

MONOGRAM DANCE VERY SUCCESSFUL

Carney, Toohill and Romary Perfect Hosts At a Perfect Dance.

Students of St. Viator and their friends, guests of the Monogram Club, spent a very pleasant three hours dancing to the music of Dale Miller and his orchestra on the evening of April 29th.

This dance was the first social undertaking of our "letter" men this year. Though it was not as great a success from the standpoint of financing this spring's baseball team as it was expected and desired to be, it was certainly a success in providing a pleasant evening's entertainment for those in attendance.

Dale Miller Given Ovation.

Dale Miller received a great ovation from those who are now his "fans". A number of the students consider his orchestra one of the best of those who have played for college dances during the year. He comes from Bloomington, and that fact alone means that he is assured of a responsive audience. Our Bloomington friends may be justly proud that their city can boast such an excellent orchestra, and the Monogram Club is to be congratulated upon their wisdom in selecting it. Mr. Miller will soon have the established prestige of a tradition or institution, because of his numerous appearances at Viator. We know that authorities in charge of dances for the coming year will not fail to consider such a good "bet" as he undoubtedly is.

"REVISE TARIFFS": DOCTOR ELLIS

Noted History Teacher Points Out Need For Revision.

The final meeting of the International Relations Club for the current year was called to order Monday evening, April 26, by Robert Nolan, president of the organization. Frank Wirken was honorary chairman for the evening. Dr. John Tracy Ellis was introduced as the speaker for the evening by the chairman.

Speaker Stresses Need of Tariff Revision.

Dr. Ellis, speaking in his delightfully informal manner, traced present economic conditions and the failure of various peace movements to a need for revision of the tariff. He declared that a satisfactory changing of these laws would insure greater economic stability and would pave the way for eventual world disarmament and subsequent world peace. He urged that France relinquish its hold on the valuable Ruhr Valley district and thereby give Germany a "fighting chance" to stave off disaster.

Open Forum Held.

At the close of Doctor Ellis' brief talk, a lively open forum brought forth possible objections to the substance of the plan proposed by Dr. Ellis. The Doctor's supporters, however, were sufficiently strong in their

JOHN TRACY ELLIS, PH. D.

John Tracy Ellis, Ph. D., alumnus of St. Viator College, has announced to his friends and students that he will not be seen on the campus of St. Viator next fall. Professor Ellis has not stated what his address will be next year. The students and faculty of the college take this opportunity of expressing their deepest regret at his departure and of wishing him all possible success.

HISTORY PROF WILL NOT RETURN

John Tracy Ellis Will Not Instruct Next Year.

Dr. Ellis, who founded the International Relations Club at St. Viator College will not return to the College next fall. His absence will be felt within the club, which is greatly indebted to him for its highly interesting and instructive meeting. On his own initiative, and in spite of direful prophecies, Dr. Ellis undertook the foundation of this club which, under his direction, has become the largest in the country relative to the enrollment of the school. Members of the organization regard the dinner which the club is sponsoring at the Hotel Kankakee as an impromptu "farewell banquet" in honor of their greatly esteemed teacher.

Lectures At U. of I.

During the past week Dr. Ellis delivered an instructive lecture to graduates and under-graduate students of the University of Illinois. The topic on which the professor spoke was "Anti Papal Legislation" in which discussion the speaker traced the origin of this so-called legalized method of refusing to recognize the authority of the Pope on certain questions.

NOTED VIATORIAN PASSES AWAY

The Reverend William J.
Stephenson, C. S. V., Succumbs at Columbus Hospital, Chicago.

Rev. W. J. Stephenson, C. S. V., for many years a member of the faculty of St. Viator college, died early Monday morning, April 25, at Columbus hospital in Chicago. Father Stephenson had been taken to the hospital the week before for an operation and his condition was too weak to rally.

Rev. W. J. Stephenson was born April 20, 1875, in Devonport county, Devon, England. He was brought to the United States at an early age and educated in American schools. He entered the novitiate of the Viatorian order on August 18, 1905, and St. Viator college the following year, graduating with his A. B. degree with the class of 1910. He received his A. M. in 1912, and continuing his religious life received tonsure on October 13, 1915. He was ordained to the priesthood on October 16, 1915.

