

VIATOR OPENS 65th YEAR HOMECOMING CELEBRATION SUCCESSFUL

LARGE CROWD AT ANNUAL HOMECOMING

DALE MILLER'S ORCHESTRA
FURNISHES MUSIC; RILEY
CHAIRMAN IN CHARGE OF ARRANGEMENT

On the evening of September 30, the annual Homecoming was held at St. Viator College. Under the able direction of William Riley arrangements were made for the entertainment of the Alumni and the other friends of the college who make it a point to visit her on the occasion of her first home football game.

In order of time the game came first, and here as well as in practically all of the other events of the evening, conditions were perfect—for St. Viator. The weather was ideal for football, clear and crisp, but not too cold, the sort of thing that devotees of the pigskin long for, but seldom get. For St. Viator, at least, the state of the weather was a good omen—Whitewater went down in ignominious defeat before the onslaught of the Irish, to the tune of 19-0. So it was in a very festive mood that most of the spectators of the game adjourned to the gymnasium, where a less strenuous type of entertainment was offered.

The decoration committee had expended the utmost time and labor in making the gym as attractive as possible, and the result was a characteristically autumnal effect—the lights were shaded mellowly with gold, the primal color of fall, and pumpkin-guarded corn-shocks, almost emblematic of the season, were placed at intervals around the floor. Against such a background the rich hues of autumn gowns stood out to the mutual advantage of the ladies who wore them and the decorative scheme in general. Brown and reds with an occasional subtle accent of black or white, predominated, and in the radiance of the lights, or in the deep shadows, the effect was equally lovely.

The syncopated rhythms of Dale Miller's Orchestra, a great favorite at the college, were an irresistible invitation to the dancers. With only a few exceptions, the orchestra selected its numbers from among the more melodious of the season's hits, a fact which recommended it strongly to its audience. If we are to judge by the testimony of the dancers themselves, the numbers played by the orchestra and the manner in which they were rendered were heartily approved by all present.

Chaperons of the dance were: Mr. and Mrs. Charles Carroll, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Crawford and Mr. James Burke Monahan.

In addition to the general chairman, William Riley, credit for the success of the Homecoming Dance is due in no small measure to the

Graduate Students Return To Continue Work

With the opening of the new Scholastic Year, a number of students returned to continue their academic efforts in the capacity of post-graduates. Our heartfelt best wishes go out to these happy ladies and gentlemen, whose thirst for the revivifying waters of wisdom leads them back once more to the loving wing of Alma Mater. A treatise on the efficacy of higher learning may be somewhat amiss here, but be that as it may, we feel that the work of these students is deserving of special notice. Again best wishes!

BRO. DESLAURIERS IN CHARGE OF CANDY STORE

New Proprietor States That "Service and Satisfaction" Will Be His Aim

The Candy Store, the favorite rendezvous of the student body, will this year be under the direct supervision and conduction of Brother Francis DesLauriers. This is the general entrance of all mail for the students and before dinner and supper the angry cry "any mail for me" has to be answered by the attendant ad infinitum.

Brother DesLauriers who in the past has confined his balancing to chemistry equations and English sentences has decided to branch out his experiences into the fields of budget balancing, soda jerking and sandwich making. Ye scribe upon entering aforesaid candy store before opening of the season witnessed a scene too good to keep out of print. Upon entering the store I cast my eyes toward the counter just in time to see a great mixture of chocolate, milk, malt and egg fly into the air. After dashing up front to see who the poor misfortunate person was that happened to be standing where the mixture landed. After using four or five towels to wipe off the person, who should ye scribe find him out to be but the proprietor himself. The only reply from said proprietor was "Oh well practice makes perfect..."

When interviewed as to what policies he intended to carry out during the coming year Brother DesLauriers said that service and satisfaction were to be the watch-words of his business. Upon the question of credit, he said that seeing how the credit of even the nation was almost nil, he said that he would sell anything to anybody even though he had his stock wiped out by the sale. Your credit is good until that last nickel is spent, Brother asserts. Brother DesLauriers has done away with the old ice box and had a frigidaire installed, the reason for this he states is that in the past there has been a great loss in ice not due to melting but to the rather abnormal amount of scratches accessory to the book-keeping.

AT CATHOLIC U.

REV. THOMAS J. LYNCH

FORMER DEAN TEACHING AT CATHOLIC U.

WILL STUDY FOR DOCTOR'S DEGREE

A great teacher and scholar has departed from our midst to accept his rightful place in the literary world. Father "Tom" Lynch is no longer Dean of Studies and Head of the English Department, but has selected the nation's capitol as the scene of his future labors. Catholic University will greatly profit by this action, but St. Viator suffers an enormous loss.

It is said that he had no great desire to leave the institution that had sheltered him, and at the same time had absorbed something lasting from his very presence, for nineteen years, but that the final offer made by the eastern school was too wonderful an opportunity to refuse.

Although possessing an unsurpassed knowledge of all the branches of English literature, Father Lynch must put in the required residential period in Washington to secure his Doctor's degree. However, during this time he will serve as an Associate Professor in the subject so beloved by him.

