NEW PRESIDENT MEETS STUDENTS

Father Maguire in Charge of Affairs at College

Announcement of the appointment of the Very Rev. John W. R. Maguire, c. s. v., as president of St. Viator College was made early in July. Father Maguire was designated to succeed the Very Rev. James V. Rheams, c. s. v., by the Very Rev. J. M. Roberge, c. s. v., superior-general of the clerics of St. Viator. Father Rheams returns to his former position as Master of Novices.

Welfare Worker

The new president is known throughout the state for his work in the Illinois state legislature on behalf of social welfare legislation. He is director of the Catholic Legislative Service of Illinois; chairman of the department of economics of the National Conference of Catholic Charities; a member of the executive committee of the department of social action of the National Catholic Welfare Conference; president of the department of colleges in the National Catholic Educational Association; and former vice-president of the State Conference of Public Welfare.

Attended Oxford

Father Maguire assumes the office of president of St. Viator College at a relatively early age. He was born in 1884. He received his education at Merton College, Oxford, England; St. Viator College; Columbia University, New York; and the Catholic University of America, Washington, D. C. He was ordained priest in the Chicago Province, Clerics of St. Viator, by the Rt. Rev. Thos. J. Shanahan, D. D., retired rector of the Catholic University of America.

War Veteran

At the outbreak of the World War, Father Maguire immediately offered his services as chaplain. He served with the 39th Infantry, 4th Division. Returning to this country after the war he was selected to serve on a committee of unemployment by the late President Woodrow Wilson. This brought him recognition from the American Federation of Labor and he has many times appeared in the interests of labor before legislative gatherings and last winter completed a series of lectures on injunction legislation over WCFL, the American Federation of Labor broadcasting station, Chicago.

Noted Educator

Father Maguire has spent the greater part of a score of years at St. Viator where he has been instructor of sociology, economics, philosophy and public speech. For two years he was Professor of Catholic Philosophy at the University of Illinois. He spent some years as Professor of Economics at Rosary College, River Forest, Illinois. In 1922 he was appointed Vice-School of Commerce. The same year he was secretary of the Committee on Standardization of the National Catholic Educational Association. At the association's convention in Detroit in 1927 he was elected president of the department of colleges, and re-elected at the Chicago convention in June 1928. At this recent convention he was selected to give the opening address of the convention before His Eminence George Cardinal Mundelein and a large gathering of Catholic celebrities and educators, both clergy and lay.

Changes Take Place In Faculty

Very Rev. John W. R. Maguire, c. s. v., has appointed the Rev. E. M. Kelly, c. s. v., director of athletics, to the position of Dean of Men. Father Kelly held this position for a number of years, retiring in 1925. He is a stern disciplinarian, but popular in the yard.

Rev. Thomas J. Lynch, A. M., Dean of the Department of English, succeeds the Very Rev. John W. R. Maguire, c. s. v., as instructor of public speech and coach of debate. During his student days Father Lynch was a member of the Viator Debating team and has taken an enthusiastic interest in the work of the Bergin Debating Society. Father Lynch, through his appointment, automatically becomes moderator of the Bergin Debating Society.

Mr. Claude M. Granger, one of Kankakee's most prominent young lawyers, joins the faculty this year as instructor in Constitutional Law. Mr. Granger was graduated from Viator Academy, took his A. B. from Georgetown University, Washington, and his LL. B. "magna cum laude" from Harvard University, Cambridge, Massachusetts. During his years at Harvard he edited the Harvard Law Review.

Mr. Benjamin G. Gower, one of the members of Gower, Gray and Gower, Attorneys-at-Law, Kankakee, has been secured as a professor of mathematics. Mr. Gower is offering a course in introductory mathematics, covering college algebra, trigonometry and analytics. He took his A. B. from Michigan University and his J. D. from Northwestern University.

Rev. A. L. Girard, A. M., has been added to the faculty as instructor in Cosmology and the History of Art and Architecture. Father Girard, completing his studies at St. Viator, took graduate work at Chicago Uni-

SUCCESSFUL YEAR PREDICTED FOR DEBATING SOCIETY

Debate Schedule Not Yet
Complete

The indications for the coming year give the assurance that once again St. Viator College will uphold her prestige in the realm of Intercollegiate Debating. The Bergin Debating Society regrets that the duties of the Presidency will not permit the Very Rev. J. W. R. Maguire, c. s. v., to continue his work as Coach of Debate, but hopes to find, and in fact will find, in the Rev. T. J. Lynch, who has been appointed Coach of Debate, a very able successor. The founding of the Bergin Debating Society last year will give an added impetus to matters forensic this year, and the proposed establishment here of a Chapter of Pi Kappa Delta will admit St. Viator College into the premier honorary Oratorical and Debating Fraternity of the Nation.

