Sky The Limit In Plans For Monogram Dance

Set April 24 As Date; Doc. Meaney, Chicago Chairman

A strict secrecy has been kept around plans for the Viator Monogram Dance, but that the affair will be the grandest ever staged here seems a fore-gone conclusion. Officers of the Monogram Club have assured inquirers that one of Chicago's most popular radio orchestras has been signed for the dance, but, while speculation runs riot, authentic information on the band cannot be secured.

The dance will be held on the evening of April 24 in the Kankakee Armory. Officers of the club decided to hold the dance off campus in order to accommodate the crowd which they have been lead to expect.

Chicago Committee

A committee of alumni, of which John ("Doc") Meany, '34, is Executive Chairman, met in Chicago this week to discuss ways of co-operating with the local club in order to insure the success of the dance. Viator alumni and friends have been backing promotion schemes at every step.

Full-Fledged Pilot In Eastern League

The Charleston Senators, of the Middle Atlantic League, will be managed by the youngest pilot in Class C, and probably in all organized Ball this year, when Ignatius (Iggy) Walters takes over the reins of the club.

Walters, who graduated from Alton High School, where he played basketball, football and baseball, attended Viator five years ago. The "call of the diamonds" soon drew him from school.

"Iggy" started his professional career with McCook in the Nebraska State League in 1929, when only 16 years old. Since that time, he has served in the American Association, with the Detroit Tigers, in the Three-Eye League, in the Mississippi Valley League. Bob Coleman, Springfield manager, had the young first baseman under his wing last year.

"Iggy" is considered fast on his feet, a skilled bunter and a smooth worker around the initial bag. The new Charleston pilot works for the Socony-Vacuum Oil Company, Wyandotte, Mich., in the off-season. Walters says that he does everything—except think—left-handed.

The VIATORIAN takes this opportunity to congratulate the young pilot and to wish him every success during the coming season.

Judge Preliminaries For State Contests

The Rev. John W. Stafford, C. S. V., addressed the Kankakee Y. W. C. A. Study Guild on February 26. He chose to discuss "Mental Hygiene," a topic to which he has given much study.

The Viator professor will appear before the Junior Guild of Mokena on March 23, when he will again speak on some phase of psychology.

Three Veterans On Conference Debate Squad

Renew Relations with St. Xavier and Notre Dame

Norbert Ellis, '36, Stephen Gould, '36, August Black, '38, and Edward Buttgen, '37, were named today to the coveted positions on the conference debating teams. They will travel to Normal, Illinois, on March 13-14 to represent Viator in the Illinois Intercollegiate Debate Tournament.

The appointments caused little surprise on the campus as three of the men have held berths on previous conference teams. Ellis was one of the "top-notch" wranglers in his Sophomore year; Gould engaged in conference competition last year; and Buttgen was named to the team during both his Freshman and Sophomore years. Black, the only new man, has displayed powers of logical analysis and effective speaking this season, and has been marked as a man to be watched in verbal conflict.

The proposition to be debated at the tournament reads: "Resolved: That Congress should be empowered to override (by a two-thirds majority vote) any decision of the Supreme Court which declares an act of Congress unconstitutional.

Ellis and Gould met DePaul University in Chicago on March 4. Reports come from the Windy City that the Viator men "more than held their own" in the encounter.

Meet St. Xavier

In a debate which might easily have been decided in favor of either team, St. Xavier College and St. Xavier University, Cincinnati, clashed at Notre Dame Convent on February 24. Miss Marguerite Senesac, '38, August Black, '38, and Edward Buttgen, '37, represented the Bergin Debating Society, and defended the negative of the conference proposition. Nelson Halts, Paul Bearer, and James Shaw, all Seniors from Cincinnati, upheld the affirmative.

At Notre Dame

Viator resumed forensic relations with the University of Notre Dame on February 18, after several years during which associations between the schools had lapsed. Black and Buttgen traveled to the South Bend institution, where they defended the negative of the Supreme-Court question.

Viator will meet Notre Dame in a radio debate in March. Gould and Buttgen have been named to represent the local society in this encounter.

Chicago U. Dean To Address I. R. C. Here

"Do We Need A New Constitution?" will be the subject of a talk by Dr. Jerome Kerwyn, of the University of Chicago, on March 23 at a regular meeting of the local International Relations Club.

Doctor Kerwyn, the author of several books, is Dean of the Social Sciences at the University, and is nationally recognized as a constitutional authority. The officers of the club were enthusiastic last week over the dean's acceptance of their invitation to speak. He is a lecturer of high renown.

Dramatic Club To Open Season With Short Play

Miss Anthony Heads Committee; Consider Public Performance

After several months of delay, the Dramatic Club will begin its season's program this month. Announcement of the organization's initial production will probably be made next week.

Miss Mary Anthony, '37, is head of a committee in charge of arrangements for the affair. She states that, in accord with the club's expressed desire, admission to the program will be by invitation. Each dramatist will be allowed to invite one guest.