At the entrance of the United States into the world war Father Stephenson, a veteran of the Spanish-American war, volunteered and was stationed at Camp Custer, Michigan. He was transferred to Camp Green at Charlotte, N. C., and finally to Camp Wadsworth, S. C. After a short stay at the last camp he was assigned to service overseas and served in France until the conclusion of the war.

He was discharged from the army on September 13, 1919, and returned to his duties at St. Viator. Here he was appointed dean of discipline and became a member of the English department. He served on the faculty of the college until recent years when he was called for duty elsewhere. He had a most distinguished record as an educator, both at St. Viator college and at Columbus college, Chamberlin, S. D. He was the third president of the latter institution, and became one of its most capable directors.

The funeral services were held at 10:30 o'clock Wednesday morning from Maternity church, Bourbonnais, and interment was in the community plot.

REV. BRO. E. M. WALSH

Reverend Brother E. M. Walsh graduate of St. Viator Academy and College, has during the past school year acted as faculty adviser of The Viatorian. We take this chance to offer to Brother Walsh our most sincere appreciation of his invaluable assistance. The Jubilee Number of The Viatorian, executed as he conceived it, will ever be a lasting tribute to his genius.

BROTHER WALSH JUDGES CONTESTS

Brother E. M. Walsh, of St. Viator College, during the past few weeks has been actively engaged in the promotion of the state-wide essay and oratorical contests. In this activity Brother Walsh has been accompanied by several members of the Viator faculty. The director of publicity in charge of the contest, Ralph Edson Hoover, takes this opportunity to express his gratitude for the assistance of Brother Walsh and his cohorts.

The duties of the Brother and the other members consisted in making trips to the various schools entered in the contest sponsored by St. Viator for the purpose of helping the local judges determine the merits of the numerous speakers entered in the preliminaries held throughout the state.

The close of the current school year rings down the curtain on another of the varied activities of Brother Walsh, namely, his post as adviser of The Viatorian. In this capacity, Brother Walsh has won the esteem of the entire student body for the broad-minded manner in which he has acted.

RILEY SECURES COVETED POST

Chosen Head Viator College Club.

William J. Riley, Chicago, president of the sophomore class of St. Viator college, was elevated to the position of president of the College club by the elections held Monday afternoon. Riley saw his entire idealist ticket sweep to victory as the democratic party, headed by Ralph Hoover, went down in decisive defeat. Riley polled a total of 72 votes to beat Hoover, who gathered 51 ballots.

The elections came as the conclusion of a hot campaign conducted throughout the past week by both parties. Organized groups solicited votes for both parties, while rallies, posted statements and stump speeches kept interest at fever heat. Riley held a rally on Saturday night in which he outlined his platform calling for increased social activities. Hoover, on the other hand, had posted a platform of ten planks, agitating for a greater measure of student self-government.

James P. Laffey, Chicago, was opposed for vice-president, and secured 113 complimentary votes for the position. Patrick Fullam, Fort Wayne, won a close contest from Edward Gorman of Manteno for the secretaryship, while Robert Nolan carried the treasurer's position over Ralph Karr of Clinton. While Hoover ran as an independent, Gorman and Karr were generally conceded to be of Hoover's ticket and Fullam and Nolan were avowedly idealistic in political sentiment.

STUDENTS HONOR MOTHER'S DAY

HOLY COMMUNION RE-CEIVED BY ENTIRE STUDENT BODY

Sunday, May 8, was a dual feast at St. Viator College. As the second Sunday of the month, it was the day on which every member of the student body received Holy Communion and, as Mother's Day, it was celebrated by the offering of this holy sacrament for the intention of their Mothers.

Immediately after the reception of Mass and Holy Communion, numbers of the student body left for their homes that they might spend the day with their parents. In spite of the fact that the distances to many of their homes are very long, the Viator "bumming" spirit upheld the gentlemen on their long trips.

On this day, also, the college was host to many friends and relatives of scholars of the institution.

COMMENCEMENT DAY JUNE 6.