Father Lynch will have as the nuclei of his teams this year Mr. James Allen Nolan and Mr. John Stafford, both of whom have been through two successful seasons, and also Mr. Raymond Boysen and Mr. Armand Lotvinville, who made their forensic debut last year. In addition there are a number of very capable men who "just missed" making the teams last year who will be of much use this year.

The schedule for the coming year, which Mr. Nolan, the Manager of Debate, is arranging, includes dual debates with Loyola, Marquette, Valparaiso, Dayton and Detroit; the two biggest debates of the year, however, will be the debate here with St. Thomas College of St. Paul, last year's National Champions, and the one with St. Xavier's at Cincinnati, who for several years have been our most formidable yet favorite opponents. By the opening of the Debating Season several other schools will be added to this list. Plans for a western debating tour this year failed to materialize due to the impossibility of securing debates with the Iowa colleges; there are however, vague rumors that the grand eastern circuit to Washington, New York and Boston made two years ago will be repeated this year.

The question for the coming year will be that announced by Pi Kappa Delta about the end of September.

Several Viatorians Journey to Europe

The Very Rev. W. J. Surprenant, c. s. v., Provincial of the Chicago Province, Clerics of St. Viator, accompanied by the Revs. John P. O'Mahoney, c. s. v., Christopher A. Marzano, c. s. v., Ph. D., and Richard J. French, c. s. v., sailed for Europe, June 30th. Father Surprenant went by way of Rome, Father French to his home in England, and Fathers O'Mahoney and Marzano to Ireland.

On August 9th they attended the Chapter Meeting of the Clerics of St. Viator at which delegates from the United States, Spain, France, and Belgium were assembled. The Meeting was held at Jette, Belgium, the mother home of the community. The Very Rev. J. M. Roberge, c. s. v., superior-general of the clerics, presided at the meetings which terminated August 18th.

The local priests landed in New York the first week in September.

ON MAPS AND COUNTRIES

Librarian Gives Details of Summer Work

We are afraid that some of you have been mildly dismayed at returning to college to find your library invaded by mysterious workers engaged in what may seem to you an even more mysterious work. Where before a more or less absolute quiet reigned there now resounds the clatter of typewriters. Where formerly the eye was met only by tables and chairs inviting to study and repose one sees cases and cases full of defenseless books waiting to be pounced upon to have their interiors dissected and analyzed. Put in such a light our work appears violent and positively gruesome, only that the interiors of books are fortunately not so messy as some other kinds of interiors. They are sometimes dull, often stupid, but oftener most enchanting—and that is some compensation.

We hope a little of the mystery that has surrounded our proceedings falls away. In prosaic, unadorned English we have sweated, and labored and we were going to say swore, but remembered ourselves, to give you a key to unlock the treasures that have been buried away in this library. O you won't find it all shining and rich and golden unless you first have some keys of your own—the key of hunger after wisdom, the key of imagination to let you into the inner rooms. All this key can do is to open the large portal where all may enter. Only a few may walk in the innermost chambers.

Well, we haven't the smaller keys to give but only the one large key. Such as it is we give it. And we beg you to use it, for believe me, it was purchased with labor.

From my talking you will imagine I have been speaking of a grand and romantic thing and it is only a catalog. But if there is romance in books; and who will deny it, surely there is romance in the finding of books. Might not a book be like a pot of gold? And truly, isn't the search for a pot of gold even more thrilling than the gold itself? I won't be saying that a catalog is a more interesting or romantic thing than a book, any more than I would say that a map is a more interesting thing than a country; but I do claim that it has some hint of romance about it since the catalog is a map of the country of books.

The land of knowledge is a vast country marked out by the mind of man. You may look out upon it from the heights of nine high mountains:

- Philosophy—100
- Religion—200
- Social Sciences—300
- Philology—400
- Pure Sciences—500
- Useful Arts—600
- Fine Arts—700
- Literature—800
- History—900

We have looked at every book in our library to find its exact position on this map of knowledge so that you may not be bothered with this labor, but may know at once by the arrangement of the books on the shelf or their entry in the catalog in just what land they are situated. If you are interested, for example, in journeying in that particular part of History known as Medieval Europe you may look up this heading in our catalog

Last Year's Editor Enters Seminary

This, our first issue of the year 1928-1929, cannot go to press without an expression of appreciation and commendation to our editor of last year, Mr. Robert O. Barnett, who left us to join the ranks of the Seminarists at St. Paul, Minn.