The program, which will last an hour and a half, will be verified. A cast is being selected by the committee to present a short one-act play. Several novelties will also be featured.

Dr. William C. Van Deventer, club moderator, said last week that he will favor the production of a play for the public in May if sufficient enthusiasm is manifested at private dramatic showings. Without this interest, he will not back a large undertaking.

Mourn Death of Mr. Monahan, Mr. Clancy

The President and Athletic Director of the College, the President of the Monogram Club, and the varsity basketball squad attended the funeral of the late Edward A. Monahan, father of Alphonse, 39, and Burke Monahan, in Chatsworth. Mr. Monahan had long been a friend of Viator, and the faculty and students are grieved at his death. To the family of the deceased, the College offers its sincere sympathy.

Mr. William Clancy

Sorrow was caused here by the passing of Mr. William Clancy, father of Miss Margaret, '36, William, '34, and John Clancy, '39. Mr. Clancy was living in Chicago at the time of his death, but had long been a resident of Kankakee. His active interest in college affairs had made him well known and much respected on the campus. Expressions of grief and condolence are made to the Clancys in their bereavement.

Biology Students To Organize Club Mon.

Dr. William C. Van Deventer, Dean of the Biology Department, has announced that within the near future he will organize a Biology Club upon the campus. The club shall be opened to all biology majors, minors, pre-medical students, and to any student who may be interested in the science.

Dr. Van Deventer stated that a meeting will be held Monday afternoon, at four o'clock in the biology lecture room for the purposes of enrolling members out lining the course of the organization and the election of officers.

Cisca Chooses Cast For Staging "Upper Room"

Drama Adapted To Lenten Season; Scenes Laid In Holy Land

Bradley Speaker Sees Unrest In Foreign Nations

Says War May Break At Any Time

As Italy and Germany plan for expansion, England sits back in fear for her world prestige and colonial possessions, according to Mr. J. C. Bohmker, who addressed the February meeting of the International Relations Club.

"England's policy of watchful-waiting", he declared, "alone is preventing a wide-spread war. Her attitude is well-founded, for in her African colonies the spirit of rebellion is manifest on all sides".

On the other hand, he pointed out that the German regime's attempt to build a unified and powerful nation is based on making "Duty" the motive for action. "Work", he said, "is the password in Germany. Combined with a united labor front is the youth movement which is shaping the minds of the people. These are the regime's most powerful weapons".

Mr. Bohmker insisted that Italy's invasion of Ethiopia is based on the need for coal and oil. He discarded any argument that an outlet for her population is motivating her actions.

Mr. Bohmker recently returned from a tour of western Europe and of the African continent. He concluded his talk with an hour's showing of moving-pictures which he had taken during his visit abroad. The meeting was one of the most successful and enthusiastic sessions of the Club's current season.

Library Benefits By Chicago Circle Gift

The Library board is in receipt of a gift of $50.00 from the Chicago chapter of the Little Flower Circle. The organization, of which the Rev. Francis E. Munsch, C. S. V., is chaplain, has bestowed numerous favors on the Library, for which the College has always been deeply grateful. The administration publicly expresses here its sincere appreciation for this recent kindness and for the interest which the Circle has shown in the improvement of the Library.

Fr. Stafford Speaks Before Local Club

Two Viatorians judged student contests in Watseka last Monday night. The Rev. John W. Stafford, C. S. V., judged the preliminaries of the State Speech Contest, and Brother William Quirk, C. S. V., judged preliminaries of the State Music Contest.

Under the direction of Professor Michael Maloney, the Cisca Society has begun work on Robert Benson's immortal drama "The Upper Room", which will be presented in Kankakee during Holy Week. Three performances will probably be given.

A strong cast of eleven has been chosen from the ranks of the society. The director will be remembered here for his successful production of the Dramatic Society's plays last year: Miss Mary Anthony, '37, and Weeger Krauser, '38, ably performed leading roles in last May's "Varieties of 1935", and several members of the cast are known in Chicago for fine acting.

Religious Theme

The play, built around the drama of Christ's passion, is particularly adapted to the Lenten season. It presents in beautiful simplicity and striking vividness the meaning of those last sad hours of Christ's earthly mission.

The Prologue of the drama sets forth the scenes and passions which the actors portray:

"Here then, in simple show, The tale of all those pains we strive to tell,

How in that Upper Room He gave Himself

To be our meat and drink; how Judas fell

And sold his Lord for money. Of that Lord

Seized in Gethsemane—Halled here and there

To Caiaphas, Herod, Pilate; how the Prince

And Ruler of His Church denied His Lord;

How Magdalene wept; how Joseph had the Cup

Our Lord had drunk from; of that dolorous Way

That went from Pilate's hall to Calvary;

Of the sun darkened and the rending earth.

But most of all of Mary—she who spoke

So little, yet who agonised so much;

Pondering all things in her heart, as when

She had Him on her knees in Nazareth.

For she it is who, Mother of her Son,

Is Mother of us all. It is through her

He came to us; through her we come to Him.

Look then on this—the Upper Room where He Began His Passion".