It has been officially announced that the Commencement Day Exercises of St. Viator College will be held Monday, June 6. The Commencement Day address will be delivered by the Very Reverend James V. Shannon, Pastor Emeritus of Saint Mary's Cathedral, Peoria, Illinois.

ORATORICAL CONTEST CONCLUDED MAY 5th

Very Reverend J. W. R. Maguire, C. S. V. Makes Awards

TOOHILL AND MONOHAN WELCOME VISITORS

The first of the annual Illinois Catholic High School Oratorical Contests came to a successful close on rooms of St. Viator College. An exceptionally large number of entrants in Oratory forced a preliminary at two o'clock in the afternoon, which preliminary cut the field in the finals of this Contest to St. Mary, Carlyle, St. George, Evanston, and DePaul, Chicago.

St. George, Evanston, Takes Honors.

St. George High of Evanston carried home the lion's share of the honors, by taking first place in Oratory and Extemporaneous Speaking and second place in Reading. De La Salle of Joliet shared smaller honors with St. George by winning the Reading Contest.

Hochstetter and Mahoney Win and Place.

The Oratorical Contest, first of the evening, was won by Bernard Hochstetter of St. George, with his oration, "A Crusader for Ideals—Woodrow Wilson." James Mahoney of Loop High, Chicago, was second with

WE LOSE A FRIEND

It is with a feeling of sincere regret that we note that Mount Morris College will not re-open next September because of financial difficulties. Its students and (INDIANA), a sister school of the Church of the Brethren, or DUNKARDS. Its buildings will pass into the hands of a Chicago biblical society. The Association of Illinois Colleges will suffer by her withdrawal.

Our relations with Mount Morris have been principally in the field of debating, and we will always have a high regard for those who represented her on the forensic platform. The greatest tribute that we can pay them is to say that they were gentlemen and scholars; while their professors, with whom we have had occasion to deal, were most cordial and friendly to us.

The closing of Mount Morris again brings to our consideration that peculiar situation which exists to-day, when state and well endowed colleges and universities are constantly receiving more gifts, while at the same time the smaller colleges, which comprise the very foundation of the American educational system, are left to struggle and die. It may be that men of great wealth do not realize the good which the small colleges have done and continue to do. Perhaps they, approving of mass methods in education as well as in production, are unable to recognize the value of the small institution.

Millions of dollars are spent annually on transitory pleasures and great sums are left for the care of aged horses and for homeless dogs and cats. It is to be regretted that at least a portion of these funds is not diverted into the depleted treasuries of those, the small colleges, who could and would accomplish something lasting with it. Evidently there is something radically wrong with a generation that can afford to subscribe to every conceivable sort of campaign, except to those for the continuance of schools of higher learning.

Nowadays, the small colleges are compelled by standardizing agencies, and by the demands of the time, to follow the perilous pace set by state and other large uni-

CO-EDS GO ON WILD BLOWOUT

College in Uproar as Result of Sensational Disclosures Concerning Sorority Party.

St. Viator College was this week in an uproar as the result of disclosures made concerning the conduct of the members of the Social Sorority at their latest meeting. Heralded as "just a party for we girls," the affair is rapidly assuming proportions of an orgy, and clouds of official investigation are looming on the campus horizon.

Miss Adams Is Hostess.

The party was held on the evening of May ninth at the home of Miss Genevieve Adams, and was limited strictly to the girls. Miss Marie (Woodenshoes) Smole has had the finger of suspicion pointed at her as a co-hostess for the blowout. Miss Smole's previous record is said to weigh heavily against her, although Campus opinion seems to hold that this may have been but a single last slip before she takes finally to the beautiful but thorny road of righteousness.

Charged With Playing Bridge.

The heaviest charge of the evening is that the Sorority attempted bridge. Considering the present status of the game on the Viator campus, such a thing amounts to virtual sacrilege, and resident students are said to be talking—in the dark fastnesses of Roy Hall—of lynching and boiling pots of tar.

At any rate, the Sorority played what it calls bridge, and whether or not the co-ed game is sacrilegious or not is highly debatable, in view of the fact that the central point of interest in their playing is the quality of the gossip delivered as the cards are dropped and the final score is said to be computed from the number of "Tee-hee" as sounded over misplayed tricks. It is a set offense to play a hand in less than thirty minutes, and single games have been known to last from three to four hours.

