

DR. J. T. SHANNON OF QUIGLEY PREP TO LECTURE HERE

Relation Club To Hear Theologian
Discuss: "Our New Civilization"
On Next Thursday, Mar. 22.

The speaker whom Rev. Dr. Cardinal has engaged for the next meeting of the International Relations Club, is Rev. Fr. James T. Shannon, S. T. D., of Quigley Preparatory Seminary in Chicago. The tentative date is Thursday, March 22 at 8:00 p. m. in the College Club room. The day of the meeting has been changed from Wednesday to Thursday.

The subject which Rev. Dr. Shannon has chosen is one which should be of interest to everyone, and especially to the College students. His topic is: "Our New Civilization". Doctor Shannon is well acquainted with his subject by reason of his extensive travels and long studies. He has studied in Rome and during his sojourn in Rome, he and Doctor Cardinal became acquainted. Doctor Shannon is regarded as one of the most eminent scholars of the day, and one of the most brilliant speakers in the Diocese of Chicago.

In Review

The I. R. C. has been most active this year. At the beginning of the scholastic year, Norbert Ellis was elected president and John Burns, secretary. At the first meeting, Dr. Cardinal delivered the lecture. He gave his personal views on a vital question, namely: "Will there be another world war?" At the November meeting the club procured as a speaker a national figure, the Rev. Fr. John O'Brien, Ph. D., of the Newman Foundation of the University of Illinois. His topic: "Preparing the World for Peace", was thoughtfully developed and delivered in a most interesting manner. At the next meeting M. Jean Houpert expounded French theories of France's attitude in world manners. Dr. Sarkissian, a native Armenian, discussed the existing turmoil in the Near East. The last speaker Dr. Aron also from the University of Illinois, showed that the World Crises are always accompanied by a dehumanization of Art and Literature.

From this brief survey it is apparent that the I. R. C. is one of the most active organizations on the Viator Campus by reason of the intense interest which is shown by its moderator, Fr. Cardinal, C. S. V., and by the members. The distinguished speakers whom the Rev. Dr. Cardinal has brought to St. St. Viator have helped to widen the student's knowledge of worldly affairs and given them an insight into important international questions of the day.

We think that Notre Dame ought to be given some kind of a trophy by the Big Ten. Why not be sports and give them the title of "Big Ten Champs?" They deserve it after beating five of the Conference teams; Minnesota, Purdue, Northwestern, Chicago, and Ohio State.

Students at St. Thomas College take out insurance against being called on in class. For a payment of 25 cents they may collect as high as five dollars if they have to recite.—De Paula.

Annual Retreat To Be Preached By Rev. Higgins

The annual Student Retreat this year will commence on Wednesday evening, March 28, and will come to a close on Saturday morning, March 31. It has also been announced that Rev. Clarence Higgins of Seneca, Illinois, will be the retreat master this year. Father Higgins who distinguished himself as an army chaplain, is a speaker of wide repute, and will undoubtedly be well-received here. The hours of meeting for convocations and other services will appear on the Bulletin Boards shortly.

GLEE CLUB IN PROGRAMS FOR LOCAL GROUPS

Choral Society Offers Selections Before Kankakee Rotary Club and High School

On Washington's Birthday, the Rotary Club of Kankakee played host to the St. Viator Choral Society at a Luncheon held in the Gold Room of the Hotel Kankakee. At the request of the Club, the group responded with several numbers which were well received by all those present.

On Monday, March 5th, the Glee Club, at the request of the musicale director of the Kankakee High School, sang several numbers before the assembled student body of the High School. Fr. J. W. R. Maguire, C. S. V., introduced Mr. Kepley and Miss Granger, who are directors of the organization, and then left Mr. Kepley to take charge of the performance. The selections rendered are those which the society is preparing for its next broadcast and the same which were given on the Washington Day program before the Rotary Club. They are: Trust

English Essay Contest Is Announced By Dean

The English Essay Contest which was abandoned last year, has been revived, and Rev. Richard J. French, Dean of Studies, has announced the subjects for the contest for this semester. They are as follows:

1. The Decline of Democracy.
2. New Forms of Government.
3. A Challenge for the Times.

The rules governing competition for the essay medal, or other prize to be offered, are practically the same as in other years. The contest is open to all undergraduates, but ALL Freshmen must compete. The paper, the minimum length of which is to be 3000 words, is to be submitted to the English instructor before May 15. The one new rule which has been added requires the contestant to use a pen name, and only this name should appear on the essay. The real name of the contestant is to be attached to the essay in a sealed envelope. This will tend to destroy any suspicious of favoritism or prejudice in the judging of the individual papers.

As yet, the judges have not been selected. However, the students have already shown considerable interest in the contest, and it should produce some fine specimens of the Essay.

SORORITY SAYS BAZAAR SUCCESS

Sixteen members of the St. Viator Social Sorority met on the night of Friday, March 9, at the home of Yvonne Lambert in Bradley. Miss Lambert and Miss Genevieve Adams acted as co-hostesses to the group.

