Dr. Cardinal presented the question in his customary thorough and masterly style. We wish to present a few extracts from his discussion for the benefit of those who did not have the privilege of attending the meeting.

"Last Saturday the world was startled by the news that Germany had bolted from the Disarmament Conference and had withdrawn from the League of Nations. This unexpected news filled the world with apprehension that once again the nations would be at one another's throats like so many vultures. Flaming headlines talked of war possibly now and possibly within the next 18 months. The betting in New York was that there would be a war within the next 18 months, and the confidence placed in this wager is attested by the fact that the odds stood at 2 to 1. Hitler made a very logical and inflammatory speech to the world in which he stated in positive terms the position of Germany and likewise a justification for her conduct".

"What is this all about?, In 1914 the heir to the throne of Austria was murdered and this tangible fact was enough for even the unsophisticated to understand. In this present misunderstanding no one has been murdered, but nevertheless Germany has told the members of the Disarmament Conference that she will no longer live as she has been since 1918. Since that time she has been treated as "the bad boy of the world" and she has been told that she might not own the war apparatus of which nations even in this enlightened 20th century are so jealous and fond".

"... The fight started over a disagreement in the Disarmament Conference. You will remember that one of the provisions of the Treaty of Versailles was that Germany should disarm. Everything she had was taken from her. Her machine guns, tanks, airplanes, her fortifications, and even Heligoland. No more submarines, no more war-ships. She was allowed to have an army of 100,000 volunteers but no more. But the same treaty stipulated that the other powers would set about disarming themselves. They showed good faith in the beginning by appointing a commission to study the question. They called three naval conferences which have accomplished very little except to say that the U. S. could have as large a navy as England. The Disarmament Conference has been equally, if not more futile, bootless, fruitless, and useless. Germany's position has been stated by Hitler: she will disarm and remain disarmed if the other nations will; but if the other nations refuse to disarm then he demands that Germany should have the right to take the law in her own hands and to arm to the teeth. Germany was told to disarm in order to let the world know that she was no longer one of the great powers of the world,—since a nation is judged by the size of its army and navy. The refusal of Germany to continue living under this set of conditions means that she will no longer take a back seat among the nations of the world. Inspired by the dynamic and fiery Adolph Hitler she vows that she will recover her lost primacy amongst the nations of the world".

"... Why don't nations disarm? One would think that nations ought to be able to adjust their difficulties without war; that nations ought to live as brothers; that the depression might induce these people to lay down these expensive weapons.

It is not quite so simple. Nations have for centuries past and peoples have for centuries long buried used war as a means of either self-protection or as means of settling disputes. It is impossible to believe that an institution so old can be very readily cast off. It can be done but it will take a great deal of time and a great deal of education before nations will disarm, if they ever will".

some longing looks in the direction of a certain co-ed. Be careful Jerry.

We were wrong. Despite our beliefs, Bill Clancy cannot be found at home except on Monday night—Sorority Meetings. Don't worry, we'll get her phone number.

Tom Gorman is still dishing out his philosophy on life. Perhaps Father Lowney would appreciate a capable substitute.

Drassler and Smith are again going around singing their praises of "who is the greatest athlete".

Herman Snow has convinced himself that he can play center. He was a great help to the Frosh in a recent football game.

John Smietowski and Bob Sterr have withdrawn from school.

Schrosser and Schneider are again back to their usual habits. Getting A's. They don't seem to mind it, either.

When number 19 entered the Homecoming game, the Day Students' wishes were fulfilled. No, Coach, LaRocque didn't pay us for those cheers.