All during his career as a teacher and student at St. Viator, Father Lynch has been beloved both by his associates and his pupils. Many an underclassman, at first grumbling over the lengthy English assignments soon learned that Father Lynch had a deep personal interest in each and

College Classes To Organize For Year

With the resumption of classes of study, the various college groups are expected to meet in the near future to complete their organization for the ensuing year. Officers for the Senior, Junior and Sophomore Classes were elected at the final meetings of last Spring, and business meetings will be called by the various presidents shortly. The Freshman class will be called to order for election of officers and general organization by William J. Riley, Jr., president of the College Club and ipso facto head of all College organizations.

GALLAHUE GOES TO CATHOLIC U. FOR DEGREE

Office Manager Will Work For Doctorate in Econ- omics

Mr. E. E. (Eddie) Gallahue, the genial and capable manager of the college for the past two years, was the Illinois student who scored the highest average to qualify for a Knights of Columbus post-graduate scholarship at the Catholic University this year. He has already begun his work on a Doctorate in Economics.

It is with a great amount of real pleasure that we note the bestowal of this reward, but at the same time we deeply regret that he will no longer be with us. For Ed. Gallahue was the most reliable and sympathetic friend a student could have. Although he was connected principally with the business part of the institution's affairs, he was personally concerned with the trials and successes of each individual student. His high sense of appreciativeness will not soon be forgotten.

Many a student has a warm place in his heart for Ed. Gallahue because of the favors received from him. To enumerate some of these would be to intrude upon the bond that existed between him and the students.

His was a difficult task, especially in these days of depression. However, he never forgot his smile, nor allowed worries to decrease his efficiency. His place will be difficult to fill.

Ed. Gallahue came to St. Viator from Piper City in 1923 and was graduated with the illustrious class of 1927. It was under his direction while he was yet a Senior, that most of the work on the new gymnasium and refectory was completed. He taught book-keeping in the Academy in 1927-1928, and at the same time acted as assistant to the Rev. Daniel A. O'Connor, CSV, then treasurer of the college, and now principal of Cathedral High School, Springfield, Illinois. He succeeded Father O'Connor in 1930 as manager of the college.

The best wishes of the student body go with the future Dr. Gallahue.

MASS OF HOLY GHOST OPENS SCHOOL YEAR

STUDENTS ATTEND IN A BODY; THE VERY REV. J. W. R. MA- GUIRE GIVES SERMON

A Solemn Mass of the Holy Ghost officially opened the sixty-fifth scholastic year at St. Viator on Wednesday morning, September 21st. Very Rev. J. W. R. Maguire, CSV, President of the college was the celebrant, Rev. Thomas Sullivan, CSV, was deacon, and Rev. Everett J. Williams was sub-deacon. Rev. Bro. William J. Cracknell, CSV, acted as master of ceremonies.

All the members of the faculty and of the senior class appeared in caps and gowns, and marched in solemn procession before and after the services. The music for the occasion was furnished by a choir under the direction of Rev. Eugene Suprenant, CSV.

Immediately following the Mass, the first classes of the new year were held. Many of the professors used the periods to become acquainted with their pupils, while others began the year by outlining their courses and making assignments.

Many Changes.

Rev. Richard J. French, CSV, Ph. D. is the new Dean of Studies, succeeding Rev. T. J. Lynch, now at the Catholic University. Rev. Francis J. Harbauer, CSV, who returned to the college last March after completing his theological studies at Washington, is the new Dean of Discipline. He succeeds Father French. The other faculty changes are noted in another article.

FATHER MARZANO TAKES OVER NEW WORK

At the beginning of the new scholastic year Father Christopher Marzano C. S. V. was appointed head of the treasurer's office. This work has in the past been handled by Edward Gallahue who is now attending the Catholic University in Washington, D. C. Apart from this position Father Marzano also is the head of the science department and conducts several classes in chemistry. This work is not new for Father Marzano as he has held in the last few years the responsible position of treasurer of St. Viator's College. He was recently reappointed in this capacity in conjunction with his new work. Father Marzano has several assistants under him, as the position demands more time than can be given by one man. Brother Rowland, a graduate of the Sorbonne, and who possesses his doctor's degree in the sciences is the first assistant. Leon Winterhalter, replacing Mr. Shea of last year is in charge of the book-keeping. Another branch of the office that Father Marzano has under

A GOLDEN JUBILEE

With this issue we begin the fiftieth year of the existence of the VIATORIAN, the official student publication of St. Viator College. It is with a sense of deep humility that the present staff takes up its work. Reviewing the past fifty years, names are found among the staff workers of the VIATORIAN, that since have become noted in the service of their Church, State and fellow citizens. The model that is to be found in these individuals will serve as a standard so high that, while the present writers may not reach it, they will profit immeasurably by the effort they will make to do so.

The VIATORIAN has become an integral part of the life of the student body of St. Viator College. In its columns, students have found the best medium for the expression of their ideals and the reporting of their scholastic, athletic, and social activities. The Alumni have found in it news of their old class-mates that has served to hold them more close to the Alma Mater and their memories of "the old days."