We, of the staff, are in a position to know and to appreciate the amount of time, labor and care with which Bob exercised the duties of his important office. And if the degree of success attained by him as editor of the Viatorian is an indication of his future accomplishments, we shall one day witness his attainment of a high ecclesiastical office. The staff joins with his many friends among his former schoolmates and the faculty in wishing him a happy and fruitful future in his chosen vocation. Good fortune, Bob, and success.

Professor Chanoux in Europe During Summer

Professor M. Chanoux Mascaro recently returned from Europe. Professor Chanoux spent the early part of the summer traveling in Italy. He attended a six weeks' summer course at the University of Paris so that he might complete his graduate work which he had started in 1922.

Professor Chanoux looks forward to a fine year in his Italian and French classes. During his travels in France and Italy he gathered much material so that he might present his students with a broader view of the modern languages they are studying. His course at the University of Paris was concerned with the study of modern languages.

Our New President

The appointment of the Very Rev. John W. R. Maguire, c. s. v., to the presidency of St. Viator is received with a genuine feeling of joy by the student body, the faculty and the alumni of the College. The new president assumes his position with twenty years of experience in the educational world. His work along educational lines has been acknowledged again and again by the National Catholic Educational Association. During his years as Vice-president of the college he was closely in touch with all activities, and understands, perhaps better than any other man, the needs of St. Viator, and realizes the means to acquire them so that Catholic education in Illinois will prosper and progress.

His varied activities in the world of social action and education fit him, in an eminent degree, to guide the destinies of the institution for which he has labored so many years. With the full confidence of his faculty, with the genuine and wholehearted trust of the student body, with the generous loyalty and faith of the alumni, Father Maguire starts this year on his work to direct St. Viator toward the horizon of her hopes and ideals. We congratulate Father Maguire on his appointment; we assure him of our confidence in him, and of our cooperation in his plans for a greater Viator.

Education

"Down the street, with laughter and shout,
Glad in the freedom of school let out,
Come the boys."

Dear to our hearts in our childhood days were sentiments such as are found in the above lines. In the days when we considered the rule of every teacher over her small charges as tyrannical and the acquisition of an education a standard dose of medicine of which every youth must partake, the very few lines written in sympathy with the 'mistreated' schoolboy found a ready place in our hearts and minds.

But now, we find ourselves face to face with the proposition of making men of ourselves. Our ideas of education, its aims, and its requirements, have all changed. Today the lines might read:

"Into the drive, with honking of horn,
Glad in the thought that school's reborn,
Come the boys."

Today, the boys are happy to return to the old school. The realization of the far-reaching advantages of an education has changed considerably the childish disaffection of earlier days. Old associations beckon; learned and capable masters ask for audience.

To the new student, a strange and interesting vista opens before him. Strange, because he meets the unusual sight of hundreds of boys actually searching for and revelling in the attainment of an education, and interesting, because of its newness and its very apparent opposition to former cherished ideals.

As conditions exist at St. Viator, so do we find them in other schools at this time of the year. Throughout our prosperous and growing nation small armies of would-be students are marching on the capitols of learning, the academies, colleges, and universities. Campus and hall fairly swarm with busy youths eager to continue the race for some degree of mental perfection.

To most of these boys, the idea of an education simply means the sharpening of their tools, the acquiring of a finer, more complete reaping outfit for the harvesting of the dollars and cents that loom in the distance as the all-important measures of accomplishment.

To a few of them, however, the attainment of advanced learning is a sufficient consideration for their pursuit. They delight in their acquired knowledge. As their field of vision broadens, their thirst for more complete and more thorough erudition grows upon them. To this class belong the most highly educated people in the world, those who are learned through sheer appreciation of their learning.

But, whatever the motive, we all are agreed that there can be nothing superior to a complete education which embraces the moral, mental, physical and aesthetic development of man to take his place in society.

Welcome!