The Cast Includes:

The Doctor—John Heery, '37.

Achaz—Patrick Bimmerle, '39.

Samuel—Raymond Cavanagh, '38.

Joseph of Arimathea—Joseph Prokopp, '38.

Peter—Robert Regan, '39.

John—Weeger Krauser, '38.

Judas—William Cahill, '39.

Longinus—John Lannon, '38.

Mary—Mary Anthony, '37.

Mary Magdalene—Patricia McLaughlin, '39.

Veronica—Louise Legris, '39.

Viator Gains 8th League Victory At Carthage

Ability To Stave Off Last Minute Rally Brings a 31 to 29 win

Staving off a last minute rally by Carthage, St. Viator's Fighting Irish bucketeers won a hard fought Little 19 basketball game at Carthage on February 28, by a 31 to 29 count. The Irish led at the half way mark, 16 to 14. Outstanding in the Green Wave attack were Straub, Gibbons and McElligott, while Hanson and McVey shone for Carthage.

Marked by frequent whistle tooting on the part of the officials the tilt almost turned into a free throw contest. There were 46 charities awarded with Viator receiving 26 to Carthage's 20. The cagers of Carthage took real advantage of theirs and made 13 out of the 20 to keep themselves in the game. Viator basketeers also made a goodly percentage of the free throws sinking 11 of their 26.

Hanson Stopped

Carthage's squad all averaged over six feet and proved to be no little problem for the Viatorians. Hanson, one of the leagues leading scorers, was completely smothered by the marvelous guarding of Frank Straub for three quarters of the game. Until banished on personals in the last ten minutes of playing time, Straub kept Hanson from scoring a field goal. Hanson, during this period of embarrassment, was awarded 9 free throws, 7 of which he made good. After he was released of "Leech" Straub, Hanson managed to drop in two of the baskets that nearly brought victory to Carthage.

While holding Hanson to 7 points, Straub sank two baskets and 5 of 8 charities that were awarded to him. He thus earned the high scoring honors of the Viator team for the evening.

United Press Picks Betourne On Little 19 Conference Team

ALL-CONFERENCE
Player	Pos.	School
Betourne	Forward	St. Viator
Woods	Forward	Macomb
Goldman	Forward	Milikin
Donaldson	Forward	Knox
Mead	Center	Augustana
Lassiter	Center	Ill. College
Hornberger	Guard	Wesleyan
Benson	Guard	Wesleyan
Emery	Guard	Carbondale
Nori	Guard	DeKalb
Most valuable—Carroll Woods.

Outstanding players were so plentiful in the Illinois Collegiate conference basketball race during the current season that the United Press has selected a squad of ten players instead of a team of five for its all-star selection for the 1935-36 campaign.

The conference enjoyed one of its most successful basketball seasons during the past three months and the race for honors was only recently whittled down to two teams—Wesleyan and Macomb—with Wesleyan holding the upper hand since Viator disposed of Macomb.

Three players—Woods of Macomb, Lassiter of Illinois College and Hornberger of Illinois Wesleyan—were regarded as outstanding. There were many others, however, almost as popular with the coaches and sports writers who aided in selecting the all-star squad.

Woods No. 1 Man
Woods, a member of the United Press all-star team of 1935, was one of the leading scorers in the conference and is rated as one of the best forwards ever produced in the conference. To him went the position as the most valuable player in addition to a forward berth on the all-star squad.

Sickness stopped Lassiter, one of the greatest centers of the conference, as the season neared the halfway mark. His play during the first half of the campaign was so outstanding, however, that he was voted a position on the squad despite his absence from the lineup during the past month.

Hornberger was regarded as one of the prime reasons for Wesleyan's success during the campaign. He was almost a unanimous choice of coaches and sports writers. In every game, Hornberger led the Wesleyan drive. He heads the guards. Altogether eight schools are represented on the all-star squad.

Green Wave Win Puts Western Out Of Race

Irish 36 to 32 Victory Gives Wesleyan Title

An attack untinctured with fear despite the exalted position their opponents held in the Little 19 conference, carried the Green Wave right back into the thick of conference basketball warfare as they bowled over the second place Western State Teachers of Macomb, 36 to 32, before a full house on February 25th. The victory by the Irish removed all possible chance of any team sharing the Little 19 tilt with Illinois Wesleyan, as it thus gave Macomb the second place team two defeats.

It was a ripsnorting battle from whistle to whistle with Viator staging a brilliant rally in the last minutes of play and then protecting their slim margin of victory with a beautifully executed passing game. Until February 25th Macomb had rolled up 10 conference victories to one loss.

Gibbons Stars

Hauled off their feet in the Carbondale tilt, the Viatorians came back in this game in a truly marvelous fashion, displaying a dogged fighting spirit that refused to accept defeat. Led by Frank Straub, the Irish held various leads during the last half, but the finest margin didn't come until the last minutes when Gibbons started popping in baskets from beneath the hoop.