Miss Carolyn Bally received first prize and Anne Smole consolation in the bridge games that followed the business meeting. Refreshments were served at the close of the games. During the business meeting it was decided to have another sandwich and candy sale. The date set for this sale is Tuesday, March 13. The Sorority hopes it will be as successful as all others have been in the past. A report on the Bazaar which was held at the Knights of Columbus Hall on February 10, 11, and 12, was given. The affair netted the Sorority a neat profit of seventy-seven dollars ($77.00). Fifty dollars ($50.00) of this amount was given to the Library for magazine subscription. Twenty-five dollars ($25.00) was given Father Maguire for purchasing music for the Glee Club, and the remaining money went into the Sorority treasury. At the raffle of the pictures donated by Einbeck's Studio, Father E. V. Cardinal, C. S. V., was the fortunate winner.

DR. CARDINAL IS GUEST SPEAKER OF KIWANIS CLUB

Lectures on "Chancellor Dolfuss And the Austrian Empire" At Weekly Luncheon-Meeting

Rev. Fr. Cardinal, C. S. V., Dean of the History Department of St. Viator College, spoke at the weekly luncheon of the Kankakee Kiwanis Club, Monday the 5th of March, in McBrooms Cafe. His lecture dealt with the history of the Austrian Empire, which, he said, was the oldest in the world prior to 1918. Dr. Cardinal also spoke of the work of Chancellor Dolfuss, as well as expressing his own opinion (as a historian) of the conditions in Europe in regards to Austria.

The Rev. Fr. Cardinal was introduced by Mr. Romy Hammes, Chairman of the program committee, and the appreciation of the lecture was expressed by Arthur L. Beckman on behalf of the Kiwanis Club.

Thank You!

The Freshmen "Staff" wish to take this opportunity of expressing their appreciation and thanks to those of the regular staff of the VIATORIAN, who have given us the benefits of their experience by advising and guiding us through the journalistic maze which we have had to travel in order to go to press on time. Without the excellent supervision of Mr. Robert Spreitzer we would have been unable to succeed in editing a worthwhile edition of the VIATORIAN. We also wish to thank those who have contributed material for the various columns.

Celebrate Mass To Commemorate Death Of Pres.

The first anniversary of the death of Father M. J. Marsile, C. S. V., a former president of St. Viator College, was commemorated on March 10 by a celebration of a Requiem High Mass in the College Chapel, with Father P. Hutton acting as celebrant. Father Marsile served as the second president of St. Viator College, and he did much to establish the ideals and standards upon which the school has been built. His sudden death one year ago was a great loss to all who knew and loved him. Requiescat in Pace.

COMIC OPERA TO BE OFFERED BY DRAMATIC CLUB

"Robin Hood" Is Selected For Spring Presentation

The Saint Viator Glee and Dramatic Clubs, under the able direction of Miss Margaret Granger, Mr. Jewett Kepley, and Father John Maguire, C. S. V., have recently begun work on the beautiful and interesting comic opera, "Robin Hood", which they hope to present in the latter part of May.

The music of the drama is by that well known composer, Reginald De Koven, while the Libretto is by Harry B. Smith. The various principals in the cast have not, as yet, been chosen.

"Robin Hood"

The play, "Robin Hood", embodies a story that has lived and will continue to live for centuries to come. It is strange indeed, that the story of Robin Hood, who was an outlaw of the twelfth century should live and become a tradition, which is loved and as well known in America as it is in England. This play is the story of a great popular hero, who was not a mere robber and outlaw—living with his band in Sherwood Forest, but a kind, courteous, generous, and dashing personage.

C. Y. O. Retreat To Be Given Here Next July

St. Viator College has been chosen this year as the site for the annual Catholic Youth Organization Retreat. In the past these retreats have been held at Mayslake, Illinois. As yet no dates have been set but it is known that the C. Y. O. expects to have the retreat in the latter part of June and the early part of July. Bishop Bernard Shiels, the founder of the Catholic Youth Organization, is an alumnus of St. Viator, having been graduated here with the class of '06.

SYMPATHY

The College extends its heartfelt sympathy to Rev. A. M. Kissane, pastor of St. Rita's Church in Aurora, on the death of his brother, Richard in Chicago last week. The latter was a member of the Academy Class of '14. Fr. J. P. O'Mahoney, C. S. V., delivered the sermon at the funeral Mass celebrated by Fr. A. M. Kissane.

DEBATERS WIN DECISION FROM BRADLEY TECH

Teams Faces Series Of Gruelling Tests This Month; Meet Wabash U. In Radio Contest Mar. 24

The Bergin Debating Society opened the regular schedule of conference debates on March 1st, with a win over Bradley College of Peoria, Ill. Represented by Mr. Edw. Buttgen, '37, and Mr. H. Dailey, '35, the St. Viator debaters upheld the affirmative of the conference question: "Resolved: That the powers of the President of the United States shall be substantially increased as a settled policy". The majority of the practice debates that the debaters have engaged in to date have been on this same question.

Ahead of the various teams of the Debating Society are numerous platform and radio debates. Most of the former are conference debates and will be handled by two man teams, defending both sides of the question. Radio debates are held every Saturday afternoon over Radio Station W. C. F. L. Each radio debate is on a different question, and they are non-conference. The decision is left to the listening public.

In the month of March our teams will meet Eureka College, Lake Forest College, DeKalb College, Dayton University, Illinois Wesleyan, Wabash (radio), and Chicago College of Law (radio). Most of these debates are away from home with the exception of those with Eureka College and Dayton University.

In accordance with the practice of Rev. Fr. Maguire, C. S. V., debate coach, there are no definitely first string teams. Fr. Maguire believes in allowing every member of the Debating Society to have an opportunity of debating, during the season. As a result the Society has an unusually large membership this year.