Here we are again kiddies, and Aunt Emma has lots of nice fairy tales for you again this week. How would you like to hear about three big bad old wolves and the three beautiful princesses? Well, gather around my knee, children, and Auntie will spill all the dirt. Once upon a time on a Sunday evening the three naughty wolves didn't have anything to do and they were very restless. Quoth Wolf Number One, "I know of a great castle that overlooks the placid waters of the Kankakee River. Beautiful damsels gather there in prodigious quantities and trip the light fantastic and other fantasies not so light, to sweet melodies played by a fellow Wulff. Let us hie ourselves hence with all possible despatch". No sooner said than done, and in two rubs of the magic lamp the three were in the far off fairy city of Kankakee. Here they consumed numerous glasses of foaming milk at an establishment of good repute, but the management refusing a set-up, they said "Poohey" unanimously and departed. And it came to pass that presently their chariot drew up before the noble castle wherein danced the Three Queens. The guardian of the gate demanded that his palm be crossed with silver, however, and as this was not forthcoming, the three were forced to languish in the outer darkness gazing at the frolicsome scene within. Wolf Number One, however, being prolific with the bull, finally induced the guardian to affix certain insignia upon their coats which identified them as friends and admitted them unto the holy of holies. When the ball was over, the three stood before the door awaiting the pleasure of the Three Broa-Queens, and as they approached began with the customary wolf ritual: "What you say, kee?" The Queens answered, "Nuttin much, what you say?" With this as a beginning the three innocent and beautiful Queens were soon ensconced in the wolves chariot, prepared for the journey home. And then it was discovered that some naughty policeman had in the interim fastened onto the chariot a small slip of paper. This not being to the wolves liking, they sought said policeman and addressed him in this wise: "Sir, we are visitors from a far off country, as you can see by our license. We just came down from the mountains and we ain't done no harm". So what. So the policeman being of a kind heart did as they asked. Thus it happened that the Three bad old wolves and the three damsels went off to a joint where they quaffed of apple cider and feasted on cheese. And having done, the Queens were deposited on their doorstep, and the wolves returned to their meagre taverns. And now, kiddies, Aunt Emma must go over to the village and get something for her cough. And if any of you don't get the point of this little tale, you don't know your campus gossip very well.

Sorry this column is turning out this way, but I got very tired of reading the exchanges for jokes. The ed says that this column should be humorous and original. Well, anyway, it will be original this time, even though it may not be good. Statistics show that this column last year furnished each reader with one laugh per issue . . . we hope to double the number of laughs per issue this year without having our subscribers read the column through twice. If you get more than two laughs out of this column, you'd better "see your doctor".

Run across this poem, written by one of the Graduates of '33. There can be little doubt as to the originality of this:

I think that I shall never see
A "D" as lovely as a "B".
A "B" whose rounded form is pressed
Upon the records of the blest.
A "D" comes easily—and yet
It isn't easy to forget.
'D' are made by fools like me,
For only God can make a "B".

Take heed, Frosh, for the truth of this you shall learn only too soon.

And in closing, "Don't take life too seriously, 'cause you'll never get out of it alive". Yeah! We copied it somewhere from someone, but don't know just where or who.

And if you'se guys and gals still continue to kick about this column why you can take a chance at writing it yourself next issue . . . . I ain't had a laugh myself, in days.

VIATOR DEBATERS BROADCAST AGAIN ON STATION WCFL

The Bergin Debating Society will begin its series of Radio Debates on Sunday, November 19 at four o'clock, against Mundelein College of Chicago. The facilities of station W. C. F. L. in Chicago, have been obtained again this year. The question for the contest with Mundelein is, Resolved: "That the powers of the President of the United States be substantially increased as a settled policy". The representatives for St. Viator have not as yet been chosen.

On December 10, St. Viator's forensic men will engage Illinois Wesleyan in a radio debate. The subject for the debate will be announced at a later date.

Last year the forensic teams of St. Viator won the majority of the debates given over the air. These contests are decided by votes cast by the listening audience.

Liquid
Emulsified
Asphalt

A perfect protective coating for brushing, spraying or trowelling, being a high grade Mexican asphalt dispersed as minute particles in water for convenient handling. It is applied cold. As the moisture evaporates, a black, flexible rubberlike film remains which is waterproof, acid, alkaline and fire resistant, and shuts out infiltrations of air.

Mortex 5 does not crack or peel in coldest weather, nor blister, sag nor run on hottest days and always remains elastic. It is odorless, tasteless and nonflammable and can be safely used in confined, places. It readily bonds to all clean surfaces, and also to damp surfaces, but should never be applied over dusty, dirty greasy or oily surfaces or an imperfect bond will result. Use only on clean surfaces to obtain perfect satisfaction.

Used for DAMPPROOFING WALLS and FLOORS, PAINTING GALVANIZED IRON, PROTECTING CLEAN IRON AND STEEL, ROOF REPAIRING and as an ADHESIVE. It can be mixed with Portland Cement and dries out a soft gray color for patching deteriorating concrete.