Don Betourne, leading scorer of the squad, was held to a single free throw and then was banished from the game on personals. Tommie Gibbons replaced Betourne and proved himself to be an invaluable piece of machinery in the final drive for victory. Gibbons, formerly of

Tankmen Prepare For Annual I.I.A.C. Swimming Meet

North Central To Be Host Of Little Nineteen

North Central college at Naperville will be the host of the Little 19 swimming teams on March 27 when the annual swimming meet will take place. The afternoon is scheduled for the preliminaries while the final events will be run off in the evening.

St. Viator's tankmen, darkhorses of last year's meet and winners of third place, will compete once again under the direction of Brother Edward DesLauriers, Physical Education Director, who has made swimming one of the outstanding minor sports of the College. Mr. Rupert Hickox of Kankakee has been aiding Brother Eddie in the coaching and conditioning of the Viator tankmen. During the past week practice has been discontinued due to the failure of the heating system attached to the tank.

Prospects Fair

This years Irish tankers will be composed of practically the same men as competed last year with the addition of several high school stars. The only man to be lost is Basil Nicholson, Little 19 backstroke record holder. Basil failed to return to college this fall. His place will be taken by Joe Ronan, a freshman star whom Brother Eddie and Rup Hickox believe will be able to break Nicholson's record.

Other swimmers who may make up the Viator team are Steve Wenthe and Kilbride, breast-strokers; Betourne, Burns, Wachendorfer and Dione, free style artists; and Herbie Fields, South Suburban high school diving champion, will attempt

ALL-STAR CHOICE

DON BETOURNE

Don Betourne, Adonis-like, iron-man of the Irish cagers, was signally honored during the past week when he was selected by the United Press as a member of the Little 19 All-Star squad. Betourne, a member of Viator cage machines for the past three seasons, has been the leading scorer and player on the Irish quintet this season. Don has scored 135 points in games played and has seen 560 minutes of action upon the court.

Reserves Reach Semi-Finals

Gallaghers Win Indee Title At St. Anne

Gallagher Business College basketball team of Kankakee defeated St. Anne Alumni, 56 to 45, in the championship finals of the St. Anne independent basketball tournament on the evening of February 20. The St. Viator Reserves had breezed through to the semi-finals where they were defeated by the St. Anne team.

The Reserves defeated Sheldon, 31 to 22; Cooley "B", 27 to 19 and lost to St. Anne, 24 to 32. The loss to St. Anne was the second time this season that the Irish Reserves tasted defeat and came as a big surprise for experts expected the Viator squad to reach the finals at least before being defeated.

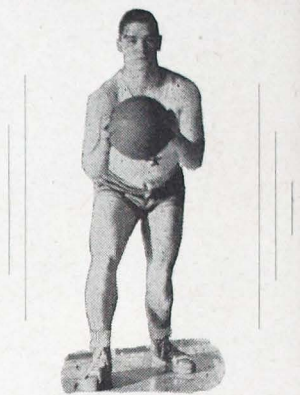

"Red" Hart, sensational meteor-like freshman reserve, was selected by the officials of the tournament for center on the second All-Star team. Fahey, Hilker, Guy and Foxen, the other starters of the Reserves all received honorable mention for All-Star ratings.

The Reserves have the following games left for the current season: Gallagher "B" on March 4; Joliet Missions on March 8; Lutherans, Kankakee Church League Championships, on March 10 as a preliminary to the Viator-Wesleyan fray; and Manteno Monarchs on March 12, as a preliminary to the Wheaton-Viator tilt.

Southern Team Swamp Viator Cagers, 62-44

Defeat Drops Cagers Out Of Little 19 Race

St. Viator College's hopes of a Little 19 basketball championship were blasted into oblivion on February 21 as the invading cagers of Southern Illinois University, playing almost perfect basketball, romped to a surprisingly easy 62 to 44 victory. Completely outclassed during the first half, Don Betourne lead a revived fighting Irish team back onto the floor in an endeavor to overcome a 31 to 11 lead.

Carbondale surged into the lead in the first minutes of the game when Fulton caged an easy under the basket shot on the tip-off. Viator garnered its first point on a free throw by McElligott, but from then on it was all Southern and mainly, all Fulton and Emery. Fulton, Emery and Lucas, Southern stars, had a field day and gathered 21, 11 and 10 points respectively.

Viator Displays Fight

The only redeeming feature of the game from a Viator standpoint was the marvelous fighting spirit displayed by the Irish. Walsh, smallest man on the squad and usually classed as a sub, proved to be the sparkplug that lighted the Viator rally in the second half. Fighting with desperation, Wicky Walsh gave no indication that he knew his team was in for a licking and numerous times he stopped the Teachers' attack single handed.

Besides playing a beautiful defensive game, Walsh also proved to be the spear head of the Viator attack during the second half, snaring 3 baskets and 3 charities for second high scoring honors on the Viator team. Betourne, held scoreless in the first half gathered 5 field goals and 4 free throws to earn the scoring wreath.