The following is a summary of the debates engaged in thus far this season. Decisions were rendered by audience vote and critic judges. St. Viator defended the negative or affirmative of the question as denoted.

Radio Debates

Augustana College, Feb. 3—won audience decision.

Rosary College, Feb. 10 — won audience decision.

DeKalb College, Feb. 17—won Illinois College, Mar. 3—no decision as yet.

Practice Debates

Rosary College, Feb. 20—non-decision debate. (Affirm. and Neg.)

DePaul University, Feb. 27—Neg lost decision.

Illinois College, Mar. 3—Affirm. won audience decision.

Manchester Tournament Feb. 23-24

St. Viator Affirmative team composed of Messrs. Edw. Buttgen, H. Dailey, and James Dugan won four decisions out of five. They defeated the following teams: Manchester College; Ind., Hiram College, Ohio, Cedarville College, Ohio, and Goshen College, Ind. Were defeated by Capital College, Ohio.

St. Viator Negative team composed of Messrs. Wm. Schumacher, Norbert Ellis, and Robt. Nolan only won one decision while dropping four. They defeated Northwestern University and were defeated by these: Bowling Green College, Ohio;

RALLY ALUMNI

In the last issue the Freshmen were called upon to do their bit for the College. We give you this VIATORIAN. Our only regret is that our inexperience may have prevented our doing a better job. Now we in turn call upon the ALUMNI.

Our request? A more active Alumni Association. We appeal to the Alumni to rally to the support of their "Alma Mater". Soon some of your acquaintances will be graduating from the various High Schools of your community. COME ON! VIATOR ALUMNI! BOOST YOUR COLLEGE! Follow the wonderful example which has been set for you by His Excellency, Bishop Bernard J. Shiels, Class of '06. We all know that many of you are not able to award scholarships as His Excellency has done, but you can at least "sell" prospective college men the idea that St. Viator College is the ONLY College for them to attend. We, of the Freshmen Class, look forward to seeing the results of a vigorous Alumni Campaign. Will you perform your duty as well as we have performed ours?

—W. J. S

ST. PATRICK'S DAY

"Beware! the ides of March". We disagree in these mighty words of Shakespeare, in so far as we are unflinchingly putting faith in our Freshmen edition of the VIATORIAN, and also in the welcoming of March. We welcome the feast of St. Patrick, which is just two days away. We used to think that St. Patrick was the patron of only Ireland, but now we begin to wonder if American High School and College students have not adopted him as their own. In fact the whole nation, whether of Irish ancestry or not, celebrate his feast with almost as much enthusiasm as is displayed in his own native country.

This is as it should be, because we are celebrating the feast of a great Saint and a great man who is the father of a great people, who despite the oppressor went forward. That is also symbolical of the spirit of the Freshmen in editing this March issue of the VIATORIAN.

We, the Freshmen, give this issue of the VIATORIAN into the safe-keeping of St. Patrick. May his memory and its memory be kept alive within the realms of St. Viator College.

—M. A.

BETWEEN OURSELVES . . .

A visitor on the campus of St. Viator must be struck with a sense of deficiency when he reaches the center of the grounds. He is greeted at the entrance by the rustic and historically beautiful village church; his eyes can sweep down a long vista of geometrically perfect and strikingly charming landscape; Marsile and Roy Halls rise in stately grandeur on either side of the campus, and the Refectory and Gynasium are pleasing enough to satisfy even the most cynical of observers.

And yet, here in the midst of this harmonious setting there ever yawns the gapping and hideous foundations of a building long since consumed by fire. Some attempts may be made in the summer to hide the hole's ugliness with shrubbery and trees, but this work accomplishes only partially the desired end, and during the other three seasons of the year the spot flaunts brazenly before the individual's eye, displaying all its nakedness of rocks and mud. One cannot go so far as to say that it could be turned readily into a sunken garden, but, at least, a little time and money could transform it into a much more respectable spot than it now is. With a little effort greater feats than this have been accomplished in the cause of landscaping. Half-decayed walls and carefully preserved ruins may serve to keep alive the memory of the days of vanished glory in Rome, but they are out of their proper sphere on the VIATOR CAMPUS!

Inquiring Reporter

Question:—"What author of recent times has most interested you and why?"

"It is difficult for me to determine my favorite author. In the field of the novel I would select Sinclair Lewis, the inimitable realist and Willa Cather, whom I admire principally for her delightful character portrayals. Vachel Lindsay, of course, is my favorite poet—the lyric interpreter of life about him, and the adventurer for democracy".—Agnes Steiter, '34.

"This is a difficult question to answer but I think of all the modern authors, that H. G. Wells, the English essayist, novelist, historian, and critic interests me most because he is not a radical; nor is he a conservative. He takes the middle course which is the easiest and sanest. He is very versatile and for this reason, also, I like him. His Outlines of History are interesting and very readable. He is a likeable character".—Ruth Arrington, '34.

"The author of recent times who has interested me most is Sinclair Lewis. Principally because of his masterful manner of taking an insignificant setting and group of ordinary, everyday characters and producing from them one of the most interesting and outstanding novels. He is the type of author that has the knack of entertaining people of all classes. When an author possesses this admirably quality his works should live forever in literature".—Norbert Ellis, '36.