Visitors Held To One First Down; Viator Defense And Offense Works To Perfection

Before the eyes of many St. Viator Alumni, returned for a visit to their Alma Mater, the fighting Irish upheld the school's honor last Friday at Homecoming, and carried off the victory of their first Conference game. If there was any doubt before the whistle blew as to the outcome of the meet, it vanished before the first quarter had been completed, and so decisively did the Viator men break down the morale of the opponents that the game became little short of a complete walkaway before the end of the first half. The Elmhurst eleven, which had been favored to win, were virtually carried off their feet before the powerful and mechanical drives, runs and passes of the Green Wave. Bewildered from the start by such unexpected opposition, they at no time threatened to cross the Viator goal, and failed to secure a single first down on yardage gained until almost the end of the half.

Irish Start Early
Elmhurst returned the Viator kickoff to their own 15 yard line. After several futile attempts to advance, they attempted a pass which was intercepted by Corcoran, and a minute later Harding carried the ball over Elmhurst's goal for the first score. The second kick-off was returned by Elmhurst to their own 18 yard line. Again unable to make any headway, they punted to the Viator 40 yard line. The second spectacular play of the afternoon was made when Westray carried the ball through a broken field for a 40 yard gain. After receiving a pass from Westray, Noonan crossed the opponent's goal for the second score. Marik's placement for the extra point was good. The first penalty was incurred near the end of the quarter when Viator lost 15 yards for holding. A few minutes before the whistle blew, Harding ran 35 yards, and on the next play Westray advanced the ball to Elmhurst's two yard line.

The second quarter was less than a minute old when Betourne plunged across Elmhurst's goal for the third touchdown. It was during this period of playing that Wiser and Best, both new men, showed outstanding ability to go places, the former by powerful drives and the latter by sure and heavy blocking. After blocking one of the loser's punts on Elmhurst's nine yard line, and after a series of short advancements, Saia went over for the first of his two touchdowns. The bewildered Elmhurst team made its first down on yardage gained when they completed a pass to the Viator 45 yard line. A second attempt to repeat this was stopped by Saia just before the whistle ended the half.

Westray Is Star
The second half was opened in a driving downpour of rain which continued during most of the game. Westray made the first Irish touchdown in the second half, while Betourne's pass to Gibbons sent the latter over the goal for another Irish score; Saia then made his final touchdown of the afternoon when he bolted through the middle of the Elmhurst line, going about 25 yards to the scoring station; and Westray's pass to Harding who was over the goal after a 10 yard run concluded the Irish offensive.

WHO'S NEW ON THE GRIDIRON

If we are to judge from rumor, Sterling, Illinois and its surrounding territory uses the name of Wiser and football interchangeably. In case you have never heard of Sterling, just get out your map and search in the northwest corner of the state. It really is there—I looked. It seems that for the last two years the Sterling Community High School team has centered around their left-halfback, Wiser, and they send him to St. Viator with the highest of recommendations for making good. For two successive years he was an All City backfield man and captained a team which stands out as the best to have been produced by Community High. Wiser tips the scales at 175 pounds, and has shown real ability in his right-halfback position with the fighting Irish. In the Homecoming game his plunging proved him to be a man of experience and worth. Some who are in a position to know, claim that he was playing to a girl in a little green hat in the stands who came down from Sterling, but we trust that her absence in the future will not impair his fight and vigor.

Two hundred and twenty-five pounds of fight and might hold down a tackle berth on the Green Wave in the person of Joe Vasiluski. During his senior year in Spring Valley High School, he captained the State Championship football team, which alone stands as sufficient proof of his ability. But since he has been with St. Viator, he has enhanced that past career with a brilliant present record. He has been in action in all the Irish games and has been doing some superior kicking-off. There is no room for doubt that Joe is a man whom the Green Wave can value only as she values her best men.

From the St. Bede's Academy hail Ralph Rupslauky, and don't ask why everyone calls him "Rip". He weighs 185 pounds and is making good at center, a position at which he distinguished himself in high school. It is a notable fact that if St. Bede's chanced to have a weak spot, Rupslauky was placed in that position and invariably the opponent looks for a new method of attack. In the Pontiac and Elmhurst games he came through with an ease and power which paints a bright future for him and St. Viator.