Great changes have been wrought in those fifty years. They have witnessed social and political, as well as industrial upheaval. But we hope and we trust that the VIATORIAN has preserved the spirit of cooperation and sacrifice characteristic of the founder of St. Viator College and its faculty today.

The standards of scholarship in the literary tradition of the VIATORIAN are high, indeed, and we feel it to be our duty to strive to continue this tradition. With the example of brilliant predecessors the present staff sincerely hopes to achieve this success, and to them pays its tribute of honor and high respect.

LARGE CROWD ATTENDS FOR ST. BERNARD'S HALL BENEFIT PERFORMANCE

A large and appreciative audience was in attendance at the Knights of Columbus hall in Kankakee on Friday evening, September 30th, to witness "The Arrival of Kitty," staged by the clever and talented St. Andrew's players of Chicago. Round after round of applause and laughter greeted the players as they worked into their comical situations, reached ridiculous climaxes, and "got off" their pungent lines. This group of amateur players, Laroy Peterson,

DAY · HOPPING

The formation of an indoor league has brought forth a wave of enthusiasm among the day-hops. The dodgers will be represented by two teams—one with Bill "Bambino" Clancy as captain, and the other with "Sunny Jim" O'Connell as pilot. From the way O'Connell struts around the study hall wreathed in a big victory smile a person would think Jim had the championship sewed up. When asked how a tournament between the two day student teams could be arranged he replied, "I can't be bothered with any such tournament, I'm going after the league crown." Whata man, O'Connell, whata man!

The study hall once more resounds with the call of bridge. Ripstra, "Rubinoff" Portney, Spielberger, and Lang seem the most promising prospects however, the freshmen have some classy material in Baron, Brouillette and Snow. The season will not be a success, however, because of the absence of the Bereolos brothers.

There seems to be a rumor of a freshmen initiation floating around. Probably that's why the freshmen are in such a big hurry to get out of the building after last class.

George Waiflein, Glenmore Patterson, Ellen Crigley, Julia Malz, Betty Kalck, Richard Pratt, William Rice, and Theresa Jacobs, are well trained and bid fair to attain success in professional roles. It would be a difficult task to single out the cleverest of this group, whether he be in a major or minor role, as they all gave excellent portrayals of their roles.

A large measure of the success of this play was due to the efforts of Marie V. Maloney, dramatic director, and Mrs. Louise McGuinness, an expert make-up artist. Mrs. W. Sekorski, Helen Gion and Sylvia Leischner furnished the music between the acts.

The play was given for the benefit of St. Bernard's hall at the college. Rev. Francis E. Munsch, C. S. V., director of the Hall, was in complete charge of the whole affair and deserves much of the credit for its success.

DISTINGUISHED DOCTOR OF PHILOSOPHY RESUMES TEACHING

St. Viator College is happy to welcome back to her campus the Rev. E. V. Cardinal, C. S. V., Ph. D. Father Cardinal returns to the college to take up his work as head of the Department of History after three year's absence spent in preparation for his doctorate.

Father Cardinal obtained his Doctor of Philosophy degree with a major in History from the University of Illinois last June. Previous to his graduation, he had studied intensively in Italy preparing for his thesis on "Cardinal Campeggio at the Divorce Court of Tenry VIII". His dissertation was written from source material obtained in the Secret Archives of the Vatican and the archives of the Campeggio family in Bologna, and was pronounced one of the most interesting ever submitted to the University.

S. V. C. SORORITY MEETS MONTHLY

In the past the Sorority has discontinued its monthly meetings during the summer vacation but at the close of last year it was unanimously decided to break the precedent and hold the meetings monthly as had been done the previous eight months. In this way the contacts formed during the school year would not be even temporarily broken.

Miss Gorman First Hostess

The first meeting of the season was held at the home of Miss Rosanna Gorman, on June 13. Election of officers for the year 1932-1933 was held, with the following results: President, Miss Rosanna Gorman; vice-president, Miss Loretta Flanagan; secretary, Miss Mary Cruise; treasurer, Miss Marie Smole. The other three meetings were held at the home of Miss Mary Taylor, Miss Mary Ellen Smith, and the Misses Clancy, respectively, and were mainly social in character. At this point it might be well to remark that on no occasion have the co-eds been guilty of playing sacrilegious bridge, nor have they indulged in any other form of diversion unbecoming to the dignity of their society.

CAMPUS BRIEFS

And so back to another year as a Viatorian writer . . . just a life of books and baloney . . . this is about to be, however, our first and last attempt of the year to edify the campus with accounts of the mis-steps of the student body . . . we are THROUGH with this scandal job, and we don't mean IF . . . after this issue, never again . . . we are tired of losing all our friends, and we'd like to end the year with a few speaking acquaintances, at least . . . and the insults we have to take . . . the other evening someone suggested that we be called "Moses" because every time we open our mouth the bull rushes . . . well, lads, most of you will find your innermost secrets exposed below . . . don't kick, remember, it's the last time that we will do it . . .

... AND JUST SUPPOSE WE TOLD ALL THAT WE KNOW ABOUT YOU!