"Willa Sibert Cather is, in my humble opinion, the most interesting writer of the novels in recent times. She is a combination of realist and romanticist, and her fine characterizations and vivid description mark her as outstanding among present day novelists. Her powerful pen has drawn the relationships between man and earth so strong and so deeply, that the readers see the two as being synonymous. Her characters will live as long as those of Dickens . . . her descriptive passages of the New and Old Worlds, will never be surpassed".—Robert L. Spreitzer, '34.

DAY HOPPING

Maisonneuve is still going next door. Oh, Gee! Oh, Gosh! Wish I lived at the Police Station.

Goldberg wishes that he could sell his college education. Max thinks that he would be ahead, if such were possible.

Yes sir, Noony-Noony and the other two little pigs were afraid of the big 'Bad Wolf'. Soucie is going to bring two extra sandwiches on Tuesday and Thursday to make up for those he has to give away on Wednesday and Friday.

Clancy says that a man goes to college to learn how to make money. Oh, my! Bill some of the boys didn't know that.

Soucie has a new car and a number of new things but never mind boys, he still has the same girl. Didn't you all see her at the Wesleyan game?

Baron is sure an aid to "Hank" in arranging things but he is a little slow of late. "Hank" saw the young lady himself. One of his remarks: "I didn't know her but she knew me." Sure is heck to be so well known.

"Now or Never" Divine is getting ready for the gala day, March 17, at the K. of C. Hall . . . Crowley is on his own again since she returned to the "Windy City" . . . Schosser is going the way of all men. He noticed a certain one of the other sex at the game and wouldn't rest until he succeeded in getting an introduction . . . Schneider will be the next to fall . . . Any one wishing info' on blondes, brunettes or red heads consult William O'Connor . . . Divine has been taking up most of Ryan's "line" in the Library . . . I would like to take Ripstra's place for a few days—to get some of these brown sugar sandwiches.

—"Bob" Mackin.

INTERCOLLEGIATE

An examination at the University of Mississippi asked for the principle parts of any Latin verb. Upon one paper was written: "Slippeo, slipere, falli, bumptus". The returned paper had these words: "Fallo, failere, fluncto, suspendum".—Red and Blue.

There is the story from the University of Rochester concerned with mental gymnastics of a problem having to do with compound interest. He finally gave up the struggle, sighed, and wrote the following: "Bank failed. Nobody gets interest".—The Polytechnic Reporter.

Here is a concise definition of what a college newspaper really is: "A college newspaper is an organization which solicits contracts for advertising and then spends all the money it acquires in this manner trying to fill in the spaces between the ads". And, incidentally, it wears down a group of students in the process. —The Aquinas. (Brother, you said it!—W. J. S.)

 "Open up." A voice replied.

"From the Past"

Back in 1906, Bishop B. J. Sheil, then Benny Sheil and star pitcher on the St. Viator nine, held the Minnesota nine to three runs, all of which were unearned, while his teammates were driving in twelve scores to give Minnesota one of the worst trouncings of the season.

Back in 1886 the student publication, now called the VIATORIAN, was called the St. Viator's College Journal, was published semi-monthly, and featured a literary supplement in French titled Le Cercle Francais.

The VIATORIAN was founded in 1883 by Right Rev. Alex J. Mc-

Gavick, D. D., who at present is Bishop at LaCrosse, Wisconsin.

Back in the '90's, the Saint Viator basketball team was known as the "Shamrocks".

In April of 1912, a group of dramatics students presented a real "tear-jerker", namely "The Old Homestead". We quote from the VIATORIAN dated April, 28, 1912, concerning the production: "To be frank the play was a hit with enough seriousness and comedy to be relished by the large audience".

Mortex

Liquid
 Emulsified
 Asphalt

A perfect protective coating for brushing, spraying or trowelling, being a high grade Mexican asphalt dispersed as minute particles in water for convenient handling. It is applied cold. As the moisture evaporates, a black, flexible rubberlike film remains which is waterproof, acid, alkaline and fire resistant, and shuts out infiltrations of air.

Mortex 5 does not crack or peel in coldest weather, nor blister, sag nor run on hottest days and always remains elastic. It is odorless, tasteless and noninflammable and can be safely used in confined places. It readily bonds to all clean surfaces, and also to damp surfaces, but should never be applied over dusty, dirty greasy or oily surfaces or an imperfect bond will result. Use only on clean surfaces to obtain perfect satisfaction.

Used for DAMPPROOFING WALLS and FLOORS, PAINTING GALVANIZED IRON, PROTECTING CLEAN IRON AND STEEL, ROOF REPAIRING and as an ADHESIVE. It can be mixed with Portland Cement and dries out a soft gray color for patching deteriorating concrete.

CAMPUS • BRIEFS

In this column you will glean the dirt that's fit to print, if your name can not be seen. Then try and take the hint.

"Hello, Brother. Can I help you to anything?" . . . Well, we are only Freshmen but we will try our best to satisfy the curiosity of all the readers of this column . . . Being just 'green' Freshmen there is no doubt but what we will fail to come up to the high (?) standard of 'mud-slinging' that the previous writer has been giving you in the past issues. However, you can't blame us for trying. So here goes!

First; imagine "Doc" Meany trying to bribe us and saying: "Please, don't put it in the BRIEFS, I'm your friend". We don't know just which one it is that "Doc" objects to having printed, but we'll put all we have in this issue. It's true isn't it that she no longer calls you Mr. Meany but "Doc", isn't it "Popsie."