In this first issue of the Viatorian it is our pleasure to extend to the Freshmen and other new students a hearty and sincere welcome. In extending this welcome we do so as the official organ of both faculty and student body. We, who have been at St. Viator College for years past are glad to welcome you for we know that the year holds much in store for you. We hope that this year will be most pleasant and profitable that any of you have ever known and that it will be excelled only by future years at St. Viator College.

Along with the welcome a few words of well-intentioned advice would not be amiss. Life at St. Viator College consists of a number of factors, each of which is necessary to the others and requisite for a happily successful school year. Study, it is true, is the immediate purpose of our presence here. However, extra-curricular activities are very essential to our well-being. Without them the rather secluded life of our College would become dull and uninteresting. How very monotonous would our sojourn here be if it were not for the variation offered by our clubs, varsity athletics, athletic leagues, choirs, glee-clubs, publications, organizations, forensic contests, pep meeting and pep parades and the like. These things form an integral part of our existence as collegians.

Since these activities are so important to us, our advice to everyone is to get into all activities at once and to get in wholeheartedly. Shirkers in school activities are never popular. They have no place in college life. It is the patient organizer and tireless worker who finally realizes all the advantages of college life and reaps its full fruition of good will and popularity from faculty and student body alike.

Do not suppose that we advocate an intensification upon student activities that will interfere with our studies. Outside activities must always be merely subsidiary to study. By our very presence here we manifest our desire for learning and consequently our intention of studying persistently. We must, however, indulge in extra-curricular activities for they are an aid to study in that they provide healthy relaxation and thus keep a proper balance with the work of our classes. We have not stressed the importance of applied study because we have already heard eloquent discussions of that point both in chapel and in the classrooms. We do, however, render the foregoing remarks hoping that they will stimulate everyone to action and interest in our activities, and that, with the support of the entire student body, the scholastic year of 1928-29 will be remembered as the most sanguine and profitable year ever known in student activities.

Obituary

Mr. William M. Hickey, '02, of Chicago, formerly of Kankakee, died last July 6th. His death resulted from diabetes and a ruptured appendix. Over work from looking after his numerous interests sent him to the Columbus hospital several weeks previous to his fatal relapse. J. P. Hickey, his brother, his mother and Mrs. J. P. Hickey were with him when he died.

Mr. Hickey was born in Chebanse, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hickey, on September 25, 1883. The family removed to Kankakee 32 years ago. His father died 11 years ago.

He taught chemistry in the Loyola University in Chicago. Later he returned to Kankakee and opened a drug store in the Hickey building on Schuyler Avenue, which he conducted for a year. In 1911 with George W. McCabe of Chatsworth he opened a bank on the north side in Chicago, which, from a small start has prospered.

Mr. Hickey was Mr. McCabe's right hand man from the foundation of the bank and from cashier was advanced to vice-president. He was popular both with customers and employees.

Mr. Hickey was unmarried. He lived with his mother and his aged grandmother. His brothers are John P. Hickey of Kankakee and Richard F. and Thomas Hickey of Chicago.

In the death of William M. Hickey, St. Viator loses a loyal alumnus and a valuable friend. He always was considerate and active in the work of the Extension Club. The Viatorian extends sincerest condolences to his family, his mother and brothers.

The student body expresses their sincere sympathies to the following on their recent loss:

Francis Carroll, '25, on the sudden death of his brother.

Mat Kilbride on the death of his mother.

Con Mahoney on the death of his uncle.

DALRYMPLE IS MARRIED

Affair Not Made Public Until Early Summer

Announcement is made of the marriage of Miss Angeline Wettsteadt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William A. Wettsteadt of Forest Park, Illinois, to Mr. James R. Dalrymple, '27, on the morning of January 8th. The young couple made their marriage vows at St. Bernadine's Church, Forest Park, Illinois, the Rev. Otto Nablitz officiating.

The marriage was kept secret until Jimmy's departure for Reading, Pennsylvania where he is connected with the Reading Baseball Association. The announcement of Jimmy's marriage comes as a great surprise to his friends at Viator. He has the distinction of being the first member of his class to join the ancient and venerable order of Benedict. He was one of the most successful athletes to grace the Viator campus during the past decade. Besides being a three-letter man he was a student of no mean quality. During his last year at college he was elected to the presidency of the Viator College Club, and much of the progress of that organization may be attributed to his administration.

The student body of St. Viator congratulates Mrs. Dalrymple on her husband and wishes them both happiness and prosperity in their new life.