Nazi Defeated By Switchmen 25-23 In Intra-Mural

Muff Chance To Cinch Title In First Loss

Holding a 17 to 8 advantage going into the last half the here-to-fore undefeated league leading Nazi of Roy Hall, let overconfidence ruin their chances of cinching the Intra-Mural basketball title the other evening and as a result the second place Switchmen gained an overtime 25 to 23 decision. The score at the end of the regulation time was 19 all.

In the overtime period two baskets by Ray Tures, captain of the Switchmen gave his team a lead which destined to insure another win for the league pacers but a desperate rally by the Nazi knotted the count at 23 all and then a bucket from a-far in the last 45 seconds of play by Dore gave victory to the Switchmen. Vince Murphy and Dore were the heroes for the Switchmen. Murphy collected 5 baskets to take high scoring honors while Dore had the honor of dropping in the field goal that handed the Nazi their first defeat of the season.

Monks Win Again

With scant respect for the exalted position of their opponents, the second place Aces, the Bernadities of St. Bernard Hall racked up their second consecutive win of the season as "Specs" Nelson pitched in a short shot from under the bucket to give his team a 15 to 13 victory. The win was the second one the Monks have earned at the expense of a league leader.

Bill Cahill, president of the Freshman class and a star forward of the Celtics, brought a well earned victory to his team when he managed to sink a pretty side court shot as the second overtime period ended. The final score was 14 to 12 in favor of the Celtics.

Day Dodgers Win, 21-13

The fourth round brought forth many a surprise but the biggest of all was the revival of the Day Dodgers, who lead by Joe Schmidt, varsity equipment manager, finally broke into the win column with a 21 to 13 victory over the Celtics. Schmidt collected 6 baskets for high point honors.

Other fourth round games found the Bernadities taking the Aces, 15 to 13; Nazi swamped the Crooners, 27 to 6 and the Switchmen downed the Midgets by a 35 to 20 count.

RED-DANGER

"Red" McElligott, formerly of Leo high school (Chicago), has proved to be one of the main scoring threats of the Irish cage machine this season. Acclaimed at the National Catholic Tournament held at Loyola in Chicago, last year as the most polished prep player to compete, McElligott has won a varsity berth in this his first year at Viator. To date he is making 24 per cent of his field goal attempts and 44 per cent of his free throws.

Charles Beard Hits Supreme Court Decisions

New York—(ACP)—Because an article in "The Quadrangle", weekly student publication at Manhattan College, denounced Alfred E. Smith for turning against President Franklin D. Roosevelt, the issue of last week was suppressed and destroyed by Brother Patrick, F. S. C., president of the college, who seized all but about 200 copies.

The article strongly condemned Smith's Liberty League speech in Washington, and was unique in the history of the paper, which has heretofore let controversial politics alone.

From the Los Angeles Junior Collegian: "Girls are like final exams—they keep a fellow up all night worrying about them, and then ask the silliest questions."

Stuart Manley, University of California sophomore, is a man without a country; he was born in Japan of American parents and consequently is not a citizen of either country.

FROSH STAR

Flashing to meteoric heights in his first year, Bud Monahan, pictured above, has proved to be the needed pivotman the Irish cagers lacked last season. Monahan measures 6 feet, five inches, and is a graduate of Chatsworth high school. He is being hailed as the best center Viator has had in a decade. His appearance in the Viator lineup this season has been one of the prime factors in the surprisingly splendid record of Coach McNamara's squad.

Suppress Paper Denouncing Al. Smith's Speech

New York—(ACP)—A continuing or recurrent economic crisis will result in the reversal of recent Supreme Court decisions, according to Dr. Charles A. Beard, famous historian.

"Only on the theory that the country will never again have to face a crisis", he said in a recent address, "can we assume that a government stripped of the power to legislate in the general interest will endure. To cherish such a theory is to fly in the face of the recorded experience of this nation and all mankind".

"There is not a word in the Constitution that expressly or by implication declares that the Constitution must be strictly interpreted by anybody", Dr. Beard declared. "That is a fiction largely created by Thomas Jefferson when he was trying to unhorse Hamilton, and flagrantly violated by Jefferson all through his two administrations".

Excess of Acidity of Other Popular Brands Over Lucky Strike Cigarettes

Recent chemical tests show* that other popular brands have an excess of acidity over Lucky Strike of from 53% to 100%.

*RESULTS VERIFIED BY INDEPENDENT CHEMICAL LABORATORIES AND RESEARCH GROUPS...

Over a period of years, certain basic advances have been made in the selection and treatment of cigarette tobaccos for Lucky Strike Cigarettes.

They include preliminary analyses of the tobaccos selected; use of center leaves; the higher heat treatment of tobacco ("toasting"); consideration of acid-alkaline balance, with consequent definite improvement in flavor; and controlled uniformity in the finished product.

All these combine to produce a superior cigarette—a modern cigarette, a cigarette made of rich, ripe-bodied tobaccos—A Light Smoke.