Prizes Awarded.

To get on with the story, however, Miss Rita Murphy had the foresight to bring her blackjack to the party, so she was awarded first prize, a beautifully ruffled, or pleated, or hemstitched, or whatever they call it, handkerchief. Some argument is said to have ensued over the second prize, but Frances Mary Clancy's hair held out longer than any one else's, so she drew a mystic picture from the grab-bag.

Rosann Gorman was suspected of foreknowledge of the booby prize, for when it was awarded, it was discovered to be a bridal pair—and the groom had wavy hair. Rosann denied the charge vigorously, stating in defense that her thoughts were elsewhere than at the party and on bridge.

Refreshments Served.

A slight mistake was made by the joint hostesses in their refreshments, for Angel Food cake turned up as the principal ingredient. All obvious cracks will be omitted. When the drinks were served, however, it was definitely discovered that those two Prohibition votes must have been the work of the entire Sorority.

We wish to add the censure of The Viatorian to such indecent revelations, and assure the general public that all St. Viator College is not so immoral. Our particular ire falls upon the head of Miss Rascal Roach, President of the Sorority, and we hope that the Council will take immediate action on her case in order that possible future orgies of this nature may not cast their blot upon the alabaster letters of the name of St. Viator.

STATE ASSEMBLY PAYS RESPECT TO DECEASED PRIEST

A rare tribute accorded to a member of the clergy by the Illinois house of representatives is contained in a resolution adopted by that body at its session in Springfield yesterday was a tribute to the Rev. William J. Stephenson of Chicago, graduate and former faculty member of St. Viator college.

Father Stephenson died several days ago and was buried in the college cemetery at Bourbonnais. The resolution adopted by the house of representatives contains the following wording:

"Whereas, Father Stephenson had a unique record among the sons of Illinois as a soldier, priest and citizen having served his country as a boy during the war with Spain and in middle life having again served his country in the American Expeditionary Forces of the United States army during the World War and at the time of his death was chaplain of Adertiny post of the American Legion.

"And whereas he devoted a lifetime to the training and education of the youth of Illinois and was a zealous priest of his church; therefore be it

"Resolved, by the house of representatives of the 57th general assembly of the state of Illinois, assembled in special session at Springfield, that we deplore the loss of this useful and eminent citizen of this state, that we sympathize with his family and with the religious community which he served so loyally and zealously; and be it further

"Resolved, that as a mark of respect to his memory the house do now adjourn and that a copy of this resolution be forwarded to the bereaved family and to the president of St. Viator college."

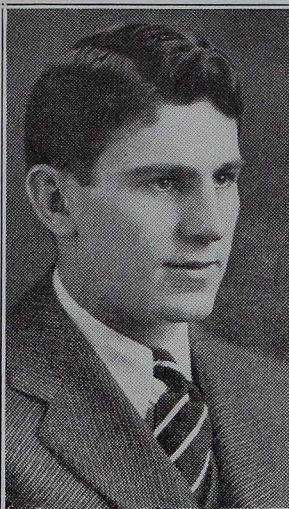

MEMORIAL DAY SERVICES, MAY 30

The customary Memorial Day services will be held on the College grounds—throughout the day of May 30. Mass will be said in the morning for the repose of the souls of the soldier dead of the institution. Following this, wreaths will be placed on the crosses erected in memory of the soldier dead of St. Viator College. The Kankakee Drum and Bugle Corps will assist in the observance of this solemn anniversary.

Mr. Joseph Torri and Miss Frances M. Clancy, senior students, will deliver orations in accord with the occasion. The Very Reverend J. W. Maguire, president of St. Viator College, will give the feature address of the afternoon's program.

Jarlath W. Watson, 29, visited St. Viator College during the past week.

WILLIAM J. RILEY

President-Elect of St. Viator College Club

Word has been received that Thomas M. McGlynn, '21, was ordained priest in the Order of Preachers on May 20, 1932. Father McGlynn celebrated his first Solemn High Mass May 22, 1932, in St. Malachy's Church, New York City, New York.