FATHER BURNS NOTABLY HONORED

Long Years of Service Happily Rewarded

Rev. A. J. Burns, S. T. L., '84, rector of St. Mary's Church, Sterling, Illinois, has been selected to succeed the Rt. Rev. Msgr. C. Kalvelage as Vicar-General of the Diocese of Rockford, Illinois. The appointment was announced by the Rt. Rev. E. F. Hoban, D. D., Bishop of Rockford, last June.

The Rev. Andrew J. Burns was born July 12, 1870. He studied at St. Viator, St. Mary's, Baltimore and the Catholic University. He was ordained for the Diocese of Chicago December 17, 1898, by His Eminence, Cardinal Gibbons. He has been the pastor of St. Mary's Church in Sterling since 1909. Previous to this he was in charge of the parishes of Oregon and Polo.

To Father Burns belongs the credit of having built the present parochial school and community high, which are the pride not only of Sterling, but of the Rockford Diocese.

During his long term of service in guiding the spiritual destinies of the people of Sterling, Father Burns has been an exemplary and beloved pastor. His very evident success in building up his church property is due first of all, to his own remarkable efforts and in not a less degree to the splendid example of generosity which he himself set to his people.

For one thing in particular is he widely noted, namely, the organization of the Sterling Benson Club. The membership of this club now numbers over two hundred converts from the two parishes of the city.

In response to a recent congratulatory note sent to Father Burns by Rev. J. W. R. Maguire, President of St. Viator College, a highly interesting and pleasing letter was received. The following quotation from that missive demonstrates the love and regard which Rev. Burns holds for his Alma Mater: "To no other institution do I owe so much as to St. Viator and no body of men exact more esteem from me than the religious of your community."

VIATORIANA

Gone are those days—?

Perhaps the most talked of question today, with the possible exception of the presidential election, is "where are those vacation days gone to"? Notwithstanding all our feeble efforts to hold off time and tide, here we are again. The summer has faded away and with the beginning of Indian summer everything looks colorful for a rosy school year.

Athletes and workers arrived early this year as usual and both seem to have sore legs and tired backs. The athletes in particular, the workers in general. But the athlete gets some compensation out of it. He has his cheering crowds after the games start, but the poor worker, who ever cheers him? Only the mops and brooms, and the only noise they make is on the floor. But anyway, here's to the athlete: he advertises the school, and here's to the worker who keeps the school as advertised.

Here goes for a hymn of hate. We have been waiting a long time to get this off our chest:

- A Guy I hate
- Is Melvin More.
- He's my roomie
- And does he snore.

Read the other day where Hank Ford said that the world needed more men fifty-five years of age. That's right, Hank, stick up for the old men. We'll be with you soon enough.

THE NEW HOUSE OF STUDIES

Viatorians Open House at Washington

A step forward in higher education has been taken by the Viatorians with the acquisition of a House of Studies in Washington, D. C. Here those students who are preparing for the priesthood will follow the regular seminary course in Theology. At the same time they will be afforded opportunity to continue their preparation for the teaching profession by being able to follow special higher subjects at the Catholic University of America. In the past, Scholastics who had finished their Philosophy continue their studies at the Sulpician Seminary affiliated with the Catholic University. Since this new Theologate is a few blocks from the university campus it will offer equal convenience.

Father McCormick, Superior

Under the capable direction of Rev. T. J. McCormick, c. s. v., the new foundation begins its development. That he will be successful in this endeavor is warranted by his fine achievement in the founding of the active and promising parishes of St. Viator and St. Edward in Chicago. During the past few years, Father McCormick, as Provincial Procurator has administered the Province's finances.

CATHOLIC CONFERENCE IN ST. LOUIS

St. Viator Sends Representative

The Catholic Students' Spiritual Leadership Convention, held at St. Louis University, St. Louis, Missouri, on August 17, 18, 19 and 20 under the auspices of the Sodality of Our Lady, a world-wide organization, was an unique event, inasmuch as it was the first of its kind ever held in America.

The Convention was attended by approximately fifteen hundred delegates, representing every Catholic College and University in America, and many high schools. J. Allen Nolan was the delegate from St. Viator.

Despite the torrid St. Louis summer, great enthusiasm was demonstrated by the students in attendance who conducted the discussions and virtually did all the talking. Their energies directed in carrying out the programs of the convention indicated the motto of the meeting: "Because We Want To."