FOR LENT

A preponderant note in the Catholic philosophy of life is self-discipline. While the scheme of study given us at St. Viator entails a thorough grounding in this philosophy, the element of self-discipline stands out as one example of how theory can not be separated from practice. The recognition of this is found in Lent, the penitent season during which the world bows to the awful mystery of the Man who died in order that we might have Life. Designed to bridge the gap between knowing and doing, Lent provides opportunity for an annual stock-taking in deficiencies. If we have in any way become slack, morally, mentally or physically, now is the time to tighten up.

"LIFE UPON LIFE IS ALL TOO LITTLE"

A recent newspaper item reports a scientific investigation showing that the average person who lives to be seventy spends twenty-three years of his life asleep, talks for thirteen years, eats for six years, spends twenty years in pleasure and washes for eighteen months.

All of this is, of course, very interesting, but in modern parlance, "so what?" If only we could do something about it. If we could begin now to take our twenty-three years of pleasure, do some of the talking and eating at the same time, wash for a month or so now and then, and wait until we are forty-seven to do our sleeping, it might be a lot of fun. Still, judging by the amount of school work that has to be crowded in just now, perhaps a year or so of the sleep wouldn't be amiss for the present.

VIATORIAN DISPOSAL

There's a current story about the kind old gentleman, anxious to do his bit in keeping the world all right, who approached a burdened young newsboy and asked: "Don't all those papers make you tired, my boy?"

To which the lad replied: "Naw, I don't read 'em."

Whether the VIATORIAN makes you tired even though you never read it, or whether it fulfills for you its aim of service in news and features, there is still the problem of disposing of it when you have finished it.

May we offer a few suggestions:

Wrap it around your books when it rains.

Play tit-tat-toe or "x" and "o" in the margins.

Day students might take it home for wrapping tomorrow's lunch.

Learn art by drawing mustaches on characters in the ads.

But don't drop it on the campus grounds.

We make daily great improvement in natural, there is one I wish to see in moral philosophy, the discovery of a plan, that would induce and oblige nations to settle their disputes without first cutting one another's throats . . . When will human reason be sufficiently improved to see the advantage of this? When will men be convinced that even successful wars become misfortunes, who unjustly commenced them, and who triumphed blindly in their success, not seeing all its consequences?—Franklin.

From Loyola News comes news of a professor trying to show the evils of drink. He brought two beakers into the classroom, one full of whiskey and the other full of water. Then he got two worms and dropped one in each. In a minute the worm in the whiskey stiffened out and died, while the worm in the water seemed to be all right. "Now", said the professor triumphantly, "what does that prove to you about whiskey?"

"Sure, professor", answered one lad, "if you drink whiskey you'll never have worms!"

History of St. Viator College

By Leo V. Nolan, C. S. V.

VI. Coming of the Viatorians.

In the Bourbonnais of the 1860's, the problem of educating the children was the cause of considerable anxiety to the shepherds of the little flock. A few years before, Bourbonnais and the neighboring villages were disturbed by the heresy of that unfortunate apostate priest the Reverend Charles Chiniquy. After his departure, a thorough Catholic education for the children of Bourbonnais became an imperative necessity. On September 24, 1860, the problem of educating the girls of the village was solved by the advent of the Sisters of the Congregation de Notre Dame. Throughout the seventy-five years that have passed since they opened their first school, many fine examples of Catholic womanhood have gone forth from their halls, well equipped to take their place in the world.

Although the girls were well cared for under the excellent tutelage of the sisters, the boys attended the district school, which, at that time, was in the hands of the secular teachers, of whom some were not Catholics. Father Jacques Cate, who took charge of the parish in 1864, earnestly desired that the boys of the village be given proper Catholic instruction. To this end he wrote to the Provincial of the Canadian Viatorians, requesting that brothers be sent to take charge of the boy's school. Not long afterwards, he went to Canada and offered to resign his parish to a Viatorian priest who would be superior of the brothers and director of the school.

In the afternoon of September 6, 1865, the Reverend Pierre Beaudoin, C. S. V., with two brothers, Jean

The Forum

Editor's Note: The following letter from New York was received here last week. It accents the thought expressed in this column last issue by Brother DesLauriers. Dear Brother "Eddie":

Some kind soul remembers me occasionally and drops the VIATORIAN in the mail. Thus it was that yesterday I read your urge to the swimming team (and to the non-swimmers as well).

Keep up the good work . . . the rough plowing that is your lot now is the Spring before the abundant Harvest. Any fool with a school of high repute, a generous alumni, and a top-heavy list of talented applicants can bask in the sun of success; but success is not achievement always. Yours, (as Mr. Lawson said) whether it be in victory or defeat, is achievement. Won't it be a grand experience to sit back in retirement to watch a gang of lads fighting for a place on the team, just as some of the faculty look back at the football teams of their day when replacements were pulled out of the stands? I think that happened even in Father Kelly's day. In fact, I know of an occasion when he was so short-handed in a football game, he gave a nod to the football manager, who promptly made for the fence and home. I never did find out who plugged the gap, but there was some gossip at the time that Father painted himself a mustache and threw the forward pass that won the game.

But, really, the Viator of my day as compared with yours are (apparently) two different schools, yet the boys of my day love it no less than you Keep Chuckin'.