Since the Elmhurst game "Tom" Gibbons has been a subject for much speculation. However, it is certain that he has a brilliant past. At Trinity High School in Bloomington, Ill., he grabbed the spot-light during his last two years by his spectacular passing from a quarter-back position, and was unanimously elected to an All City berth. "Gib's" outstanding achievement at St. Viator has been the making of a touchdown in the Elmhurst game. After leaping into the air, he caught a pass thrown by Betourne and raced across the opponents goal, thereby bringing himself early into the limelight of Green Wave prospects.

Ping-Pong Tournament Opens I-M Competition

Under the capable direction of Father Harbauer and Emmerson Dexter, a Ping-Pong Tournament will be conducted beginning November 1st. To date thirty-five students have enrolled in the event. Entries will be accepted up to noon, November 1st. All students are urged to enter as this is the first opportunity to gain points for the Intra-Mural Championship award. Remember, the student who garners the greatest number of points during the scholastic year will be crowned "CHAMP" of I-M sports. The winner of this tourney will receive ten points and the runner-up will receive five points.

It is rumored that Krauklis will win in a walk and Don Betourne will be a close second. Of course, with such players as Doc Meany, Stockbar, Ryan, and Chinn, the tournament will present some closely contested matches throughout. Then, too, the Day Students may surprise with a "dark horse" entry. Possibly, Mr. Goldberg, who is quite adept at the game.

The playing rules of the Tourney are as follows:

1. The ball must be served in the lined courts.
2. Each player allowed one net ball per serve.
3. Serve shall change every five points.
4. Game shall consist of TWENTY-ONE points.
- If the score be 20-20, it shall be played "deuce-add", then game.
5. If the ball should hit the net post, the player is entitled to serve over.

Irish Put Up Great Fight But Breaks Favor Indiana Eleven

INDEPENDENTS TIE 7-7; LOSE VICTORY IN FINAL MINUTES

Suffering from a lack of reserves, strength and experience, the St. Viator Independents were tied in the closing minutes of a bitterly fought game with the St. Joseph College varsity, 7 to 7. The Independents although out-weighted, put up a real battle, failing to win only because they had the habit of fumbling in each crisis. Twice fumbles were costly. Once when the Independents had the ball on the St. Joseph's one yard line in the second quarter, and in the last minute of play when on their own 15. This fumble lead to St. Joseph's score.

The Independents scored early in the first quarter after marching from mid field to the thirty yard line where Chinn carried the ball around right end for a touch-down. Drassler kicked the point on a drop kick.

In the second quarter the Independents again threatened, when a pass from Chinn to Rogers was good for forty-five yards, placing the ball on the four yard line. A plunge by Chinn advanced the ball to the one yard line, and then came one of the costly fumbles by Drassler who failed to hold the ball on a line drive. Lost—one chance to score.

The second half began with St. Joseph's sending in a whole new team. It wasn't long before they began to click and threatened to score no less than five times. These attacks were repulsed until the final minute of the game when St. Joseph managed to score just as the gun ended the game. This score was made possible when Drassler fumbled on his own fifteen yard line. In three tries St. Joseph was only able to gain five yards, but on the next play Smolar passed over the goal line to Koska. The extra point was added by O'Grady.

The game was a hard fought battle with each team handing out all the punishment possible. "Jerry" Sullivan, Independent half-back, was put out of play in the second quarter with what is believed to be a broken shoulder. The St. Joe. team had three players carried off, one with a sprained ankle, another with a wrenched back, and the third with an injured nose. These injuries were the result of hard tackling and not "dirty playing". The number of penalties proves this as St. Joseph received none and the Independents received only four for a total of thirty yards. The penalties received were: three for being off sides and one for backfield being in motion. The Victorians scored in the third quarter, when Nolan ran sixty-five yards after recovering a fumble, only to have the play recalled because the referee failed to see the play and believed that the ball had been grounded before Nolan recovered it.

Chinn and Gibbons were the stars on offensive playing and received the outstanding support of Hargrove, Mackin, McCarthy and Rogers of the line. LaNue, Sheenan and Scheidler

If the Irish warriors had any hopes of breaking up the Homecoming activities of Valparaiso last Saturday, they soon vanished, for the Valpo eleven administered a 21-0 licking to our grid-men, who returned home somewhat abashed, but with high hopes for a chance to even things up in a return game with the Indiana crew next fall. The score, itself, hardly tells the tale, for the Irish really put up a great fight threatening Valpo's goal line many times during the afternoon, only to have the opponents thrust them back and punt out of danger. This was the case repeatedly, especially during the first half.