Rev. Daniel A. Lord, S. J., editor of the Queen's Work and director of the Sodality of Our Lady acted as chairman of the convention. To him is undoubtedly due the honor that the assemblage brought to Our Lady.

Particular stress was laid on Catholic social action. Most of the Catholic educational institutions follow the same methods in working out their plans for spreading the faith. New ideas were given as to how this great work was accomplished in the different sections of the country.

Rev. Francis J. Finn, S. J., author of numerous juvenile novels, addressed the convention.

Rev. L. Querbes

BEATIFICATION OF FATHER QUERBES BEING SOUGHT

Founder of the Viatorian Order to be Recognized

Since the Canonization of its Founder is one of the greatest joys that can come to a religious Community, the Clerics of St. Viator have much at heart the Cause for the Beatification of Father Louis Querbes, Founder of the Institute. It is fitting that this project be brought to the attention of all friends of the Viatorians, especially their students and alumni, that they too may aid this Cause by their prayers. That the work is from God is shown by these words of Father F. M. Roberge, c. s. v., Superior General of the Clerics of Saint Viator: "The signal graces obtained in more than one of our houses by the intercession of our venerable Father Founder give us the firm conviction that the undertaking responds to the Will of God." Prayers should be offered for the success of the Cause, and private prayers should be addressed to Father Querbes himself asking for any favor of body or soul. Leaflets containing approved prayers both for the Cause and to Father Querbes will gladly be given to anyone at the Registrar's Office. Any favors received through the intercession of this holy man should be reported to the Superior of St. Bernard's Scholasticate, Bourbonnais. It is hoped that many will become interested in this Cause, and will work for its success by praying to God, the Blessed Virgin and St. Viator, so that soon Father Querbes will "figure in that glorious phalanx which the Church places on Altars."

Father Querbes was born of humble but saintly parents at Lyons, France on August 25, 1793 during the perilous days of the reign of terror and had the happiness of receiving baptism on the day of his birth. When a revolutionist bomb set fire to the house of the Querbes family, the mother barely saved her young child from a horrible death. Louis grew up under the vigilant eye of his mother and the parish priest, and was judged worthy to make his holy Communion at the age of eleven, which was early for those times. At the age of six he determined to consecrate himself to God by a vow of perpetual chastity, and a few months before receiving his Eucharistic Lord for the first time he made his vow, writing it out in the following form: "I, Louis Marie Joseph Querbes, make the vow of chastity for all my life. Lyons, October 10th, 1804." The original of this formula is still preserved in the Institute.

The Divine vocation to the priesthood early made itself felt in Father Querbes, and he also felt himself attracted toward the teaching of youth. Even before his ordination in 1816 he was director of a parochial school of St. Nizier in Lyons. His reputation for learning (he had taken his diploma of Bachelor of Letters before the faculty of Lyons at the age of nineteen), his profound piety and above all his indefatigable energy and zeal attracted pupils from different parishes of the city. Several years after his ordination he was appointed pastor of Vourles, a little distance south of Lyons, and here reformed a corrupt congregation by his popular sermons, by his catechetical instructions and by his own saintly example. It was the deplorable condition of morals at Vourles that suggested to Father Querbes that something had to be done to provide regular religious instruction for the children. At the foot of the Tabernacle he formed the resolve to undertake the Olympic task of providing religious instructors for the parochial schools of Vourles and the neighboring parishes.

At first there was no idea of vows or of a Religious Congregation, but Father Querbes was a man of insight into the future, and he no doubt realized that future schools, such as our own St. Viator College, would not have existence unless his association of teachers was founded upon that Rock that is the Church. Accordingly he determined to ask his teachers to take the three vows of religion, and all of them complied with his wish. Next followed a period of intense mental agony and anxiety while negotiations were carried on with State, Diocesan and Papal authorities for the approval of the new Community. But in a relatively short time, Our Holy Father Pope Gregory XVI issued the papal bull approving the community, and in a private interview with Father Querbes gave his personal blessing to the Institute with the words "Increase and Multiply."

The next few years were perhaps the hardest of Father Querbes' life, while the new community was suffering its birth throes. Through all his difficulties Father Querbes preserved a profound faith in Divine Providence, a faith which was always rewarded. One day when he was about to send his novices home, due to a total lack of money, he prayed God to aid him, and the next morning he found in his mail box four 1,000 franc notes. This is but one instance of the care Divine Providence took of Father Querbes and his new community.