RADIO DEBATE ENDS IN DRAW

On April 30 Saint Viator College opposed a formidable foe, DePaul University, in a radio debate broadcast over station WLS of Chicago, Illinois. The radio audience was the judge of this debate and the result, announced over the station a week later, was a draw. This decision resulted from the fact that an equal number of ballots had been cast for the members of each team.

The subject: Resolved: that Congress should enact legislation for the guarantee of bank deposits, was debated on the affirmative by Messrs. Kenneth H. Lemmer and Clarence F. McCarthy of DePaul, and for the negative Ralph E. Hoover and Gill Middleton, both seasoned in forensics.

President Will Speak at Commencement Exercises.

The Very Reverend J. W. R. Maguire, C. S. V., president of St. Viator College, will address the graduating class of St. Theresa College of Winona, Minnesota, on Sunday, June fifth. Of late Father Maguire has been diligently promoting, via the radio, a plan which would enable the nations of the world to go off the gold standard by the adoption of a plan providing for the control of the production of commodities.

F. M. CLANCY TO TEACH AT ASHKUM

It has been announced that Miss High School. Miss Clancy is a graduate with this year's class, has been selected to teach at the Ashkum Highschool. Miss Clancy is a graduate of St. Patrick's High School of Kankakee, Illinois, and throughout her four years of attendance at St. Viator College she has ranked among the highest in her class. In her Sophomore, as well as in her Junior, year Miss Clancy has been awarded first prize in the annual English Essay Contest sponsored by St. Viator College. In addition to this remarkable achievement, Miss Clancy has always maintained an average grade of "B" in all studies.

The young lady has been very prominent in all the social activities at the College and it was a source of great pleasure to her friends to learn that her merit has secured ready recognition.

Robert J. Hilliard, St. Viator alumnus, and formerly General Counsel of Krenn and Dato, Incorporated, announces the opening of offices at 111 West Washington Street, Chicago, Illinois, where he will engage in the general practice of Law.

The Very Reverend Fulton J. Sheen, '09, D. D., LL. D., S. T. D., spoke at Peoria last Sunday, May 8, at the first annual Diocesan Orphanage day.

versities; consequently, every available dollar has to be spent to keep up with the sometimes absurd requirements and their added expenditures. The resulting difficulties are inevitable without financial aid.

The time for a decided change has come. Already one of the victims of the present system, situated in this very State of Illinois, has admitted the utter impossibility of continuing. Either the small colleges must have a helping hand extended to them and must be given a much higher valuation, or else their empty and deserted buildings must stand forever as monuments to a people who have blinded themselves to educational ideals.

We only hope that Mount Morris may find some benefactor before she is forced to abide completely by the decision into which adverse circumstances have forced her. If such assistance is not forthcoming, we also must mourn her demise.

Walter Snitchell Column

Well, folks, the College Club elections are over and the Ideal Party is in office!—But it wasn't the fault of the Co-eds!—With only three exceptions, the Sorority voted for Mr. Hoover, the Misses Clancy and Miss Loretta Flannagan constituting the exceptions.

Miss Rosanna Gorman has very successfully stopped up the "key holes" giving access to her current activities,—so we delved into her past,—and learned that while at St. Mary's, Notre Dame, she was the toast of the "Irish," and that invariably she named the Mezzanine at the Hotel Oliver as a rendezvous for her "dates"—of which we are assured there were many!—Oh! Yes!—Red is the color of her favorite gowns.

We have just been regaled by the story of the time a student handed the Dean one of the Dean's own papers and received an inglorious "69" and the admonition "not to write on such a subject again."

There were rumors that Paul LaRocque and Bill Clancy who campaigned among the day students for Riely and Hoover respectively had engaged in fisticuffs in the cause of their candidates—both the principals earnestly deny the reports, Bill affirming that on said day at said hour he was escorting a certain Louisa about the suburbs of Kankakee (Oh! My! My!) while Paul most heartily avows his dislike of fisticuffs and states that he was rollerskating at same time and same hour among the Rosemaries of same town.

In all seriousness, we congratulate Ralph Hoover upon the graciousness with which he accepted his defeat for the College Club Presidency!

"Handsome" Jack McGrath is again wanted on the phone — We can't decide whether it's a blonde or brunette, but we would like to know to whom that sweet voice belongs: "Is Johnnie there?" Oh! Jaw!