We can't think of a better place to start than a recounting of another version of the eternal triangle . . . and we don't mean the thing that babies wear, either . . . this one concerns our old friends George Fleming, and the SPREITZER - DEGNAN combination . . . we are not so sure that this can be called a triangle, though, since it is a five-sided figure, what with Degnan beating Fleming out for the Homecoming Dance, and Fleming, in retaliation, beating poor, innocent little Spreitz out of his very extra special best date . . . failure of Hal Rosensteel to be in our midst nearly lost us our favorite triangle until Ed Hunt took up the good work where Hallie left off . . . filling the Rosensteel shoes seems to be right up Ed's alley, judging from his dates before and at the Homecoming . . . Pete Laffey seems determined to keep a certain Kankakee family interested in De La Salle boys exclusively . . . we also hear that Handsome Jack McGrath, former obtuse angle of the triangle, is to receive a cut of all peroxide sales made by Rexall . . . seems that Jack once expressed a preference for blondes . . . have you seen Jerry lately? . . . Gill Middleton has relinquished his former position in the Fraternity own very private triangle . . . from the look intercepted when he entered the Homecoming game, we'd say that the Bradley school children will be in for a pretty tough week . . . and a post-grad, Lottinville, by name, seems to be bidding for a hero's grave, too . . . beware, Armand, these are cold dawns to die on, and we used to be pretty fair with a sabre!

Well, well, welcome back, gentlemen . . . although Wallie Wal Kowiack is definitely eliminated from this category . . . a day-dog . . . ts, ts, ts, . . . and he was such a fine fellow too . . . well, it all goes to show, and we're up today and down tomorrow.

And what did you do with YOUR summer? Seems that Leon Winterhalter just couldn't resist the call of the old village . . . Lee has become, you know, a devotee of the get 'em young and train 'em right school . . . fifteen year old, this time.

We do wish to deny one iniquitous story that has been going about though. There is absolutely no truth in the fable that Jim Dugan passed his glass when the hostess at dinner the other evening asked him if he would like some more corn.

Even if college men can't be tactful, their aunts can. At any rate, Earl O'Mara's relative saved that Soph from considerable embarrassment the other day by casting her coat over the other woman's picture just as Earl's ONLY ONE dropped in for a call . . . that's calling your shots, auntie!

We understand (although this might properly go under "alumni notes") that the Packard company is considering a branch sales agency in Manteno with our old friend Chuck Carney in charge. Demonstrations made during the summer in the nearby community are reported to have been highly gratifying to the inhabitants. Or should we say The Inhabitant?

Although Roy Hall is not yet crowded to capacity, there has been an exodus of certain of its members to other resting places . . . Charlie Byron is reported as being so in love with his work that he desires to sleep on the premises . . . but bowling alleys are ouridea of dog-gone hard beds.

The Hayes family is preparing for Thanksgiving early this year . . . something like "Do Your Christmas Shopping Early", although this seems to be a "Do Your Pumpkin Shopping Early" . . . and we wondered what happened to those other two pumpkins from the gym for a long time, Red.

GORMAN, CHAMPION RESISTER, SUCCUMBS

We've waited a long time for this story, and now that we have it, we have to spill it. Concerns Ed Gorman, and seems that the Champion Resister of SVC has at last found resistance is too much work. Nice girl anyhow, Eddie, and a nice house, with green fields, and pretty bushes, and little walks, and big trees, and paths.

With its guiding lights, Herb Shea and Eddie O'Neil, gone it is doubtful whether or not the Bushy Club can be revived. Joe Gorman and Middleton are a pair of old standbys, and from all indications, Jim McNally and Harry Rutecki are a pair of promising acolytes—but there is no one left to carry the tenor part in the theme song—"Slow But Sure."

Just by way of generalization . . . the Briefs know where Ken Corcoran spent his first evening (and many succeeding evenings) after his return to the Viator campus . . . and you should be able to guess . . . how about "You've Got Me in the Palm of Your Hand" for a student theme song to the faculty . . . Ken Bushman did not write the popular song "Moonbeams, Kiss Her for Me" . . . the Senior Bowling Team will undoubtedly be the class of the campus . . . Jim Hunt contracted that habit of laying a bowling ball on the scales every time he weighs himself this summer . . . he was weighing clerk in a grocery store . . . Doc Meany is back with the famous picture perched on his desk, ready for another year's gazing . . . Harry Rutecki does NOT thank the members of the student body for recognizing his taste in sweethearts this summer . . . Harry is still looking for that nice home-loving girl . . . since Bob Nolan, Burke Monahan Don Anderson, and Herb Shea shattered his last dream . . . Bill Gibbons is expected to make a strong bid for Breeze Session honors again this year having given up pink teas and returned to the straight and narrow path of honest dishonesty in his breezing . . . we see that Homecoming was Paul LaRocque's turn . . . and John Donald Hickey stayed home . . . Oh, what I know about you, Marie Smole . . . Blue ribbons for the Freshmen for their support of the Homecoming affair . . . that's showing the upper-classes some spirit, fellows . . . and as for your President . . . well, it must have been pretty hard

While I was contentedly enjoying my dinner the other day—(No! you cynic I wasn't invited out), I was informed that I was a wit. (The above statement is made to afford the opportunity for certain jokers to enjoyably debase themselves by telling the first poor unfortunate they meet that my informant was half right). After many more insults I was told to write this column and have it in inside of two days. Tsk, tsk, such is life; you will suffer but there is no need for me to—I am prepared to nonchalantly ignore the morons whom I know will for weeks hence address me with the nauseating phrase "Who even told you that you were funny?"