Prince "Charming" and his pal, "Flip", have been taking nightly lessons in order that they may get leading roles in Robin Hood . . . A new record for shieks to beat—nineteen dates in as many evenings. And they weren't all with the same young lady. What a man! . . . Westray rising at two a. m. and insisting that a rat was getting too friendly with him. He made Burke change beds with him. Sure it wasn't a pink elephant, "Wes?" . . . We hear that Mr. Hargrove is attempting to make a conquest in the History Class, are they historical, John? . . . In the last issue we read that Charlie Byron has changed from philosophy to poem writing. Could it be that Marie prefers a poet? . . . John Chinn seems to be interested in one of our Freshmen co-eds. What would Mary Belle think, John Morris if she could see you 'playing up' to Janet?

Poor Theresa waited all evening for "Tom" Kelly to call while he was out at the Del Rio 'shaking a mean hoof' . . . Some of our newest debaters are coaching the girls of the Convent. No wonder they can out-talk the visitors! . . . Miss Reynolds has recently received flowers for that vase she also received from an admirer . . . Has your room-mate received any yet, Marie? . . . Turner is very fond of the song: "I just Can't Take It Baby". . . Perhaps it was inspired by the fact that he was asked, by a fair young lady who gave him a lift out to the College, for an osculation . . . What's locked in your trunk, Dugan? Anything new at the Rialto? . . . Dexter has been receiving special delivery letters at eleven p. m. It was from Elsie, wasn't it "Dex"?

Herman Snow attending the Paramount frequently with Marie Reynolds . . . Marie wonders who told Claire . . . As lovers are sometimes apt to write poetry to their loved ones, using her name as a theme, we think that Mr. Daily could write a beautiful poem on just her first name. Joyce isn't it Daily? . . . Where were Nolan, Ellis, and O'Mara coming from Tuesday evening, March 6th? . . . Roche, Quinn, Meany and Cronin visited the sick, as good Christians should. When we hear that Quinn insisted on reading selections from "Is Life Worth While?", we suspect them of having an ulterior motive . . . What is it that Wiser seems to think he has that Benoit just hasn't? Maybe we had better ask Audrey . . . Turner evidently has something that George Fleming, Granger Baron and Don LaRocque lack. At least, it would seem that away if we are to judge from the results they are getting . . . So you, too, are assailing Eve's heart Alessandri . . . Isn't her name Mary Belle, John Morris? She really is very nice and will be a Freshmen in College next year, so don't feel badly if the Senior co-eds refuse your dinner-dates . . . "Peg" Clancy was heard to expound on the niceness of our own "Buckie" Rogers.

And now we hear that Clarke dyed his hair to gain a certain song-bird . . . Barzantny finds time to meet an Oldsmobile in front of the Kres-Ges Dime Store every afternoon . . . "Your public is calling Miss Lincoln . . . How about an autographed picture?" . . . "Betourne you sleep in my class, and I'll sleep at your basketball game". . . Sure is tough when the Profs begin to make the athletes stay awake in class . . . "Bill" Clancy at last taking co-eds to the Paramount . . . "You Arab" A Freshmen brought this note back to the Hall one night: "Honored Sir:—Admit this and give him fifty demerits. He lost more at bridge . . . 'Babe' . . . We'd advise the Freshmen to read their excuses before giving them to the prefect . . . What has George Fleming that Sprietzer lacks? It can't be perfume . . . To whom was HE referring to when he asked the debaters, if they had met any "Catsies" They knew at Rosary? . . .

Lucille Turk rushing from the Library and crying: "That thing just haunts me!" . . . Could she have meant "Georgie"? Or was it the Day-Hop who looked after her and murmured sorrowfully: "You've broken my heart". . . "He gets in my hair" . . . Now is that a nice way to speak of your teachers? . . . Krauklis, Meany and Westray always open for dinner-dates (if they're free). Co-eds take notice and phone 4230 for your 'gigolo' . . .

Looking over a few back issues we came across these replies to the question: "What do you think if Viator men?" . . . Jean Rielly replied: "Interested muchly; give confidential rendezvous". Burns evidently fell for the line and now he returns to the Hall and gives us this report: "I had to plead on bended knee to get something to eat" . . . Now was that nice, Jeanie? . . . "Gene" Adams said: "As juvenile pastimes their O. K." . . . We always did think you were a young punk, Joe. Glad to learn she thinks likewise . . . Agnes Stelter's reply: "They may feel that they are an intelligent group, but they certainly have a lot to learn". Well, Agnes, is Newberg proving to be an apt pupil?

"I know not what the truth may be,

I tell it as 'twas told to me". Miss Dionne has displayed quite a keen interest in Westray . . . We have seen Mr. Arrington leave work at the Cigar Store and stop at Ford-Hopkins to give a fair lady a ride home . . . Just why were Mr. Byron, Mr. Gorman, and Mr. Clancy attending the sorority meeting and party the other evening? We think we can guess . . . Why is Mary Cruise so very anxious for Sunday evening to roll around? We know . . . she's planning a hunting cruise . . . Mr. Wren and Mr. Westray were seen calling on the Dionne sisters on South Harrison the other evening . . .

Don't let him steal your woman, Picus—What seems to be the trouble, John? . . . Oh, yes, Roche—better watch that account of yours. Did he say that he once caught a rat? (Continued)

PARDON US!