Laughter, loud and long, rang out in Roy Hall when Ken Bushman and "Coot" Larkin were revealed as the participants in a "breeze session" with "Love" as its theme — the Dean's laughter will undoubtedly be provoked by any attempt to philosophize such a subject!

We hear that Bud O'Mara and Ken Corcoran sallied forth last week and took Chicago by storm. "Corky" wasn't so very much impressed by Chicago's greatness; in fact, that he didn't even have a chance to see the sly-line!—Those South Shore girls!

Jack Burns is still the happy recipient of mail from Hoopeston—a pencil sketch from that lovely "town" caused no little excitement in 217, and other places in Roy.

Riely's pastry continues to arrive with delightfully regularity—remember, Rip, "Everybody likes cake."

The column congratulates Mr. Riely upon his victory and wishes him the best o'luck in all his undertakings as president of the College Club of St. Viator.

Bloomington has been revealed as the home of social satellites. How well we know that! But now Gill Middleton has been "stepping out" lately and how that boy does step. Ever hear his philosophy?

Viator Defeats Wesleyan 5-2

TWO DEFEATS OPEN SEASON

Hillsdale and Michigan State Score Kellymen.

No Clearwater, no Hot Springs, no Catalina, so no early victories! That's the sad story of the Viator nine as they usher in the great American pastime with two defeats. Deprived of warm weather in which to loosen up before taking the road, the Irish were in no condition to play a game of ball although they did give a good account of themselves.

Weak Hitting.

The fact that both games were lost can be traced to weak hitting, especially in the pinches were the Saints inconsistent. The pitching was nobly done by "Lefty" Waldron and Frank "Speedball" Manns who went the full route and might have turned in victories had their mates connected with the apple. Both of these men are ready for a hard season and can be depended on to share the Saints' schedule between them.

Hillsdale Wins.

The first defeat was at Hillsdale with Lefty on the mound and our own Captain "Micky" Ahern behind the plate. "Micky" hasn't changed a bit since he first stepped behind the plate. He was full of pep and fight, handling the hurlers like a master and firing the ball around the bags in mid-season form. Waldron held the hosts to ten hits keeping them well scattered and allowing only two to walk. The Kellymen collected seven hits on which they squeezed in four runs.

Griffin Too Much.

At Michigan State the boys started off to avenge the first defeat by collecting three hits in the first inning and scoring one run. But the State pitcher, Griffin, settled down from then on, shutting out the Irish by striking out twelve men. Manns, allowing only nine hits, pitched a good game.

Among the newcomers on the Viator nine were Ralph Mancini at first, Pat O'Connor in right field, and Ken Westray in left field. Ralph and Pat are Freshmen and look like good material. Westray, a reserve from last year's squad, is a splendid outfielder. The remainder of the lineup for these two games was virtually the same as last year with Pete Laffey at short, Romary at third, Weber in center field, and Bill Hamilton a former outfielder, at second.

"RAIN! NO GAME!"

Old King Showers beat Viator out of another ball game when he halted the Viator-Normal game in the fifth at Normal Saturday. "Lefty" Waldron was well on his way to a shut-out, perhaps a no-hit game, for in four innings he had whipped ten Redbirds and the Viatorians were leading 5-0 when the deluge interrupted the contest.

DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS HIGHLY HONORED

A recent issue of the Daily Pantagraph of Bloomington contained a highly eulogistic article regarding the Reverend Father Kelly, C. S. V., director of athletics at St. Viator College. The writer traced the history of our eminent director and named outstanding baseball players produced by the mentor of this sport at this institution. Undue praise and recognition of Father Kelly's work is impossible. He has given unsparingly of his time and knowledge to the development of stars in the sport in which he was so prominent in his days as a student at St. Viator.

Father Lowney Gives Lecture On Einstein

Eminent Logician Baffles Class With Lucidity Of Explanation.