And now a few words to the Freshmen. A welcome?—you possibly may never know just how much that you are. And to make you feel more at home, I advise that you see the President of the Sophomore Class immediately and demand certain privileges, most important of which, that one which entitles each and every one of you to distinguish yourselves by a certain top-piece, in color, green. And to further demonstrate my good will, I invite all of you, though somewhat grudgingly to share with me those long Saturday nights in the company of the distinguished President of the Senior Class, Ralph Edson Hoover. In the event of my absence, merely enter his room, 201, lay on the bed, take a few of his cigarettes, make a bet with him on the efficiency of his cigarette lighter, and start off the "conversation" by asking very seriously "Say Ralph, what was in the Beginning?" After the first hour, if the noise is too great (he hasn't a radio) try to fall asleep. P. S. Don't let Ed. Hunt send you after the key to wind the sun dial.

LIBRARY NOTES

CIRCULATION OF BOOKS

All members of the student body wishing to draw books from the library must at the beginning of each school year sign an application card to be obtained at the loan desk.

Two books of fiction and any reasonable number of non-fiction may be withdrawn for a period of two weeks and renewed for the same length of time unless on reserve or otherwise stated.

The date on which the book is due will be found stamped on the slip facing the pocket.

All persons wishing to borrow or return books must present them at the charging desk.

Damages

All losses or injuries beyond reasonable wear, however, caused, must be promptly adjusted.

Fines

A fine of two cents a day is charged for books kept over the time limit of two weeks, and no other book may be drawn until the fine is paid.

Magazines and Newspapers

The current magazines and newspapers are not circulated. They must be read in the Reading Room. Application may be made for back numbers of magazines and newspapers at the charging desk. These also must be read in the Reading Room. Bound numbers of magazines are subject to the same rule.

Reserve Books

These are books put on reference by teachers. They must be read in the library. A reserve book may be taken from the library for use in room only at 9:45 p. m. when the library closes. It must be returned the next morning sharply at 8 a. m. Failure to return it means the forfeiture of a fifty cent fine. Repetition of this offense means a loss of library privileges.

Library Hours

PRIVATE and PERSONAL

You have made your paper our own very favorite publication. We feel that we owe an especial debt of gratitude to the young lady, whoever she may be, who addresses your exchanges. For three years we have been addressed as Ralph Hoover, Editor, The Viatorian. For that compliment we feel deeply grateful, for our term as editor of this publication expired at the end of our Sophomore year, and we have been but one of the minor hanger-ons ever since. Yet just when the days were darkest, our check from home overdue, the profs riding us, the Dean reminding us of overcut classes, the student body kicking about our column, your paper always arrived and somehow seemed to cast a little warm glow about our heart and make us feel something better than a total loss. Let the country have its Hoover, Roosevelt, and Thomas—if you were to run for President tomorrow, our vote would be for YOU!

CARL J. LAMPE TO EDIT LOCAL INDEP'T WEEKLY

ASSUMED NEW DUTIES WITH THE ISSUE OF OCTOBER 7; FORMER EDITOR OF THE VIATORIAN

Announcement was recently been made that Carl J. Lampe, '33, former St. Viator student, and editor of The VIATORIAN last year, has been appointed editor of the Kankakee Bulletin, an independent weekly newspaper published in Kankakee and the surrounding community.

Although the paper began publication only a short time ago, it already has a large circulation which is steadily increasing. Mr. Lampe's experience as editor-in-chief of the VIATORIAN is proving of immense value to him in his new position and will undoubtedly aid him in making the publication a power in the locality.

Mr. Lampe's many friends at St. Viator College extend, through The VIATORIAN, their best wishes for success in his new undertaking.

We haven't seen a first class bull session in progress yet, but with Smitty from Manteno and Larruping Lou" Dressler from Bradley as two bulwarks there ought to be a few shovels broken this year.

ALUMNI NOTES

Frank A. Enter, one of Viator's loyal alumni and the uncle of Father Lemartin paid a welcome visit to his Alma Mater during the summer. Mr. Enter attended St. Viator College from 1888 to 1892 and is now a prominent attorney in Los Angeles, California. Forty five years and two thousands miles have failed to dim the love of Frank Enter for the scene of his four happiest years.

Charles Golden who attended College here way, way back with such young Alumni as Father P. C. Conway returned to the campus this summer and enjoyed a visit with Magr. Legris and Father Marsile.

Father T. E. Shea of the class of 1918 and former chancellor of the Peoria Diocese was recently appointed Pastor of St. Mary's Church in Pontiac, Illinois.

Good old "Joe" Perko who graduated from the Academy here in 1925 is now directing his own orchestra in Chicago. Good luck Joe, but we hope you don't sing. As we remember, you never were much of a crooner.