It was incorrectly stated in the last issue of the VIATORIAN that Mr. Edward Buttgen was a Junior and that Mr. Hester Daily was a Freshmen. We take this opportunity of making the correction. Mr. Daily is a Junior and Mr. Buttgen is a Freshmen.

WITH THE ALUMNI

Joseph Harrington, '27, has at last we learn deserted the ranks of the "Benidicts" and taken unto himself a charming wife. Congrats, to both of you Joe. May the wedding bells and the honeymoon always be a pleasant memory. (P. S.—Her name is Rose isn't it, Joe?).

James Laffey, Edw. Hunt, Chas. Carney, all of the Class of '33, have been frequent visitors of the College of late. It would seem as if the boys just can't stay away from the campus. We wonder just who is the attraction. Many are the rumors, we hear, but as yet we haven't definitely decided which young lady it is that brings the 'Old Grads' back so soon.

Al Nolan, '29, hopes to receive his Ph. D. degree this June from the Catholic University at Washington, D. C. Al, we are given to understand, has charge of the University's debating team. Oh well, being trained by our debate coach seems to land most of our debaters into debating work for life. Good luck to you "Al" We are all watching your efforts and hope to have you visit the College in the near future.

Simon Legris, '29' is a politician of no mean ability. He is a member of the Kankakee Democratic Committee and has been appointed Store Supervisor at the Kankakee State Hospital. Keep your chin up "Si" and who can tell but what you will some day be the Superintendent of the Hospital.

Fr. Jas. McKay, who has not been here since way back when, visited the campus last week. We know that many fond memories of student days were recalled to him by the sight of the old buildings. It is our earnest desire that he and many of the alumni return again.

Edw. Gallihue, '27, and Burke Monahan, '32, are still attending Catholic University. How about letting us hear from you?

Fr. Moore, pastor of Holy Trinity Parish, Bloomington, Ill., has announced that he will have his new church dedicated on Easter Sunday. This church takes the place of the one that burned three years ago. Good luck to you and your parishioners, Father.

Fr. Moisan, C. S. V., rector of St. Joseph's Church in Springfield, has recently recovered from a serious illness.

Members of the Alumni Association, I'm just a green Freshman, but I have tried to get out a few notes on the Alumni. Send along any news you may have about your classmates and we will print it. If there are any errors in this edition of Alumni Notes let me know and I'll give you the name of the superclassmen who told me that it was the 'gospel truth'.

YOUTH'S TRAIL . . .

This is the trail that youths shall know
Where knightly qualities thrive and grow;
The trails of honor and truth and worth
And the strength that springs from the good brown earth;
The trail that youths, in their seeking, blaze
Through the toughest tangle, the deepest maze,
Till out of boyhood the youth comes straight,
To manhood's splendid and high estate!

ALLOWANCE ODE . . .

(Dedicated To Resident Students)

Little bank roll, ere we part,
Let me press you to my heart!
All the month I've waited for you,
Little bank roll. In a day
You and I will go away
To some gay and festive spot;
I'll return—but you will not!

BUGGY . . .

Buggy here and buggy there,
And buggy everywhere;
A bug's a bug where'er it's dug—
No matter why it's there.

In your head, on the floor, under the chair;
Whether it's down, or up, it's there—
But if it's there, it's there—
And if it's there, your buggy—so there.

WE DON'T

(Dedicated To The Brothers)

Our perfects tell us not to smoke,—We don't!
Nor listen to another bloke,—We don't!
He makes it clear, we mustn't stop
Along the corridors, or even drop
A book, a broom, or mop,—We don't!
To run or shout is very wrong,—We don't!
Other guys burst into song,—We don't!
We break no rules, not even one
We don't know how it is done.
You wouldn't think we had much fun,—WE DON'T!

THE GOLD DUST OF TIME . . .

I have only just a minute
Only sixty seconds in it,
Forced upon me — can't refuse it,
Didn't seek it — didn't choose it,
But it's up to me to use it,
I must suffer if I loose it,
Give account if I abuse it,
Just a tiny little minute
But Eternity is in it. — Anon.

THEATRE COQUEST.

Lady of the golden tresses,
Lady sitting on my right;
Know you that your elbow presses,—tight?

Ever since you first were seated
And I first admired your 'map',
We have waged a very heated,—scrap.

No one else, I'm suré, has seen us
Battle to determine who
Owns the narrow ledge between, — two.

Everytime I've tried contesting
Whether I might seize a share
I've bumped your own arm resting,—there.

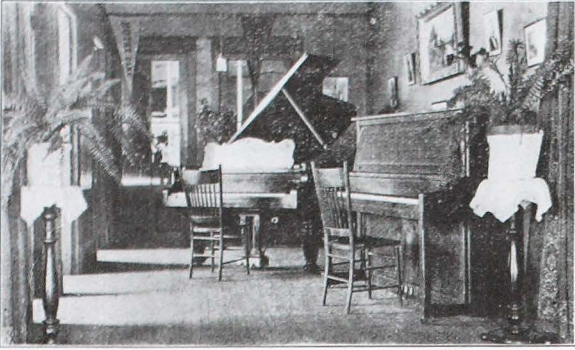

Lady, I don't wish to pound your
Elbow; there is only one check
May I put my arm around your, —neck?

REMEMBERING YOU.

'Tis nice to be remembered
And a pleasant thing to find
That though you maybe absent
You still are kept in mind.