Sincerely,
Jo Harrington.

Baptiste Bernard and Augustin Martel, arrived in Bourbonnais to take charge of the district school. For long hours, on that eventful afternoon, the villagers had been gathered in their door-yards, anxiously awaiting the coming of the Viatorians. The minutes ticked slowly into hours, and still the brothers did not come. Were they coming? A doubt began to arise in the people's minds. Finally, from far down the dusty road came the cry, "The brothers are coming!" The ovation they received from these generous, simple hearted French-Canadian people did much to encourage the brothers to undertake the arduous task that lay before them.

In due course the brothers received their certificates from the Kankakee superintendent of public schools and began to teach in the district school, which stood on the present site of the college grounds. At the end of the first year, the success of the school seemed assured. By this time, the number of pupils had increased, and Brother Lamarche came to increase the small teaching staff. That year, 1867, a commercial course was inaugurated, and room was made for certain of the students to sleep at school; although, for a while, there were no boarders.

The brothers bought the school from the town board in 1868 for $3,000, payable in teaching. That same year heralded the completion of a new building and the introduction of the classical college curriculum, under the direction of the Reverend Thomas Roy, C. S. V., the first president of the new college. The college curriculum in 1868 consisted of French, Latin, Philosophy, Greek and Mathematics. By 1870, a course in vocal and instrumental music was added and a Theological department opened. On September 1, 1871, Brother Moses J. Marsile, later to become the much esteemed President of St. Viator College, arrived to take over the department of French Literature.

Thus did this small school, humbly begun, enlarge in a brief span of years. From a grade school housed in a two story building, it comprised, after a short time, not only a grade school, but a commercial and classical college.

Does Common Things In The Uncommon Way

Tuskegee, Ala.—(ACP) — From wood shavings he has made synthetic marble. From peanut shells he has made insulating walls for houses. From the muck of swamps and the leaves of the forest floor he has made valuable fertilizers. From the common peanut he has made 235 useful products, including milk, cheese, instant coffee, pickles, oils, dyes, lard, shaving lotions, shampoo, printer's ink, and even axle grease! From the lowly sweet potato he has made 118 products.

Scientific marvels from nothing, or almost nothing. Such has been the incredible achievement of Dr. George Washington Carver, distinguished Negro scientist, who for 35 years has been director of agricultural research at Tuskegee Institute, noted Negro school here.

Born in a rude slave cabin in Missouri about 70 years ago (Dr. Carver does not know the exact date) he began his education with a Webster blue-book speller. Today his honors include a Bachelor of Science, Master of Science, honorary Doctor of Science, winner of the Spingarn medal for Negro achievement, member of the Royal Society for the Encouragement of Arts, Manufactures and Commerce of Great Britain.

The aging Negro's versatility is remarkably demonstrated in fields other than science. Dr. Carver is an accomplished artist, and is especially skilled in painting flowers. His works have been exhibited at world fairs, and some are to be hung in the Luxembourg gallery in Paris after his death. He makes all his own paints, using Alabama clays. He makes his paper from peanut shells and the frames of his pictures are made from corn husks.

Dr. Carver is a skilled musician and once toured the country as a concert pianist.

Southern Five—

tion of the smooth-functioning Southern scoring machine is shown by the following quotation from Fred Young's column in the Bloomington Pantagraph. Mr. Young was the referee in the game.

"Considerable water will pass over the dam before state college basketball followers see another near-perfect exhibition as the Southern Illinois Teachers turned in at Bourbonnais in removing St. Viator from the Championship race in another startling upset. St. Viator, favored to win, was completely outclassed, but any other team in the conference would have been just as decisively outclassed if they had been opposing the "Southern Brides", who turned in one of those games you read about but rarely see.

"Southern made just one bad pass in the entire ball game, it controlled the tip 95 per cent of the time, regardless of who jumped; it hit more than 60 per cent of its shots and its perfect execution of the fast break often found four or five men against the Irish's two, so perfectly was McAndrew's team clicking".

THE LIBRARY LOG

It is gratifying to note the increase in our Circulation. More reading has been done this year than last. Last year, with a total registration of one hundred and ninety-five students, three hundred and sixty-eight books were read in the month of January. This year with a total registration of two hundred and fifteen students, there were seven hundred and eighty-eight books read. In November of last year three hundred and fifty-six books were read; in November of this year four hundred and ninety-one were read.

Figures in the Circulation Record also show the kinds of books that are most widely read. Literature (drama, essays and criticism, poetry) is easily the most popular. History ranks next highest. In January there was a considerable increase in the number of Sociology books circulated. In February, Chemistry took the lead over Sociology.

The following figures are interesting to note:

	Nov. '34	Nov. '35	Dec. '34	Dec. '35
Philosophy	33	47	27	35
Religion	46	36	16	27
Sociology	37	31	33	36

History	66	86	65	95
Travel	3		4	12
Biography	28	13	20	23
Fiction	120	62	57	36

Last year two thousand two hundred and forty-one books were circulated the first semester. This year three thousand six hundred and eighty-three have been circulated to date; an increase of one thousand four hundred and forty-two books.