For twenty-three years Father Querbes governed his community with rare prudence and sympathy, and literally wore himself out with labor for the Lord. He died after a long and wasting illness on September 1, 1859, leaving to his community as his last legacy the words "My children, be faithful to obedience." In May 1909 his remains were exhumed and certified in presence of representatives of Church and State. On this occasion La Croix, a Paris newspaper, says of the holy founder: "There was in Father Querbes, side by side with a beautiful intelligence and a wonderful variety of talent, a remarkable educator, a priest burning with ardent zeal, a heart and virtues praised to this day by all who have had the happiness of knowing him."

Viatorians Work For The Beatification of Founder, Fr. Querbes

The Viatorians, both in America and abroad, are at present working for the Beatification of their holy founder, Father Louis Querbes, who died in the odor of Sanctity in 1859. His Eminence Cardinal Mundelein has approved of two prayers for the Cause of the Beatification and recently there has come from the Motherhouse in Belgium a prayer to Father Querbes, to be recited privately. Leaflets containing these prayers will cheerfully be sent to anyone addressing the Superior of Saint Bernard's Scholasticate, Bourbonnais, Illinois. Attestations of favors received through the Intercession of Father Querbes should be sent to the same address.

the same as you would look for a man's name in a telephone directory, and find out just what and how many books we have dealing with this fascinating country. If you already know the author of some particular work you wish to read you can find his name. If you remember only the title you may look for it.

We have been and are terribly busy. Yet, when things are in a little better shape (which heaven knows we hope will be soon) we beg you to come in and examine the catalog and to ask questions about anything you don't understand. We want you to understand how it works, because if you don't you cannot use it successfully. And if you don't our labor is in vain.

All But Three Veterans Return
For Early Practice

For the past week the aspirants for the Viator football team have been working out under the tutelage of Coach MacAllister. Indications point to a good team. Viator suffered the loss of many of its stars both by graduation and inelegibility. In spite of the absence of past luminaries a number of veterans reported, around which the Green Mentor will build his team. O'Malley, center; Herbert, guard; Hoog, guard; and Meis and Furlong, ends will form the nucleus of the 1928 forward wall. In the backfield, Evard, quarterback; Delaney, fullback; Laenhardt, half; and Todd and Clothier, halves, also return. Last fall Todd and Laenhardt shared the kicking duties and the weight of the passing burden fell on Delaney. Clothier gave great promise as an open-field runner while Evard was one of the outstanding men of the Conference. Several veterans are yet to report and soon the lid will be raised and the real battle for positions will begin. Numerous new men of unknown quantity are on deck and it looks like the Viator squad of '28 will be as good as any of the past.

Football Schedule

Marquette—Sept. 29, away.
Ill. Normal—Oct. 20, away.
Bradley—Oct. 27, away.
Charleston Normal—Nov. 3, home.

A New Song For St. Viator

John F. McCann, Jr., a former member of the present Senior Class, has submitted a new song to the college. "Mac" hails from Ypsilanti, Michigan and always bore the name of "Ypsi" while at school. But here's the song!
Go you Viators, we're for you
Just so long as skies are blue.
Go on to victory for dear old SVC
Rah! Rah! Rah!
Show that we are always there
With the teams that always dare,
To fight with all their might
For dear old SVC.
The song has been placed in the hands of Professor Les Roch and will be presented in musical form at the first football rally.

FOUR YOUNG MEN PRONOUNCE VOWS AT BOURBONNAIS

Religious Profession of Clerics of St. Viator Concluded the Annual Retreat

The Annual Retreat of the Clerics of Saint Viator, held at Saint Viator College, Bourbonnais, Illinois, was brought to an impressive close Saturday morning, August 11, by the Ceremony of the Pronouncing of Vows. Brother James P. Fitzgerald, c. s. v., of Chicago renewed his temporary vows for a period of three years. Father John B. Bradac, c. s. v., of Kansas City, Missouri, Brothers Joseph L. Drolet of Bourbonnais, Illinois, James F. Meara of Decatur, Illinois, and John J. Tobin of Oaks, North Dakota, pronounced their perpetual vows, and received the gold ring signifying their lasting union with God and their Community by the Holy Vows of Religion. The ceremony included High Mass, the chanting of the Litany of the Saints, Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament, Consecration to the Sacred Heart, a solemn procession, and the singing of that ancient Act of Thanksgiving, the Te Deum.