WESLEYAN EKES OUT 26-19 VICTORY

SAINTS DROP TWO CONFERENCE TILTS TO MILLIKIN AND NORMAL

Captain Westray Leads Fighting Offense In Both Games; Normal Gets Real Scare

In their last two conference games on the regular 1933-34 basketball schedule, the Saint Viator five put up a terrific fight to trip up the Blue of Millikin, and a strong aggregation from Illinois State Normal, only to fall short several points of victory in both instances. The Normal game marked the last conference scrap for the Irish this season, and their standing in the race this year is very low. They won but two conference tilts, both of them from Shurtleff, and lost eight similar contests.

Millikin Game

In the Millikin game, Ken Westray led his charges on the offense with four baskets and one free toss. Krauklis, who went out on personal fouls, rang up six points for the locals. The invaders were led by Goldman who dropped in six buckets from wherever he happened to be shooting them, for a total of twelve points. Cox, towering center for the Blue, who whipped the Irish almost single-handed in their first meeting of the year, was held to ten points. And that's something, as one readily realizes after seeing this gent play.

In this same contest, Rogers, who has been starting at one of the guard positions was seriously injured when he collided with another player, and sustained several broken ribs, which have kept him from play for the remainder of the season. Drassler has taken his place at guard.

Normal Game

The highly touted Normalites were given a real scare, but nothing more, as they eventually conquered the Green and White by a 29-26 score, in one of the finest games seen here this season. The Irish led by Westray and Burke, both with eight points each, put up a grand fight, but the one-hand artistry of "Pim" Goff proved too much. The latter accounted for 13 of Normal's 29 points. This was the second defeat the Irish suffered at the hands of the Normalites this season. However, they showed much improvement in this game, for in their first encounter the Normalmen ran up a 48 to 32 score on them.

Drassler playing in the place of the injured Rogers in this fray connected from the gratis line four times in four attempts, and also played a fine defensive game along with Betourne and Krauklis.

As has been the case throughout the past season, the Viator five was somewhat handicapped by height. The taller Normal crew were able to push in many follow-up shots almost unhindered, because of this advantage of superior height. The Normal five led at half-time by a score of 19-9.

VALPO WHIPS SAINTS 43-31

For the second time this season, the strong, aggressive Uhlans five of Valparaiso U. at Indiana, crushed the Viator basketekers. The score this time was 43-31. Their first meeting of the season here ended with Valpo eking out a 29-26 decision in a very closely contested game. The fact that Captain Westray went out of the game on four personal fouls in the first half of play might account for Valparaiso's larger margin of victory in this tussle. While he was in the game, Wes managed to get three baskets and a couple of free tosses, to tie Betourne for Irish scoring honors on that evening.

The fact that Sauer, who played a brilliant game here only a short time ago, was ineligible for the game, did very little to hinder the effectiveness of general teamwork among the Uhlans. Led by Bauer and Barnekoff with thirteen points each, the Valpomen proceeded to build up a very early lead, and by the time that the half rolled around, they held a very commanding lead of eleven points, the score at that time being 21-10. The Irish eventually succeeded in eliminating the towering Barnekoff with four personal fouls, but the damage had already been done(he had five baskets and three free throws) and there remained only a few minutes to play.

Gibbons Plays

Rogers, who is still recovering from an internal injury sustained in the Millikin game, had his position taken over by Gibbons, who made a very impressive showing against the strong Indiana five. Gib played a greater part of the game alternating with Dexter, and he was able to sink a fine long shot and also scored on a free toss. Smith, also broke into the scoring columns with a well-aimed long toss from about mid-floor. These two show great promise of being regulars on next year's team.

In this game, the Irish were again handicapped by the great height of the Valpo crew who managed to tip in numerous shots on their rebounds from the boards. All in all, the Irish made a fine showing against a strong Indiana team, that nearly got the count on the great Notre Dame five this season.

Sport-Shorts

Championship honors of the Day Student Basketball League went to Hank Wulffe's "Wollopers". With a finely balanced squad Wulffe breezed through, leading from start to finish. It would seem proper to have his outfit meet the Ryans for the I. M. Championship of the College. Oh well, that was only a suggestion.

The following is the All-Star Day-Student Teams:

1st Team		2nd Team
LaRocque	F. Soucie
Crowley	F. T. Ryan
Gorman	C. Maisonneuve
Wulffe	G. Schmidt
Ticulka	G. Lang

The Saia's defeated the Nolan's 22-0 to clinch second place in the Roy Hall I. M. League. The "Mudcaps" started out slowly at the beginning of the season but with the "buying" of Marik from the varsity squad, they went on a rampage and finally round up in the second place. Capt. Saia is to be congratulated on his "purchase". The "Mudcaps" are composed of: Capt. Saia, "Tony" Marik, Morris, Burns, Wiser, and "Georgie" Fleming.

A large entry for the Handball Tournament has been secured. After looking over the entries we conclude that first place should be Turner's barring an upset. It will pay him, however, to beware of Roche, Pelgen, and Marik. At last! We've found a tournament that is too much for George Fleming!

Dexter's Rotation Pool Tournament has finally been concluded with a dark horse ruling over the field. The winner: Hall, a Day Student who hails from Momence.

The class basketball tournament swung into action with the Freshmen and Seniors coming through their respective tilts. The "Frosh" eked out a victory over the "Soph's" 13-12, while the Seniors soundly trounced the Juniors: 23-4. When these two winners meet there should be a real tussle.