On May the Xth of the year PDQT, Father J. A. Lowney astounded his Ontology, Criteriology, and Epistemology classes with an amazingly lucid statement and explanation of the Einstein Theory of Relativity. As Father Lowney said, "E=mc²", and proceeding with the lecture developed his theory of the Einstein theory thus:

1/2 * 3/4 * 5/6 * 7/8 * 9/10 *
And 2/3 * 4/5 * 6/7 * 8/9 *
$ * % * ' * (*) *
$ * % * ' * (*) *

Mr. Carney says Boop-Boops-Doop.

And to the astonishment of the class, Mr. Carney arose and assisted the professor with his explanation which is quite lucid as you may judge for yourself: 1/4; 1/2; 3/4; 5/6; 7/8; 9/10; 1/10; 2/10; 3/10; COLLEGE CONTEST DECIDED MAY 12

Robert A. Nolan of Rockford Wins; Mary P. Cruise Second.

Idealism gained a victory of sorts in the finals of the College Oratorical contest held in the College Club Rooms Thursday, May twelfth. First place was awarded Robert A. Nolan and second place went to Miss Mary Cruise. The contest revealed a world of talent, particularly in the field of composition. Nolan the victor, was aided greatly by his debating experience which, together with his natural qualifications and a superbly written speech, placed him head and shoulders over the other contestants. Mr. Nolan who was the last of five speakers to take the platform, spoke on "Peace and the Papacy." He contended that world peace is not to be realized until all men recognize "Christ the King" in a universal religion.

The first speaker introduced by Chairman Ralph Hoover was Brother Richard Crowley who spoke on "Soldiers of Peace," in which, he pleaded in substance for an overthrow of Nationalism as a means toward Disarmament and ultimate world peace. The second speaker of the evening, Brother Timothy Kelly voiced a particularly convincing onslaught against modern devices of warfare. He called Disarmament a sacrifice, in so far as men would have to forego to make it lasting, such attributes of their nature as hate, avarice and greed. He declared that the world was more ready for Disarmament at present than at any previous time. Patrick Fullam, the third speaker, pleaded for construction of plan that would work in harmony with the Paris Peace Pact. His speech was entitled "The Price of Peace."

Miss Cruise, as the fourth speaker, entitled her speech "Why Disarm?"—and proceeded to show a thoroughly interested audience just why! Miss Cruise achieved by far the most ingenious and colorful speech from the point of thought and composition, in the contest. With a flawless form, she blended the highest recesses of her imagination with hard fact and turned out a truly fine piece of work. She branded the "Civis pacem, parum bellum" of Plato as a ridiculous admonition, insisting that armaments were incentives rather than preventives of war. The medal emblematic of his triumph will be presented Mr. Nolan during the Commencement Day exercises. The Viatorian extends Mr. Nolan and Miss Cruise its heartiest congratulations.

OHLHEISER IN INSURANCE GAME

George R. Ohlheiser, Academy '25, announce his entrance into the Insurance Business. Mr. Ohlheiser is a member of the firm of Critchell, Miller, Whitney and Barbour with offices located at 5352 Lakewood Avenue, Chicago, Illinois. In making connections with this firm, Mr. Ohlheiser has been very fortunate as the company has been incorporated for over half a century. Every conceivable form of life insurance as well as the ordinary automobile policy is handled by this company. Mr. Ohlheiser may be reached by phone at his offices; the number is Longbeach 4108.

Ever since Ed. Weber has been dating a certain blonde in Kankakee he has been developing a taste for the concertina—and, Ed,—have you forgotten Chicago, and Arvilla?

Rest, rest in peace! Christ's chosen one,
The tapestry of Life is spun—
Your weaving o'er, eternity begun!

No more the Cross of Christ to bear,
Nor heartaches, fears or worldly care,
Now Christ's fellowship you share!

Sweet be your rest! Sweet be your rest!

Peaceful, calm and undistressed—
Eternally among the blest!

Rest, rest in peace! Christ's chosen one!

The tapestry of Life is spun—
Your weaving o'er, your task well done!

his speech, "The Short Ballot as the Safeguard of Democracy," while Edward Zinschlag of St. Mary Central, Carlyle, carried off third honors with his oration on "The Necessity for Catholic Action."

St. George was again returned winner in the Extemporaneous Speech Contest when James Burke won with his talk, "The Importance of the Catholic Press." St. Mary High of Champaign was second in this contest.