Valpo Scores
Best took the opening kickoff, but was downed before he could return the ball more than a few yards. After several unsuccessful tries, Westray punted. After several exchanges of punts, Valpo invaded Viator territory. After Bauer skirted around left end for a thirty yard gain Gauthier tore through right tackle, and crossed the goal line to draw the first blood. The try for the point failed, however, and the score stood 6-0 in favor of Valpo. Viator threatened several times, but the quarter ended with no change in the score.

In the second quarter, exchange of punts kept the ball moving up and down the field, until Valpo succeeded in recovering a Viator fumble on one of the punts. Karr reeled off twenty yards on a wide end run, and on the next play Rucinski passed to Smatlak who carried the ball over. The try for the point after the touchdown was good, just as the half ended. Score: Valpo 13, Viator 0.

Marik And Westray
Although Valpo pushed over another score in the third quarter on a pass from Kowalski to Karr, Marik was doing outstanding work breaking up plays, and doing a fine job on offense. Westray, who was the backbone of the Viator offense, performed perfectly at all times when the occasion called for a punt. The third quarter ended with Valpo leading, 19 to 0. The opponents rang up their final points in the last quarter. They had made three successive first downs and when they were but some few yards from the goal, fumbled, and Viator recovered. Westray attempted to punt out of danger, but the kick was blocked by Dierker, and the Viator man recovering the ball was tackled behind the goal line giving Valpo a safety and two points, shortly before the gun ended the game, the final score being 21 to 0, with the Green Wave on the short end.

A fine seventy-eight yard run by Westray just before the game ended was the feature of the day. West, along with Marik played great ball throughout, and these two were the mainstays for the local eleven.

GLEE CLUB PLANS DANCE TO SECURE FUNDS THIS YEAR

At a meeting of the Glee Club last Friday afternoon, it was suggested that a dance be given by that organization, the receipts of which are to go towards the Glee Club Fund. As a result, Miss Margaret Watson, was named Chairman in charge of the arrangements.

No definite plans have been made as to the date, but it is hoped that it will be held on the 9th of November in the College gymnasium. The music for that evening will be furnished by Lescewicz Orchestra from Bradley. Mr. Lescewicz was a former student here, and directed the College orchestra last year. No definite price of admission has been established, but tentative plans show it will be $.25 per person.

Because the tickets are at such a low rate, it is hoped that the entire student body will attend, and help a worthy cause, the Glee Club, in so doing.

his Silver Jubilee on the campus of the College he loves so well.

On Saturday morning, October 21, St. Viator Day on the College Calendar, Mass was celebrated by the jubilant at Maternity Church in Bourbonnais. Many students and friends attended the exercises.

The Rev. Brown is well known by all students and friends of St. Viator, and at one time was a very prominent figure upon the campus. While here at the College he was Dean of Discipline and Director of Athletics. It was chiefly due to his efforts that the first St. Viator athletic teams were organized. It was certainly most fitting that he should return to his College on Homecoming Day, enabling the alumni, faculty, students, and friends of the College, to rejoice with him in celebration of his 25th Anniversary as a religious .

LIBRARY NOTES

THE CARD CATALOG

A reader feels so much more independent and at home in a library when he has learned to use its Catalog. Librarians are always willing to help, but a student can work with more speed, satisfaction and thoroughness, if he is somewhat independent.

The catalog, or list of books in the library, is a series of cards arranged alphabetically in drawers. Each card gives the Author and Title of some book in the library, and in the upper left corner gives its Class Number, which shows where the book stands on the shelf.

The absence of a Class Number on a Catalog Card shows that the book is on the Fiction shelves. These books are arranged alphabetically by Author.

To find out whether the library has a particular book, look for the name of the Author or Title.

To find out what material is in the library on a Subject, look for the name of the Subject in Red.

The reader is expected to copy on a slip of paper the class number in the corner of the catalog card and the Author and Title of the book. Present this slip to the librarian who will find the book wanted.