The Reverend John J. Farrell C. S. V., assistant to Father Corbett at St. Viator's Parish in Chicago, is seriously ill in St. Mary of Nazareth Hospital, Chicago. Father Farrell has been ailing for some three months and it is the wish of the Faculty and students of St. Viator College that his recovery be complete and speedy.

* * * * *

The mother of The Reverend Francis Shea, pastor of Immaculate Conception Church in Waukegan, Illinois, died recently. The Reverend J. P. O'Mahoney C. S. V. represented the College at the funeral.

The College of St. Viator takes this opportunity to offer its sympathies to the relatives of the Reverend John Hayden. The loss of this Alumnus was deeply felt upon the campus. Father Hayden was born in Wilmington, Illinois, and studied his philosophy at the College from 1891 to 1895. He obtained his degree in Theology in Baltimore and was ordained to the Holy Priesthood in 1899. Since then he has been stationed at the Church of Mount Carmel in Chicago, Our Lady of Lourdes in Chicago, St. Lawrence Parish, Chicago, and Chaplain at Nazareth and St. Joseph Academies in LaGrange, Illinois. The Reverend J. P. O'Mahoney, C.S.V., preached the funeral sermon.

Somebody said that ine tenths of the college students were dead from their shoulders up. Now we know why Hickey brings the "dead wagon" to school."

Irish Defeat Wis. Teachers

SAINT VIATOR GRIDDERS DROP ONE TO DE PAUL

Bernard's Spectacular Run In Final Minutes. Climaxes Thrilling Battle; Doody Stars for Blue Demons

In their first game of the year, the Fighting Irish team of Saint Viator went down in defeat at the hands of De Paul University. Under the lights at Loyola Field in Chicago, the teams played to a crowd of five thousand people. The fans saw one of the most thrilling games of this year as they watched the Irish of Viator, in the role of underdog, fight gamely against the Blue Demons of De Paul University in an uneven struggle in which the Chicagoans won out by a score of 13 to 6. The score of this game does not tell the true story of the struggle. The Viatorians matched every play of the De Paulians and the only weakness of the Irish was their inability to snag the speedy Steffen, who made a specialty of tearing the line to pieces in his cut-back plays.

De Paul Scores in First Quarter
In the middle of the first quarter after both teams had tried out their plays trying to estimate the flaws in the opponents make-up, De Paul chalked up the first counter as the result of three drives by Butcher and Steffen. With the ball on the three yard line, Jablonski, full back for the Chicago team was able to push through the center of the line for a touch-down. Doody, quarter back, made good for the point after the douch-down with a drop kick and as the quarter ended Viator was trailing on the end of a 7 to 0 score. In the opening of the second quarter, Viator went on fighting and was marching its way down the field for what looked like a touchdown on straight plays but was stopped by two penalties which gave the ball to De Paul. De Paul punted out of danger. Although Coach Corcoran threw his whole reserve strength into the game in another attempt to score, the Chicago team was able to hold fast to their seven point lead. With both teams trying to score De Paul again broke loose in a series of end runs and after two first downs by Doody, who placed the ball on the 15 yard line, Steffen was stopped at the goal by the line defense of the Viatorians. The first half ended with the Kelly-men of De Paul leading by the score of 7 to 0.

Bernard Thrills Crowd with 95 Yard Run.

In the beginning of the third quarter, Dave Bernard, freshman full-back for St. Viator, brought the 5,000 fans to their feet as he picked up the De Paul kick-off on the five yard line and pranced through the whole opposing team and planted the ball behind the De Paul goal line for the first Irish touchdown. With the Viatorian fans yelling for him to tie the score Westray was unable to boot the drop kick for the extra point. Through the rest of this quarter, the time of the Irish was taken up trying to stop the determined Blue Demons from scoring, but late in the quarter Steffen got away for a fourteen yard run around right which netted the De Paulians another six points and left the Viatorians in the lurch with the score at 13 to 6 as the quarter ended.

No Score in the Last Quarter
In the last quarter the De Paulians were content to keep their seven point lead and under the barrage of line bucks, passes and wide end runs, were able to hold up their defense so well that the Viatorians were not able to score throughout this period. The only excitement in this quarter came during one of the daring runs of Laffey when six of the Irish substitutes fell off of the bench. It is a pleasure to report that there were no casualties.

In the matter of first down, Viator was able to garner but four in contrast to the eleven gained by the Chicago team. St. Viator was set back sixty yards in penalties while the Blue Demon outfit went through the entire game with a total of fifteen yards.

CORCORAN NEW HEAD COACH

SUCCEEDS DAHMAN
McINTOSH, ANDERSON
ASSISTANTS

St. Viator's 1932 football edition is being prepared under the generalship of John Corcoran, former St. Louis University football star and coach and pro football player of considerable renown. As coach, Corcoran is being assisted by Sylvester McIntosh, backfield coach, and Don Anderson, former Viator star, line coach.

Corky has been connected with St. Viator athletics for over two years and has won the respect of every man who has worked under him. He came to St. Viator two years ago as boxing coach, and produced a team that put the strongest lineups of such schools as Loyola, Armour Tech, and Valparaiso to their hardest test. When Spring football came around, Corky turned his attention to this sport, and assisted Bucy Dahman in preparing for the fall campaign of 1931.