Conkling State Champion in Reading.

Roger Conkling of De La Salle High of Joliet carried home the state championship in Reading for his work with "Spartacus to the Gladiators." George Bregenzer of St. George was second, and John Schaffenecker of St. Michael High, Chicago, was third.

Awards Made by President.

The three winners in the Contests were presented with gold medals, emblematic of the state championship, and scholarships to St. Viator at a supper served by the College Club following the completion of the Contests. Martin Toohill, President of the College Club, acted as toastmaster and introduced J. Burke Monahan, President of the Senior Class, who welcomed the visitors in the name of the student body. James Burke, Extemporaneous Speech champion, replied for the Contestants. The medals and diplomas were distributed by the Very Rev. J. W. Maguire, C. S. V., President of St. Viator College. Father Maguire spoke briefly concerning the duties of a college towards the high schools, and paid high tribute to Mr. Edward Gallahue of the St. Viator staff, for his originality in suggesting the idea and his success in carrying it through to completion.

Large Numbers In Contest.

The interest taken by the schools in the Contest was well reflected in the number of guests entertained by the College on the day of the final contests. St. Mary Central of Carlyle sent its entire Senior class to witness the finals, and unexpectedly large representations were present from the other high schools entered. With the success of such contests assured by the reception accorded the meets of this year, it is the intention of St. Viator College to expand its contests to an even larger scale for next year.

Fete Laffey, whose candidacy for the vice-presidency was uncontested, was highly indignant when he learned that he received only 113 votes for the 122 cast. Better luck next time, Pete.

with a color scheme of green and their dance. However, not content white—in addition to purple and gold for the glory of "alma mater"—they added more gold, almost a brilliant orange, as well as red and green. The result was daring, to say the least. Perhaps, only a group of powerful young athletes with a magnificent disregard of timid conventionalism would attempt it. It produced a quite modernistic effect. But those dancing were as sedate as though in attendance at a mid-Victorian dancing party under the vigilant eye of the dear old lady herself. It may be irrelevant, but interesting, nevertheless, to remark that Lytton Strachey says the good queen, in her youth, was very fond of dancing as well as of riding. All of which is far afield from the decoration. In passing (a remark, by the way, often used by our instructors as a preliminary to launching upon a lengthy dissertation) we may give an humble word of advice to the effect that violet hued materials are best handled when kept far, far away from those which are emerald or crimson.

James Carney In Charge.

Professors Crawford and Cook were in attendance. The dance was under the direction of the Manager of Athletics, Mr. James Carney, a member of the Monogram Club. A goodly number of the students attended and many friends from Kankakee and other more distant cities.

Mr. Carney was ably assisted by Clarence Romary, a most distinguished member of the Monogram Club, and by Martin Toohill, president of the College Club as well as a member of the letter men's association.

arguments to defeat the opposition and to make them "see light."

Dinner To Be Given By Club.

As the forum closed Robert Nolan, president of the club, announced that the International Relations Club would sponsor a dinner to be given at the Hotel Kankakee, May 16. A committee, consisting of Edward Hunt, chairman, Robert Delaney and William Riley was appointed to make the necessary arrangements. The committee, incidentally, has since reported that an excellent menu has been arranged and, also, that a large attendance is expected.

Noted Speakers To Be Present.

Present at the dinner will be Professor Jerome G. Kerwin, Ph. D., a member of the Department of Political Science at Chicago University, and Mrs. George E. Brennan, wife of the former Democratic National Committeeman from Illinois. These prominent speakers will address the gathering on contemporary political problems.

Big Bourbonnais Class Confirmed

The Rt. Rev. Bernard J. Shell, auxiliary bishop of Chicago, administered the sacrament of confirmation to a class of about 100 children and adults in the Maternity church at Bourbonnais last evening. About 18 members of the confirmation class were from St. James parish of Irwin.

After the confirmation, Bishop Shell delivered an eloquent sermon on the significance of confirmation and also gave the benediction. The bishop was assisted by Father O'Connor of Chicago, Rev. William Granger of Irwin, Rev. F. E. Munsch of St. Viator college and Rev. W. J. Surprenant, pastor of Maternity church.