Aren't there any battlers among the Day Students? As yet none have signed up for... Boxing Tournament. Come on! Don't let Roy Hall have all the fun. How about you Mackin? LaRocque? Or shall we give up the idea of having boxing? Sign with either Fr. Harbauer, C. S. V., or Bro. Dominic Bay, C. S. V.

TITANS RALLY TO WIN POST SEASON GAME FROM SAINTS

Lead Changes Hands Several Times During Game, Roettgermen Clinches Victory

DAY STUDENTS DOWN BOARDERS

After two thrilling victories over the All-Star Roy Hall team, the All-Star Day-Student team can well lay claim to the mythical I-M Championship of the College. After winning the opener 14-13 in an overtime battle the "Commuters" topped off their season by overcoming a resident student lead to win the final game, 15-14.

The first game was played as a preliminary to the Illinois Normal game and attracted wide-spread interest. Led by LaRocque and Wulffe the Day-Students started off smoothly and piled up a 7-1 lead which they held at the end of the first quarter. A rally in the second quarter by the Boarders left the score 11-9 at the half still in favor of the Day-Students. The second half was featured by close guarding and poor shooting. With but a minute to go "Slew" Stockbar sunk a long shot to tie the score at 13 all and force the game into an overtime.

The overtime was packed full of action and thrills but both teams seemed to have definitely lost their eyes for the "hoop". With but 13 seconds to go Marik fouled Wulffe who converted his gratis toss. This was the winning point of the game. Although Marik's foul lost the game he is to be congratulated upon the wonderful game he played.

In the second game which was played as the preliminary to the Illinois Wesleyan game, the attempts of the determined resident team for victory were thwarted by the sharp-shooting of Frank Ticulka. The "Iownerns" started off with a rush and led at the quarter 4-0. But long shooting by Marik, Sullivan and Nolan put the "Boarders" in the lead at the half with a 7-4 advantage. In the third quarter the score was tied by the Towners.

The final period saw the "Boarders" jump into a 14-11 lead with three minutes of play left. However, a free throw by Ticulka and a long shot by Wulffe tied the score at 14 all with nine seconds to go. At this point Ryan fouled Wulffe and the "Townerns" had won their second game of the series on a free throw.

The valiant effort of the "Fighting Irish" of St. Viator's basketball team to end a disastrous season with a victory over the strong Illinois Wesleyan cagers failed after a terrific battle. Led by Captain Kenneth Westray, who was all over the court, the Viator team battled the Wesleyans on even terms up to the closing minutes of the game. Illinois Wesleyan submerged the Viatorians with a barrage of one handed shots just before the game ended.

Captain Westray, playing his last game of basketball for St. Viators, turned in his finest performance of the year, scoring seven points and playing an excellent floor game. The victory of the Bloomington collegians may be credited to their close guarding of Byron, Burke, the sharp-shooting forward of the Irish cagers. Betourne played his usual fine game, but was badly injured near the finish of the fray, when he jumped near the Wesleyan basket to recover a rebound from the backboard.

Benson, a sturdy guard, led the invaders in scoring eight points. With the score 20-19, he and Weger went on a scoring spree to insure Wesleyan's place on the long end of the score. Blazine, the big threat of Wesleyan, was held in check throughout the evening by the wonderful guarding of Krauklis.

The game opened with the "Fighting Irish" sweeping the "Downstaters" off their feet time and time again. The failure of the "Irish" at the free-throw line cost them a possible victory. The half ended with the home team on the short end of a 9-5 score.

A determined "Green Wave" rolled on to the floor in the second half and after a frenzied period of shooting they grabbed a 14-12 lead with only eight minutes of playing time left. Wesleyan rallied, however, and after banging several long shots regained the lead and an advantage of a 19-14 score. The "Irish" again displayed their wonderful fighting spirit by putting on another rally that brought the score to 20-19 and three minutes of play still remained. Then came the final big rush of Illinois Wesleyan during which Benson and Weger treated the spectators to some fancy one-handed shooting. When the final whistle blew the team from Illinois Wesleyan was on the long end of a 26-19 score.

The play also bespeaks the simple lives which the early English peasants led, with their gay carnivals, and their quaint ballads, all forming a romantic background for the story of Robin Hood and his lovely lady, Marian.

Many other characters appear in the production such as "Little John", Will Scarlet, Friar Turk, and Allan A. Dale, all outlaws and friends of Robin Hood. These various roles will offer great opportunities for the various members of the Dramatic Club. The many beautiful and pleasing melodic songs running through the story will present an occasion for the Glee Club to come forward once more, and repeat their success of last year, in the "Mikado".

At present, selection of players to fill the various roles is under consideration, and the directors hope to start rehearsals shortly.

Not like others..

Even so.. you can say Chesterfields are "not like others"

NO two people in the world look alike . . . act alike. So it is with tobacco . . . just like folks.

No two leaves are the same.

And it's the same with cigarettes . . . no two brands are alike.

Furthermore, not only are the tobaccos different, but the way the tobaccos are handled is different.

This, you can understand.

You know just as well as we do that no two manufacturers use the same kinds of tobaccos, or blend them or cross-blend them or weld them together in the same manner.

We do everything that science knows and that money can buy to make CHESTERFIELD as good a cigarette as can be made.

We hope you like them. They are "not like others."