Taking entirely green material, Corcoran produced a line that became the terror of the Little Nineteen Conference. His center, with Dexter over the ball, and Pexa and Graves at the guards, was undoubtedly one of the most powerful in the Middle-West, and sports writers everywhere paid high tribute to the line coach for his work with these three Freshmen.

When Dahman resigned in January of this year, it became a generally expected thing for Corcoran to succeed him as head coach. His work in the previous season bore the stamp of exceptional ability, so that the announcement of the Athletic Board of his appointment to the position came as a welcome confirmation to the expectations of the student body.

Corcoran is fitted for his position not only through his ability as a theoretical coach, but because of the vast fund of playing experience from which he may draw in order to better coach his teams. For three years he was regular center on the St. Louis University eleven, and one of the outstanding pivots of the nation. At the conclusion of his college career he found himself unable to resist the many tempting offers made him by professional teams, and left the campus to play with the St. Paul Yellow-jackets. The thought of gaining his degree never left his mind, however, and on the first opportunity he returned to St. Louis to resume his studies and coach the Lousian line. From St. Louis he came to Viator, and was graduated with the Bachelor of Commercial Science degree from this school last June.

As to his year's prospects, Corcoran will say but little. He has outlined for his team one of the most difficult schedules ever attempted by an Irish organization, and he is going ahead with it in full confidence that his men will give the best possible account of themselves. The showing made by the light, inexperienced Viator team against an outfit hailed as the greatest of DePaul, gave considerable confidence to the student body, and the easy manner in which the Viator regulars and reserves handled Whitewater has caused considerable speculation on a possible Little Nineteen Championship. Corcoran makes no predictions of victory, but freely promises a clean-fighting, heads-up, battle to the last minute team for every game.

SPORTS · SHORTS

Intramural sports got off to an early start this year, when Bill Riley and Dan O'Connor took it upon themselves to immediately organize an Indoor Baseball League, composed of teams made up of both boarders and day students. The student body, through this column, expresses its thanks to these two young gentlemen for the initiative and effort they have shown in an attempt to create a healthy and enjoyable past-time for the entire student body. Cooperation of all students in playing and attending the games will make this League a huge success.

BERNARD AND WESTRAY STAR FOR IRISH WARRIORS

Green Wave Whitewashes Whitewater in Uneven Contest; Kelly Men, Under Corcoran's tutelage, Show Marked Improvement

The first game of the Indoor League was off to a colorful start but a very dismal finish, when "Slugger" Karr smacked a "blooper" (with due apologies to Pat Flannagan) to left field, and in doing so broke the bat, making further play impossible—much to the satisfaction of Captain Riley, whose team was already on the short end of a three to nothing score.

Each of the eight captains made the following statement as regards their chances to capture the League Championship: "We will win in a walk." That's exactly what Charlie Grimm of the Cubs said on the day preceding the opening of the World Series.

The Opening game was well attended by both faculty members and students. The high-light of the event, was the appearance of Ralph ('erbe') Hoover, who kindly consented to substitute for Burke Monahan in tossing the first ball and officially opening the League.

Captain Riley, whose team was losing in the early innings of the game, explained that his team mates were a bit tired yet from the dance. "Slugger" Karr, when questioned, said his "boys" were tired from running around the bases, else the score would have been much bigger at the time.

Danny O'Connor pitched ball for Riley's team—he hit the bat every time. Jim Hunt exhibited a fine brand of catching—that is, when the ball got past the batter, which was seldom.

Our advice to Father Kelly is that he supply the League with a large—very large, league ball bat, because Doc Meany hasn't batted yet. And if he can swing a baseball bat as effectively as he swings a paddle—well, just consult the Freshmen.

We learned recently that Fred Young, Little Nineteen Sports official and Fred Muhl, of the faculty at Illinois Wesleyan, announced plans for a division of Little Nineteen conference. The plan would result in the following division of the Conference teams:—

Southern Division:—Carbondale, Shurtleff, McKendree, Illinois College, and Charleston.

Northern Division:—St. Viator De-Kalb, Wheaton, Lake Forest and North Centra. Carthage, Momouth, and August-Carthage, Mommouth, and August-ana.

Central Division:—Bradley, Illinois Wesleyan, Millikin, Eureka and Illinois Normal.

We believe the proposed division is fine—geographically, but the teams have not been divided in such manner as to make the rivalry between teams stronger, nor the competition more keen.

We also see the Chebanse special back again with S. Wolfe at the wheel and Francis 'the divine child' and Heinie as passengers.

Amidst all of the festivities of Homecoming, the height of glory was reached by the "Fighting Irish" grid-ders as they whitewashed the Wisconsin Sstate Teachers to the tune of 19 to 0. The credit can be evenly divided between the coaching of Corcoran and MacIntosh and the fighting courage of the Viatorian men. Coming out on the short end of the score againse the Blue Demons of De Paul, they buckled down to hard work during the next week and as the result of the game shows, they were more than able to avenge their defeat at the hands of the Chicago-ians.