The Very Rev. J. V. Rheams, c. s. v., Acting Provincial, received the vows, assisted by the Very Rev. J. W. R. Maguire, c. s. v., President of St. Viator College and the Rev. F. E. Munsch, Director of St. Bernard's Scholasticate, Bourbonnais. The Rev. Father Cyril, O. F., of Cincinnati, who has been conducting the annual retreat, spoke briefly at the ceremony on the privileges a religious secures by binding himself to the Throne of God by the Golden Chain of Poverty, Chastity and Obedience. Following the ceremony, breakfast was served in the Saint Viator College Refectory to the parents and friends of the newly professed.

COLLEGE FACULTY ENJOY PICNIC IN THE WOODS

The Affair a Success Despite Showers

"Dulce est dissipere in loco" and taking Horace at his word the College faculty moved via automobiles to Rock Creek, a delightful spot some ten miles north of the College, on August the twenty-second. The day seemingly was made for a picnic, and the entire morning was spent in the full sunshine. The principal feature of the morning was an indoor game staged between members of the College faculty and Saint Bernard Hall. Youth and skill prevailed over age and more or less supple joints, and the Scholastics of Saint Bernard won. Everybody was unanimous in pronouncing the next number a triumph. It began at twelve o'clock and lasted beyond one o'clock and when it was over everyone felt like Bacon's "reading man". The crowd became rather inactive for an hour or so, as each went off to take a little siesta under the shady trees. They were awakened by loud thunderclaps and a torrential downfall of rain with no shelter in sight. From then on the picnic consisted in dodging intermittent showers. But it is hard to kill a holiday spirit, and so despite the untoward elements a very enjoyable afternoon and evening was spent by all. While all were anxious to return home, all admitted that the Faculty picnic was a success.

ACADEMY MEN HARD AT WORK UNDER COACH BARRETT

Daily Workout of the Candidates Shows Marked
Improvements

Coach William Barrett has had his Academy grid aspirants out on the turf during the past week. The process of limbering up those muscles which were forced to remain idle during the summer months is rapidly progressing. Sore feet, aching muscles, and tired bodies are gradually being replaced, through strenuous training by more fit, more capable gridiron prospects.

A large number of last year's men are back. Among them are such veterans as Darner, Taylor, Doyle, Bosquette, Cinquina, Paris, Pombert, Brouillette, Hodge, and Gallagher.

Quite a number of the new boys have made a favorable impression on the casual bystander and some of them will probably be decorating regular berths on the team before the season is over. Although it is early in the season for predictions, it is safe to prophesy a season of more than average success to Coach Barrett and his men.

The schedule:

Sept. 29—St. Ignatius, here.
Oct. 6—St. Mary's, Bloomington.
Oct. 12—St. Thomas, Rockford.
Oct. 20—Westville, there.
Oct. 27—Open.
Nov. 3—Catholic Central, Hammond
Nov. 10—Pontiac, (tentative).
Nov. 17—St. Bede's, here.

Lottinville Undergoes Minor Operation

Mr. Armand J. Lottinville of the class of '30, recently underwent an operation for the removal of tonsils and adenoids at St. Mary's Hospital in Kankakee. The latest report has it that Armand is improving rapidly. The staff, expressing the sentiments of the student body, hopes that he will be sufficiently recovered to matriculate with his classmates and to take up his studies with his customary avidity. During the past summer Armand was employed as a member of the library staff in reconditioning the library and its contents.

Interesting Wedding Occurs During Summer Months

An early summer wedding of great interest to both students and alumni of St. Viator was that in which Miss Mary Frances Simonich, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Simonich, Joliet, Illinois and for many years college nurse, became the bride of Professor Clarence J. Kennedy of Rochester, N. Y., professor of Biology at St. Viator and former resident secretary of the St. Viator College Alumni Association.

The wedding ceremony was performed at St. Raymond's Church, Joliet, by the Rev. F. E. Scanlon, assisted by the Revs. T. J. Rice, c. s. v., F. E. Munsch, c. s. v., A. J. Landroche, c. s. v., and L. T. Phillips, c. s. v. Attending the couple were Miss Ann Simonich and Anthony Simonich, sister and brother of the bride.

Following the colorful ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride. Mr. and Mrs. Kennedy motored to Niagara Falls and spent their honeymoon in the East. They returned to school to take up their respective duties September 10th. The Viatorian Staff of St. Viator in wishing Mr. and Mrs. Kennedy a blessed and happy wedded life.