TOM GIBBONS

Tommy Gibbons, pictured above, has been proving to be the "spark-plug" of many of the Viator cage machine's last minute drives for victory this season. Held in reserve until the final minutes of the game, Gibbons is usually substituted for either Betourne or McElligott and always manages to come through with the points necessary for victory. In the past three games it has been his uncanny ability to get loose for baskets that have brought the victory wreath to the Irish.

Common Clay A One Act Play

(Associated Collegiate Press)

It must have been a hot day — that time the editor of the Corpus Christi Texas Caller noticed in his paper that three college presidents at that moment were fishing out in the gulf stream. And here, according to the imagination of the Corpus Christi editor, is what happened on the fishing boat:

First president—This, gentlemen, appears to me as an ideal day and an ideal setting for our piscatorial adventures.

Second president—Quite so, my dear doctor. I was just thinking I have seldom seen a sea of a more divine and cerulean hue. Fishing amid such surroundings as these is indeed not only restful but inspiring.

Third president—I, too, am deeply pleased with it, gentlemen. I find that here I am able completely to relax. The problems that yesterday vexed my mind here assume proportions of absolute insignificance. Under the spell of the majesty of sea and sky, they seem utterly inconsequential. I find it all very restful.

First president—No doubt there lies the secret of the calm which so many of the pastoral philosophers were able to attain. In such an environment as this, one finds no petty annoyances to disturb the flow of calm and calculated reason.

Third president—Poetic philosophers too, gentlemen, can only find true expression in such circumstances. Do you recall those matchless lines of Theacrates—

First president—Pardon the interruption, doctor, but unless my eyes deceive me, there appears to be one of those finny denizens of the deep following close upon us.

(And then follows an interlude during which the First President receives instructions from his associates on how to sink the hook and how to reel in the fish. The climax approaches.)

Third president—Reel faster, doc. Reel faster. Do you need any help?

First President—No! No! Just give me room!

Second president — Hot dawg! Watch that baby jump!

Third president—Ride 'em cowboy! Whoopee! Watch out for that rod. Here, doc, you better let me—

First president—Hell no! Get outta my way and give me room! (The frantic fish makes a rush toward the boat, leaps high and shakes the hook from his mouth. Dead silence in the boat for one long second.)

All three presidents—Damn! (The End)

What Is MORTEX?

Perfect Preservative Protection

Liquid Emulsified Asphalt

A perfect protective coating for brushing, spraying or trowelling, being a high grade Mexican asphalt dispersed as minute particles in water for convenient handling. It is applied cold. As the moisture evaporates, a black, flexible rubberlike film remains which is waterproof, acid, alkaline and fire resistant, and shuts out infiltrations of air.

Mortex 5 does not crack or peel in coldest weather, nor blister, sag nor run on hottest days and always remains elastic. It is odorless, tasteless and noninflammable and can be safely used in confined places. It readily bonds to all clean surfaces, and also to damp surfaces, but should never be applied over dusty, dirty, greasy or oily surfaces or an imperfect bond will result. Use only on clean surfaces to obtain perfect satisfaction.

Used for DAMPPROOFING WALLS and FLOORS, PAINTING GALVANIZED IRON, PROTECTING CLEAN IRON AND STEEL, ROOF REPAIRING and as an ADHESIVE. It can be mixed with Portland Cement and dries out a soft gray color for patching deteriorating concrete.

Fifth Round Closes

The ding-dong battle of the Nazi and Switchmen brought the fifth round of the College Club Intramural basketball tournament to a close with both the Nazi and Switchmen tied for first place with 4 wins and one defeat apiece. Upsets were absent from this round of play and the favorites came through in grand style.

"Specs" Nelson, the genial leader of the St. Bernard Hall team, again proved to be the scoring punch of the Bernadities and lead his team to a 21 to 20 victory over the Day Dodgers as he himself gathered 5 gaskets for scoring honors of the evening.

In this round the Celtics downed the Aces, 28 to 23; Crooners whipped the Midgets, 20 to 18 in a closely fought battle, and the Switchmen overcame the Nazi, 25 to 23 in an overtime fray.

Just two more rounds of the Intramural tournament and the winning team will have won the Title of Champions. Coach McNamara, varsity mentor, has promised that the winning squad will be given invitations to the varsity basketball banquet at which time they will receive their awards along with the varsity men.

For centuries the world has gone to the Near East for its flavors and aromas and spices.

...and today Chesterfield imports thousands of bales of tobacco from Turkey and Greece to add flavor and fragrance to Chesterfield Cigarettes.

Turkish tobacco is expensive. The import duty alone is 35 cents a pound. But no other place except Turkey and Greece can raise tobacco of this particular aroma and flavor.

This Turkish tobacco, blended with our own American tobaccos in the correct proportions to bring out the finer qualities of each tobacco, helps to make Chesterfields outstanding for mildness and for better taste.