Score in First Quarter.
Through a series of line plunges by Bernard and Westray, the Irish were able to place the ball within scoring distance. With the line working to perfection Red Harding was able to tear through for fifteen yards for the first score of the game. Dave Bernard, a freshman, who has already distinguished himself in the De Paul game, was able to boot successfully for the extra point to mark at 7 to 0 in favor of the Irish. Throughout the rest of the first quarter the visiting team was unable to penetrate the Viator defense for any noticeable gains. In the beginning of the second session Coach Corcoran sent in his second team but they were unable to score but at the same time they showed the same strength as the first stringers for the visiting Teachers were unable to make any headway. From the manner in which the shock troops worked it looks as if Coach Corcoran will need have no fear of injuries causing any disturbances for either on the offense or defense their work showed that they performed with the same ability as did the first rankers. In the middle of this quarter after a short series of plunges Westray, Irish half was able to plow through the center of the line for another touch-down to bring the home tally to 13 to 0. It was not until this time that the Teachers made any strong threats when they made a march down the center of the field but were stopped on the twenty yard line.

From the whistle of the second half both teams played a wary game with the Viatorians on the offense most of the time. The eachers line was able to bear up the numerous home thrusts until well in the third quarter when Fuchs was able to tear around the left end of the Wisconsin line for a fifteen yard gain for a touchdown. Bernard could not control his toe and the point after the touchdown was not made. With the Teachers still at the short end of the score at the beginning of the last quarter, they attempted to push the ball over for a score by means of a series of straight line plays interspersed with passes. However, the Viatorian defense was more than ready for the line plays and were able to hold the visitors to no score as the game ended with Viator winning her Homecoming and First and Last home game by a score 19 to 0.

tor fans are accustomed to seeing, both teams displayed a brand of football that was thrilling in its earnestness. The fans left the gates feeling that they had seen a good game. The game was won on the playing of good football and not on breaks.

Viator surpassed the Whitewater-men in every phase of the game with the exception of their defense against the passing attack of the visitors. While every man on the team did his best it seemed that Karr, Westray and Bernard were the shining lights of the game for they were in on every play. It was the booting of Westray in the third quarter that brought the Irish team out of the danger zone when the Teachers threatened to score. In the line plunges when that extra yard was needed, Bernard was called upon and every time delivered. Karr, Abney and Norman, when they took their places at the helm of the Irish team showed rare skill in their picking of flaws in the defense of the opponents. Ed. Hunt, a veteran guard was acting captain for the evening and along with Roche and Quinn, at the guard positions was responsible for the defense strength of the home team.

The Corcoran-men were able to mark up thirteen first down to the Wisconsin Teachers seven. While the Teachers piled up 65 yards in penalties against 50 yards startone for St. Viator.

every student who was registered in the whole college.

In his appreciation and criticism of Literature, Father Lynch was as modern as the morning paper. His classes were never tiresome because they were filled with thought, seasoned with humor, and psychologically presented. His energy and patience astounded everyone who knew him. No one has as yet fully explained just how he found time to keep up in his extensive reading, and yet fulfill his priestly obligations, direct students, and teach his many classes.

He has made innumerable admirers as an orator and lecturer, but his greatest partisans will always be those who sat in his classes and listened attentively to the beautiful prose that issued forth from his lips. The sophomores, juniors and seniors, having had many delightful contacts with him, sincerely regret his departure; and the freshmen, having already heard so much about him, look with real awe upon those who had the privilege of studying under his direction.

In the years to come each new student will hear the praises and the interesting tales built around the memory of the priest who will then undoubtedly be America's most famous teacher and critic of English. To say more would be superfluous, but to say less would be but a feeble attempt to eclipse one of St Viator's most outstanding luminaries.

Father Tom Lynch is a native of Ireland and still possesses a musical brogue. After having spent a few years in study at Trinity College, Dublin, he came to St. Viator as a seminary student in 1913. After a brilliant course as a scholar and debater, he was graduated with high honors in 1916. Before continuing with his Theology he served as a teacher in the old Academy. During the war he was stationed for a time at Camp Grant, Illinois. Upon his return he again took up his duties as a teacher, and at the same time continued with his seminary work. He was ordained by the Bishop of Rockford June 1924 and was stationed at the college until last June. In the interim, besides teaching English, he was debate coach for a few years and in 1929, when Father E. V. Cardinal, C. S. V., went to the University of Illinois for his Doctorate in History, Father Lynch succeeded him as Dean of Studies. He left for Washington in the latter part of June but returned for a short visit here before school reopened.

With such able direction and workable staff everyone looks forward to a year of great efficiency in this office. Father Marzano takes over this position at a very trying time in the business world but it is felt with certainty that in the end we will find that the "de" and "the" have been taken out of the word depression.

WE buy the finest, the very finest tobaccos in all the world—but that does not explain why folks everywhere regard Lucky Strike as the mildest cigarette. The fact is, we never overlook the truth that "Nature in the Raw is Seldom Mild"—so these fine tobaccos, after proper aging and mellowing, are then given the benefit of that Lucky Strike purifying process, described by the words—"It's toasted". That's why folks in every city, town and hamlet say that Luckies are such mild cigarettes.
